

SUB RAISES ITS UGLY HEAD S.U.B. QUESTION RAISED... S.R.C. RAZZED

On Wednesday night of February 26, a rare phenomenon took place at the Student's Centre. Four Men, Nelson Adams, Peter Dunphy, David Besner and Geof. Kennedy, cared enough about something on the campus to try to do something about it.

In their own words, "Since it has not been established that the majority of students want a Student Union Building; and since no definite plans have yet been drawn up for the proposed building; and since the levy was voted in without properly informing the student body or opportunity given for the student body to discuss the issue; we petition the SRC under Article 10, sections 7 and 8 of the Constitution to submit to a referendum the motion, to wit: 'that an SRC levy of $10.00 per year per student be affixed subject to the approval of the Senate.'"

In other words, these people, and the people who have signed the petition do not like the way that the SRC "pushed this thing through."

"We are not against the Student's Union Building; in fact we even intend to vote for it if it gets put to a referendum. The fact of the matter is, we don't like the idea that we have heard practically nothing concerning the whole issue, other than the fact that we are going to have to pay $10.00 per year per student for it."

In an interview, Nelson

Adams said, "I went to the last SRC meeting and told them that I didn't like the way that this issue was being put forward, but there was no reaction, either one way or the other. So I decided that it should be put to a vote.

Most of the students who were going up and down the steps of the Student's Centre seemed to think that the whole thing was a rather dubious joke: but some weren't too sure, and looked into the matter. A few more even went so far as to sign, and become the object of derision from their friends.

At the time of writing, though, more people seem to be taking this thing more seriously: they have, to date, collected more than three hundred signatures, not counting the residence petitions.

Maybe if a few more people care, like these people do, more things will get done: and we can stop toadying around to the administration.

GATEWAY SUPPRESSED

EDMONTON - Suppressed, released, indicted, acquitted; it was a rough weekend for The Gateway.

Friday afternoon, 7,000 copies of a special Varsity Guest Weekend Edition were seized by officials acting under the orders of Students Union President, Wes Cragg, who considered the issue "extremely bad taste".

Forty-five minutes later the papers which had been carried from The Gateway offices where they waited distribution, were unlocked and handed back over to the editors. No explanation was given.

Several members of the Students Union Executive were apparently angered by a front page editorial which attacked rising educational costs, and the Provincial Government education policies.

DRAMA SETS GET BOOTED FROM MEM HALL

The Drama Society was forced to move its entire set off the Mem Hall stage last week in the middle of their production run of "Inherit the Wind". An Administration foul-up is blamed for the trouble.

The stage had been booked for weeks, when, on Tuesday, The Society was told to move everything off the stage. The reason given for the order was Founder's Day. "The stage was looking shabby, and needed a paint job."

The Society had "Inherit the Wind" scheduled for Wednesday the 26th, but the painting caused the cancellation of that performance and a great deal of hard labour, as well as enormous inconvenience, to the Society and to the theatre going public. Tickets had been sold, and then had to be refunded.

After Founder's Day celebrations, the Society staged three more performances of "Inherit the Wind"; one Friday night, a matinee on Saturday, and a final showing on Saturday night. The Saturday matinee performance, considered to be the best run, was the poorest attended. - 29 people formed the entire audience.

Amazing things were happening around campus just before Founder's Day, the arrival of the alumni, and the Senate. For instance, did anyone notice that the walks were suddenly, and miraculously salted and cleared? Furthermore, did anyone realize that the grounds underwent a sudden cleaning-up process?

Why is it that we must wait for Founder's Day before it is safe to walk past the Forestry Building to the Library, and not have to worry about breaking your neck? Furthermore, why are the Alumni more important than the Students; can it be that they have more money? Surely not.

AAA ELECTION RESULTS

With a substantial majority of 211 votes over his competitor, John Wheelock, track and field star Chris Williamson was swept into the position of President of the Amateur Athletic Association in an election held Wednesday, February 26. Williamson received 515 votes to Wheelock's 304. Also elected was Janet Hepburn, as Vice-President, with 474 votes while her opponent Pat Martin collected 305.

The second vice-president is Steve Wace and the Secretary is Sandy Phinney both of whom were elected by acclamation.

Approximately 800 students voted in the election. The AAA elections were held separate from the SRC Elections this year because the AAA has become entirely separate from the SRC, and no longer must bring decisions to the Student Council to be ratified. Also the President of the AAA will no longer sit on the SRC, nor will an SRC member sit on the AAA. It is hoped that through this new set-up more interest in athletics and the athletic program will be aroused.

FOUNDER'S DAY 'A GAS'

Founder's day celebrations were highlighted by a panel discussion entitled 'American Influence and the Crisis in Canadian Culture', at which it was observed that the crisis in Canadian culture had nothing to do with the American influence or the Founder's Day ceremony in Memorial Hall.

Dr. Colin B. Mackay, president of UNB paid the traditional Quit Rent to the Lieutenant-Governor, and Dr. Clifford K. Shipton, director of the American Antiquarian Society, spoke on 'Harvard Loyalists in New Brunswick'. Other events of the day included a visit to Loring Bailey Hall by the members of the Legislative Assembly, a buffet supper in McConnell Hall, and special exhibitions in the Art Centre and in the Bonar Law-Bennett Library.

The afternoon discussion began with an attempt to blame the United States with the low cultural level in the remote parts of Canada, the Maritimes for example. The blame was handed around to other groups and individuals, from Sir John A. MacDonald to the CBC. At great length it was resolved that the situation is really nobody's fault, and if we want to watch the Danny Kaye Show, we can go to Ontario.

The Government was accused of trying to appease the French, and was accused of ignoring many other ethnic groups in Canada. It was, again at great length, decided that if the 'other' groups didn't like it, they could all 'go back'.

In general, the debate was a rehash of things we don't bother to read about any more," remarked one tired observer.

Dr. Shipton's speech, on the other hand, proved to be a very interesting description of colonial life, and of the nearness-yet-rivalry of the Loyalists and Revolutionaries in eighteenth century New England. The many humorous anecdotes, and the remarks on the difficulties of Dr. Payne endured in his residence in the Maritimes portrayed a life that many of us could well afford to imitate.

TRIMESTER SYSTEM FIRST ADOPTED IN CANADA

VANCOUVER (Special to CUP) — The trimester system will make its first appearance in Canada with the opening in 1965 of Simon Fraser University.

Under the system, there will be three equivalent terms during the academic year. Full-time students will be expected to attend for any two terms during the year.

Students may attend for all three trimesters.

The system, which has been proposed or adopted in more than 35 United States universities, was strongly recommended in a recent report by the Canadian Universities Foundation.

The report found that the trimester scheme would make the most effective use of university facilities while maintaining an adequate level of service to students and providing adequate research facilities for members of the faculty.

The report concluded that only if the scheme were adopted would Canadian universities be able to cope with the increased enrolment foreseen in the next decade.

CANADA COUNCIL GRANTS

OTTAWA (CUP) — University construction grants totalling $6,951,780 were announced today by The Canada Council.

Thirteen grants totalling $1,567,524, are additional grants for projects already assisted by The Canada Council.

These sums bring to $15,037,211 the grants approved by the Council during its 1963-64 fiscal year for university construction from the Council's University Capital Grants Fund.

The fund provided for grants of up to 50 per cent of the cost of eligible buildings in the arts, humanities, and social sciences. The UCGF was one of two $50,000,000 funds established when the Council was set up in 1957. The other fund is the Endowment Fund, from which only the income is spent.

So far, 79 Canadian universities and colleges have drawn UCGF grants, for a large variety of building projects within the scope of the programme. The 79 institutions include 12 affiliated colleges to which parent universities granted part of their allotment.

STUDENTS HELD IN ALBANY JAIL

ALBANY, GEORGIA (CUP) — Mary Suzuki, from Sir George Williams University, Montreal, vowed to continue her fast in the Albany jail where she has been since her arrest on January 27 during a Quebec-to-Cuba protest march.

The Carleton spoke to Albany Assistant Chief of Police, Leslie Summerford, who said the hunger strike was a "lot of bull". "They tell a lot of lies about what they do and what they are doing," he said bluntly. "They've been eating all along."

Michael Newman of Vancouver, with the co-ed, was fined $102 or 30 days in jail on February 4th. Miss Suzuki has not come to trial.

They were charged along with several others which "fail to obey the lawful command of an officer."

In Montreal last weekend students marched in protest over the arrests in front of the United States Consulate.

And in London, England, members of Britain's Committee of 100 demonstrated outside the U. S. Embassy protesting the arrest of one of their members in Albany. They charged that John Papworth was assaulted twice.

Albany police denied that Papworth had been assaulted. The spokesman said Papworth was arrested for failing "to obey an officer, idling and loitering" and was taken into custody after twice ignoring requests to leave the police station where some of his companions were being held.

ALUMNUS DONATES PUB

MONTREAL (CUP) — J. P. Pilon wanted to maintain contact with students at MacDonald College in Montreal. So, he opened a pub for them.

The pub built at a cost of $50,000, opened last week with a party for the college students. Pilon once worked in the horticulture department of the college.

The bar is equipped to handle 16 barrels and 24,000 bottles of beer daily.

WUSC is one of the 57 members of the world wide World University Service, which from its headquarters in Geneva, seeks, through contributions from university communities to aid university students and universities in underdeveloped countries. During 1963-64, some of the projects WUSC has been working on were: assisting University College in Basutoland, to make possible the completion of a library, the establishment of a dispensary and the granting of scholarships to refugees from South Africa; expanding language laboratories in Hong Kong; building student wards in government hospitals in India; supporting publishing foundations in Indonesia to help relieve the great textbook shortage there; increasing the WUS Student Library in Korea; improving the primitive hostels and classrooms at the University of Nicaragua; aiding African students in South Africa under the SACHED plan; and expanding the tuberculosis screening and treatment program among students in Thailand.

These are just a few of the things that your Slave Auction dollars will be supporting. So don't forget to be there: Friday, at 7:30 in Lady Dunn Hall.

L.B.R. Students Are 'Living Graciously'

Last Monday, February 24, the students of the Lady Beaverbrook Residence got the shock of their lives: they were informed by an anonymous notice on the bulletin board that they could not have the television turned on during the hours of dinner and supper. The reason? "It's not conducive to gracious living."

This horrible catastrophe meant the loss of such prime programs like 'Huckleberry Hound', and 'Bugs Bunny'. It was too much to face. Enraged, the students called a house committee meeting, and then a house meeting, at which proposals were put forward, and hurt feelings were salved, but the television remained off.

Finally, one bright light came up with the solution, the result of which may be seen in the above picture. The students are living graciously, and watching Bugs Bunny all at the same time, all 'due to the virtues of someone's 50-foot extension cord. Isn't science wonderful?

Unfortunately, the outside television viewing will probably produce great rumblings from on high, and, therefore, will likely cease in the near future.

EXAMINING INTEREST-FREE STUDENT LOANS

CUS is carefully examining the proposals for interest-free loans to students mentioned in the speech from the throne.

Mr. Jenkins said that CUS was grateful for the interest shown in student welfare. He stressed that consideration of the matter should not be postponed. "We want action," he said.

"Consultation with the provinces should begin immediately so that final agreement can be arrived at during the Dominion-Provincial conference March 31."

This was necessary, said the CUS President, because "we do not want the federal government interfering in affairs which are strictly provincial responsibilities under the BNA Act."

Mr. Jenkins stated "we will do anything to improve student welfare and will work for any student loans which do not cross the boundaries of provincial rights."

U. of M. Editor Fired For Editorial

MONTREAL (CUP) - Le Quartier Latin, the undergraduate newspaper of the University of Montreal, continues to be put out by an "équipe intérimaire" of staffers who resigned last week in protest over a Council "vote de blame".

The équipe has signified its intention of leaving the paper after Thursday's issue.

The executive of AGEUM (Association Générale des Etudiants de l'Université de Montréal) has denied reports that students are "not too happy" about the resignations.

"AGEUM is essentially a democratic body," Secretary Louis Coté said, "composed of representatives of all faculties".

Coté expressed regret about the resignations, but said that AGEUM had the duty to disapprove of the editorial criticizing U of M Rector Monseigneur Irénée Lussier for alleged conflict of duties in regard to a test-book monopoly, for its "clearly unacceptable tone".

A University committee came to the conclusion that the editorial was "injurious and seriously damaging to the reputation of the Rector and thus prejudicial to the University".

I saw the offence as serious enough to warrant expulsion of Director Guy Bertrand and editorialist Emmanuel Garon.

The Committee recommended that AGEUM set up its own system of self-discipline and that Bertrand and Garon be delivered "severe reprimands" for their action.

STUDENT UNION BUILDING IS WORTH WHILE

While it seems that most of the student body has never found the time to ever make it to a meeting of their council, the events of last week seem to prove that the actions of the SRC occasionally interest those not sitting on the council.

The passing of a ten dollar levy to be used to partially finance a student union building has raised campus spirit to the point of action. This whole effort involved the gathering of signatures supporting a move to have the proposed levy put to a student vote. Since the required number of signatures have been obtained, a referendum will be held.

The Brunswickan supports this proposal for additional student facilities. The need for more space for student activities should be quite obvious. Mem Hall will eventually be changed over to an arts center meaning that Radio UNB will have to move. In time the "H" huts will go, leaving Winter Carnival and Red 'n Black without space. This trend is sure to continue. With St. Thomas and Teachers' College coming this space problem will be aggravated. Plans have been made to approach both of these bodies to explain that their financial assistance is required. It would be unfair for UNB students to have to bear the cost of this building alone. No one on this campus would be pleased with, what amounts to, granting a subsidy to the two colleges.

A levy of some amount is the only way to start this campaign. (Ten dollars might be a little high). Some of us will never be able to use these new facilities, yet the sacrifice has to be made, considering that the administration has made no plans for such an undertaking.

The whole problem has been left up to the students. As space becomes more and more at a premium, some student activities might have to be curtailed. It might be added here that the "Brunswickan" is an exception to the rule in that the paper requires no more room.

The issue here is not just a brick and mortar proposition. There is also a principle involved - that of providing a common meeting place for all students where every individual will have a chance to take part in some form of organized activity or simply to relax in comfortable surroundings. Not even the most bigoted of individuals can deny that this is a worthwhile objective.

HINTED MENS RESIDENCE BOOST

Word has once again leaked out that a purported raise in residence fees looms on the horizon. The dweller of the men's residences await the announcement with baited breath. The question which arises is whether such a raise is justified. If one takes into account the consideration of quality then possibly the residents will not challenge the raise if it results in an improvement. But if this improvement does not materialize, then this raise would appear to constitute an injustice. When it is considered that the cost of outliving is in the neighbourhood of $450, then it might be expected that the residents could conceivably expect an elevation of fringe benefits for the extra $250. It cannot be disputed that the residents receive some fringe benefits that their counterparts downtown are denied, but this is as it should be since there is an anomalous difference in their respective expenses. It is to be hoped that such improvement with particular regard for the culinary aspect of residence life will be foreseeable with the raise in fees.

ST. THOMAS TO THE RIGHT, T.C. TO THE LEFT INTO THE STUD CENTER POURED THE 4000 BUT PAY 10 DOLLARS FOR A NEW STUDENT UNION — NEVER!

Letters To The Editor

S. U. B. CONTROVERSY

Sir: So they did it . . . Raised the SRC fees to $30, the government of the students, the people who will look after our interests. This was only an election promise since, once elected, they are dictators.

The rumoured increases in tuition and residence fees is enough of a strain to the pocket book without an unwarranted increase in the SRC fees. Never was there a single word in the Brunswickan, nor the opinion of the students asked. Perhaps the SRC's motto is, "For an efficient government, keep the students in the dark until the motion has passed."

David Jomini
A single word never appeared in the Brunswickan, Mr. Jomini, because the Building Committee wanted to have a chance to gather all the facts before presenting the whole issue to the council. If you recall last year and the abortive efforts of the Building Committee you can understand this approach.

A recent survey taken of job application forms shows that students are born liars when asked how much of their college education they actually do finance.—Ed.

Sir:

First let it be clear that I agree to the need for a Student Union Building. But the SRC has gone off half cocked on the method of getting it and in particular financing it.

The reason for such a building is not to keep up with the other universities in Canada, but to give much needed space to those student activities that at present don't have it.

The levy of $10.00 per student seems to me to be very high - half of this would be more than adequate. The hand out distributed since the SRC meeting shows that there will be 4000 students on campus this fall. (I presume that the students of St. Thomas and Teachers' College agree to become part of this program and that room for their organizations will be provided.) And ten years from now double this. Are students ten years from now going to pay a $10.00 levy? If so there will be enough money to build a building for each organization. At $10.00 per student over ten years $850,000 will be collected. This amount added to the Federal Government Grants will total well over $1,000,000.

Why not let those students who will use the building over the next 20 or 30 or even 50 years help pay for it.

A few years ago there were plans made for a much larger building which would include a swimming pool, auditorium, bowling alleys, plus the offices needed for the various organizations. This was to be financed by a very imaginative energetic method, but it only included a $2 or $3 levy on students.

C. M. Waaddell
Your point is well taken. Perhaps the SRC's best move is to wait until an expert in this type of building is consulted. (There is such a thing). With this additional information, the students could vote on this proposal in a more objective fashion.

Last year's committee could never have built the building on a two dollar levy . . . this was nothing more than wishful thinking.—Ed.

Sir:

We, the members of the UNB Red Devils would like to express our great appreciation to those students who made the trip to Mount "A" and supported us in such an enthusiastic manner. Certainly in spirit and numbers you set an example which no other college could follow. When we stepped onto the ice it was almost as though we were in our own rink, and your presence was certainly a factor in the ensuing victory. Also to all those who so faithfully supported us at home and on Radio UNB (who did an outstanding job) we extend our most heartfelt thanks.

At the Canadian finals, we shall do our best to represent UNB and justify the great support shown us. Knowing the spirit of the UNB student body it wouldn't surprise us to see a few red jackets in Kingston.

Sincerely,
Red Devils

GENERAL BLUNDERS

Sir: What do you have to do in order to get material published in the Brunswickan? Perhaps you must write a column for the Toronto Daily Star, or give a performance of Mozart's Sonata in B flat major for violin and piano. Maybe making up make out jokes, or playing broomball for Blue House is an answer. Whatever the reason is, it was impossible to obtain it from the past editor of this "Canada's Oldest Official Student Publication."

On February 13th, two articles were submitted to the Brunswickan for publication in the February 19th issue. One of these articles was concerned with the results of an Intercollegiate Woodsmen's competition held at MacDonald College. The second article was an advertisement written in text form, regarding a highly enjoyable spring function - the forester's "Monte Carlo". Neither of these articles appeared in the Brunswickan.

The forestry association has always been quick to answer all requests for assistance and expects nothing more in return.

May I, at this time, extend my sincere thanks to Ross MacLeod and the other members of Radio UNB for their co-operation with the Monte Carlo Committee and the job well done.

SENIOR STUDENTS RECEIVE RECOGNITION

Every year Senior students who have contributed to varsity extra-curricular activities are awarded activity awards on the basis of a point system. Each organization on Campus and its officers are rated according to the work required to perform its activities and points are awarded accordingly. The actual awards are a gold ring for first class, a silver ring or pin for second class, a gold pin for third class and a silver pin for fourth class. The winners of these awards were announced at the SRC meeting

These awards will be presented at the Senior Class Banquet during Graduation Week.

Ed Haggerty and Dick McCormack won the Alpine Cup in their Volvo P.V. 544, on March first. The Rally covered 260 miles of skill testing manoeuvres. Due to the two previous cancellations of the rally the turnout was not as great as previous years, however, each participant enjoyed the event.

A Peugeot 404 came in second with Don Hodgson as driver and Pete Schuddeboom as navigator, in third spot, in a Sunbeam Rapier, was C. A. Short and D. G. Scott.

Don't forget the Players 200 (1963) movie at this week's meeting - Thursday, 7:30, in the Oak Room at the Student Centre.

IMPORTANT!!

Notice to all clubs, societies, and other organizations on campus.

According to the SRC Constitution, all Campus organizations must hold their elections of officers before March 15.

A list of the new executives must be sent to the Executive Secretary of the SRC before the above date.

Newman Technology

"Technology and Man" was the subject of a very successful panel discussion sponsored by the U.N.B. Newman Club recently. The panel was composed of Dr. Rosenberg, head of the Mathematics Department, Dr. Stewart, of the Chemical Engineering Department, Dr. Young, of the History and Anthropology Department, Mr. R. Ellison and Mr. D. Walford, both Chemical Engineering students. The panel was chaired by Mr. L. Benjamin.

The panel started by first trying to define "technology" from various view points and then proceeded to give brief comments on its history and development. The distinguished members of the panel closed off the discussion by presenting their views on what technology has accomplished for mankind up to date and what their hopes and fears were for the more technological future.

Noteworthy points brought out in the discussion were, the inability of the panel to pin down the exact definition of "technology" and their hesitation to define the word progress, which entered the discussion at several times. It was also felt by several of the panelists that technology had not solved any of man's essential problems which are generally of the mind and spirit.

The comments by the individuals on the panel were found by all who attended, to be stimulating and thought provoking. The panelists were warmly thanked by Mr. G. Hayes.

lieve they do. Certainly such a supplement to our already excellent athletic department would do no harm, especially considering the high standard of athletics maintained at those two institutions.

But do these two groups of students want to join with us? We heard the Saint Thomas crowd chanting "2, 4, 6, 8, We don't want to integrate," at the hockey game, but the feeling was one of friendly rivalry rather than of dislike. T.C. certainly cannot have much to lose in such an integration project.

So far no suggestions have been heard from the student body. Time is short, if the presence of STU and TC will be a fact in September, as we were told by Dr. MacKay last week.

When you consider this problem, you must take note of one very important fact: our present SRC representation system is a proportional one. If TC is brought in, we will have to give them about 7 seats, and St. Thomas 3 more. This could radically affect the influence of UNB students in their own affairs, obviously, but democratically there is little choice. But there is little effort required to visualize what might happen with thousands of freshmen and sophomores in control of the Campus.

LeBLANC CHASTISED

Sir: We wish to protest the conduct of Mr. LeBlanc in the recent Drama Society fiasco. Quoting from Mr. LeBlanc's article in the Brunswickan, "The students have vested a responsibility in me by electing me president of the SRC to see that student affairs are carried out as efficiently as possible. Most important of these responsibilities is to see that student money is spent in a proper fashion." In the recent past Mr. LeBlanc has been directly responsible for the loss of approximately $757.00 of the SRC funds. This was entirely a result of Mr. LeBlanc's negligence and irresponsibility. An event of this magnitude surely warranted the resignation of the person responsible for this loss.

Now Mr. LeBlanc and his henchmen have the gall to charge a well managed, business-like organization of misappropriation of funds. Hal Giles and Tom Lawson are alleged to have accepted kickbacks on behalf of the Drama Society. In the minds of the writers' discounts obtained in this fashion in no way constitute kickbacks. Further these discounts were on behalf of the students and the actions of these two individuals should be commended.

It is hoped that more responsible government will be displayed by the incoming SRC executive.

T.D. Irwin (For. '64)
A.W. Lockhart (Sci. '61)
M.S. Howie (Law '64)

The SRC constitution implicitly states that the Sophomore class executive is responsible for all monies used in connection with Freshman Week. Considering this is when the theft occurred, Mr. LeBlanc can't be held responsible.

Both groups involved in this little melodramatic Drama Society caper performed poorly and could have been a little more diplomatic during the crisis, which later turned out to be a bit of a bust.—Ed.

ST. THOMAS HERE

Sir:

One of the crucial problems of the coming year will be the one regarding the inclusion or exclusion of Saint Thomas University and Teachers' College in the program of extra-curricular activities of the University of New Brunswick. A committee to study this has been set up by the SRC, but I feel that some additional publicity is forthcoming. Do the students of UNB want complete integration in extra-curricular activities (including sports)? I be-

ROYAL BANK

Column III

"THE MOUSE THAT BURPED"

Once there was a tiny little kingdom somewhere in the anonymity of Central Europe. The government of that minute nation was nominally democratic, but this was more in form than in substance. You see, the King was a very big King with a loud voice, and he couldn't seem to forget that he had a divine right to rule absolutely. The King had two chariots . . . a big black one that was drawn by many horses, and a much smaller blue one that was drawn by so few horses that they could hardly pull a dictaphone. Whenever the King drove around in one of these magnificent carriages, people bowed and scraped . . . the mud off their trousers.

Under the King (in more ways than one) was the body which governed the citizens . . . the Sub Royal Council. The members were elected to represent the citizens. However, once elected, they all assumed exalted roles as detectives, architects, auditors and judges. They raised the taxes . . . frequently . . . and they had long and important meetings. It wasn't very often that the King himself came to the meetings, but a few members of the Sub Royal Council were always ready to tell the rest just what the wishes of the King were . . . and these matters were always carried unanimously.

One year the leader of the Council was The White Prince . . . a leader of French origin. Early in his term of office, somebody stole the Crown jewels out of his hip pocket while he was leaning over polishing shoes, but the Council . . . always ready to protect one of their own . . . bought new ones. The White Prince was understandably annoyed, and he suspected everybody of similar foul deeds. So he searched and he searched . . . and eventually found that the Society of Court Jesters were buying too many strings for their lyres. After seizing all of the Society's instruments in the middle of the night (Sneaky Prince, that) and counting the strings . . . the Sub Royal Council held an all night meeting to punish the Jesters. They all voted gleefully to take away . . . permanently . . . the tambourines of the Chief Jester and the Chief Stringer.

But the crowning (so to speak) achievement of the Sub Royal Council concerned another royal building for the big "M" (monarch). Although there were many palaces in the Kingdom which had been built by the Marshall Plan, the Council decided that they had to have one built by the citizens themselves, no matter how poor they were or how much it cost. So they had a meeting late one night and voted to raise taxes by 50% . . . hoping that nobody would notice or care. One citizen objected . . . saying that the citizens should have been consulted. The White Prince replied that the King had been consulted and that was all that mattered.

BREAD, LOVE, AND DREAMS

ROBERT KERR

"Bread, Love, and Dreams" was a charming Italian comedy. It showed quite another side of Italy from "La Dolce Vita" set of the latest flood of films from that country. A light selection from the manners and morals of a small town, it could really have been a small town anywhere. Only the material things were lacking from the "everybody knows everybody else" and "no place for scandal" atmosphere of Small Town, Canada. This atmosphere was especially well brought out by the coterie of the man with the telescope. They miss nothing, and jump to conclusions on everything — that's the way the gossip starts. Gossip develops in other settings too, but nowhere else is its anatomy so clear.

Vittorio De Sica, who supervised the cast as well as played the leading role, was competent, but not outstanding, in his own role. The skill with which the rest of the performances were moulded together indicated the wisdom of his present career in directing.

Gina Lollobrigida turned in a delightful performance as the lively concubine who isn't. It is a relief to see her in a role such as this after her move of late in American movies to roles which pretend to be urbane, but are mostly just trash.

"Bread, Love, and Dreams" may have its faults, but it doesn't pretend to be what it isn't. Above all, it is entertainment.

PREVIEW: A special program of the Film Society this Sunday features "Five Day Lover", a French film starring Jean Pierre Cassel and Jean Seberg.

THIS WEEKEND DOWNTOWN: "4 For Texas" tries to be another of the entertaining "Clan" pictures, but it fails miserably. Dean Martin and Frank Sinatra do their best to liven up this hour and three-quarters, but with no support from the writer, they don't have a chance. The plot? Good guys fall out over money, find out bad guys taking them both for a ride, make up and live happily ever after. Sound familiar? Well, they say there's very little under the sun that's new. As far as "4 For Texas" goes, there's very little under the sun, period.

One palace wag suggested that the easy compromise to the problem would be to erect a statue of the King and White Prince instead of the building . . . because it was a much cheaper method of erecting a memorial. So then it became a question whether the citizens would have a Royal Memorial . . . or a Royal Blunder.

DEVILS TO KINGSTON

The UNB Red Devils did the impossible this past weekend by clinching the Maritime Intercollegiate Hockey Championship by whipping the St. Dunstan's Saints 6-3 on Friday night and then going to Sackville to whitewash the Mounties 6-0. Most people felt that at the beginning of the year, the Devils were in the process of rebuilding due to the loss of a number of excellent players. The Devils responded to this pessimism by bringing home the Championship. Now that they have established their superiority in the Maritimes, they will travel to Kingston to contest the National Intercollegiate Championship. It is with much pride that this university sends them for everyone on this campus admires their spirit, drive and fortitude. They will carry the UNB banner with the well-wishes of every student on at UNB.

THRIVE ON PRESSURE

Going into this weekend the Devils had to win their remaining two games to take the title. This had to be accomplished in two of the toughest rinks in the league. On the Island they won their first 'must' game by defeating the St. Dunstan's team in a fine hockey effort. Their backs were to the wall in this game because if they lost it the Saints virtually had the Championship wrapped up. The Devils responded to the pressure and stopped the Saints big guns to create a tie for first place. Both teams had 2 points. The Devils went into Sackville with their backs still to the wall since they had to beat the Mounties to maintain the tie. If this tie in the standings could be maintained, as it happened that it was, then the Devils would take the Championship by virtue of their two wins over St. Dunstan's. When the Devils stepped out on the ice on Saturday night, they were greeted by a mob of screaming UNB students . . . so many in fact that several educated guesses estimated that the UNB students outnumbered those from Mount Allison. The players commented after the game that the crowd support was so intense that they felt as though they were playing at home. It gave the team a great lift. They scored early in the game and never looked back as they went on to drub the Mounties 6-0. This game clinched the Championship for the Devils.

ST. DUNSTAN'S CRIES

Following the St. Dunstan's defeat of the St. Thomas Tommies Saturday afternoon they informed the press and radio that should UNB win their game and the right to represent the league in Kingston, they would file an official protest with the league Secretariate. They felt that since they had tied for first place they were entitled to challenge the Devils to a playoff. They were fully aware at the time that the official ruling of the league at their annual meeting last spring emphatically stated that the team which won the league would be declared the champion. In case of a tie, if one of those teams took two games from the other then they would be declared the champion with no privilege to challenge by the defeated team. St. Dunstan's claimed that they could defeat the Devils if given another opportunity but this did not appear to be the case in league play. Their protest was sour grapes and displayed great lack of sportsmanship. The Saints had an opportunity equal to that of the rest of the league but they were inept in their attempts. This sort of a display does not speak too well for their coach and the parochial school which they represent. We can only say that we would be glad to have them try again next year. The hierarchy of the league met Sunday night to review the protest and they found it to favor the UNB Red Devils. So justice is done . . . the team that won the league will represent the league at Kingston.

PUBLIC IMAGE

Now that it has been established that this fine group of athletes will be representing our university at Kingston it might be a good idea to consider the dress of the team. Of course, it is absurd to suggest how they should dress for they will on their own accord assure that they represent us proudly but what could the school do to help them. After seeing the Acadia basketball team with their blazers it would appear that this establishes or at least helps to establish a public image of the team. Oddly enough, what people in other parts of Canada judge our team to be, so will they judge the university. What an opportunity to exploit the psychology of public relations. Perhaps this request will be overheard by the Administration. It certainly is a golden opportunity for them in light of their financial campaign. How about it, men of the Senate?

WHAT CHANCE FOR A TRAIN?

In light of the effect of the support at Mt. A. upon the team, it would seem advantageous to provide an opportunity for the students to travel to Kingston to cheer the Devils on. Possibly those in the know could consider this possibility; it would be a great boost for the team in a foreign land. Certainly enough students would be willing to make the trip and support the Devils.

National Championships March 13-14

(CIAN) Plans for the National Championships in Basketball and Hockey are being completed to make these events the best ever staged by the Canadian Intercollegiate Athletic Union. In Hockey, you will recall that the first National Intercollegiate Hockey Championship was won last year by McMaster Marlins at Kingston. In order to benefit from experience gained in conducting the first Play-Offs, it has been decided that Queen's University and the Royal Military College would again co-host this event. Plans call for four teams, winners of the WCIAA, OQAA, OSLAA and MIAA to travel to Kingston. The OIAA are not eligible for this year's Play-Offs. Two games on Friday evening, March 13, will decide the top two and bottom two teams. A game on Saturday morning between the bottom two teams will decide third and fourth place. The final game will be played Saturday afternoon, March 14. Saturday evening, all teams will attend a banquet in their honour at which the UNIVERSITY CUP, emblematic of National Intercollegiate Hockey Champions will be presented. All games will be played in the Kingston Memorial Centre. The second annual CIAU Basketball Championships will be held at the University of Windsor on Friday and Saturday, March 13 and 14. This tournament will bring together the 4 top teams from among the 44 universities participating in the four university associations in Canada - the Western League, Maritimes League, the Ottawa-St. Lawrence League, and the Ontario-Quebec League. The Ontario Intercollegiate Athletic Association is not eligible. This season, the first national Championship was captured by Assumption University of Windsor in a thrilling 53-51 victory over Acadia University of Wolfville, Nova Scotia. These two National Championships will feature the best College talent in the nation. Plan to attend one of these exciting Play-Offs.

DEVILS TROUNCE ST. DUNSTAN'S AND MT. ALLISON

DEVILS WIN TRIP TO KINGSTON

CLINCH MIHL CHAMPIONSHIP

Saints Weep To League

This past weekend saw the UNB Red Devils clinch the MIAU hockey championship with two convincing wins, 6-3 over St. Dunstan and 6-0 over Mt. "A". Although St. Dunstan's and UNB were tied for first place as far as points go, the Devils claim first place by virtue of their goals for and against spread with St. Dunstan's. This means that SDU is in second place and can not challenge UNB since they did not defeat UNB during regular season play.

The Red Devils and their coach Pete Kelly certainly deserve congratulations for winning the hockey title. They played hard and gave their all for every game and were rewarded by winning the championship.

On Friday night the Devils, lead by Daryl LeBlanc defeated the highly rated St. Dunstan's Saints, 6-3. LeBlanc had three goals for the hat trick and Dave Peterson was close with two goals. Ken Marchant got the other UNB goal.

The game was wide open and fast moving with heavy hitting on both sides. The UNB defense played a heads-up hockey game stopping many SDU rushes before they could get organized and also played well around their own net. The forward lines were passing and skating well and did an excellent job of back-checking. It was a well deserved and well earned victory.

On Saturday night in their final game of league play, the Devils defeated the hopeless Mount A hockey team 6-0. This was John Wrigley's first shut-out in what has been a brilliant first year for him. This game was attended by more UNB students than Mount A students.

The Devils had the edge in play for the larger portion of the game. They out-skated the Mount A team all night. LeBlanc opened the scoring by banging in a loose puck after a nice rush by Drover and a shot by Peterson. In the second period, Peterson opened the scoring after taking a pass from Grant. Later, Naylor scored on a beautiful play having taken a pass from Drover.

In the third period Peterson got his second goal, dropping a rebound after shots by LeBlanc and Grant. Late in the period Grant scored an unassisted goal in a goal-mouth scramble. Eleven seconds later Stairs banged in a rebound after a nice play by Embury and the shot by Ross

LETTER TO SPORT ED.

On behalf of the coaches, players and the managers of the UNB Red Devils Varsity Hockey Team, I express our sincere appreciation for your support shown through your presence at games, either at home or on the road, your telegrams and Radio UNB.

It has been a long season and when we look back to those first practices, we had a hard road ahead to plough. It was the impression of many that this was a rebuilding year for the Red Devils, especially after our pre-season games with Boston and Colby.

Now that we have ploughed this field and have won the Maritime Championship, we are now busy preparing ourselves for the Canadian Intercollegiate championships at Kingston March 13-14.

It is with pride that we are the second team to carry the UNB colours into national competition this year. The Harriers took part in the National Cross-country Championships last fall.

Again, our sincere thanks for your wonderful support ... See you in Kingston.

Ken Marchant, Captain
UNB Red Devils

BEAVERS WIN MARITIME OPEN

Maritime Open Swimming Championships

This year the Maritime Open Swimming Championship was held at Sackville in Mount Allison's Eddy Pool. UNB placed two teams in the meet, the A team having most of the strength. The final results were:

	PTS.
1 UNB 'A'	143½
2 Halifax YMCA	83
3 Acadia U.	48
4 Fredericton YMCA	31
5 Mt. Allison U.	26
6 UNB 'B'	25
7 Camp Gagetown	22
8 Stadacona
Shearwater	19
9 Memorial U.	16½
10 St. John YMCA	0

The heats for the meet began at 9:30 a.m. Saturday morning. Most of the times in the heats were poor, with the swimmers just pacing themselves to place in the top six times.

The finals began in the afternoon with UNB's A team of Stroud, McDonald, Sawyer and Thom setting a provincial record in the 400 Meter Medley Relay in a time of 5:00.5. Galanti of UNB A team picked up a 3rd in the 50 metre freestyle with Halifax YMCA getting both first and second in that event.

One of the best races of the day saw McDonald and Pentland of UNB A team and Van Wagoner of B team placing 2nd, 3rd and 6th respectively pushing the Stadacona swimmer to a provincial record. Sawyer, the captain of the Beavers, picked up 2 first places in the 100 and 200 metre butterfly, actually tying his own personal record in the 100 metre butterfly. Robb of UNB A team came on to beat two highly regarded Halifax swimmers in the 100 metre freestyle.

In 1 Metre Diving, Hutchins of UNB A team won with 569.4 points beating out the two Army divers. Rowell placed 4th, while team B divers Filmore and Totten placed 6th and 7th. UNB's B. Moshe and Stroud came 2nd and 3rd respectively in the 400 metre freestyle pushing Aitken of Halifax Y to a provincial record. Thom of UNB A won first place in the 200 metre backstroke in a time of 2:46.7. S. Mosher placed second in a time of 3:00.6. Again in a close race the trio of McDonald, Pentland and Van Wagoner came 2nd, 3rd and 5th respectively in the 200 metre breaststroke.

The 3 metre diving was won by Hutchins of UNB with the two Army divers placing 2nd and 3rd.

In the 400 metre Individual Medley, Thom picked up

MERMAIDS RETAIN OPEN TITLE

The UNB Mermaids put on a superb team effort last week to retain their New Brunswick Open Swimming and Diving Championship at the annual meet which was this year held in Saint John. Handicapped by an insufficient number of swimmers, the Mermaids amassed 64 points, just outscoring the Saint John Y.M.C.A. Dolphinettes who picked up 61. The Fredericton Y. came third with 42.

Jody MacLeod, Marg Cameron, Liz Gurholt and Janet Skelton, with a time of 3:13.6, had to settle for second place in the 240-yard medley relay behind Saint John, who finished in 3:07.2. UNB had no entry in the 60-yard backstroke which went to Saint John's Kathy Steiner in 45.2. Janet Eastwood and Marg Cameron finished second and third respectively in the 60-yard breaststroke with time of 50.6 and 51.1; the winner in 49.8 was Saint John's Nancy Likely. Janet Skelton placed first in the 60-yard freestyle in 39.6, while teammate Heather Spence finished third in 42.6. Liz Gurholt picked up a second place in the 60-yard butterfly in 53.4.

The 1 metre diving was won by UNB's only entrant, Elaine MacEwan. The Mermaids had only one competitor, Jody MacLeod, in the 100-yard backstroke; she finished fourth in 1:30.9, while first was captured by Saint John's Sandra Mosher in 1:23.3. UNB picked up first and third places in the 100-yard breaststroke as Marg Cameron and Janet Eastwood finished with times of 1:30.6 and 1:33.8 respectively. Janet Skelton picked up the second of three wins as she took the 100-yard freestyle in 1:12.8. Heather Spence was third in 1:17.5. There was no UNB competitor in the 100-yard butterfly which was won by a Saint John swimmer in 1:39.19.

Janet Skelton picked up her third win as she copped the 200-yard freestyle in 2:38.1. Heather Spence was fifth in 3:41.3. The final and deciding event of the meet was captured by the Mermaids as Heather Spence, Liz Gurholt, Jody MacLeod and Janet Skelton took the 400-yard freestyle relay in 5:09.5.

Congratulations go to Amby Legere and his Mermaids for the fine job they did while swimming short-handed; and special mention must be made of Janet Skelton who was the outstanding swimmer of the meet.

This past weekend, the Mermaids competed in the first Maritime Open Meet held at Mount A. The meet was won by Shearwater with 145 points, followed by Mount A. with 73. The Mermaids finished fifth in the nine team competition with 40 points. UNB's best event was the diving, where Elaine MacEwan and Jenny Adam finished first and second respectively. Janet Skelton was sixth in the 50 metre freestyle and Marg Cameron picked up fifth spot in the 50 metre breaststroke. Janet finished fifth in the 400 metre freestyle. Jody MacLeod, Marg Cameron, Liz Gurholt and Janet Skelton picked up sixth place in the 200 metre medley relay. Heather Spence, Liz Gurholt, Jody MacLeod, and Janet Skelton finished fifth in the 100 metre freestyle. Marg Cameron was fifth in the 100 metre breaststroke.

It might be noted that the Mermaids had to qualify out of eighteen swimmers before they could place in the finals, so their performances were very commendable.

SRC VOTES 18-1-1 FOR STUDENT UNION BUILDING

STUDENT FEES TO GO UP TEN DOLLARS

Last Monday the SRC passed a motion which will increase student fees by ten dollars. The purpose of the fee increase is to provide funds over the next few years to partially finance a Student Union Building.

Before voting, the SRC heard a brief presented by the members of the building committee. The committee stated that they had been attempting to find out whether any additional student facilities were needed. All 43 organizations on the campus were contacted and all responded either verbally or by way of a written report.

HIGHLIGHTS OF BUILDING REPORT

There is a need for more space for student activities. With St. Thomas and Teacher's College coming on campus, this problem is aggravated. Many facilities now existing for student use will no longer be available. For example, plans have been made to change Mem Hall into an arts centre. Radio UMB will have to move. The "H" huts will eventually be torn down leaving Winter Carnival Red 'n Black, and the SCM without space. The Camera Club is now without a dark room and the Para Jump club has never had storage space to speak of.

Many of these same clubs have been experiencing a loss of equipment due to thefts which could be eliminated with new facilities. The students must use their funds to replace this equipment.

In addition, the report covered the following points:

The administration has made no plans for any additional student facilities. This means that this has been left up to the students to either do without or build themselves. The report also pointed out that this has been the case on other campuses. Students at Alberta, Dalhousie, UBC, King's, and Acadia are presently involved in raising funds for their own building.

In the end students would be financing about 38% of the building.

THE BUILDING

With a ten dollar levy, plans have been made to approach an expert in this field. This expert will determine the exact requirements for student facilities.

It is the intention of the committee and the SRC to make clear to this expert that we want a highly flexible building (movable partitions etc.) for all students and not just a group of offices for key-twirling executives.

Plans have been made for a workshop for Red 'n Black and Winter Carnival as well as studios for Radio UMB. The proposed facilities have been approached with the spirit of giving every student a place to go either to relax or to take part in some organized student function.

Last year it was found that students were not especially eager to provide scores of offices for people who don't really need them so this year's committee has conscientiously avoided this approach while doing the preliminary groundwork.

To date no attempt is being made to build a particular building. This is the reason there are no floor plans right now. Financing has to come first.

THE LEVY

Why start with a levy of $10.00? The drive for funds has to start on this campus. It will be our building so it is quite obvious that we have to make the first move. When looking for funds off campus for our building we have to show that we are making a few sacrifices before asking for a handout.

The SBC is not that far away if action is initiated now. This building could be conceivably completed by the end of 1965.

With the support of the students $150,000.00 can be borrowed from the bank at the lowest possible interest rate. (Under 6%)

The point here is that this building can be started in the very near future and can benefit each and every student, not just a select group.

SUMMARY OF STUDENT BUILDING COMMITTEE REPORT

- A. SRC sets up S.B.C. to find whether building is needed.
S.B.C. finds the need is now, and even moreso with future enrollment.

What will happen 10 years from now with 8,000 students.

b. Particular

1. Cafeteria: Too small now and cannot possibly fulfill needs of next year's enrollment.

Time to Eat limited - (12:00 to 1:30)
No more space for Tables and Chairs.
2. Lounge Too small! Why? Dances are very crowded. Should have periodicals Lib-rary for Students.

F. HOW DO WE PAY FOR IT?

a.	$150,000.00	37.5%	Students (only)
	50,000.00	12.5%	Special Grants
	200,000.00	50.0%	Federal Matching Grant
	$400,000.00	100.0%	Total Estimated Cost.

- b. Students: I. Consisting of a $10.00 levy for the next five years. The students only pay $150,000.00 and no more.

II. UBC, Dal, Acadia, King's and U. of Alberta are doing it.

c. Special Grants

- Centennial per capita grant.
- J. F. Kennedy Memorial Grant
This may seem foolish, but since J.F.K. is a graduate of the University and was an active alumnus prior to his death, the students should do something connected with his name.
- Special Provincial Grants.
The government has already said that there are grants available for such projects.

d. Federal Grants

.. matching of dollar for dollar.

e. Students must contribute first before any of these other grants can even be considered. We can't have a national fund because this will interfere with the building fund of the University.
