GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
OTTAWA, 21st June, 1897.

To the Subscribers

To the "India Famine Fund" in Canada:

When it became evident in the early part of this year that India was face to face with famine resulting from a shrinkage in the rainfall, and a shortage in the crops that told severely upon a population already enfeebled by several bad harvests in succession, the necessity for aid and that of the most prompt character became painfully apparent. As soon as this need was presented to the Canadian people, vigorous measures were taken towards assisting in the relief of the suffering.

It was deemed wise to make the movement national in character and accordingly a fund was inaugurated to be styled the "Canadian India Famine Fund." The co-operation of the Lieutenant-Governors of the different provinces was invited and cordially given, and through them communication was had with the various municipal bodies, and school districts, throughout the Dominion. The assistance of the various banking institutions of the country was also invoked, and they tendered the services of the officers of their different establishments to receive subscriptions and transmit them gratuitously to Ottawa.

Reference should also particularly be made to the notable part so energetically and successfully taken by the Montreal "Star" in raising a very handsome sum.

From the report of the Honorary Treasurer, regarding whose hearty and valuable assistance a grateful acknowledgment is here offered, the total subscriptions to the general fund in Canada up to 30th June will be found to be $175,922.04. The report adds the interesting fact, that, apart from the present fund, from other sources (details of which where procurable are given) sufficient was raised to bring the total contribution of Canada for the purpose of famine relief up to about $200,000. Another feature of the report is the statement of the collection by provinces. This method is convenient and appropriate, as the provinces have all contributed so effectively, but it may be permissible to remark upon the liberality (in proportion to population) of the contributions from Manitoba, and also upon the children's share in the movement.

To render the fund as effective as possible for the purposes for which it was intended, immediately on the accumulation of sufficient moneys to purchase a lakh of rupees (100,000 rupees or about $31,000) that amount was purchased and transmitted by cable direct to Calcutta through the Bank of Montreal, and acknowledgment thereof was received. The dates of such remittances were as follows:—

February	9,	.....	100,000	rupees.
"	20,	.....	100,000	"
March	5,	.....	100,000	"
"	15,	.....	100,000	"
April	15,	.....	100,000	"
May	4,	.....	50,000	"
June	23,	.....	20,000	"

As to the appreciation of the aid thus rendered, the annexed telegrams from Sir Francis Maclean, Chief Justice of Bengal, Chairman of the Central Committee, and the extract from the letter from the Earl of Elgin, Governor General of India, will indicate the heartiness of that feeling, which has also been fully endorsed by the British exponents of public opinion.

There is thus good ground for the satisfactory reflection that this effort has not only directly contributed towards a much needed work of benevolence, but has also directly tended to the fostering of kindly sentiment and harmonious co-operation between communities sharing a common heritage—the British name and power.

The contents of these pages will provide the particulars of what will long be remembered as the remarkable response on the part of the people of Canada to the cry of distress from suffering India.

ABERDEEN.

Renewed warmest thanks for additional remittance. Canada's great sympathy very highly valued.

(Extract from letter from His Excellency the Viceroy of India.)

VICE-REGAL LODGE, SIMLA, 8th April, 1897.

MY DEAR ABERDEEN,—I have often thought of writing to you to let you know from myself how much we all have appreciated the sympathy and generosity of Canada. We have been taking stock of our position on passing the grand total of a crore of rupees, and though our grateful thanks are due to friends all over the world, still, outside Great Britain, Canada stands first in the aid which has been sent us. Perhaps you will pardon me if, as a Canadian-born, I mingle a little pride with my gratitude.

I have no doubt that we owe much to your own kindness, for I know how a calamity like ours would appeal to you; but from papers I have seen it seems clear that the movement in our favour has been a popular one in every sense of the word, and that cannot fail to enhance the value of the gift.

I think I am entirely justified in saying that so far as government is concerned, we are fully prepared for all present possibilities. Indeed in many districts the worst strain is probably over. They have had a fair spring crop, and by the end of next month they will be busy preparing for the summer crop. These agricultural operations at once relieve the situation; for, as I heard it put the other day, what we have had to deal with has been more of a labour famine than a food famine.

The small proprietors and occupiers of the land have, generally speaking, been able to subsist, though hard pressed by high prices, but they have been unable to employ or feed their labourers, and it has been for this class that in most cases we have had to provide relief works. Except in the districts which have suffered most severely, e.g., from the failure of more than one crop, there seems to be no apprehension that a good monsoon will not restore matters to pretty much their normal condition. But one of the chief advantages of the large charitable fund that has been raised will be that we shall be able to put the poorer cultivators, whose credit is exhausted, into a position to take full advantage of a favourable season, by providing plough, cattle, seed, and other necessaries of that sort.

There was a talk at one time of our having to import grain from America, but as yet the necessity has not arisen. There was a good rice crop in Burma, and it has been very useful, but though we have watched very closely, we have not as yet detected any sign of a general failure of food supplies. I have to-day a letter from Sandhurst, in which he gives a reassuring account in this respect of the worst districts in the Bombay Presidency. If there was to be another failure of the monsoon over anything like the same area, we should have a very different state of things, and we should certainly have to take from you and every body else all that could be spared; but in the meantime there is no reason to think that anything so dreadful is impending.

* * * * *

I think that all are now beginning to recognize, what I have known for months, that the officers on the spot have been working throughout with a devotion and self-sacrifice that could not be exceeded.

* * * * *

Believe me,

Yours very truly,

(Sgd.) ELGIN.

To His Excellency the Right Honourable the Earl of Aberdeen, &c., &c., &c., Governor General of Canada, &c., &c., &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,—The undersigned whom Your Excellency after inaugurating the Canadian Famine Fund, was good enough to appoint Honorary Treasurer of the Fund, begs to submit to Your Excellency the statement of accounts connected therewith, showing the amounts collected and the manner of their disposal.

Acting on instructions, subscription lists and forms of receipt were printed and placed in the hands of the several banks throughout Canada. Assurances had previously been promptly and generously given by these institutions that they would place the services of their officers and agencies at the disposal of Your Excellency to facilitate in every way the collection and transmission of the funds to Ottawa. This arrangement aided very materially in the prompt and economical handling of the contributions. Through the wide and extensive notices given by the newspapers, knowledge of the fund and of the needs of the famine stricken population of India was widely diffused. Contributions immediately came pouring in and up to 30th June the total cash received was $175,922.04.

As soon as sufficient funds had accumulated (about \$31,000) to provide for the purchase of a lakh of rupees, that amount was forwarded direct by cable to Calcutta by the Bank of Montreal, for credit of Sir F. MacLean, Chief Justice of Bengal, and Chairman of the Relief Committee. For this service the bank made no charge whatever. In this manner 5 $\frac{1}{10}$  lakhs were remitted on the following dates:—

February	9	.....	1	Lakh.
"	20	.....	1	"
March	5	.....	1	"
"	15	.....	1	"
April	15	.....	1	"
May	4	.....	$\frac{1}{2}$	"
June	23	.....	$\frac{1}{10}$	"

It will be noticed that there is a small balance still at the credit of the fund. This balance will no doubt be slightly increased, for contributions still keep coming in at intervals, and it may be some little time before they entirely cease. The amount being comparatively small it is proposed to remit it to London to be forwarded through the medium of the Mansion House Fund.

It may be of interest as indicating the widespread sympathy with the movement in Canada to point out that the people of all the provinces of the Dominion actively supported the fund to the following extent:—

Ontario	.....	$61,827 73
Quebec	.....	48,066 56
Nova Scotia	.....	14,485 44
New Brunswick	.....	11,705 45
Manitoba	.....	20,803 14
British Columbia	.....	5,287 68
Prince Edward Island	.....	6,104 74
North-west Territories	.....	5,994 64

Nor were the receipts confined alone to Canada, for correspondents in Newfoundland and the United States remitted $147.97 and $1,498.69 respectively.

Included in the above are collections to the amount of $55,000 paid into the fund by the Montreal Daily Star (of which $1,895.15 was received from the Montreal Daily Witness); $2,475.62 by the Mail Printing Co.; $824.93 by the Globe Printing Co., and

$3,457.43 by the Christian Guardian (Methodist). Grants from the following provincial governments are also included:—

Ontario.....	$6,000
Quebec.....	4,000
Manitoba.....	2,000
North-west Territories.....	1,000

The figures above given deal only with the sums that passed to the credit of the fund of which the undersigned is treasurer, but these do not cover all the moneys contributed by Canada for the relief of the famine. I am informed that the Presbyterian Church sent to its missionaries, $16,826.86, the Christian Guardian, the official organ of the Methodist Church, sent also direct to the missionaries of that body $2,320.50, in addition to the amount handed over to the national fund. His Worship the Mayor of Ottawa forwarded to London subscriptions amounting to $4,840.94. So that from the Dominion of Canada, contributions to the amount of about $200,000 have been raised for the purpose of assisting the famine stricken people of India.

In dealing with the large volume of remittances of all kinds from all parts of Canada the utmost despatch has been employed, and every effort made to promptly forward the funds to the quarters where they could be effectively used for the purposes for which they were given.

It has been found impossible to acknowledge every individual subscription and as a substitute for such acknowledgment the present plan of publishing the subscriptions by provinces and localities in detail has been adopted and it is hoped will be found amply sufficient. This part of the work, involving so much detail, and of a laborious character, was entrusted to Mr. John Fraser, of the Department of Finance. Had it not been for his efforts and energy the publication of the receipts in their present form would have been well nigh impossible.
