NEWS FROM THE WAR.

Gaily the paper man, touched his guitar,
While he was reading the news from the war,
Singing, "You bet your boots, now here'll be fun
We don't care who it shoots, war has begun.
He sang as how he knew six months before
There'd have to be a European War;
Now he was glad enough that it had come,
And his heart laughed at the roll of the drum.
But when the Czar at last, arming his youth,
Sent Petrovjarsichravsh, over to Pruth,
When Ibrahimrustceukus, met Stchobidefstt,
Sighed the newspaper man, "Give us a rest",
No rest, for Khalifatirtschuskcamos,
Dcripstefoalmatwhrstchigolas,
Met in the field Ginguervenogorih,
Wallahnosknaphctinereprstch etc.

If there is any thing in the line of curiosities that any who may receive this are desirous of obtaining, we should be pleased to receive a list of wants with the highest price you are willing to pay for the articles you want, when we will use our best endeavors to hunt them up. Per Contra. If you have any curiosities you wish to dispose of, we will try and find you customers for them, if you will send us your lowest prices for the same. Our columns will always be open to collectors who are desirous of advertising their wants at the rate of five cents per line, cash previous to the insertion of the advertisement. Advertisements of stamps and coin dealers will be inserted at 50 cents per line, cash invariably in advance. The advertisements of all other dealers in curiosities, works of art, books, etc., will be received at ten cents per line, cash in advance and five copies of the paper will be allowed the advertiser for each line of advertisement, thus interesting each advertiser in securing as large a circulation as possible.

PHILATELY.

Notwithstanding the amount spent in advertising by stamp dealers, and the information disseminated through their various organs, it is an undeniable fact that comparatively few are aware such a business as Philately or Timbrology really exists. As an illustration, a Philatelist entered a grocery store in Toronto for the purpose of making a purchase, whilst being served, he observed a revenue stamp, on a case about to be demolished for firewood, and offered to purchase the stamp. The proprietor drew his long and solemn countenance down to its fullest extent and sagely remarked, he was not a party to assist in defrauding the government, and as to a United States revenue stamp being of any value as a curiosity, "it would not quite go down with him," and after a lengthy, but unavailing explanation of the pleasure, etc. to be derived from Philatelic pursuits, the collector retired from the store a vanquished and disgusted man, leaving the thrifty grocer to use the stamp for kindling purposes. Where such ignorance is bliss, stamp collecting is blister. Sometimes the tyro in stamp collecting also betrays woful ignorance in his very readily delivered decision on the genuine qualities or counterfeit appearance of stamps. A U. S. local reprint is at once denounced as a palpable swindle; a Hamburg local is genuine, because it has the appearance of a stamp of some kind, and a bogus Guatemala must be all right, no matter how coarsely imitated, provided it is marred with a sham postmark obliteration.
