St. John, N. B. March 31st 1898.
To the Officers and members of Branch No. 267 C. M. B. A. Truro N. S.

I take this means of thanking the Grand Council of the C. M. B. A., of Canada, on behalf of the beneficiaries of the late Brother Murphy, and I hereby recommend the C. M. B. A. to all Catholic young men, as an association that apart from other advantages, furnishes rates of life insurance that are among the cheapest procurable in Canada. E. Walker, Executor.
Rollo Bay, Feb. 20th 1898.

NOTES.

At the recent election for councillors for each of the three wards in the town of Sydney C. B., Three members of Branch 182, C. M. B. A., were elected to represent the three wards, this being the first occasion, since the Town was incorporated, that ward one, was represented by a Roman Catholic. The successful Bros. are: Chancellor, E. C. Hanrahan, for ward three; 1st Vice Pres. Chas. McKinnan, for ward two; and D. M. Curry, J. P. for ward one. The electoral vote is about a ratio of 3 Catholic to 5 all other denominations. This speaks well of the good feeling existing between denominations in this town, and well worth being followed by other places in the Dominion.

At the regular meeting of Branch No. 132, Halifax, N. S., held on Tuesday evening, Feb. 1st, Brother W. J. Power, Grand Deputy for the district of Hants, presented the branch with a handsome gavel, the prize for initiating the most members of any branch in Nova Scotia during 1897—total 21. There is a silver plate—with the following inscription engraved on it: "Presented to Branch 132, C. M. B. A., by Grand Deputy Brother W. J. Power, for initiating the greatest number of members of any branch in Nova Scotia in 1897." On motion, a vote of thanks was tendered G. D. Brother Power for his handsome gift.

Grand Deputy Brother J. R. Cragg

intimated that he would also make a similar offer to that which Brother Power had made at the beginning of the year 1897, to this effect, that he would present to the brother member of Halifax or Dartmouth an emblem of the C. M. B. A., who would bring into the association the greatest number of members during the year 1898.

On Palm Sunday the members of Branch No. 1, London, Ont., received Holy Communion in a body. There was a larger attendance than usual, owing no doubt to a very nicely worded circular sent to each member by the President of the branch, Brother Jas. P. Murray. Brother Murray is, we believe, the youngest member who has held the position of President of this branch, and his determination that the fundamental regulations of our Association shall be complied with by those over whom he presides, certainly reflects great credit on him.

The London Free Press says:

Policies of insurance in benevolent and friendly societies must designate the person or persons to whom the policy is payable, or the money involved will be subject to the claims of creditors of the insured. Mrs. James Fawcett, of Dunnville, failed in Single Court, at Toronto on Wednesday to recover $2,000, the amount of her husband's policy in the Select Knights of Canada, because the policy was made payable as the will directed, and the will left her the balance after the debts were paid. An Ontario statute respecting benevolent societies directs that such insurance money up to $2,000 shall be free from all claims of creditors to the insured, and at his death shall be paid to the person or persons entitled under the rules of the society, or shall be applied by the society as may be provided by such rules, free from all claims by the personal representative or creditors of the deceased. If the money is so paid in good faith by the society, but to the wrong person, the money cannot be recovered from the society, but may be recovered from the person who has wrongfully received it. Mr. Justice Street held, in dismissing the widow's application for the money under this act, that as she was not designated as the beneficiary in the policy the act did not apply.

WHO PAYS THE DIVIDENDS?

Many of the stock arguments of legal reserve insurance vanish into thin air with a little probing. We are constantly told of the safety of legal reserve, of the handsome dividends that are paid policy holders, and of the bonuses, that in most well regulated companies, are likely, at the end of some given time, to be paid over to the policy holder.

What does all this mean? Insurance may not be a commodity offered for sale, as are the goods on the store-keeper's counter, and yet that element enters into insurance as it is offered by old line companies. The merchant who gives bonuses or premiums has to pay for these out of his profits, &c., in other words, the purchaser has to pay for them.

The radical difference between old-line and natural premium insurance is that the former loads up its premiums with a number of extras, where the latter insists on charging only the cost of carrying the insurance.

Dividends are paid to the policy-holder, forsooth. We repeat: Where do they come from? Someone has well said, looking with a sensible eye into this question: "Profit is the result of trade, the purchase of a commodity at one price, and the sale of it at a higher. Insurance is an indemnity against loss, and every policy that is maintained, must in the end result in a loss, and in such case is always called a loss by the insurance companies themselves. Where then do they make their profit? Suppose the trustee of an estate in settling his accounts says: Here is the amount of money I have received and here is the interest I have collected. On the other side are the necessary payments and my charges for management: the balance for distribution is so much and then adding, you are entitled to a dividend of so much. Would anybody be deceived by such a quibble? On the contrary would not the distributee at once say, how can there be any dividends if the other items of the account are correct. As trustee it was your duty to administer this fund to the best advantage and there cannot be a dividend unless you overcharged me. Every form of insurance, when reduced to its simple elements, is a plan for the division of the losses among the survivor. The rate of premium charged for insurance ought therefore to be the cost of carrying the risk plus a reasonable sum for expenses of management, and if this be so there cannot be any such a thing as a dividend in the true sense of the word."—Business.

THE C. M. B. A.'S CLAIM.

There is no Catholic Fraternal Society doing business in this Dominion to day that has such a warm place in the hearts of the people as our noble association. There is none in which the great mass of the people have such unbounded confidence, for whom they entertain greater respect. There is none upon whom the Catholic Hierarchy and Clergy of Canada bestow such marks of especial favor, there is none whom the leaders of Catholic thought uphold so strenuously and to whose ranks, aid and encouragement the Catholic business man rallies so generously. These are the signs, these the landmarks that foretell our success, that herald the glorious work we are doing and the dignified eminence to which we have attained.

There is not a single element thus specified whose support does not possess a special significance. The business man joins our ranks because he knows full well our sound financial position, because he knows the foundation of our prosperity is well and carefully laid, and because he has made himself aware by careful study that the management of the C. M. B. A. is in every respect beyond reproach. Careful and economical it is in every way, no mushroom growth here, no striving for effect, no mystic nonsense, no mummery, and it is in this careful and watchful evolution that her stability lies. The man of affairs observes this, and hence his confidence, his undivided support.

The Catholic people as a body love the C. M. B. A. for the work she has done, the divine work of Charity and fraternity she is accomplishing every day. These are brought home in every neighborhood and tell their own story. Why debate them here! Why tarry by the wayside when he who runs may read! And the Catholic people of Canada have read the story of the C. M. B. A. Yes they have read it well and learnt it well, and so they love it, for it is only what is truly good is truly loved. And let that good story be told at every home and at every fireside. For the more the virtues of the C. M. B. A. are known the higher will she be prized.

Let every member be a missionary in this respect. Let him spread the gospel of our good deeds, our noble achievements. Let him tell it to his neighbor, to his friends, till there will not be a Catholic home in Canada that has not furnished a member.

We need scarcely say here there is no element of our membership that gives us greater joy than our long roll of distinguished Prelates and Clergy. These, we take it, have sought our ranks not so much for their personal benefit as for the example they wish to place before the world for others to follow. They have weighed us well and have not found us wanting. They have watched our career, it has pleased them, and to mark their approval they have joined our association. No words of theirs could speak higher praise than these their actions, and this is the proudest chapter in our history.

From all these circumstances with what confidence can the C. M. B. A. appeal for support. Firmness, honor, righteousness, charity, justice, these are our watchwords and by these signs shall we conquer.

HIS LORDSHIP BISHOP McDONALD, OF P. E. I., ON SOCIETIES.

The Lenten Pastoral of His Lordship Bishop McDonald of Prince Edward Island has this condemnation of non-Catholic societies and this approval of the C. M. B. A.:

"There is another matter, dearly beloved, which we deem our sacred duty to bring to your notice, and it is the reprehensible conduct of those who, wishing to be considered dutiful Catholics, nevertheless have no hesitation in associating themselves to those secret societies which have not been approved by our Holy Church. All the faithful should understand that the Catholic Church condemns the very principle on which secret societies are founded, and has at all times discountenanced their existence, while to their more pernicious forms she has meted out an unqualified condemnation."

Bishop McDonald cites the Pope's condemnation of non Catholic societies for Catholics and says:

"There is then, dearly beloved, no mistaking the doctrine of the Church as explained by the Vicar of Christ, regarding those secret societies which never have met, and never will meet with her approval, and it is therefore incumbent on the faithful to carefully abstain from the membership of all such associations, and especially when the same pecuniary advantages which they claim to possess, may be obtained with equal facility in Catholic societies approved by the church. Now, that there be no misunderstanding our position in this regard, we forbid the faithful under our spiritual care from associating as members with all such societies, whether now existing, or to be organized at any future time."

THE DEATH OF ARCHBISHOP CLEARY.

A great loss has befallen the Catholic Church in Canada through the death of His Grace Archbishop Cleary of the Archdiocese of Kingston. It is safe to say that few Prelates stood higher than he. Whether as a theologian, a statesman, a political writer or a profound philosopher Archbishop Cleary had no peer. The years of his episcopate in Kingston have been marked by the happiest results. All over his large diocese magnificent churches have been erected. And these sacred edifices are marked by an architectural finish and workmanship worthy the object to which they are consecrated. Schools and convents have grown apace. Hospitals and houses for the aged poor and the orphaned children erected wherever necessary, mark his charity and his solicitude for the afflicted of his flock.

He was in very truth a great churchman and as such his work was most complete in all its details. There was no weak link. His courage in upholding what he considered the cause of religion and justice was marvellous. He held no obstacle too great to be overcome. His massive energy and indomitable will bare down all opposition and in the end he triumphed. It was probably in the religious education of the children of his flock that his character is best exhibited.

Here he was truly the Great Shepherd fighting for the lambs of his flock, and he fought the fight well nor did he lay aside his armour till the day was won. In private life he was most genial, kind and considerate to all with whom he came in contact. He was a brilliant conversationalist and nothing was more delightful or instructive than to sit by and listen to his eloquent words and to share in his great storehouse of universal knowledge. His death was most edifying to those present; without a murmur of complaint and with perfect trust in the Master he served so well he passed away to his eternal reward.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the editor of THE CANADIAN.

Dear Sir and Brother. The December and January numbers of our official organ have contained a good deal about what was termed in one article "The many grumblers belonging to our grand and noble Association."

Good many things were said, all of them undoubtedly true, deprecating the existence of such dissatisfaction in our ranks, but I have not noticed anything pointing out the remedy to the existing evil.

Whenever there is sickness it is not sufficient to indicate the character of the disease, but steps have to be taken to at once check its progress and conquer it, and I think the same principle should apply to our Society. That grumblers have no reasons to be with us, I don't deny; no one appreciates more than I do the advantages that members and their families are bound to derive from our great Organization. But the fact remains that we have grumblers, and as long as it is the case, should we not look around and see what is the cause of their grumbling? It is true they are everywhere, with or without reasons, but we should try and reduce their number to a minimum. The least friction there is the easier the running, applies to any and all institutions. Therefore it is the duty of every one in position to do so to try and locate the friction, its causes, and suggest how it can be remedied. Every Officer who is taking an active interest in the management and welfare of his branch must certainly have gained some experience and information with regard to that.

For my part I am sorry to admit that I have also come across the individuals who form the subject of this letter, and what was the tone of their remarks? In every instance it was in reference to the double assessment: "Another special" or "another double header" and so on.

I got hold of the rates of other fraternal societies and compared them with ours, taking for basis the eighteen assessments we paid last year and then our rates showed to be still lower, but it did not seem to matter any.

The real fact is, that the cause of this dissatisfaction are the special assessments, and I am quite positive that this conclusion is the right one.

The average member objects to the extras, as was experienced in other societies and is now the case in ours.

If that is so then why not make twelve even payments out of the 18 assessments, that is, let the rate consist of 12 even assessments which total shall be the same amount as what is realized by the 18 assessments of the present. Let us take a member whose rate is $1.20 and makes 18 such payments in a year amounting to $21.60. Why could it not be $1.20 in twelve monthly payments to realize the same amount. It would certainly work a great deal smoother, and every man would know exactly how much he would have to pay every month.

True it would not, and should not preclude the raising of extra assessments if necessary, but one extra in a year would be better than six, and it is quite safe to predict that a rate of twelve monthly payments equivalent to 18 assessments of the present rate would be sufficient to meet all requirements.

It may be claimed that it would be tampering too much with the constitution. I do not share that opinion. I think the constitution should be touched and retouched according to circumstances—with all possible care and prudence of course—but as often as it is thought and reasoned out that modifications will improve the conditions of the Society, and if it is agreed that a revision of our table of rates would be beneficial, then by all means let it be so, as soon as it can legally be done.

Another very defective feature of our table of rates is the one that makes the member of 40 years of age pay the same as he who is four years older.

I think it is both unfair and against business principle, constituting a serious loss to the Society. Why not have a rate going from 18 to 50 increasing gradually with each year. Take the series of from the age of 30 to 35 rate 1.20, there the first one of 30 pays the same as others his seniors by from one to four years.

Suppose, for instance, that instead of that the table would read as follows: Age, 30, rate, 1 20; age, 31, rate, 1 22; age, 32, rate, 1 24; age, 33, rate, 1 26; age, 34, rate, 1 28; age, 35, rate, 1 30; Those of 30 and 35 years of age pay the same rate as before but the others between would pay proportionately as their age increases, and why should they not? It would only be fair to all concerned, and the increase to the beneficiary fund would surprise you.

I do not expect the suggestions I am now expressing here to be accepted generally, but if I have done nothing else than raise a point that may be taken up and discussed to the ultimate benefit of our Society, I shall be satisfied if it should tend to lessen the grumbling element in our midst.

Believe me,

Yours Fraternely,

L P O NOEL, Grand Deputy
Battleford, N. W. T., 21 Feb., 1898

Moncton, N. B.

Mr. Editor: Dear Sir and Brother—Judging from the drift of opinion that is heard on all sides and particularly in the columns of our valuable little paper, THE CANADIAN, that the words "Biennial Conventions" in Section 32, of the constitution will be eliminated at the next convention and substituted by "Triennial Convention." If this amendment is carried it will certainly be appreciated by a large number of the association as an act in the proper direction of curtailing the expenses of our conventions which have become so burthenous. The good results of those conventions, either socially, financially or numerically, "if there be any" do not by any means repay for the enormous expense involved. If we have at the head of our association the best men available and on account of their good standing and business like principle we place all confidence, as well as the affairs of our association, in their hands for two years, why not continue that same confidence for three years. The Finance Committee audits the accounts of the association and finding them correct, the financial position of the association in a satisfactory condition, the trustees perform their duties in the same assiduous manner, what more is necessary, their reports are sent to us through THE CANADIAN. It is not necessary to go to the expense of seven or eight thousand dollars to accept their reports, as submitted, for Mr. Editor there is little more than this down at our convention with the exception of amending a few sections of the constitution, and some unnecessarily so. Thanking you for the space, I will, in your next issue, offer some suggestion as to proceed in making the Triennial Convention even less expensive than the present Biennial Conventions.

Yours fraternally,
John Sutton, Jr.

Grand Deputy Rooney's Visits.

Grand Deputy Peter J. Rooney paid an official visit to Branch 211, Brockton, on Thursday evening, March 10th, carefully examined the Financial Secretary's books and found them the acme of perfection, and everything in the branch appears to be in a flourishing condition. Four applications were read, three new members balloted for, and two initiated young men about twenty years. The President and members received the Grand Deputy in a becoming manner and requested him to initiate the two new members, which he did in his accustomed, graceful and business like style, and presided during the balance of the meeting. Under the good of the association, he spoke to them words of advice and counsel, showed them the progress their branch had made during the last five years, inspired them to continue their good work and predicted for them in the near future, that their branch would soon be recognised as the braver branch in the city. A vote of thanks was carried and tendered to Grand Trustee Rooney on the account of his official visit, and for the able manner in which he performed his duties, not only as a Deputy but as the chairman of the meeting, etc. The members are looking forward for Bro. Rooney's next visit, and he can be assured of a rousing reception.

Grand Deputy Peter J. Rooney surprised the members of Branch 19 on Friday evening, March 11th, in paying them an official visit. He carefully examined the books of the Branch and found them in perfect order. The Fin Sec. is quite a hustler, and up to date, as he had every member on his ledger charged with assessments; and at no time in the history of this branch has the financial department been so well managed. No members are carried without the consent of the branch. The Recording Secretary, Bro. W. J. Smith, in his usual pains taking manner, carries on this office to perfection. It is a pleasure to hear him read the minutes of the preceding meeting in language and minuteness that it would be impossible to procure his equal, etc., etc. This branch now numbers 89 members and they are making good progress towards the century mark, which will be accomplished in a short space of time, so much interest is taken by the individual members in keeping their branch in the proud position as the strongest branch in the city. Perfect harmony now reigns supreme in this branch. Brotherly love, unity and affection are dispensed in abundance and it is a pleasure to spend an evening with the members of Branch 19. Under the good of the association, the Grand Deputy reminded some of the members of their duties towards the Grand Officers of the association, and his plain and truthful words cannot fail in having a lasting and beneficial effect. This Branch to day has, in the opinion of the Grand Deputy, the best set of officers that ever were elected to their respective chairs. Brother Byron, the delegate of this branch to the Quebec convention is quite a hustler and Bob will make many friends during his visit to Quebec. A vote of thanks was passed and tendered to Brother Rooney on this his official visit, and it is the wish of the members that he will come again soon.

PRESENTATION TO BRO. GRACE OF BRANCH 241.

The members of Branch 241, C. M. B. A., and citizens of Pakenham, hearing that Mr. P. J. Grace, the genial proprietor of the Mississippi Hotel was about taking his departure from their midst, assembled at his hotel on Monday evening, 21st inst., for the purpose of showing him some mark of esteem in which he is held by them. The host invited all present to supper, and, it is needless to say, ample justice was done to the excellent spread, which reflected great credit on both host and hostess. Supper being over, Mr. Allan Carswell was appointed chairman, and filled the post with that grace and humor which he can so well command. The chairman, after a few preliminary remarks, called on Bro. D. Smith to read the following address:

P. J. Grace Esq., Pakenham.

The members of Branch 241, C. M. B. A., in conjunction with yourself, a citizen of all creeds and classes, the beloved Pakenham and vicinity, upon the occasion of your removal from our village, wish to give evidence of the sincere regret at your absence you as a fellow citizen, and to express the best wishes for your health that are entertained by those who have been your neighbors during the past ten years, since you came to reside in us. The members of Branch 241 wish to place on record their sense of the loss of one of the best numbered and charter members of the C. M. B. A. in Pakenham, and to hereby extend to you their fraternal good wishes and sincere regret at parting with you as a neighbour and worthy brother. The citizens heartily avail themselves of this opportunity to get hold in hand with your fellow members of the C. M. B. A. in testifying that you have always been a good citizen, and that you deserve in your new sphere the respect and confidence of all those who are members of the greatest of all societies—Mankind the true motto of which will always be "The Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man," irrespective of class or creed distinctions. We therefore beg of you to accept the accompanying purse as but a feeble expression of the sincere good wishes of the many friends you have made in Pakenham and vicinity.

Signed on behalf of Branch 241, C. M. B. A.

D. SMITH, President.

J. H. BURKE, Rec. Sec.

Signed on behalf of the citizens,

E. W. GEMMILL,

A. L. SARGE,

C. M. STEWART,

GEO. F. FRANCIS,

A. CARSWELL.

Mr. Geo. Francis presented Mr. Grace with the purse. Mr. Grace although deeply moved by the kind words, recovered himself sufficiently to make a neat reply, thanking the members of Branch 241 and the citizens for the hearty send off tendered him. He said he would never forget the people of Pakenham, and was sorry to have to part with such true friends. Dr. Murphy and Dr. Gemmill also gave short speeches eulogistic of Mr. Grace and family. A few hours were then spent in social intercourse and singing, and a very pleasant evening was brought to a close by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

A PLEASANT EVENING IN BRANCH 267.

The members of Branch No. 267, Truro, N. S., held an At Home on Friday evening, Feb. 1st, in their pretty hall, which was tastefully decorated with Chinese lanterns, flags, etc., presenting a brilliant and striking appearance. Brother J. T. Hallisay presided, and seated on his right was Rev. Father Kinsella, the Spiritual Adviser of the branch, who opened the programme with an eloquent address on the C. M. B. A. Various games were played during the evening. Luncheon was served by the ladies, and was much enjoyed.

The chairman afterwards called on Rev. Father Kinsella for a song.

Although taken by surprise the Rev.

Father cheerfully responded, much to the delight of the attentive guests. The favorite Lombard Bros. are well worthy of special mention for their inspiring music throughout the evening, especially during luncheon.

After the usual anthem "God Save the Queen" the pleasant evening of Branch 267 successfully ended.

The C. M. B. A. in Pictou, N. S.

A Branch of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association of Canada was formally opened at Pictou, N. S., on the 1st March, by the Grand Deputy of the district, Rev. R. McDonald, of New Glasgow.

Following is the list of officers:

President, Wm. Brennan

1st Vice, J. Gratten

2nd Vice, N. Doherty

Recording Secretary, A. McKeuna,

Assistant Secretary, W. J. Brennan.

Financial Secretary, F. J. Tobin

Treasurer, A. M. Keuna, sr.

Marshal, D. Smith.

Guard, F. Gratten

Despite the inclemency of the weather no less than seventy-five brothers from the branches of New Glasgow and Stellerton acc impanied the Grand Deputy, and their presence tended in no small degree to inspire the young branch with enthusiasm, and make its first meeting a complete success.

After the installation and regular order of business had been disposed of the Grand Deputy delivered an able and enthusiastic address, setting forth the manifold benefits to be derived from a vigorous branch of the C. M. B. A. The President followed in a speech brim full of that wit, eloquence, and sound good sense which has made him a central figure at the council board, and as invincible in Ward one, as was his former namesake, "on the moor."

The stirring address of the 1st and 2nd Vice Presidents showed that these officials were fully convinced of the great possibilities of a well regulated Catholic Society, and confident that "Stella Maris" branch was destined to supply a want, long felt, by the Catholic young men of Pictou.

After the meeting had adjourned the members and visiting brothers repaired to the Revere Hotel where a repast, befitting the season yet fully up to that high standard excellence which has ever prevailed at the "Revere," was enjoyed. After satisfying the wants of the inner man, a pleasant hour, enlivened with toast and song, did much to cheer the company for the unpleasant drive home.

The following toasts were proposed and fittingly responded to:

"Her Gracious Majesty the Queen," Wm. Brennan

"Canada, Our Country," N. Doherty.

"Total Abstinence," proposed by Rev. J. McKeough, responded to by J. McKeuna, New Glasgow.

"The Shire Town," proposed by A. McKeuna, jr., responded to by Wm. Brennan

"Our Visiting Brothers," proposed by A. McKeuna, jr., responded to by J. M. Paerson, Stellarton.

"The Men of the Sea," proposed by A. Smith, responded to by D. Smith

"Our Spiritual Adviser," proposed by F. Gratten, responded to by Rev. J. McKeough.

"C. M. B. A.," proposed by T. J. Tobin, responded to by Rev. R. McDonald, N. Glasgow.

"Mine Host and Hostess," proposed by J. F. Kelly, responded to by N. Doherty.

The singing of God Save the Queen brought the meeting to a close, and all dispersed bearing away pleasant memories of the opening of "Stella Maris" Branch, and looking forward with pleasure to the promised similar reunion with our genial brothers at Stellarton.

A. McKenna, Jr., Rec. Sec., Br. 263

BRANCH 262.

Lethbridge Branch, No. 262, on the 17th February, at the home of Mr. T. Curry, gave a progressive euchre party in honor of Bro. J. MacLis, who is about to proceed to the Yukon territory in search of fortune. There was a most enthusiastic turn out of members, some fifty or more, including Rev. Father Vanthigen, who was present for a short time, having assembled to bid Bro. MacLis God-speed before starting on his journey to the far north.

The early part of the evening was given up to euchre, and some very close contests having taken place the prizes were distributed, Mrs. Mac Donald capturing the ladies' prize and Bro. Howard that for the gentlemen.

The booby prize for ladies fell to Miss Begin, that for gentlemen to Bro. J. G. Callaghan.

At 12 o'clock a most recherche oyster supper was served and fully appreciated by all present.

After supper the remainder of the time was devoted to music, Mrs. Mac Donald presiding at the piano. Miss Begin and other ladies gave some very choice selections, while Bro. J. G. Callaghan sustained his high reputation on the cornet, several solo by him being rapturously enjoyed by the assembly.

About 1:30 a. m. the entertainment, which was most successful, was brought to a close. This is the first occasion which this branch has had for any celebration, and to judge by its success and the heartiness which all the members exhibited in the proceedings, it augurs well for Branch 262 and the C. M. B. A. in the district.

BRANCH 281.

Branch 281, Tignish, P. E. I., was honored with the presence of the Provincial Grand Deputy, Rev. A. E. Burke. The Rev. gentleman, in the capacity of Grand Deputy made a thorough inspection of the branch as ordered by the Grand Council. After the most minute auditorship the Rev. gentleman pronounced all most satisfactory and expressed very flattering compliments on the officers and members. Rev. Dr. Chaisson, who is an active member of this branch was present and expressed his satisfaction to hear such flattering remarks on behalf of the association. The Rev. Dr. also announced the intention of his parishioners to establish a branch of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association at Palmer Road at an early date. Rev. J. S. Turbide, who always manifests such a strong interest for the advancement of Catholicity in the parish, expressed his pleasure to hear that such harmony and good work existed in the C. M. B. A. A most sincere vote of thanks was then tendered the Provincial Grand Deputy and the meeting resumed its general order of business. Taking all together Branch 281 has reasons to be proud of its success. Established under the most trying circumstances it has prospered and has the greatest expectation for the future. The presence of the Revd. gentlemen Father Burke, Father Chaisson and Father Turbide, has always stimulated the members of this branch and today the brothers are happy to have such brave defenders of the Faith to fraternize with.—L'Impartial, P. E. I.

Brother Langlois is sorely tried; all his family having been sick from the 15th Dec. until a few days ago, when to make his misfortune still greater death took away two of his children. The health of his wife is also very poor and her recovery is doubtful.

We humbly request the branches which have not yet responded to the appeal of Brother Z. A. Langlois to kindly do so as soon as possible as the condition of his family is very critical.

The more parents realize their responsibility towards their children the more cheerfully will they practice that virtue the lack of which has ruined so many homes and wrecked so many lives.

Although taken by surprise Brother Noonan responded in a very happy and most appropriate speech, expressive of his gratitude and heartfelt appreciation. He spoke at some length of the origin and history of the branch, and recalled the many changes that have taken place among its members in the past few years.

He concluded by reminding those present that they did not need to go outside of their own branch to see the benefit of having a policy in the C. M. B. A. After which the Spiritual Adviser Rev. Dean O'Connell, who has always been a warm advocate of C. M. B. A. principles, said that he felt that he could not let the occasion pass without expressing the great pleasure it gave him to congratulate the members of this branch for the well earned respect and honor they have shown their worthy President this evening, and with earnest words of encouragement to continue in the noble work of charity, brought the meeting to a happy close.

LE CERTIFICAT D'ENREGISTREMENT NO 8 délivré au Grand Conseil de l'Association Catholique de Bienfaisance Mutuelle du Canada, l'autorisant à faire des opérations d'Assurance sur la vie sur le plan des Cotisations dans La Puisance du Canada, est par le présent renouvelé jusqu'au Trente et Unième jour de Mars, 1899.

LA RECLAME DE L'A. C. B. M

Il n'y a pas de Société Fraternelle Catholique, faisant affaires dans Le Dominion aujourd'hui, qui occupe une plus chaude place dans le cœur des gens que notre noble association. Il n'y en a pas dans laquelle la grande masse des gens ont une confiance aussi illimitée, pour laquelle ils entretiennent une plus grande estime. Il n'y en a pas à laquelle la Hiérarchie Catholique et le Clergé du Canada accordent de telles marques d'une faveur spéciale : il n'y en a pas que les guides de l'idée Catholique soutiennent avec autant de zèle et aux rangs, à l'aide et à l'encouragement de laquelle l'homme d'affaires Catholique se rallie aussi généreusement. Voilà les signes, les bâtons qui disent notre succès, qui annoncent l'œuvre glorieuse que nous accomplissons et la haute distinction à laquelle nous sommes parvenus.

Il n'y a pas un seul des éléments ainsi spécifiés dont le support n'a une signification spéciale. L'homme d'affaires joint nos rangs parcequ'il sait très bien notre position financière solide, parcequ'il sait que la base de notre prospérité est bien et soigneusement assise, et parcequ'il s'est assuré lui-même par une étude soignée que l'administration de l'A. C. B. M. est sous tous les rapports sans reproche. Soigneuse et économique elle est de toute manière, pas d'accroissement anormal ici, pas d'effort pour faire de l'effet, pas d'absurdité mystique, pas de cérémonies ridicules ; et c'est dans cette évolution soignée et attentive que se trouve sa stabilité. L'homme d'affaires observe cela, d'où sa confiance, son support indivis.

Les Catholiques comme corps aiment l'A. C. B. M. pour l'œuvre qu'elle accomplit, pour l'œuvre divine de Charité et de fraternité qu'elle accomplit chaque jour. Ces œuvres sont visibles en tous lieux et parlent pour elles-mêmes. Pourquoi les rappeler ici ? Pourquoi s'arrêter sur la route quand celui qui passe peut lire ? Les Catholiques du Canada ont lu l'histoire de l'A. C. B. M. Oui ils l'ont bien lue et ils l'ont bien apprise, et aussi ils l'aiment, car c'est seulement ce qui est vraiment bon qui est vraiment aimé. Qu'on dise cette bonne histoire à chaque maison et à chaque foyer. Car plus les vertus de l'A. C. B. M. seront connues plus elle sera appréciée.

Que chaque membre se fasse missionnaire sous ce rapport. Qu'il répande l'évangile de nos bonnes actions, de nos nobles exploits. Qu'il le dise à son voisin, à ses amis, jusqu'à ce qu'il n'y ait pas une maison Catholique en Canada qui n'ait fourni un membre.

Nous avons à peine besoin de dire ici qu'il n'y a aucun élément parmi nos membres, qui nous procure une plus grande joie que notre nombreux rôle de Prélats distingués et de membres du Clergé. Ceux-ci, nous le savons, ont cherché l'admission dans nos rangs non pas tant pour leur avantage personnel que pour l'exemple qu'ils désirent donner au monde afin que d'autres le suivent. Ils nous ont bien pesé et ne nous ont pas trouvés manquants. Ils ont surveillé notre carrière, elle leur a plu, et pour marquer leur approbation ils ont joint notre association. Aucunes de leurs paroles ne pouvaient décerner une plus grande louange que cet acte de leur part, aussi c'est là le chapitre dont nous sommes le plus fiers dans notre histoire.

Sous toutes ces circonstances avec quelle confiance l'A. C. B. M. peut faire appel pour son maintien. Fermeté, honneur, droiture, charité, justice, voilà nos mot-d'ordre et par ces signes nous devrons conquérir.

MGR. McDONALD DE L'I. DU P. E., SUR LES SOCIETES

La lettre Pastorale de Sa Grandeur Mgr. McDonald de l'Île du Prince Édouard, à l'occasion du carême, contient cette condamnation des sociétés non-Catholiques et cette approbation de l'A. C. B. M. :

"Il y a une autre question, bien aimés frères, sur laquelle nous croyons de notre devoir sacré d'attirer votre attention, et c'est la conduite irréprochable de ceux qui, désirant être considérés comme de respectueux Catholiques, néanmoins n'ont aucune hésitation à s'affilier à ces sociétés sectaires qui n'ont pas été approuvées par la Sainte Eglise. Tous les fidèles devraient comprendre que l'Eglise Catholique condamne le principe même d'après lequel sont fondées les sociétés secrètes, et qu'Elle a en tout temps décontenancé leur existence, pendant qu'à leurs formes plus pernicieuses Elle a opposé une condamnation énergique."

Mgr. McDonald cite la condamnation par le Pape des Sociétés non Catholiques pour les Catholiques et dit :—

" Il n'y a donc pas à s'y méprendre sur la doctrine de l'Eglise telqu'expliquée par le Vicaire du Christ concernant ces sociétés secrètes qui n'ont jamais rencontré et ne rencontreront jamais son approbation, et c'est pourquoi il incombe aux fidèles de s'abstenir soigneusement de s'affilier à de telles associations, et particulièrement lorsqu'on peut obtenir avec une égale facilité dans des sociétés catholiques approuvées par l'Eglise les mêmes avantages pecuniaires que dans les premières. Maintenant, pour qu'il n'y ait pas de méprise sur notre position à cet égard, nous défendons aux fidèles sous notre juridiction spirituelle de s'enrôler comme membres dans ces sortes de sociétés, soit existantes actuellement ou qui pourront être organisées à l'avenir."

MORT DE MGR. CLEARY.

L'Eglise Catholique en Canada a fait une grande perte par la mort de Sa Grandeur Mgr. l'Archevêque Cleary de l'archidiocèse de Kingston, province d'Ontario. On peut assurément dire que peu de Prélats ont tenu une plus haute place. Que ce fut comme théologien, homme d'Etat, écrivain polémique ou profond philosophe, l'Archevêque Cleary n'avait pas son supérieur. Les années de son épiscopat à Kingston ont été marquées par les plus heureux résultats. Par tout son grand diocèse de magnifiques églises furent édifiées. Et ces édifices sacrés sont d'un fini architectural et d'une exécution dignes de l'objet pour lequel ils ont été consacrés. Des écoles et des couvents ont surgis de toutes parts. Des hôpitaux et des maisons de refuge pour les veillards pauvres et les orphelins, construits partout où ils étaient nécessaires, marquent sa charité et sa sollicitude pour les affligés d'entre ses ouailles. Il était en toute vérité un grand homme d'Eglise et comme tel son œuvre fut des plus complets dans tous ses détails. Son courage à soutenir ce qu'il considérait être la cause de la religion et de la justice était merveilleux. Il soutenait qu'il n'y avait pas d'obstacles trop grands pour les vaincre. Sa grande énergie et sa volonté invincible renversaient toute opposition et à la fin il triomphait. Ce fut probablement dans l'éducation religieuse des enfants de ses ouailles que son caractère fut le mieux apparent. Ici il fut vraiment le Grand Pasteur combattant pour les agneaux (de son troupeau), et il fit bien la lutte et ne mit pas son armure de coté avant que la bataille fut gagnée.

Dans la vie privée il était gai, affable et plein de considération pour tous ceux qui vinrent en contact avec lui. Il était un brillant causeur et il n'y avait rien de plus agréable ou instructif que de s'asseoir à ses côtés et d'écouter son eloquente parole et de participer à sa grande connaissance universelle.

Sa mort fut des plus édifiantes pour les personnes présentes à son chevet : sans un murmure de plainte et avec une entière confiance dans le Maître qu'il servit si bien il passa à sa récompense éternelle.

NOTES.

La succursale No 1 de Windor, Ont., a célébré son 20me anniversaire le 10 Février au soir par un banquet. Ce fut une brillante réunion. Il y avait 111 convives à table.

A l'assemblée régulière de la succursale No. 132, Halifax, N. E., tenue le vendredi soir, 1er Février, frère W. J. Power, Grand Député pour le district de Hants, a présenté à cette succursale un joli maillet, prix gagné pour avoir initié le plus de membres que toute autre succursale dans la Nouvelle Ecosse durant l'année 1897—soit 21. Le maillet porte une plaque d'argent sur laquelle est gravée l'inscription suivante :— "Présenté à la succursale No. 132, A. C. B. M. par le Grand Député W. J. Power, pour avoir initié le plus grand nombre de membres qu'aucune succursale dans la Nouvelle Ecosse en 1897." Sur motion, des remerciements ont été votés au Grand Député Power pour son joli cadeau.

Le Grand Député frère J. R. Cragg laissez entendre qu'il ferait aussi une offre semblable à celle que frère Power avait fait au commencement de l'année 1897 : c'est à dire qu'il présenterait un insigne de l'A. C. B. M. à celui des membres d'Halifax ou de Dartmouth qui amènerait dans l'Association le plus grand nombre de membres pendant l'année 1898.

CORRESPONDANCE.

Editeur LE CANADIEN :

Cher Monsieur et Frère—Les numéros de Décembre et Janvier de notre organe officiel ont contenu beaucoup de ce qui a été appelé dans un article "Les nombreux grognards appartenant à notre grande et noble Association."

Beaucoup de choses ont été dites, toutes sans doute vraies, s'élavant contre l'existence de ce mécontentement dans nos rangs, mais je n'ai rien remarqué indiquant le remède au mal existant.

Toutes les fois qu'il y a maladie il n'est pas suffisant d'en indiquer le caractère, mais des moyens doivent être pris de suite pour arrêter son progrès et la vaincre, et je crois que le même principe devrait s'appliquer à notre société.

Que des grognards n'ont aucunes raisons d'être avec nous, je ne le nie pas ; personne n'apprécie plus que moi les avantages que les membres et leurs familles doivent retirer de notre grande association. Mais le fait reste que nous avons des grognards, et aussi longtemps que c'est le cas, ne devrions-nous pas regarder autour de nous et cher-cher quel est leur mécontentement ? Il est vrai qu'ils sont partout, avec ou sans raisons, mais nous devrions essayer de réduire leur nombre au minimum. " Moins il y a de friction plus il y a de révolte, s'applique à chacune et à toutes les institutions. Alors c'est le devoir de chacun en état de ce faire, d'essayer de localiser la révolte, ses causes, et de suggerer comment on peut y remédier. Chaque échelle qui prend un intérêt actif dans l'administration et le bien-être de sa succursale doit certainement avoir acquis quelque expérience et des formations sous ce rapport.

Pour ma part j'ai le chagrin d'admettre que j'suis aussi venu en contact avec ces individus qui font le sujet de cette lettre, et quel a été le ton de leurs remarques ? Dans chaque cas il s'agissait de la cotisation double "Une autre cotisation spéciale" ou "une autre cotisation double" et ainsi de suite.

J'ai mis la main sur les taux d'autres sociétés fraternelles et les ai comparés avec les nôtres, prenant pour base les cotisations que nous avons payées l'année dernière et nos taux étaient encore plus bas, mais à n'a semblé rien y faire.

Le fait réel est que la cause de ce mécontentement sont les cotisations extra, et je suis presque positif que c'est là la vraie conclusion à tirer.

La moyenne des membres objectent aux extra, comme en ont fait l'expérience d'autres sociétés et comme c'est le cas dans la nôtre maintenant.

S'il en est ainsi alors, pourquoi ne pas faire douze paiements égaux avec les 18 cotisations, c'est à dire que le taux consiste de 12 cotisations égales dont la somme sera le même montant réalisé par les 18 cotisations d'après.

Prenons un membre dont la cotisation est de $1.20 et qui fait 18 paiements dans une année se montant à $21.60 ; pourquoi cette somme ne pourrait-elle pas être répartie en douze paiements mensuels de $1.80 pour réaliser le même montant. La chose travaillerait beaucoup plus facilement, et chacun saurait exactement combien il aurait à payer chaque mois.

Vrai, cela n'empêchera pas et ne devrait pas empêcher de prélever des cotisations extra si nécessaires, mais une cotisation extra dans une année serait mieux que six, et on peut assez sûrement prédire que douze paiements mensuels équivalents à 18 cotisations au taux actuel seraient suffisantes pour rencontrer toutes les réclamations.

On pourra objecter que ce serait trop modifier la constitution. Je ne partage pas cette opinion. Je crois que la constitution doit être touchée et retouchée suivant les circonstances, comme de raison avec tout le soin et la prudence possibles, mais aussi souvent qu'on croit et qu'il est prouvé que les modifications amélioreront la condition de la société ; et s'il est entendu qu'une révision de notre échelle de taux serait avantageuse, alors par tous les moyens qu'il en soit ainsi, et aussi vite que la chose pourra se faire légalement.

Un autre côté très defectueux de notre échelle de taux est celui qui fait que le membre âgé de 10 ans paie le même taux que celui qui est plus vieux de quatre ans. Je crois que ce n'est pas juste et subversif du principe des affaires, et constituant une perte sérieuse pour la société.

Pourquoi ne pas avoir un taux allant de 18 à 35 ans en augmentant graduellement avec chaque année. Prenez la série des âges de 30 à 35 ans, au taux de $1.20 : le premier paie le même montant que les autres qui sont plus âgés que lui de un à quatre ans.

Supposons, par exemple, qu'en place de cela l'échelle se dirait comme suit :

A 18 ans, $1.20 ; 21, $1.22 ; 32,

33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, et 40

et, ceux de 41 et 42 ans paient le même taux qu'auparavant mais les autres entre ces deux ages paient proportionnellement comme leur âge augmente, et pour quel ne paient-ils pas ainsi ? Ce serait seulement juste pour tous les intéressés et l'augmentation du fonds des bénéfices vous surprendrait.

Je ne m'attends pas que les suggestions que je fais ici seront acceptées généralement, mais si je n'ai fait rien autre chose que de soulever un point qu'on pourra prendre et discuter au réveil de notre société, je serai satisfait, spécialement si cela tendait à redire l'humble grognard au milieu de nous.

Croyez moi,

Fraternellement à vous

Sam R. Brown, Ecr., Grand Secrétaire, London, Ont.

Cher Monsieur et Frère—Vous trouverez ci après, le 2ème Rapport des Succursales qui ont répondu à l'Appel de la Succursale No 161 de Nicolet P. Q. fait en faveur de frère Z. A. Langlois, ainsi que du montant souscrit par chacune d'elles.

Le frère Langlois est bien éprouvé : tout sa famille ayant été malade depuis le 15 Déc., jusqu'à il y a quelques jours où, pour comble de malheur la mort vient d'enlever à son affection dans l'espace de huit jours, deux de ses garçons bien-aimés, dont l'un âgé de 9 mois, et l'autre de 13 ans. La santé de la femme de notre frère est aussi très précaire, et inspire des craintes sérieuses.

Pour un frère éprouvé,
Voilà un frère éprouvé.

Nous engageons humblement les succursales qui n'ont pas encore répondu à l'Appel du frère Z. A. Langlois de bien vouloir le faire au plus tôt possible, vu que la condition de la famille de ce frère est vraiment critique.

A une assemblée des membres de la succursale St. Alexandre, No. 270 de l'A. C. B. J'accuse, pour les bénéficiaires, réception de $1,000, montant de la police sur la vie de feu D. F. Murphy dans l'Association Catholique de Bienfaisance Mutuelle du Canada.

Je prends ce moyen de remercier le Grand Conseil de l'A. C. B. M. du Canada, au nom des bénéficiaires de feu Frère Murphy, et je recommande par la présente l'A. C. B. M. à tous les jeunes gens Catholiques comme une association qui, à part d'autres avantages, fournit l'assurance sur la vie à des taux que l'on trouve parmi les plus bas que l'on peut se procurer en Canada.

Rollo Bay, 20 Février, 1898

St. Jean, N. B., 31 Mars, 1898.

Aux Officiers et membres de la succursale No. 267, A. C. B. M. Truro, N. E.

Messieurs—J'accuse avec reconnaissance réception, par l'entremise de votre Secrétaire Archiviste, Mr. John B. Truro, N. E., 24 Mars, 1898.

Aux Officiers et membres de la Succursale No. 267, A. C. B. M., Truro, N. E.

Messieurs—J'accuse réception, par l'entremise de votre Secrétaire Archiviste, Mr. John B. Jacobs, d'un chèque de $1,000, montant de la police d'assurance sur la vie de mon défunt fils, John McIsaac, dans votre Association. Je désire en même temps vous exprimer ma profonde appréciation et ma sincère gratitude pour l'intérêt fraternel et charitable que vous m'avez porté dans la mort si soudaine de mon défunt fils et particulièrement à l'occasion de ses funérailles.

Votre association mérite le support de tous les Catholiques qui ont à cœur le bien-être de leurs familles ou de ceux qui dépendent d'eux.

Je demeure, Messieurs, avec beaucoup d'estime et de gratitude,

Mary McIsaac.

COMMUNION PASCALE.

Le Dimanche des Rameaux les membres de la succursale No. 1, London, Ont., ont reçu la Sainte Communion, en corps. Il y avait un plus grand nombre de membres que d'habitude, du sans doute à une circulaire très bien rédigée que le président, Frère J. P. Murray, fit parvenir à chaque membre. Frère Murray est, croyons-nous, le plus jeune membre qui ait occupé la position de Président de cette succursale, et sa détermination de faire adhérer aux règlements fondamentaux de notre association ceux parmi lesquels il préside, réussie certainement beaucoup de crédit sur lui.

Dit, The London Free Press :

Les polices d'assurance dans les sociétés fraternelles et de bienfaisance doivent désigner la personne ou les personnes auxquelles la police est payable, ou la somme en question sera sujette aux réclamations des créanciers de l'assuré. Mme. James Fawcett, de Dunnville, Ont., n'a pu, en Cour à Toronto, dernièrement, recouvrer $2000, le montant de la police de son mari dans les "Select Knights of Canada," parceque la police était faite payable suivant testament, et le testament lui laissait la balance après les dettes payées. Un Statut d'Ontario, concernant les sociétés de bienfaisance stipule que telle assurance jusqu'à concurrence de $2,000 sera exempt de toutes réclamations de la part des créanciers de l'assuré, et à sa mort sera payée à la personne ou aux personnes y ayant droit d'après les règlements de la société, ou sera appliquée par la société telqu'il pourra être pourvu par ces règlements, à tempte de toutes réclamations par le représentant personnel ou les créanciers du défunt. Si la somme est ainsi payée en bonne foi par la société, mais à la fausse personne, cette somme ne peut être recouvrée de la société, mais peut l'être de la personne qui l'a reçue injustement. Son Honneur le juge Street a soutenu, en débattant la demande de la veuve sous cet acte, que vu qu'elle n'était pas désignée comme bénéficiaire sur la police l'Acte ne s'appliquait pas.

CONVENTIONS TRIENNALES.

Moncton, N. B.

Mr. l'Editeur :

Cher Monsieur et Frère, A en juger par l'impression de l'opinion que l'on entend émettre de tous côtés et partout dans les colonnes de notre organe "LE CANADIEN," à l'effet que les mots "Conventions Biennales" dans la clause 32ème de la constitution seront éliminés à la prochaine convention et remplacés par "Conventions Triennales," si cet amendement est adopté il sera certainement apprécié par un grand nombre des membres de l'association comme un acte dans la direction propre à réduire les dépenses de nos conventions, devenues si coûteuses. Les bons résultats de ces conventions, soit socialement, financièrement ou numériquement, il y en a, ne nous dédommagent pas il s'en faut de l'énorme dépense encourue. Si nous avons à la tête de notre association les meilleurs hommes possibles et en lesquels, à cause de leur mérite et de leurs principes des affaires, nous plaçons notre entière confiance, de même que les affaires de notre association, pour deux ans, pourquoi ne pas continuer cette même confiance durant trois ans. Le Comité des Finances fait l'audition des livres de l'association, lorsqu'il trouve corrects, la position finale de l'association est dans une condition satisfaisante, les syndics remplissent leurs devoirs en la même manière assidue : qu'est-il besoin de plus, leurs rapports nous sont transmis par "LE CANADIEN?" Il n'est pas nécessaire de faire une dépense de sept à huit mille dollars pour accepter leurs rapports, tel que soumis, car, Mr. l'Editeur, il y a très peu en plus de cela à notre convention, à part la modification de quelques clauses de la constitution, et souvent sans nécessité.

Vous remerciant pour l'espace, j'offrirai, dans votre prochain numéro, une suggestion pour procéder à faire la convention Triennale moins dispendieuse même que nos Conventions Biennales actuelles.

Fraternellement à vous,

JOHN SUTTON, Jr.

L'A. C. B. M. est la moins coûteuse, la plus sûre et la meilleure association pour les Catholiques. Pas d'incertitude, pas d'intérêts contradictoires, pas de dépenses extravagantes, pas de surplus énormes, pas de caprices d'officiers, pas de fluctuation dans la valeur des polices, pas de bureau d'un million de dollars, pas d'officiers recevant de gros salaires, pas de spéculation sur placements avec l'argent des membres dans l'A. C. B. M. Pour le montant d'affaires faites, le coût d'administration de l'A. C. B. M., est infiniment plus bas que dans toute autre Association sur le plan des cotisations ou organisation d'assurance sur la vie, sur le continent.
