Editorial Topics.

WHILE it is well to keep emphasizing from time to time the fact that Trinity is a University and an Arts' College, not a Divinity school merely, it is just as well, when fitting occasion presents itself, to remember that we have a school for training spiritual teachers and pastors. Any church which concerns itself only with itself may well consider seriously whether it is really Christian. It is a good sign, therefore, of the vitality of the Anglican Church in Canada and of Trinity's Divinity School, that missions abroad are of so great moment to them. More and more attention must be paid to the study of countries such as Japan, their political, social, and religious institutions, and, if possible, to their languages also. As with ourselves, so with foreigners, a message of any kind is more likely to receive a hearing if it be given to us by a sympathetic messenger who is fully alive to our modes of thought, our prepossessions, and our prejudices. There is not the glamour now about foreign missions which there used to be ten years ago and more. A journey to the so-called heathen countries is not so serious a thing as it was in earlier days, whereas life in some of them—particularly in Japan—tends to become more and more pleasant. Yet because of these very facts there is the more need for sympathy to be shown with those who go out as our representatives. Sympathy is what is needed also by many a struggling missionary in the domestic field. Money is needed by both classes of men, but sympathy is needed even more than money. And we who stay at home, whether clergy or laity, and go about our daily work have to remember to bring into that work more and more of the missionary, the Christ-like, spirit. Such are some of the thoughts re-awakened by farewell scenes of the kind presented to us on the evening of June 26th. To our alumni, Messrs. Shortt and Ryerson, we offer our good wishes for a prosperous voyage and for the highest success in the work to which they have given themselves—that of taking more light to those who have some light already, even if it be but that of Nature or of some great teacher of the past, whose rushlight is but a flicker caught from the dazzling light of eternal truth.

At the close of the college year we wish again to remind those whose subscriptions have not yet been paid that they have been due for some time. We have eight hundred nominal subscribers to THE REVIEW; but far more than half that number have not yet paid their subscriptions and still they expect to receive the paper. We must remind them that a paper of this sort cannot be kept up by good-will and kindly feelings; we feel that in most cases we receive that, but we must have something more substantial. We wish then that everyone who has received an account or whose subscription is due would kindly communicate with the Business Manager, either enclosing what is due or stating his reason for not doing so.

At a meeting of the Board of Editors THE NEW EDITOR of THE REVIEW, held on June the 20th, IN-CHIEF. Mr. D. T. Owen was unanimously elected Editor-in-Chief in place of Mr. Strathy, '00, who has sent in his resignation, to date from July. Mr. Owen has been on the staff since January, 1899, and from the energy and ability he has shown in the past we feel sure that he will ably fulfil his new duties. Two new assistant-editors have also been elected to fill the places left vacant by the resignations of Messrs. Warren and Code. Mr. F. J. Sawers, '01, and Mr. E. M. Sait, '02, will fill their positions.

TRINITY VS. ST. ALBAN'S C.C.

ON Saturday, May 12th, Trinity received rather a bad beating at the hands of St. Alban's C. C. Trinity won the toss and went to bat. They managed to get only fifty-one runs, no one making double figures. Mr. Simpson headed the score with eight runs. The bowling of St. Alban's was nothing out of the ordinary, but Trinity lost seven wickets by putting up easy catches.

St. Alban's piled up a good score in their innings, making 118 for eight wickets. Trinity was rather at a loss for bowlers in this match. Mockridge bowled well, securing six wickets for thirty-seven runs, while Mr. Simpson and Lucas each took one wicket.

TRINITY vs. U.C.C.

On Wednesday, May 16th, Upper Canada played an all day game with Trinity on the College campus. Trinity won on the first innings by seventy-eight to sixty-three runs. In the first innings Mockridge's bowling was phenomenal, at one time having seven wickets for four runs. At the fall of the ninth wicket MacKid joined Bonnell who had been playing a careful game, and they piled up the score to sixty-three runs, each putting up a good exhibition with sixteen, not out, and twenty-two respectively. After lunch, Trinity went to bat, and got seventy-eight runs, Cooper and Mr. Simpson each making sixteen runs in fine style, while Lucas played well for nine. In their second innings Upper Canada was disposed of for forty-six runs. Cooper's bowling was excellent. He took six wickets for twelve runs. Trinity in their second innings made the requisite number of runs for the loss of two wickets, thus winning by eight wickets. Mr. White came off in fine form here, batting in excellent style for twenty-one, not out.

TRINITY vs. PARKDALE C.C.

TRINITY and Parkdale met for their annual match on May 19th, on the College campus, the game resulting in a draw. Parkdale winning the toss, elected to bat and piled up the magnificent score of 127 for four wickets when they declared their innings. Leigh (ex-pro) contributed seventy-nine in a fine exhibition of batting. Goodyear and Chambers made sixteen and twenty respectively. Trinity's fielding was poor, and the bowlers seemed to be rather off colour. Trinity then went to bat, and got forty runs for four wickets. Cooper leading with twenty-five runs. Stumps were drawn at the fall of the fourth wicket, when time was called.

TRINITY vs. U.C.C.

On Tuesday, May 22nd, Trinity journeyed to Upper Canada College to play a return match, and were defeated by the close score of 43-40. Trinity as usual lost the toss and took the field. It did not take long to dispose of Upper Canada with forty-three runs, to which Leslie contributed ten. For Trinity, Cooper alone made double figures. Two good men were run out through bad lack of judgment. Quite a bit of excitement attended the fall of the last wicket. When it was announced that forty was up the climax was reached, and a loud cheer burst from the Upper Canada boys as the wickets went down. After the game Mr. Peacock entertained the teams in his room. The scores were as follows:—

TRINITY VS. TORONTO-ROSEDALE.

THE Queen's Birthday has always been a gala day at Trinity and this year was no exception. Toronto-Rosedale played their annual game with Trinity, and although Trinity was beaten by a small number of runs, the team put up a good fight for victory. Some 200 persons witnessed the game in the afternoon, and enjoyed Glionna's stirring music on the terrace. Trinity lost the toss and took the field. Toronto played a good innings for 107. The wicket-keeping and long-stopping were excellent, not a single extra being given. Forrester contributed thirty-eight in a fine exhibition. Hardisty, Boyd and Wright played good games for twenty-nine, fifteen and twelve. Trinity gave their opponents a large number of runs by some poor fielding. Quite a number of catches were also missed. Trinity went to bat after lunch, and managed to pile up ninety-four runs. Mockridge distinguishing himself by his score of thirty-six, for which he played beautifully.

TRINITY VS. HAMILTON.

ON Wednesday, May 30th, Trinity and Hamilton met for the annual match on the Trinity campus. Trinity winning by a score of 143 for nine wickets to 72. The finish of the match was hindered by rain. Hamilton won the toss, and went to bat, managing to get seventy-two runs, of which Ferrie and Washington made twenty-four and twenty in fine style. For Trinity Cooper bowled well, getting eight wickets for thirty-three runs. In the afternoon Trinity went to bat, and got 143 runs for nine wickets, the last man being unable to bat on account of rain. For Trinity, Strathy made the score of the day, batting 41 runs in excellent style. Mr. White and Mr. Simpson also contributed a good number, hitting out well for twenty-eight and twenty-two. Sawers and Mockridge got double figures, making thirteen, not out, and ten.

TRINITY VS. VARSITY

ON June 2nd, Trinity and Varsity met for their annual match, which ended in Varsity's victory on the first innings by a score of 61-43. The Varsity men turned up late, so the game did not start until after twelve o'clock. There had been a very heavy rain during the night, consequently the wicket was wet. Trinity felt the loss of Cooper, but they were ably supplemented by Broughall and Griffith of last year's team, and by Ryerson of Trinity Med. Trinity won the toss, and went to bat. They were disposed of for forty-three runs, Mockridge making highest score, hitting out well for nineteen. Varsity then went to bat and made sixty-one, Kilgour and Mullin leading with fourteen and thirteen. Broughall's bowling was wonderful seeing that this was his first attempt in the year.

Trinity went to bat, determined to try and win on the second innings. They made a very good score, getting seventy-three for six wickets, when they declared their innings. Mockridge came off again, making a score of thirty-eight, not out, in magnificent style. Mr. White also got double figures. About 4.30 Trinity sent Varsity to bat, but they were unable to dispose of them before the time was up, so Varsity won on the first innings.

THE last meeting of the Executive Council for this year was held on June 22nd. The chief business was the appointment of captains of the teams for the ensuing year.

This resulted as follows:—

Football.—I. A. R. Macdonald, '99.

Hockey.—F. J. Sawers, '01.

Cricket.—W. H. M. Mockridge, '00.

CENTENNIAL OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK.

CHARMINGLY situated on the right bank of the St. John's river, eighty-four miles from its mouth, nestles the capital of the Province of New Brunswick. Fredericton is a town of not more than seven thousand inhabitants, but it possesses many fine public buildings and wears an air of substantial prosperity and of refinement. The Anglican Cathedral, a beautiful specimen of Gothic architecture, is worthy of the revered memory of the great Bishop Medley, its founder. The Parliament Buildings and City Hall are also worthy of notice. But the building which concerns us most for the purpose of this article is that of the University of New Brunswick, which occupies a commanding position on College Hill, affording, from the top of its cupola, a splendid view of the whole surrounding country.

The University of New Brunswick celebrated its hundredth anniversary on the last three days of May, and representative University men from the British Isles, the United States, and many parts of Canada, gathered in Fredericton as guests of the University, to rejoice with them and bid them a hearty Godspeed through the new century.

On the first day of the celebration, the delegates and others assembled in the College Hall at two o'clock and, preceded by a band and vested in academic or official dress, marched in procession down the hill and through the town to the Parliament Buildings. The floor of the house was occupied mainly by the University and other guests, the galleries by citizens of Fredericton, including the choirs of the churches, and in the chair was the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province. After the singing of the hymn, "O God our Help in Ages Past," and the recitation of the Lord's Prayer, addresses of welcome were given by the Chancellor, the President of the Senate, and the President of the Alumni Society. After this the honorary degree of LL.D. was conferred upon representatives of visiting Universities, and upon a few others. Afterwards, the representatives of Oxford, Cambridge, and Cornell delivered hearty congratulatory orations, and parchment addresses were formerly handed in by them and by representatives of many other Universities. Late in the afternoon, the singing of the National Anthem brought to a close the long and interesting ceremony. It was at this gathering, quite early in the proceedings, that the sudden death of Dr. Rand, of Toronto, occurred, and so tragic an event necessarily cast a serious and sombre light upon the proceedings, which would else have been characterized only by brightness and enthusiasm. In the evening of the same day the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. McClelan held a reception in the Buildings, which was very largely attended.

REV. T. C. STREET MACKLEM, M.A., LL.D.
Provost and Vice-Chancellor

The second day of the celebration was called Students' Day, and included a procession, in academic robes as before, from the Parliament Buildings to the City Hall, where an address of welcome to the visitors was delivered by the Mayor of Fredericton, and short addresses were delivered to the students by many of the delegates. Then, at one o'clock, a grand luncheon in Windsor Hall, by invitation of the Mayor and Corporation; in the afternoon the annual College Sports on the athletic grounds; and in the evening a concert and dramatic performance by the students at the opera house, bringing to a close a very full and enjoyable day.

On the third and last day of the commemoration the morning was left free, the formal programme commencing at half past three in the afternoon with a reception in the University building by the Chancellor and Mrs. Harrison. At half past five the whole company adjourned to another part of the grounds where Mrs. McClelan laid, well and truly, the foundation stone of a new Science Building. The final function was an evening "At Home," given by the Alumni in their old College, where a very large gathering of the hospitable people of Fredericton and the visiting delegates enjoyed themselves to the utmost. On the ground floor was dancing for those who desired it, and on the first floor a promenade concert for the smaller number whose preference tended that way. Many of the guests were passing to and fro continually, from the music and dancing down-stairs, to the other music without dancing up-stairs, until the opening of the supper-room in the basement united dancers and non-dancers in a common pursuit.

The Centennial was a notable occasion. The programme was well conceived, and thoroughly well carried out. The representatives were enthusiastic, and took part to the full in all the proceedings. The good people of Fredericton and the University were untiring in their hospitable attentions. And last but not least, the weather was superb. Perhaps the most enjoyable feature of all was the opportunity afforded of informal intercourse between representative University men from all parts, and of pleasant interchange of thoughts and views. The University of New Brunswick is to be heartily congratulated on its past work and on its Centennial celebration, while it certainly carries with it into the new century the hearty good wishes of all who were so hospitably and charmingly entertained during those long-to-be-remembered closing days of May, 1900.

THE PROVOST.

WITH this number of THE REVIEW the business manager is fortunately able to present to subscribers an engraving of the new Provost, and the editor to supplement the brief notices which have hitherto appeared with one more lengthy from the hand of one who has known him from his school days.

There are two well-defined classes of United Empire

Loyalists; the one, corresponding somewhat to the "poor whites" of the Southern States, is no credit to any country, but the other, aided by sturdy Scotchmen, Irishmen, and Englishmen, did the pioneer work in this and other provinces of the Dominion and made it possible for the country to become what it is and what it is yet to be. To this latter class belonged our first Chancellor, Sir John Beverley Robinson, Bart., who was a distinguished lawyer, soldier, statesman, and judge in his own day and generation. To the same class belong our honoured Chancellor and the Provost, who has so lately come to us with a characteristic lack of ostentation and who has already shown that the quiet, persistent energy which he has employed to good purpose elsewhere is to be given full play for the benefit of Trinity and all its interests.

If heredity accounts largely for the capability just spoken of and for the Provost's enthusiasm for Canada and things Canadian, his environment in early life must also be given its due. Chippawa, in the county of Welland, is known to most of us as the place beyond which we do not ride on the electric cars. To others of us it is a town that was once busy and wealthy. It had a large carrying trade before and after the Welland canal was built, freight being transhipped thence by means of train-cars and of waggons over the old post road through Drummondville (now Niagara Falls South) and Stamford, to Queenston, which as late as 1840 was also a thriving town and quite different from the collection of houses which we know under that name at the present day.

The war of 1812 made both towns famous in the annals of our country, though the battle of Queenston Heights stands out more prominently than the battle of Chippawa just as the Heights themselves stand out more boldly and picturesquely than Chippawa does. The latter nestles comfortably at the mouth of the Welland river and, because of the conformation of the land, cannot be seen till you come right into it, whether you are going up or coming down the Niagara river.

In 1837 troops were seen in this part of the country again, in connection with the rebellion fomented by Wm. Lyon Mackenzie, who had at one time been an inhabitant of Queenston. Navy island, which is also connected with this leader's name, lies in the Niagara river not very far away from Chippawa.

A third time the border town was harassed by fears of war when the militia was called out along the St. Clair, the Detroit, the Niagara, and the St. Lawrence rivers to guard the frontier against the expected Fenian Raids. Of the actual landing at Fort Erie and of the battle at Ridgeway, it is not for me to speak, but from 1866-1870 dates the final decay of Chippawa. The leading citizens of the town betook themselves elsewhere and did not return to carry on their business. It seems hard to believe that little more than thirty years ago it was necessary for Ontario people to leave their homes and to bury under their doorsteps such valuables as they could not conveniently take with them. That, however, was the case in which the Macklem family found themselves at that time. People who suffer for, and take a part in, defending their country may well love it; and at last we have come to the point where we can say that "our English brother understands."

In the Upper Canada College Memorial Volume it stands recorded that Macklem, T. C. S. entered that oldest of our public schools in 1874, and a very young boy he was then. My own recollections of him are strongest in connection with the Sixth Form. He was then one of the brightest and jolliest of our little company of twelve, and none was more profoundly respected than he. I remember a chap who used to swear frightfully upon all occasions, necessary and unnecessary,—if such distinctions hold. Some of us were disgusted (perhaps we were pigs), some of us took it all as a matter of course, but a cure was effected by punches being administered—by whom my readers may guess—every time the offence was committed. And such a beaming smile and such a hearty ejaculation accompanied the punches aforesaid!

We had a Literary Society, the subjects of debate being sometimes chosen from a list of suggestions contained in an old book of rules for debate. One that greatly excited us was the "Advisability of Early Marriages." Only the other day the Provost reminded me of the offence he, as chairman for the day, had given to the leader of the negative, one of his most intimate friends, by his decision in favour of early marriage!

As editor of the College Times, he came more prominently before the school than in any other way, his treasurer being the Rev. C. B. Beck, of Peterborough. Naturally, one thinks of the things of his own school days as being just a little better than anything he has seen since, but, making all due allowance for this tendency, I do think that the College Times for 1881-1882 was better than it has ever been since then and better also than any other school paper I have been acquainted with. All sorts of subjects were handled, and handled well, the most ambitious being, perhaps, a series of articles on "Old Boys" who were in public life.

There was a censorship of the press exercised by the Principal because of certain license which earlier editors had indulged in, but he was a man whom we not only admired but loved, so censure was not often necessary. Because of his influence upon the Provost (and others) I cannot do better than quote from an article upon the Principal which is to be found in the memorial volume already referred to. "Whatever may have been the expectations of those who suggested Mr. Buchan's appointment to the principalship, and they were doubtless high, they cannot have been disappointed. The same manliness, uprightness, and simplicity of character, the same devotion to learning, diligence in business, and conscientiousness in the discharge of his many duties, and the same gentleness and kindness which had won and kept the love and respect of many in his student days, in his earlier manhood as a schoolmaster, and, in the succeeding years, in the exceedingly difficult position of Inspector of High Schools, caused him to be loved, respected, and, after his death, sincerely mourned by those college boys who were fortunate enough to know him. * * * To them generally it was clear that, in becoming Principal, it was not so much he who was honoured, but rather he who had done honour to the College. In them, though dead, he lives again, an inspiration to the doing of noble deeds."

Instead of taking up residence at University College, as he had intended to do after matriculating in 1882, the Provost went to Cambridge and became a member of St. John's College, to which Dr. Jones, the Dean, and Dr. Body, Trinity's Provost from 1881 to 1894, all belong. His residence there may have made him more British, it did not make him less a Canadian; it certainly did give him advantages which we cannot obtain in Canada even now. There is something which appeals strongly to the imagination in connection with the traditions of an old seat of learning, which, with its elder sister, has had a wonderful influence upon the nation's life. Its ancient buildings and its ancient customs, its many colleges with their distinctive peculiarities, together making up a university character which stamps a man as a Cambridge man—all of these things are worth living among. And so far as it may be done, we here in Toronto are to carry on traditions such as these under the guidance and leadership of a man who has been fitted by all of his previous training for the work which lies to his hand.

Of the Provost's ordination, his curacy at All Saints' Church, and his incumbency of St. Simon's it is unnecessary for me to speak. They are facts which everyone knows. He has been active in a society known as the Church Club, which has for its objects the obliteration of party lines, the discussion of questions of vital importance to the Church, and the promotion of the work, the prosperity, and the spiritual life of the Church.

At Trinity he was no stranger prior to his appointment as Provost, for he had been admitted to an ad eundem R.A. degree, proceeding to the degree of Master of Arts in 1887. In the missionary operations of the college he has taken a keen interest, of which the incident related at the farewell meeting in Convocation Hall the other evening was but one indication. Five hundred dollars guaranteed on the spur of the moment from Trinity so that the Mission Board might go on with its arrangement for sending Mr. Shortt and Mr. Ryerson out to Japan! It was an act of faith as well as of business promptness, and Trinity men will not murmur at not having been consulted, but will justify the confidence reposed in them.

Men who work seldom talk, and just as seldom do they like others to talk about their work. In the two months the Provost has been with us we have seen him finding time from his many engagements to begin to make acquaintance with the men. He has taken steps also to assure graduates that they may look upon Trinity as their home while they are in town. He has begun to advertise the place and to look about for students to fill it. He has made a flying trip to Fredericton to receive an honorary degree and to represent Trinity at the centenary celebration of the University of New Brunswick. He has addressed meetings of synod in various dioceses and has met with a hearty welcome wherever he has been, full opportunity being given to him to lay the claims of Trinity before the representatives of the Church. He has preached the ordination sermon in Toronto and has taken a run down to Port Hope to preach to the boys at Trinity College School. Finally, he has been looking into the financial problem and the more intricate one of federation. It is much for two months, and it has been quietly and unostentatiously done.

With vigour and leadership such as have been indicated, there need be no fear for Trinity's future. The only thing is for all her friends to rally to her support and to do for her the kind of work our leader deems it best to assign to them, whether they be graduates, undergraduates or non-academic supporters of the principles upon which Trinity was founded."

PROFESSOR HUNTINGFORD composed the following verse to be sung with Mex' ayōwa in celebration of the fall of Pretoria:—

Capta est Pretoria,
Kruger est desertus.
Honor atque gloria!
Rem gerit Robertus!

OWING to the lack of space the results of the examinations will have to be held over till the next issue. We offer our congratulations to the successful candidates and our deepest sympathy to those who have unfortunately failed to satisfy the examiners.

CONVOCATION.

THE Spring Convocation took place in Convocation Hall on the afternoon of May 18th. As is usual, the majority of degrees conferred were medical.

After the opening prayers had been read by the Registrar, the installation of the Rev. T. C. Street Macklem as Vice-Chancellor of the University followed. Dr. Macklem, after thanking Convocation for the honour just conferred upon him, referred to his other new position, namely, the Provostship of Trinity College. He felt that there was a future, and a great one, before Trinity, and he was proud to feel that it had fallen to his lot to be so closely connected with the future of this great University.

Mr. Macklem was most enthusiastically received and his remarks were greeted with loud applause.

The conferring of the various degrees then followed, fifty-four men and seven ladies receiving the degree of M.D., C.M. One degree in Dentistry, three in Music and one M.A. were also conferred.

Messrs. F. C. Trebilcock and E. S. Ryerson were awarded the final gold and silver medals respectively, and in the Primary class the silver medallists were Messrs. J. J. Thomson and R. W. Irving.

The Chancellor and others then gave short addresses and the benediction closed the proceedings.

College Chronicle.

QUEEN'S weather on May 24th assured the success of Trinity's annual celebration. A large number of friends from different parts of the city gathered on the terrace during the afternoon to watch the cricket match between Toronto-Rosedale and Trinity. Glionna's orchestra provided excellent music. At about half past five, after a light refreshment on the lawn, an adjournment was made to Convocation Hall, where the programme was concluded with a very jolly dance.

WE take this earliest opportunity of expressing our deepest sympathy with Mr. Richards, whose home was one of the many swept away in the recent conflagration at Ottawa.

OUR readers will be very sorry to hear of Mr. Simpson's continued illness. His short trip does not seem to have benefitted him much. We sincerely hope that he will soon be himself again and will be able to enjoy a well-deserved holiday.

REV. W. H. WHITE, who has been a fellow and lecturer of Trinity for the last six years, has now severed his connection with the College. We can safely say that no 'don' ever took a more active part in college sports than Mr. White, and his loss to both the football and the cricket team will be felt very greatly. After the summer months are over Mr. White intends to spend a year in London, where he will be occupied in parish work. The best wishes of the College go with him.

DURING the last term, and particularly within the last month, we have had the pleasure of seeing a great many old friends and graduates in the college. Among these were Rev. C. H. Mockridge, D.D., of Watertown, N.Y., G. Carter Troop, B.A., '92, H. C. N. Wilson, '97, and H. T. S. Boyle, B.A., '98.

THE graduating class this year will be smaller than usual, but what they lack in quantity they make up for in quality. They are all good sports and have all taken during their whole course the greatest interest in college institutions. Messrs. G. B. Strathy, S. J. Whittaker, R. A. Carman and A. H. Birmingham will study law next year at Osgoode; Mr. A. S. B. Lucas will take a course in mining at McGill, while Messrs. F. H. Handsfield and L. A. Trotter will be engaged in parish work. Messrs. R. B. Nevitt and G. B. Gordon will take up the Divinity course next year.

Trinity Medical College.

FOLLOWING are the names of those who have obtained certificates of honour in the first year's examinations of Trinity Medical College:—

Seventy-five per cent. and upwards—H. E. Eaglesham, W. T. Gemmell, W. C. Arnold, W. B. Honey, W. E. Mason, W. F. Young, E. B. Beer, A. G. Thompson, C. C. Cragg.

Seventy per cent. and upwards.—First-class honours—Johnston, C. C. Ashley, C. B. Stone, J. W. Rowntree, B. F. Cowsler, A. W. Canfield, J. P. Cade, G. P. Campbell, J. C. Carlaw.

Sixty per cent. and upwards.—Second class honours—T. J. Tindle, J. McL. Baldwin, E. V. Smith, J. E. F. Glendenning, J. H. Kidd, A. H. Cook, W. W. Milburn, G. F. N. Richardson, C. H. Mair, M. J. Perkins, N. F. Coombe, F. W. Hill, H. W. Coulter.

Passed.—F. J. Dodds, P. W. Tuller, E. T. Curran, C. E. Duggan, J. McKenzie, L. W. Allen, B. D. Munro, B. H. Hamilton, E. S. Dixon, J. A. Anderson, J. S. Kennedy, A. W. Hicks, W. T. Adams, H. F. N. Vernon, R. A. Thomas, H. A. McKay.

R. S. Conboy, conditioned in histology; J. B. McKay, conditioned in physiology and practical histology; R. S. Milbee, conditioned in materia medica and chemistry.

Following are the names of those who have won prizes and scholarships:

Special prize in physiology (Dr. Sheard's), W. T. Gemmell, 1st, first year's scholarship, H. C. Eaglesham; 2nd, first year's scholarship, W. T. Gemmell; 3rd, first year's scholarship, W. C. Arnold.

T. C. S. Notes.

WE are all looking forward eagerly to the end of the term, and incidentally to the festivities which mark its close. There is promise of an unusually large attendance on Speech Day. In consequence, the customary speeches will be delivered in the gymnasium. Among those expected to be present to express their views on Education in general and this school's work in particular, are the Bishop of Toronto, our distinguished Old Boy, Bishop Anderson, the new Provost and the Minister of Education. The Cadet Corps will parade in all their khaki glory. Their appearance is very smart and they must prove a very great attraction. The mothers especially are sure to be delighted with their boys' evolutions. There is to be an inspection on Monday, the 25th, by Lieut-Col. Hughes, of the 46th Battalion. Both he and Major H. A. Ward have offered prizes for shooting, and the competition has to be decided this term. The boys have shown great skill at the butts: the small rifle is a distinct inspiration.

THE cricket has been all-absorbing lately. It is not often that we play two such exciting games as those with Ridley and Hamilton. In both games the eleven showed marvellous persistency and self-control—qualities not often marked in boys. We are now hoping for equal success against U.C.C. At any rate, the match should evoke excellent cricket.

OUR McGill boys have been throwing lustre on the Old School. P. K. Robinson has won the Dawson Fellowship in Mining Engineering, while E. Andrewes and J. E. K. Osborne were successful in their B.Sc. examinations, the former taking most creditable honours. Soon we trust to have our batch of honours from Old Trinity. Through

F. T. Lucas's unfortunate illness during the R. M. C. examinations, we have probably lost the distinction of first place at entrance. W. R. McConkey will, we trust, come out head of the final year at R. M. C. and carry off the gold medal and other distinctions.

THIS has been a memorable year at school as well as elsewhere. Our Old Boys have been prominent in all walks of life and especially in the war. We hope soon to have to chronicle some military distinctions as rewards for valuable services rendered to the Empire in her hour of need.

WE are unfortunate in losing our matron, Mrs. Sey, but no one can grudge her the change. She has been most zealous in her watchful care over the boys, a true mother to them, and moreover a most clever manager in the domestic economy of the school.

S. Hilda's Notes.

ON May 23rd, the College was honoured by a visit from Lady Minto.

The Alumnae of S. Hilda's College held their annual meeting in the Common Room on Saturday, May 16th, at 3.30 p.m. After prayers in the chapel, the meeting was opened by the reading of the Secretary-Treasurer's reports. The President, Miss Laing, gave an interesting address. She spoke of the progress the College had made during the year, and of the outlook for the future. She dwelt at some length on the widely-discussed question of the introduction of Domestic Science into the educational system, and closed with a word of welcome to the in-coming members. Election of officers followed: President, Miss Constantinides; 1st Vice-President, Miss Mairs; 2nd Vice-President, Miss Woon; Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Macdougall. It was then moved and carried that the money in the treasury for the coming year should be used for an Alumnae bursary. Letters from absent members were read, among them one from Miss Laing from Manilla. At the meeting were present representatives of the years '91, '92, '93, '96, '98, '99, '00. After the meeting adjourned tea was served on the verandah, at which the professors and other guests were present.

Miss Connor, '96, has been staying at S. Hilda's while taking the second year examination in singing at the Conservatory of Music.

S. Hilda's was glad to welcome back Miss Wood, '99, and Miss Brown, '00, who have come up to write examinations.

Miss Kittridge, '01, has been at the College, writing not only the arts examination of the second year, but also the Normal School Kindergarten examinations.

Miss Muriel Rogers is to be congratulated on having obtained fifth place in first class honours, in a class of sixty, at the recent examinations at the Conservatory of Music.

Miss Kirkpatrick, '00, sailed for England early in June.

Miss Playter has very kindly presented the College with a visitors' book, in which Lady Minto was the first to write.

Personal.

REV. J. R. H. WARREN, B.A., was ordained priest by the Bishop of Ottawa at Pembroke, Ont., on Tuesday, June 5th.

WE deeply regret to record the death, in the discharge of his duty as a soldier of the Empire, of Gunner E. Patrick O'Reilly, B.A., E. Battery, R.C.A., in South Africa. Mr. O'Reilly was a '95 graduate of Trinity, well-known and popular, and his death has caused widespread sorrow. THE REVIEW extends to his bereaved father, Major O'Reilly, master of the Supreme Court, Hamilton, the deepest sympathy and the assurance that the memory of his brave son is very green in the memory of his Alma Mater.

THE Revs. C. H. Short and Ryerson sail for Japan via England on July 4th. Trinity may well be proud of her two sons who are leaving home and country in the service of the Church.

THE Rev. F. W. Kennedy of Matsumoto, Japan, is home for his vacation, and is at present staying with his family at Balmy Beach.

THE Rev. John Bushel, B.A., has left Norwood, Ont., to take the curacy of Grace Church, Brantford, left vacant by the departure of the Rev. C. W. Hedley for Rosland, B.C.

ON Sunday, June 10th, at St. Albans Cathedral, the Revs. L. W. B. Broughall, G. E. Ryerson and H. McCausland were ordained priests, and Messrs. Owen, Brain, Musson and Walker were ordained deacons. The sermon was preached by the Provost.

AMONG the successful students in the recent law examinations at Osgoode Hall were Mr. N. Summerville, B.A., who carried off a scholarship and Mr. R. H. Parmenter, B.A. Both men belonged to the famous year '99.

WE congratulate Messrs. J. M. Baldwin, B.A., A. Canfield and C. E. Duggan on the high standing they took in the Medical examinations.

AT the recent ordination in Ottawa, Revs. E. A. Johnston, B.A., '97, and R. H. Steacy, B.A., were ordained priests and George Code, B.A., deacon.

MR. H. T. BOYLE, B.A., has just finished another successful year at the Diocesan Theological College, Montreal. The college magazine speaks in glowing terms of Mr. Boyle's successful college career and of the great abilities he has shown.

MARRIAGE.—Carey-Shibley—In Christ Church Cathedral, Montreal, on Tuesday, 12th ult., by the Rev. Canon Norton, rector, the Venerable Archdeacon Carey, rector of St. Paul's Church, Kingston, to Edith Marion, daughter of the late Schuyler Shibley, M.P., of Kingston.

WE offer our congratulations to Mr. J. H. Collinson, M.A., of T.C.S., on the birth of his son on June 7th.

ONE of our most distinguished graduates, Major-General Charles Walker Robinson, is expected to arrive in the city in a few days. He graduated in 1855 and got his commission in 1857. He has seen a great deal of service, having been through the Crimean War, the Indian Mutiny, the Ashanti and the Zulu War. In 1895 he was appointed Lieutenant-Governor and Secretary of the Chelsea Hospital; he still holds this post. General Robinson is a son of the late Sir John Beverley Robinson.

WE quote the following from the Pembroke Standard of June 6th. "The ordination service at Holy Trinity Church yesterday was attended by a large congregation, and they were witnesses of one of the most imposing religious functions ever held in Pembroke. The service was fully choral. The sermon was a sound, practical and solemn exposition of the doctrine of the priesthood and its practical application to the needs of the day, founded on the words 'As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.' A tasty luncheon was provided by the parish for the clergy and their friends. At the conclusion of the luncheon the Bishop, in a few happy words, congratulated all on the very beautiful service which had been rendered in the church, and ended by thanking the ladies and congregation for the kind way they had provided for the entertainment of the clergy. The congratulations of all present were tendered to Mr. Warren on his elevation to the priesthood."

REPORT OF TRINITY UNIVERSITY.

THE Annual Report of Trinity University is herewith presented to the several Synods of the Province of Ontario.

It is perhaps hardly necessary to point out that Trinity University is the joint property of all the Dioceses in the Province of Ontario, belonging not more to the Diocese of Toronto, in which it is situated, than to any other Diocese of the Province.

The Church in this Province has in Trinity a very valuable asset, amounting to considerably over half a million dollars. Such a splendid property is, from the mere business point of view, worth more care and attention than has heretofore been given to it by the several Dioceses. We feel, therefore, that we are only urging what is to the manifest interest of all parts of the Church in this Province when we ask that each Synod shall do its utmost to render this valuable asset fully and richly productive.

Every Diocese in the Province, except Algoma, is represented on its governing body by the Bishop of the Diocese and four other members, while the Missionary Diocese of Algoma is represented by its Bishop alone.

The Financial Statement for the year ending September 30, 1899, is as follows:

While this statement is certainly far from satisfactory, yet we must bear in mind that every great public institution is subject to occasional reverses, and Trinity has just been passing through a period of adverse fortunes. We believe, however, that the tide has already turned, and that subsequent statements will show increased and increasing prosperity. It needs only that the whole Church in the Province should rally to the support and strengthening of our Church University, for Trinity to be put, in a few years, into a stronger position than ever before.

Trinity is thoroughly well equipped for carrying on the large and important educational work entrusted to it. We have a full and efficient staff of Professors and lecturers in residence, with additional examiners and occasional lecturers not in residence. A distinguished honour was conferred upon the Senior Professor on our Staff, the Reverend Dr. Wm. Clark, of the Chair of Mental and Moral Philosophy, by his election to the Presidency of the Royal Society of Canada for the year just closed. And it will be fitting to draw attention here to the high estimation in which the Church holds the former Provost, the Rev. Canon Welch, as shown by his advancement to the most important and influential parochial charge in the Province of Ontario, the Rectory of St. James' Cathedral. We are happy to be able to state that Trinity will still enjoy the services of Dr. Welch as lecturer and examiner.

The extensive range of the work of Trinity University may be inferred from a consideration of the Faculties in which Degrees are conferred, and of the affiliated Colleges in which instruction is given. The Faculties are seven, namely, Arts, Divinity, Medicine, Law, Music, Pharmacy and Dentistry. The Colleges in affiliation are five, namely, Trinity College, with residence for men, S. Hilda's College, the residence for women, Trinity Medical College, the Ontario Medical College for Women, and the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

The number of Degrees conferred in the Academic year (ending September 30, 1899), is 115, including one honorary degree, as follows:—D.C.L. (honoris causa), 1; D.D. (jure dignitatis), 2; D.C.L., 1; B.D., 2; M.D., C.M., 68; D.D.S., 1; M.A., 8; B.C.L., 7; B.A., 23; Mus. Bac., 2.

The new S. Hilda's College is now completed, and has been occupied since October last. The building, which is heated by steam, lighted by electricity and supplied with complete sanitary arrangements, is situated in the University grounds, two minutes' walk from Trinity College, where the young ladies attend the lectures. The exceptional advantages which this College affords to young ladies who desire either to proceed to a University degree or to add one, two or three years to their School course, should be made as widely known as possible throughout the Province.

The most important department of the work of the University is, of course, Trinity College itself. The residential system, which forms so important a feature in the education of our young men, receives here the most careful and constant attention, and its influence upon the students is unmistakably good. The young men who come under our care enjoy exceptional advantages and associations which make for strong and self-reliant character. The constant and friendly intercourse between professors and students, living together in the same building, exercises a salutary and refining influence; while the daily chapel services, with the doctrinal teaching given in the lecture rooms, help to lay deep, strong and abiding that foundation of faith and trust in God without which our young men cannot be fitted to take their places as leaders of thought and action in the literary, professional and political life of our great and growing Dominion. Trinity College, while based originally on the model of the grand old Colleges of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, may now, after fifty years of growth pari passu with the development of our national life, fairly lay claim to be a thoroughly Canadian Institution, and it is the firm purpose of the present Provost, who is the first Canadian to hold this office, to keep Trinity always in close and sympathetic touch with Canadian life and Canadian needs.

To those who may be unable to take the full course of three years which is necessary to obtain an Arts Degree, we desire to point out that both Trinity College and S. Hilda's College are open to students taking partial courses. Such students are not required to pass the matriculation examination, and may select from the curriculum any partial course of study they desire to pursue. Students preparing for Holy Orders, after taking the three years' Arts' Course in common with all other students in that faculty, remain in College during two years longer for a special Divinity Course.

In conclusion we will quote a paragraph from our Calendar:—"The fundamental object of the University is to supply to the people of the Province an academic education of the highest kind, in which secular instruction shall not be dissociated from religious teaching. The University is under the control of the Church of England, but open to all who desire to avail themselves of its advantages."

Respectfully submitted on behalf of Trinity University,
T. C. STREET MACKLEM,
Provost and Vice-Chancellor.
