Specials.

Next Lord's Day Pastor Fash will again occupy the pulpit.

Rev. F. E. Gates, (son of our beloved Brother W. J. Gates) who so ably supplied for us Aug. 7th, will again preach on Sunday Evg., Sept. 4.

Personnel, Rev. W. N. Hutchins, Cuning (one of our boys) who spent his vacation at Northfield, Mass., and now returning to his church, made a brief call upon his Halifax friends this week, we were glad to give him a hearty greeting.

The Convention Fund Committee, are now organized for work, and they assure us that the allotment and more will be raised this year. Energetic workers with well defined plans will accomplish grand results. You have our support—so say we all.

Death. Our sister Mrs. Wm. Smith, visiting here from Portsmouth, N. H., became suddenly ill on Sunday evening and passed away on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Smith (or Bertha) known to many of us, united with the North Baptist Church some years ago. She is the daughter of Nathaniel Smith, Cogswell St., and leaves a husband and little children Murray and Hazel, with many dear friends to mourn. May their burdens be cast upon the Lord who alone can sustain in this the hour of affliction.

“Asleep in Jesus! blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep—
A calm and undisturbed repose
Unbroken by the last of foes.”

Organ Committee will meet in the Parlour Monday evening, at 8 o'clock. Sub-Committees will attend and report.

The Maritime Convention, is being held at Amherst to-day. Pray for a rich blessing upon all assembled.

Our Sick—Sister Annie Miller is ill at Victoria General Hospital. Bro. Gates and Sisters Card and Burgoyne are slightly better. Deacon N. McDonald and J. Boutilier will soon cross over the river. Are there others sick?

Mortgage Com. Brothers Harris and Soulis have done excellent work this week. They seem confident that all subscribers will respond. They have struck a system for paying in the sums subscribed, and it will be developed at an early day. Aid these brethren all you can.

Rev. H. R. Hatch gave us two able sermons last Sunday—“Am I my Brother's Keeper,” and “Spiritual Equilibrium.” How would it do to hold these up daily, and live up to and act out their highest thought.

Deacon James C. Dumaresq is the worthy son-in-law of Deacon McDonald. He is a native of Sydney, C. B., and joined that church by baptism in 185 when 19 years of age. He studied several years at Acadia and then settled in Halifax—an Architect—and joined the N. B. Church by letter. In 1877 he removed to St. John and became an active worker in Brussel's St. Church, returning to this city and church in 1887. Shortly thereafter he was chosen Superintendent of our School, and has been re-elected every year since; last January he reluctantly declined the honor. In 1889 he was elected Deacon, and has devoted much time and energy to the advancement of this Zion. His wife and family are among the active workers in our church.
