Parish Notes

A new association has been lately formed in the parish, with a view of improving and inspiring the church music. Never before has the personnel of the choir been so small, and it is to encourage it in regularity and interest that the Choir Association has been formed. The following are the officers. Precentor, the Rector, Chaplain, Rev. C. B. Kenrick, Organist and Choir Master, Mr. E. W. Phillips; Sec.-Treas., Mr. Crosbie Street, Librarian, Mr. H. H. Evans.

The new Sunday School Librarian, Mr. David Graham, wishes to thank Mrs. Bruce Harman on behalf of the Sunday School for her gift of story books.

A religious census is being taken in Toronto and St. George's is asked for 15 volunteers who will devote one afternoon to the work.

Remember the Gift Fête in the School House on Thursday and Friday afternoon and evening, Dec. 14th and 15th, beginning at 3 o'clock each day.

As a rule Thursday evenings are devoted to "socials" in the School House. Sometimes they are for men only, and sometimes for everybody, with a silver collection. Tea and coffee and cake are there to promote sociability, and foundations are laid for many a pleasant and profitable friendship.

THE GIFT FÊTE

DECEMBER 14TH AND 15TH.

On the afternoon of December 14th there will be opened the much talked of Gift Fête and Made-in-Toronto Fair. Many people call it a bazaar, but tables of fancy work and large supplies of dainty stitchery form only half the attractions of this fête. There is, for example, Elizabeth's German Garden, where you can wander apart in a bower and admire the endless variety of the flowers that bloom in December. Each flower grows tall on a stem of its own, and when you pay its price, you pluck it up by the root, which you find to consist of a present valuable or trifling according to the price you pay. There is a bed of boys' flowers and a bed of girls' flowers, and a bed of grown-ups' flowers, and all around is scenery kindly lent by the Princess theatre. Another attraction will be the Klondyke Mine, where children (by paying only five cents) can dig for nuggets in the sand. Then there is the glass-blowing by Dr. Kenrick of the Varsity, who will show how a real doll's decanter, with a stopper to it and a handle, can be made in 59 seconds. He also makes cats while you wait, and other wild animals, all to be auctioned off afterwards. Afternoon tea, as always, will be a great attraction, and in the evening Japanese tea will be served. Ice cream will be going all the time. Later on our attention will be forcibly directed to the Pink Room by a Pierrot beating on a big drum. This is to announce that the café chantant, got up by Mrs. H. C. Osborne, is open, and all evening long we prophesy that none of the little tables in the pretty room will be vacant.

NOTES ON THE GIFT FETE.

Orders will be taken for home-made cake and doll's furniture.

St. Agatha's Guild are getting up the paper-table, as well as the Japanese tea.

The booths were all designed and colored expressly for St. George's by Mr. Bissell, who some years ago married Miss Jessie Cable.

Order your Christmas sweets from the home-made candy table.

Prominent on the dolls' table is Buster Brown. To Housekeepers—Please order your tea, coffee and grocers at the household table, where all these articles will be for sale direct from the warehouses, at the ordinary price.

THE OPERETTA.

On Thursday evening, Dec. 7th, there will be given a musical and dramatic entertainment in the School House at 8.15. Mr. Phillips is arranging a short programme, after which will be given the comediotta "Who's to Win Him," with the following taking part: Messrs. V. Heron, H. C. Simpson, Oliver Bridges, and the Misses Keating, Nevitt, Adams, Keefer, and Rolfe. These all give their services towards raising a fund for providing new furnaces and other necessities. Admission, 25 cents.

MRS. WYATT

Late President of the W.A.

Our first sad duty this month is to place on record our deep sense of the loss we have sustained by the death of our late President, Mrs. Wyatt, which occurred on Monday, November 6th. The funeral service was held in St. George's church on Wednesday, November 8th, and was largely attended by mourners, friends, and members of the Woman's Auxiliary. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. The Winchester Cross, composed of white and purple flowers, was sent from St. George's Branch, of which she was a faithful and loyal member. For many years Mrs. Wyatt was actively engaged in missionary work. On the formation of this Branch in 1886 she became a member, and when the office of President was vacant in 1901, was elected to fill that position, the duties of which she discharged with untiring zeal, often attending the weekly meetings though scarcely able to bear the exertion. In March, 1905, we had the pleasure of making our President a Life Member of the Woman's Auxiliary, in appreciation of her presidency and worth.

A resolution of sympathy was passed, and a note sent to Miss Wyatt to express our sorrow for herself and the members of her family in this sad bereavement. We trust they will find comfort in the blessed hope that their dear mother has entered into life eternal.

Having lost our guiding hand we must "go forward" and endeavor to keep up the work of this Branch, endeared by the memory of all associated with it, and who have left us an example to follow. Our immediate duty was to elect a successor to our late President. Mrs. McMurray was unanimously chosen, Mrs. MacBeth being at once elected to succeed her as treasurer. A.B.

CHRISTOPHER ROBINSON.

By the death of Mr. Robinson St. George's has lost an old, faithful, and valued member. We shall greatly miss his familiar face and form, for regularity at church was a marked feature of his long life. It is not, however, for us to mourn that he has been removed from our sight. Rather it is for us to rejoice that there was no gradual decay, no fading of his mental powers, but that in the fulness of his years and honors, when his life work was finished, he was removed from the activities and interest of this life to the higher scenes and activities of the next. The story of his career as an eminent lawyer, the leader of the bar, the foremost counsel of the day, has been told elsewhere. It is the story of five and fifty years during which he served the cause of justice and truth. It remains for us to point out that he has left as a heritage for his sons, and an example for the rising men of our time, the memory of an unblemished life, characterized by untiring industry, unvarying kindness and courtesy, nobility of character, an unswerving sense of honor and duty, and by qualities of head and heart which endeared him to all who came in contact with him. Let us who survive ponder the lessons of Mr. Robinson's life and character, and we shall understand the secret of that universal honor and regard which followed him to the tomb.
