Parish Notes

THANKSGIVING DAY

Thanksgiving Day will this year be celebrated on Oct. 18th, being St. Luke's Day. Special services will be Holy Communion at 8 a.m., Matins and H. C. at 11 a.m. The Sunday following will be observed as our annual Harvest Festival, when special preaching, music and decoration will mark the occasion. Offerings on Oct. 18th for Missions, on Sunday, 21st, for the Parish Church revenue.

ST. GEORGE'S SALE OF WORK

Is every one remembering our sale at the end of November, and asking their friends to remember it? Last year we made $800, this year it must be $900. There is the remnant of the floating debt to be paid off, the church doors to be paid for and a cheque given to the Churchwardens to pay all the expenses connected with the new roadway. St. George's in the future will keep out of debt, if these incidental expenses are undertaken by the Parish Guild and their friends.
