

Technical and Bibliographic Notes / Notes techniques et bibliographiques

Canadiana.org has attempted to obtain the best copy available for scanning. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of scanning are checked below.

- Coloured covers /
Couverture de couleur
- Covers damaged /
Couverture endommagée
- Covers restored and/or laminated /
Couverture restaurée et/ou pelliculée
- Cover title missing /
Le titre de couverture manque
- Coloured maps /
Cartes géographiques en couleur
- Coloured ink (i.e. other than blue or black) / Encre de couleur (i.e. autre que bleue ou noire)
- Coloured plates and/or illustrations /
Planches et/ou illustrations en couleur
- Bound with other material /
Relié avec d'autres documents
- Only edition available /
Seule édition disponible
- Tight binding may cause shadows or distortion along interior margin / La reliure serrée peut causer de l'ombre ou de la distorsion le long de la marge intérieure.

- Additional comments /
Commentaires supplémentaires:

Canadiana.org a numérisé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de numérisation sont indiqués ci-dessous.

- Coloured pages / Pages de couleur
- Pages damaged / Pages endommagées
- Pages restored and/or laminated /
Pages restaurées et/ou pelliculées
- Pages discoloured, stained or foxed /
Pages décolorées, tachetées ou piquées
- Pages detached / Pages détachées
- Showthrough / Transparence
- Quality of print varies /
Qualité inégale de l'impression

- Includes supplementary materials /
Comprend du matériel supplémentaire

- Blank leaves added during restorations may appear within the text. Whenever possible, these have been omitted from scanning / Il se peut que certaines pages blanches ajoutées lors d'une restauration apparaissent dans le texte, mais, lorsque cela était possible, ces pages n'ont pas été numérisées.

THE QUEEN'S SECRET.

CHAPTER XXX. (Continued.)

"Hoot, awa w' ye, ye say, guid-for-nathin haggis," cried Nell; "wha, man, an' dinnis keep blawin' and reelin' that gate, like a strag pole!"

"Weel, Nell, I say wilt answer me a simple question?" "Ay, out w' it!" "Humph! out w' it!" repeated the fat host of the Whitehorse, who had just thrown himself down to die, from sweat and exhaustion, in his endeavor to reach Whitstone Hollow.

"Ay, out w' it?" "Humph! out w' it!" repeated the fat host of the Whitehorse, who had just thrown himself down to die, from sweat and exhaustion, in his endeavor to reach Whitstone Hollow.

"Ay, out w' it?" "Humph! out w' it!" repeated the fat host of the Whitehorse, who had just thrown himself down to die, from sweat and exhaustion, in his endeavor to reach Whitstone Hollow.

"Ay, out w' it?" "Humph! out w' it!" repeated the fat host of the Whitehorse, who had just thrown himself down to die, from sweat and exhaustion, in his endeavor to reach Whitstone Hollow.

"Ay, out w' it?" "Humph! out w' it!" repeated the fat host of the Whitehorse, who had just thrown himself down to die, from sweat and exhaustion, in his endeavor to reach Whitstone Hollow.

allings of tin, and strangled babes. Nell, Hugh, and Nell, I say wilt answer me a simple question? "Ay, out w' it!" "Humph! out w' it!" repeated the fat host of the Whitehorse, who had just thrown himself down to die, from sweat and exhaustion, in his endeavor to reach Whitstone Hollow.

CHAPTER XXXI. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER XXXII. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER XXXIII. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER XXXIV. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER XXXV. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

hear of thy connecting it with this affair of the jacksaws and ravens or thou't a day older." "He, ha!" chuckled Nell; "ye'd frighten an' awa wad, wud ye?" "He, ha!"

CHAPTER XXXVI. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER XXXVII. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER XXXVIII. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER XXXIX. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER XL. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

no blood might be shed in the holy place; but his words were lost or unheeded in the confusion. The soldiers then rallied, and, smothering under the shame of defeat and receding from without, drew their swords, and made a desperate and indiscriminate attack on the defenceless Catholics through all parts of the chapel; and the yell and cries that followed their sword thrusts and blows of their carbines, occasioned a scene of indescribable terror and confusion.

CHAPTER XLI. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER XLII. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER XLIII. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER XLIV. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER XLV. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

"Grameroy, woman," replied the fellow, endeavoring to shake her off with brutal violence. "What care I for thy sacrament? This vessel is my booty, and by 'I'll have it." "As thou wilst thy salvation, give it to me," entreated the trembling girl. "I will give thee a hundred fold. Here, here, take all thy jewels; but give me a hundred times its worth to thee; but give me this. O, sir—sir, I pray thee touch it not."

CHAPTER XLVI. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER XLVII. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER XLVIII. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER XLIX. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER L. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

doublet and close-fitting hose, and ordered all instantly to sheathe their weapons, and surrender to the officers of the queen's majesty. "See to it, knaves," he cried, "that ye disarm these braverars. And thou, sir," he continued, turning to O'Brien, "who art thou, who would thus strangle a fallen adversary?"

CHAPTER LI. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER LII. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER LIII. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER LIV. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

CHAPTER LV. When the spawlike returned to the hut, after parting with Oliver, she found the Earl of Leicester sitting in a corner, wrapped in his cloak, with his mask on, she first saw him at the ovens, and Southron standing at the door, seemingly impatient at her delay.

THE TRUE WITNESS IS PUBLISHED BY The Post Printing & Publishing Company, 761 CRAIG ST., Montreal, Canada.

TO ADVERTISERS. A limited number of advertisements of approved character will be inserted in THE TRUE WITNESS for 15c per line (agate), first insertion, 10c per line each subsequent insertion.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS. Subscribers in the country should always give the name of their Post Office. Those who remove should give the name of the old as well as the new Post Office.

The Post Printing & Publishing Company, MONTREAL, CANADA.

WEDNESDAY.....DECEMBER 19, 1883

CATHOLIC CALENDAR. DECEMBER 1883.

- THURSDAY 20.—Vigil of St. Thomas. FRIDAY 21.—St. Thomas, Apostle. Ember Day. Fast. Ep. Boe, Detroit, died, 1871. SATURDAY 22.—Ember Day. Fast. SUNDAY 23.—Fourth Sunday in Advent. Epist. 1 Cor. iv. 1-5; Gosp. Luke iii. 1-6.

TO OUR FRIENDS.

The success which has attended the efforts of our agents and patrons in extending the circulation of THE TRUE WITNESS during the present year is unprecedented in the history of any journal of its class in the Dominion.

ACCOUNTS.

We are now sending accounts to all subscribers in arrears, and request their immediate attention thereto. As we desire to enforce payment in advance in all cases in future, we request each subscriber to remit all arrears due and add the amount of subscription in advance for the coming year.

An Ottawa despatch says that the Scotchmen of the Capital are deeply offended at Lord Lansdowne for declining to patronize his concert on St. Andrew's day.

The Herald makes an incorrect statement when it says that the National Testimonial presented to Mr. Parnell was only $30,000; the handsome figure resolved was £38,000, which is quite a little addition.

An instructive table of statistics has just been published comparing the annual expenditure of the United Kingdom on intoxicating liquors, with various other items of expenditure on the necessities of life.

ferred to remained silent while the usual insults and defiance were hurled at his Church by Bro. White and his co-banqueters, and especially while the Venerable Archbishop of Toronto, Mgr. Lynch, was misrepresented and calumniated in the most unblushing manner by the assembled fanaticism of the Winnipeg lodges.

A STATISTICIAN has recently discovered that there are two million widows in Germany. Trying to explain this fact, a French contemporary remarks that the husbands of a few of these are in heaven, but the greater portion of their lords are in the United States.

SIR CHARLES TUPPER, Canadian Commissioner to Great Britain, has denied the rumor of his having succeeded in negotiating a commercial treaty with France. Sir Charles says it would be hard for him to be successful in such negotiations when he had never undertaken any of the kind.

It may interest lovers of statistics to know that the Mormon church, which defies the authority of the United States Government, has only a membership in Utah of 127,000. The number of families is 23,000; births in the last six months, 1,200 males and 1,100 females; number of marriages in the last six months, 339; new members admitted, 23,040; deaths, 781.

The following is a fair sample of how events and delays in Ireland are colored and misrepresented by British correspondents:—Yesterday a man named Dunn was arrested in Dublin for having arms and ammunition in his possession. After churlishly inquiring the correspondent added:—"Dunn is a prominent member of the National League, and is believed to be connected with the 'Fenians.'" This piece of information was given with the object of creating prejudice.

URS INGERSOLL, the notorious free thinker and infidel, is by no means sincere in his denegation of the existence of a Divinity. He, no more than any other self-confessed infidel can escape from the religious sentiment which is implanted in the nature of man, and from unconsciously bearing testimony to the fact in some manner or other.

SOME of the directors of the defunct Exchange Bank have, on several occasions, denied in very emphatic terms that they knew anything whatever of the manipulation of the Bank stock of the President and Manager, Mr. Thomas Craig.

The Toronto Mail frequently attempts to lecture the people of Montreal on the principles of morality, and says "it is not the enemy, but the staunch friend of the honest men of Montreal." We are inclined to think that if honest men want a staunch friend they will hardly look to such a vulgar, ill-bred sheet as the Mail for one.

manufactured—either will do so long as the stench is strong—and run through a daily sewer otherwise called a newspaper. When seditiously attacked by such a pest, when its existence in our midst is an offensive canker to respectable citizens, it is high time that efforts were made to stamp it out and to bring home the responsibility, therefore, to those who have introduced it, to those who keep it up. The persons, then, who are primarily responsible are the owners of the Toronto Mail.

The Irish Canadian in its last issue denies that its editor is an Orangeman or "related to the Orange Sentinel," and asserts that we have been "imposed upon by the sweet-smelling Carey of Toronto." The Canadian must be more explicit before we can give it any credit for its denial.

Many other prominent and distinguished members of the American judiciary have also given expression to equally forcible and unfavorable opinions on O'Donnell's conviction and on the illegal and unfair methods employed to win the case for the Crown.

At exactly two minutes past 8 o'clock last Monday morning O'Donnell was hanged in conformity with a conviction and a sentence dictated by ignorance and prejudice combined.

ADMITTING THE TRUTH OF THE CHARGE.

The editor of the Toronto Evening Canadian, in reply to a charge made by THE POST that that gentleman was a member of an Orange Lodge, wrote an article in which he complained of our having published a statement that was "misleading."

Sir—In reply to your article of the 11th instant, touching my connection with the Orange Order, I beg to say that when a boy of fifteen years of age I was initiated into an Orange lodge. Since the evening I was initiated I have never entered an Orange Lodge, nor have I ever had hand, act or part in any matters connected with that Order.

This is as clear a corroboration of our charge as we could possibly wish for. In regard of being a denial, it is a full admission that what we stated was strictly true. Mr. Clarke admits the fact that he was initiated into an Orange lodge. We have nothing to do with the circumstance of time or period of his existence at which the initiation took place.

THE HANGING OF O'DONNELL.

On Monday last, the 17th of December, Patrick O'Donnell, the slayer of James Carey, mounted the scaffold—that instrument of vengeance which England uses so indiscriminately and recklessly against her Irish victims, and will sacrifice his life for an act which the highest legal authorities on either side of the Atlantic and the public opinion of the world refuse to construe into a crime.

Englishmen were capable of doing justice to O'Donnell, he replied: "Certainly not, with an English jury he had not a particle of a chance. The moment I saw that he was to be taken from South Africa and brought to England for trial, I said 'O'Donnell is doomed.' Any evidence, however slight, an English jury would be certain to take as an excuse for conviction."

Many other prominent and distinguished members of the American judiciary have also given expression to equally forcible and unfavorable opinions on O'Donnell's conviction and on the illegal and unfair methods employed to win the case for the Crown.

ODONNELL'S EXECUTION.

At exactly two minutes past 8 o'clock last Monday morning O'Donnell was hanged in conformity with a conviction and a sentence dictated by ignorance and prejudice combined.

England seems to never know when it is adding fuel to the fire of hatred and discord which exist between the rulers and the ruled. It is an equally unwise and dangerous policy to back up a mal-administration of the laws by wantonly shedding blood.

MR. PARNELL'S PRONOUNCEMENT.

A scene of great magnificence was witnessed last night in the historic Round Room of the Rotunda, Dublin. It was signalized by an event of deep significance and of national importance. England's ministers had dared to insult Ireland's leader on the floor of Parliament, and to fully traduce him before the eyes of the world.

course, will oppose tooth and nail any extension of the franchise either for England or Ireland, but more particularly and vehemently will their opposition be directed against any extension to the latter. There are already far too many electors in Ireland to suit the taste and convenience of the Tories. The danger of having the bill mutilated in the House of Lords to the disadvantage of Ireland has been foreseen and properly guarded against by the Irish party.

THE HORRORS OF A RUSSIAN PRISON.

Political prisoners in Russia are subjected to the most inhuman cruelties by the Government officials. The barbarity with which they are treated in the Russian Bastille at St. Petersburg has scarcely ever been surpassed in the most uncivilized age or country.

WILD AND SILLY STATEMENTS.

There has just appeared in the columns of the Evening Canadian an article which contains several references to THE POST, which are equally ludicrous and contemptible.

THE FRANCHISE IN GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND.

The Franchise Question will, without doubt, be the great bone of contention between the Liberals and Tories during the next session of the English Parliament.

course, will oppose tooth and nail any extension of the franchise either for England or Ireland, but more particularly and vehemently will their opposition be directed against any extension to the latter. There are already far too many electors in Ireland to suit the taste and convenience of the Tories. The danger of having the bill mutilated in the House of Lords to the disadvantage of Ireland has been foreseen and properly guarded against by the Irish party.

"The fact that Charles Stewart Parnell is a Protestant must not be a thorn in the side of each bigoted journal as the Montreal Post, yet Parnell, Protestant though he is, has done more for the Irish people than any other man who ever lived."

"This citadel is for political prisoners a place of horror. The cells in which the condemned are confined are dark, cold and damp, like a grave; the painted window admits so little light that the lamps can only be extinguished during a couple of hours in the day.

"Parnell spent his time and money freely in the interests of the Irish people, and it was but mete that they should recompense him. That the name of Parnell is revered alike by Catholics and Protestants, such journals as the Montreal Post notwithstanding, is shown in that the Catholic as well as the Protestant provinces contributed freely to the testimonial fund."

Allan Line.

Under Contract with the Government of Canada and Newfoundland for the conveyance of the CANADIAN and UNITED STATES MAILS. 1883—Winter Arrangements—1884

The Company's Lines are composed of the following Double-Engine, Clive-built IRON STEAMSHIPS. They are built in water tight compartments and are fitted up with all the modern improvements that practical experience can suggest, and have made the fastest time on record.

Table listing ship names, destinations, and departure dates for the Allan Line.

THE STEAMERS OF THE Liverpool Mail Line sailing from Liverpool every THURSDAY, and from London every SATURDAY, calling at Lough Foyle to receive on board and land Mails and Passengers to and from Ireland and Scotland, are intended to depart as follows:

Table listing ship names, destinations, and departure dates for the Liverpool Mail Line.

NEWFOUNDLAND LINE. The Steamers of the Halifax Mail Line from Halifax to Liverpool, via St. Johns, N.F., are intended to be despatched as follows:

Table listing ship names, destinations, and departure dates for the Newfoundland Line.

GLASGOW LINE. During the season of Winter Navigation, a steamer will be despatched each week from Glasgow for Portland or Boston (via Halifax when occasion requires), and each week from Boston or Portland to Glasgow direct, as follows:

A PERFECTLY RELIABLE ARTICLE OF HOUSEHOLD USE - IS THE COOK'S FRIEND BAKING POWDER.

It is a preparation of pure and healthy ingredients, used for the purpose of raising and aerating, calculated to do the best work at the least possible cost. It contains neither alum, lime, nor other deleterious substance, is so prepared as to mix readily with flour and retain its virtues for a long period.

RETAINED EVERYWHERE. None genuine without the trade mark package. THE NUMERIC CARD CO., OLESTON, CORK, send 50 NUMERIC CARDS with name of 100 names.

ADVERTISING CONTRACTS MADE FOR THIS PAPER, WHICH IS KEPT ON FILE AT THE OFFICE OF LORD & THOMAS, McCORMICK Block, Chicago, Ill.

CONSUMPTION: I have a positive remedy for the above disease, by the use of a certain medicine, which has cured many cases of this disease, and is a valuable treatment on this disease, to any sufferer.

ONTARIO PULMONARY INSTITUTE AND HEALTH RESORT. Permanently established for the special cure of all the various diseases of the HEAD, EAR AND THROAT, including the EYE, EAR AND HEARING, viz., Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption, also Catarrh of the Larynx, etc., etc.

NEWFOUNDLAND LINE. The Steamers of the Halifax Mail Line from Halifax to Liverpool, via St. Johns, N.F., are intended to be despatched as follows:

Table listing ship names, destinations, and departure dates for the Newfoundland Line.

GLASGOW LINE. During the season of Winter Navigation, a steamer will be despatched each week from Glasgow for Portland or Boston (via Halifax when occasion requires), and each week from Boston or Portland to Glasgow direct, as follows:

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS. CURE SICK HEADACHE.

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, Drowsiness, Distress after eating, etc., in the face, etc. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing...

THE MARCHIONESS OF QUEENSBERRY She Protests Against the Hanging of Poole and O'Donnell—The Manchester Martyrs.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—The Marchioness of Queensberry has sent the following letter to the London Tribune, as a protest against the "hanging policy" of the English Government:—

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TRIBUNE. Sir.—If there is a petition preparing in behalf of Poole I would like to put my name to it. I cannot myself believe him to be guilty more than I do O'Donnell.

THE MARCHIONESS OF QUEENSBERRY (Continued) The average in Texas is one hanging to thirty murders.

THE MARCHIONESS OF QUEENSBERRY (Continued) Always avoid harsh purgative pills. They first make you sick and then leave you constipated.

THE MARCHIONESS OF QUEENSBERRY (Continued) France made nearly $7,300,000 by the sale of tobacco during the past six months of the present year.

THE MARCHIONESS OF QUEENSBERRY (Continued) A clear head is indicative of good health and regular habits.

CROCHETING. Our Book of over 100 Patterns gives diagrams of all the stitches and complete instructions in the art of Crocheting.

THE MARCHIONESS OF QUEENSBERRY (Continued) The average in Texas is one hanging to thirty murders.

THE MARCHIONESS OF QUEENSBERRY (Continued) Always avoid harsh purgative pills. They first make you sick and then leave you constipated.

THE MARCHIONESS OF QUEENSBERRY (Continued) France made nearly $7,300,000 by the sale of tobacco during the past six months of the present year.

THE MARCHIONESS OF QUEENSBERRY (Continued) A clear head is indicative of good health and regular habits.

THE MARCHIONESS OF QUEENSBERRY (Continued) Always avoid harsh purgative pills. They first make you sick and then leave you constipated.

THE MARCHIONESS OF QUEENSBERRY (Continued) France made nearly $7,300,000 by the sale of tobacco during the past six months of the present year.

THE MARCHIONESS OF QUEENSBERRY (Continued) A clear head is indicative of good health and regular habits.

THE MARCHIONESS OF QUEENSBERRY (Continued) Always avoid harsh purgative pills. They first make you sick and then leave you constipated.

PARSONS' PURGATIVE PILLS. MAKE NEW RICH BLOOD.

And will completely change the blood in the entire system in three months. Any person who will take 1 Pill each night from 1 to 12 weeks, may be restored to sound health, if such a thing be possible.

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT. An English Veterinary Surgeon and Chemist, new traveling in this country, says that most of the Horses and Cattle Owners who send him are worthless trash.

WELLS, RICHARDSON & CO'S IMPROVED BUTTER COLOR. A NEW DISCOVERY. For several years we have furnished the Dairyman of America with an excellent artificial color for butter.

DR. KANNON, C.M.D., M.O.P.S. Late of Children's Hospital, New York, and St. Peter's Hospital, Albany, etc.

DESTROYER OF HAIR! ALEX. ROSS' DEPLETOREY Removes hair from the face, neck, arms, and legs, without injury.

ANTHONY-AMERICAN BUSINESS COLLEGE, 112 and 114 King Street West, TORONTO.

HEALTH FOR ALL HOLLOWAY'S PILLS. This Great Household Medicine Banks Around the Living Necessaries of Life.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT. Its Searching and Healing Properties are Known Throughout the World.

