VOLUME 11—Suite.

- 46a. Réponse à une adresse du Sénat à Son Excellence le gouverneur général, en date du 6 février 1893, pour des renseignements avec explications complètes, fournis par le fonctionnaire chargé de la direction et surveillance du dernier recensement canadien de 1891, sur les points suivants : 1. Le dénombrement de l'élément français de la population, dans le recensement opéré en 1891, a-t-il été fait avec l'intention de donner les mêmes renseignements que comportaient les recensements de 1851 et de 1861 de l'ancienne province du Canada, ainsi que les recensements canadiens de 1871 et 1891 ? 2. Quel sens a-t-on voulu attacher et quelle interprétation pratique a-t-on donnée, en opérant le recensement de 1891, aux expressions French Canadians ; "Canadiens français," placées en tête d'une des colonnes de la feuille de recensement n° 1 ? 3. Quel est le sens précis qu'il faut attacher aux diverses expressions suivantes, employées dans le bulletin de recensement n° 11 signé : "George Johnson, statisticien," à savoir : "Nationalités, Nationalités ; French speaking, parlant français ; English speaking ; Canadiens Français, Canadiens Anglais," qui figurent dans la nouvelle nomenclature qu'on a adoptée ? 4. Y a-t-il eu des individus de nationalité française, de vrais Français, exclus du dénombrement de l'élément français de la population, parce qu'ils étaient nés hors du Canada ? Et a-t-on compris des personnes de nationalité française dans la population de langue anglaise ? S'il en est ainsi, y a-t-il quelque relation entre ces faits et la nomenclature du bulletin n° 11 ? Si non, pourquoi le simple mot "Français," usité jusque là pour désigner l'élément français, a-t-il été abandonné et remplacé par les diverses expressions de "French speaking, 'French Canadians," etc. ? 5. Outre les instructions imprimées, quelles instructions et explications pratiques ont été données aux officiers, commissaires et énumérateurs, à l'égard du dénombrement de l'élément français de la population, ou des personnes d'origine ou de nationalité française ? 6. Le dénombrement de la population française en 1891 a-t-il été totalement opéré d'une manière uniforme dans les différents districts, sous-districts et divisions de recensement ? 7. Y a-t-il raison de penser, d'après un examen direct, une connaissance personnelle des choses, ou une critique statistique, que les chiffres donnés comme représentant le nombre d'habitants français, sont notablement inférieurs au nombre réel dans quelques ou plusieurs états du dénombrement de 1891 ? 8. Les feuilles remises par les énumérateurs ont-elles été examinées par les commissaires et officiers, ainsi qu'au bureau central sous la surveillance et la responsabilité du surintendant, en vue de s'assurer de leur exactitude et d'en corriger les erreurs apparentes ? 9. Quelque officier ou le surintendant a-t-il remarqué qu'il y avait des différences anormales et très importantes dans le dénombrement de la population française entre le recensement de 1891 et les séries statistiques des recensements antérieurs ; et s'est-on donné la peine d'éclaircir la sérieuse question à laquelle donnait lieu ce désaccord surprenant ? 10. Peut-on offrir quelque explication raisonnable des données de 1891, d'après lesquelles la population française paraît avoir éprouvé une décroissance extraordinaire, notamment dans la Nouvelle-Ecosse, l'Ontario et les Territoires ? 11. Existe-t-il des causes locales ou accidentelles qui puissent expliquer les énormes écarts qui se seraient produits dans la multiplication de la race française, si les chiffres du recensement de 1891 étaient exacts, en ce qui concerne, par exemple, l'Île du Prince-Édouard, le Nouveau-Brunswick et la Nouvelle-Ecosse ? 12. A-t-il été pris des mesures pour se rendre compte de la cause et de l'étendue de ces constatations si étranges ? Si non, pourquoi ne l'a-t-on pas fait ? Si oui, quelles mesures ont été prises, et quel en a été le résultat ? 13. Le surintendant du recensement de 1891 a-t-il pris connaissance de l'objection énergique élevée contre la reconnaissance des chiffres extraordinaires de 1891, qui ont été donnés comme représentant le nombre réel des Français en Canada ? Et s'est-il livré à quelque sérieuse investigation au sujet de cette question importante ? Si tel est le cas, à quelles conclusions est-il arrivé par son étude statistique ? 14. Que les dits renseignements soient accompagnés des instructions données aux énumérateurs pour le recensement de 1881 et pour celui de 1891. Présentée le 30 mars 1893.—Honorable M. Tassé..... Pas imprimée.

Dividendes impayés.

OTTAWA, 9 mai 1893.

A l'honorable GEORGE E. FOSTER,
Ministre des finances.

MONSIEUR,—J'ai l'honneur de vous présenter les deuxièmes relevés reçus des différentes banques autorisées, conformément aux prescriptions de l'article 88 de l'Acte des banques, lesquels indiquent les dividendes restés impayés pendant plus de cinq ans ainsi que les montants et soldes restés en état ou sur lesquels il n'a pas été payé d'intérêt pendant les cinq ans qui ont précédé le 31 décembre 1892.

L'examen des relevés fera voir qu'il y a amélioration comparativement à l'année dernière, car les banques, en général, ont adopté un meilleur système de classification dans la compilation de leurs états de compte.

On trouvera plus loin un sommaire des soldes restant dans les différentes banques et l'on remarquera qu'ils ont été réduits du chiffre de $457,347.54 auquel ils s'élevaient en 1891 à celui de $427,931.97, soit une réduction de $29,415.57. Les montants non réclamés se sont élevés dans quelques unes des banques, ce qui est dû, peut-être, à une préparation plus soignée des relevés, mais la réduction, dans tous les cas, sur la somme totale, doit être considérée comme une preuve satisfaisante de l'utilité du livre bleu.

Il est intéressant de noter ici qu'à la suite de la législation adoptée par le parlement du Canada en la matière, la colonie de l'Australie-Sud a passé en 1891 " l'Acte des deniers non réclamés," lequel diffère cependant sur les points suivants :—les relevés couvrent les comptes tenus en état depuis six ans ou plus, tandis qu'au Canada la limite est de cinq ans ; en outre toutes les sommes qui ne sont pas soumises au déposant dans les deux ans après la publication du relevé doivent être versées dans le trésor de la colonie. Certaines banques de Londres, qui font des affaires dans la colonie de l'Australie-Sud, ont appelé de cette décision à la reine en conseil. L'Economist, qui cite le fait à la date du 1er avril 1893, l'accompagne des remarques suivantes :—" L'effet de cet acte, ainsi que le prétendent les pétitionnaires, sera de " les priver, sans indemnité, de fonds qui leur appartiennent légalement. Il est " assez difficile cependant, au commun du monde, de comprendre pourquoi les banques " devraient être indemnisées pour remettre des sommes d'argent qui ne leur appar- " tiennent pas, et au lieu de révoquer cet acte il serait plutôt dans l'intérêt public " d'adopter une législation semblable ici même, comme dans nos autres colonies."

BUREAU DU SURINTENDANT DES ASSURANCES,
OTTAWA, 26 juillet 1893.

A l'honorable

GEORGE E. FOSTER,
Ministre des finances.

MONSIEUR,—J'ai l'honneur de vous transmettre les états détaillés fournis par les compagnies d'assurances pour l'année 1892, ainsi qu'un relevé et une analyse qui m'ont paru de nature à faire connaître le mouvement des affaires et la situation des compagnies.

COMPAGNIES D'ASSURANCES CONTRE L'INCENDIE ET SUR LA NAVIGATION INTÉRIEURE, 1892.

Durant l'année 1892, les opérations d'assurances contre l'incendie ont été faites dans le Canada par 40 compagnies, dont 8 canadiennes, 24 britanniques et 8 américaines. Quatre compagnies (2 canadiennes, 1 britannique et 1 américaine) ont fait des opérations d'assurances contre les risques de la navigation intérieure, et deux (canadiennes) des opérations d'assurances maritimes. La liste des compagnies diffère de celle de l'année dernière en ce qu'il faut ajouter une compagnie canadienne, la Mercantile Fire Insurance Company, et deux compagnies britanniques, l'Alliance et la Sun, et retrancher une compagnie britannique, la Queen, de Liverpool. Une compagnie britannique (la British and Foreign Marine) a fait exclusivement des opérations d'assurances contre les risques de la navigation intérieure.

Les compagnies britanniques ci-dessus énumérées, auxquelles des permis ont été accordés, les ont obtenus respectivement le 29 février 1892, et le 3 juin 1892, et la Mercantile le 20 juin 1892. Cette dernière est une compagnie provinciale constituée en corporation par un acte de la législature de la province d'Ontario, et elle faisait des opérations d'assurances dans cette province avant l'émission du permis fédéral.

PRIMES ET PERTES AU CANADA en 1892.

Les primes reçues en argent au Canada durant l'année se sont élevées à $6,512,327, soit $343,611 de plus qu'en 1891; et le chiffre des pertes payées a été de $4,377,270, soit $471,573 de plus. La proportion des pertes payées relativement aux primes reçues est indiquée dans le tableau suivant:—

En répartissant les totaux entre ces mêmes 24 années, divisées par nationalités, nous avons les résultats suivants:—

Si nous avons retranché de ces tableaux l'année du désastreux incendie de Saint-Jean (1877), la proportion moyenne des pertes aurait été de 62.97.

Obtenant une évaluation approximative des pertes subies pendant l'année, en retranchant les pertes impayées au commencement de l'année, et en ajoutant les montants prévus pour les réclamations non encore réglées de l'année, la proportion des pertes subies relativement aux primes reçues se chiffre par 68.64 pour 100, soit

4·69 pour 100 de plus que les 63·95 de l'année dernière, et 6·68 pour 100 de plus que la moyenne des quinze dernières années (61·96). Voici un tableau des pertes subies depuis 1878 :—

ASSURANCES CONTRE L'INCENDIE AU CANADA, 1892.

Le chiffre brut des polices nouvelles et renouvelées, acceptées durant l'année par les compagnies d'assurances contre l'incendie, a été de $687,175,688, soit une augmentation de $63,757,266 sur le résultat de l'année 1891. Les primes afférentes à ces risques ont été, en 1892, de $8,080,503.18, soit une augmentation de $338,007.74 sur le chiffre de l'année précédente. La proportion des primes est un peu plus élevée qu'en 1891, mais celle des pertes (67·22) est plus élevée (3·91), étant 4·25 pour 100 de plus que la proportion moyenne (62·97) des 24 dernières années, si l'on en retranche l'année 1877.

Le taux pour cent des primes par rapport aux risques entrepris se trouve indiqué dans le tableau suivant :—

	Chiffre brut des risques entrepris durant l'année.	Primes sur ces polices.	Rapport centésimal des primes aux risques entrepris.	De même pour 1891.	De même pour 1890.	De même pour 1889.

L'augmentation accusée dans les risques entrepris en 1892, comparés à ceux de 1891, parmi les compagnies britanniques, est de $55,152,738 ; parmi les compagnies américaines, de $31,982,037, et parmi les compagnies canadiennes il y a une diminution de $23,377,509.

L'augmentation et la diminution des opérations des différentes compagnies se décomposent comme suit :—

Compagnies canadiennes.

Augmentation.—De l'Est, $8,471,155 ; Mutuelle, de London, $58,824 ; Québec, $141,995—Total, $8,671,974. Il faut ajouter à ces chiffres, $10,091,660, montant des risques entrepris par la Mercantile, qui fait rapport cette année pour la première fois.

Diminution.—Amérique Britannique, $1,263,011 ; des Citoyens, $19,324,168 ; Royale Canadienne, $19,833,691 ; de l'Ouest, $1,720,273—Total, $42,141,143. Diminution totale, $23,377,509.

Compagnies britanniques.

Augmentation.—Alliance, $21,265,029 ; Atlas, $1,959,257 ; Caledonian, $1,730,372 ; Commercial Union, $1,922,041 ; Employers' Liability, $805,495 ; Fire Insurance Association, $170,095 ; Guardian, $11,288,291 ; Imperial, $25,358 ; Lancashire, $2,541,573 ; Liverpool and London and Globe, $1,897,942 ; London Assurance, $223,145 ; Manchester, $1,956,637 ; National of Ireland, $1,349,663 ; North British, $3,215,824 ; Norwich Union, $1,695,923 ; Phenix de Londres, $3,043,478 ; Royal, $3,956,265 ; Scottish Union, $413,806 ; Sun Fire, $4,469,778 ; Union Society, $2,221,084 ; United Fire, $16,585,190—Total, $82,736,246.

Diminution.—City of London, $7,085,666 ; London and Lancashire, contre l'incendie, $66,498 ; Northern, $28,724 ; Queen of Liverpool, $20,402,620—Total, $27,583,508. Augmentation totale, $55,152,738.

Compagnies américaines.

Augmentation.—Ætna Fire, $1,155,135 ; Insurance Company of North America, $1,258,246 ; Phenix of Brooklyn, $434,950 ; Phenix de Hartford, $9,452,845 ; Queen of America, $21,215,151. Total, $33,516,317.

Diminution.—Agricultural of Watertown, $772,130 ; Connecticut, contre l'incendie, $100,000 ; Hartford, $662,150. Total, $1,534,280. Augmentation totale, $31,982,037.

PRIMES ET PERTES COMPARÉES AUX RISQUES.

Le taux des primes pour chaque $1,000 de risques entrepris en 1892, a été de $11,768, contre $11,627, qui était le chiffre correspondant de 1891. Les taux individuels des différentes compagnies se trouve dans un tableau annexé, et l'on verra qu'ils varient beaucoup, comme on doit naturellement s'y attendre, vu la variété des opérations des différentes compagnies.

Les pertes (approximatives) subies durant l'année, comparées au chiffre des risques en cours (en prenant pour cela la moyenne du chiffre des risques en vigueur au commencement et à la fin de l'année), ont été de $5.61 pour chaque $1,000 de risques courants. En 1882-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-90-91, ce chiffre était de $5.68, $5.56, $5.37, $4.54, $5.48, $5.70, $4.70, $4.19, $4.84, et $5.33 respectivement.

La proportion des pertes pour les différentes compagnies, calculée sur la base qui précède, est toutefois répartie très inégalement entre elles : pour faciliter la comparaison, on a mis entre parenthèses les proportions de 1891 :—

London Mutual, $2.19 ($1.75); Agricultural de Watertown, $2.22 ($2.92); Connecticut Fire, $2.97 ($3.68); London Assurance, $3.72 ($2.98); Imperial, $4.12 ($3.87); Caledonian, $4.43 ($6.45); Liverpool and London and Globe, $4.58 ($4.25); Northern, $4.59 ($5.03); Royale, $4.68 ($4.73); Hartford, $4.83 ($7.08); London and Lancashire, $4.79 ($4.11); Sun Fire $5.12 (...); Phœnix de Londres, $5.13 ($5.37); North British, $5.18 ($5.56); Norwich Union, $5.33 ($4.44); British America, $5.39 ($6.61); de l'Ouest, $5.52 ($5.44); Alliance, $5.63 (.....); Lancashire, $5.77 ($6.53); Phenix de Brooklyn, $5.91 ($5.07); Scottish Union and National, $6.39 ($5.42); Guardian, $6.45 ($7.24); Fire Insurance Association, $6.56 ($4.74); Atlas, $7.02 ($7.61); National of Ireland, $7.28 ($7.92); Mercantile, $7.35 (....); Commercial Union, $7.42 ($5.52); Insurance Company of North America, $7.73 ($7.17); Manchester, $7.77 ($9.57); Queen, $8.16 ($4.68); Ætna Fire, $8.36 ($7.47); Union Society, $8.89 ($11.07); Québec, $9.43 ($8.15); de l'Est, $9.85 ($8.20); Employers' Liability, $9.92 ($8.42); United Fire, $11.52 ($7.59); Phœnix de Hartford, $11.90 ($10.47).

Le tableau ci-joint indique le chiffre brut des opérations des différentes compagnies durant l'année, et les primes exigées pour les risques, la répartition des pertes, ainsi que la proportion des primes relativement aux risques, et la proportion des sommes payées en indemnités relativement à celles reçues en primes durant l'année. Pour faciliter la comparaison nous avons ajouté les chiffres de 1891. On remarquera que les primes inscrites dans la seconde colonne sont celles exigées sur le chiffre brut des risques entrepris par chaque compagnie durant l'année.

COMPAGNIES BRITANNIQUES D'ASSURANCES CONTRE L'INCENDIE.

Le total des primes reçues a été de $4,706,205, soit une augmentation de $517,034, sur l'année précédente; le total des pertes soldées a été de $2,878,149, soit $324,987 de plus qu'en 1891; tandis que les dépenses générales ont été de $1,375,115, soit $209,120 de plus qu'en 1891, laissant une différence de $452,941 en faveur des compagnies. L'année précédente la différence était de $470,014.

L'état suivant indique les soldes des différentes compagnies :—

Soldes en faveur :—Alliance, $75,775; Atlas, $14,100; Caledonian, $18,679; Employers' Liability, $2,792; Guardian, $43,150; Imperial, $46,140; Lancashire, $41,732; Liverpool and London and Globe, $19,234; London and Lancashire Fire, $34,047; London Assurance, $21,076; Manchester, $3,463; National of Ireland, $4,046; North British, $28,963; Northern, $24,774; Norwich Union, $13,263; Phoenix de Londres, $52,135; Royal, $58,185; Scottish Union and National, $12,718; Sun Fire, $4,921; Union Society, $27,253. Total, $546,446.

Soldes contre les compagnies :—City of London, $7,989; Commercial Union, $33,143; Fire Insurance Association, $19,672; United Fire, $32,701. Total, $93,505.

Total des soldes en faveur, $452,941.

Pour chaque $100 de primes il a donc été payé en moyenne $61.16 pour les pertes, et $29.22 pour les dépenses générales, laissant $9.62 aux compagnies.

En 1891, la proportion des pertes a été de $60.95, et celle des dépenses générales de $27.83 pour chaque $100 de primes reçues.

Pour les opérations contre l'incendie la proportion des primes a été de $11.743 par $1,000 de risques acceptés, contre $11.399 en 1891.

Ces compagnies ont donc fait plus d'opérations qu'en 1891, le taux des primes a été plus élevé, la proportion des dépenses plus élevée et celle des pertes plus fortes.

Réunissant ici les résultats des dix-huit dernières années, de 1875 à 1892 pour les recettes des primes et les dépenses des compagnies britanniques, nous trouvons :—

Payé pour pertes (1875-92).....	$37,238,629

En consultant le tableau ci-dessous on verra que depuis l'année 1877 jusqu'à la fin de l'année 1886, il existait un solde contre les compagnies par suite des pertes extraordinaires occasionnées par la conflagration de Saint-Jean, N.-B., en 1887, en conséquence de laquelle les compagnies britanniques ont payé près de cinq millions de dollars ; un changement s'est produit à la fin de l'année 1887, alors qu'il s'est accusé un solde favorable de $341,398, et s'est augmenté d'année en année, et à la fin de 1892 il était de $3,648,958.

Les rapports des opérations générales des compagnies britanniques, qui sont annexés à leurs divers états, sont pris soit dans les rapports imprimés distribués par les compagnies à leurs actionnaires, soit dans les rapports fournis à la Chambre de Commerce britannique. Comme ces comptes sont préparés d'une manière qui ne peut être facilement comprise sinon par un expert, j'ai fait cette année une analyse approximative de ces états qu'on trouvera à la page lxxix. Deux ou trois seulement de ces compagnies prétendent protéger particulièrement les obligations à compter sous le chef de " primes non acquises," mais les autres mettent de côté sous le nom de " caisse des incendies " une certaine somme qu'elles gardent pour faire face aux éventualités futures, et qui est inscrite contre les compagnies comme passif. J'ai pris 60 pour 100 de la recette annuelle des primes comme représentant approximativement la part des primes afférentes aux risques non expirés, et sur ce chiffre est basé cet item dans nos rapports sur les opérations canadiennes. De plus, dans le cas où les compagnies font des opérations d'assurances sur la vie en même temps que contre l'incendie (l'actif de ces départements devant être tenu dans des comptes séparés d'après la loi impériale), j'ai laissé entièrement de côté les opérations sur la vie, considérant que les fonds d'assurances sur la vie sont plus que suffisants pour faire face aux obligations de ce département, et ainsi le résultat, en ce qui concerne le capital versé, est moins favorable aux compagnies.

COMPAGNIES AMÉRICAINES.

Le total des primes reçues a été de $1,009,978 ; le total des pertes soldées a été de $706,903 ; et les dépenses générales de $319,562. La proportion a donc été, en moyenne, de $69.99 pour les pertes, et de $31.64 pour les dépenses générales pour chaque $100 de primes reçues.

L'état suivant indique, en détail, les soldes des différentes compagnies :—

Soldes favorables.—Ætna, contre l'incendie, $1,909; Hartford, $39,282; Connecticut, contre l'incendie, $3,654; Insurance Company of North America, $5,859. Total, $50,704.

Soldes adverses.—Agricultural de Watertown, $14,086; Phenix de Brooklyn, $10,605; Phœnix de Hartford, $40,949; Queen, $1,551. Total $67,191.

COMPAGNIES CANADIENNES.

En examinant les compagnies canadiennes, il faut tenir compte des opérations d'assurances contre l'incendie de ces compagnies au Canada et à l'étranger, aussi bien que de leurs opérations maritimes, vu que la répartition des dépenses entre ces différents départements n'a pas été faite.

Le tableau suivant fait voir comment se répartissent les opérations d'assurances contre l'incendie, au Canada et dans les autres pays, et indique que les opérations à l'étranger ont été, en somme, plus favorables aux compagnies que celles entreprises dans le pays :—

L'actif des huit compagnies canadiennes qui font des opérations d'assurances contre l'incendie s'élevait, à la fin de l'année, à $4,284,057, assurant un montant total de $331,888,141 de risques de toutes sortes, soit une proportion de $12.91 pour chaque

$1,000 d'assurances en vigueur; elles ont aussi une réserve de capital souscrit, mais non versé, de $2,290,198, formant une garantie totale de $19.66 pour chaque $1,000 assurés. Le passif des mêmes compagnies, s'élevant à $2,718,215, est réparti comme suit:—

Pertes non établies.....	$ 367,604
Primes non acquises.....	2,147,423
Divers.....	203,188

Total..... $2,718,215

Les primes non acquises sont calculées ici en proportion du temps qui reste à courir dans le cas d'assurances contre l'incendie et sur risques de navigation intérieure, et comprennent les primes en entier dans les cas de risques maritimes en cours. L'excédent de l'actif sur le passif disponible, pour la protection des porteurs de polices, indépendamment de la réserve du capital non versé, s'élève à $1,565,842.

Le capital de ces compagnies, versé ou en voie de paiement, s'élève à $1,641,287, ce qui indique un excédent du passif sur l'actif, y compris ce capital, s'élevant à $75,445. A la fin de l'année 1891 il y avait une différence de $11,913.

Le tableau suivant fait connaître la situation de toutes les compagnies canadiennes à fonds social, à la fin de 1892, et indique si elles ont un excédent ou jusqu'à quel point leur capital a été entamé.

RISQUES MARITIMES ET RISQUES DE LA NAVIGATION INTÉRIEURE, 1892.

En comprenant les opérations faites au Canada par la "British and Foreign Marine," la "London Assurance" et "l'Ætna," et celles des deux compagnies canadiennes qui font des opérations dans cette branche d'assurances, les résultats de l'année sont comme suit :—

Pour risques de la navigation intérieure.

Primes reçues, $393,586, pertes subies, $278,974, sur lesquelles $262,288 ont été payés, laissant un solde de $16,686 encore à payer. Il a été aussi payé dans le cours de l'année $23,322 pour les pertes survenues les années précédentes, ce qui porte les paiements totaux des pertes à $285,610 pour l'année, tandis que le total des pertes impayées, ou non réglées, à la fin de l'année s'élevait à $16,686.

Risques maritimes.

Primes reçues, $242,256; pertes subies, $147,120, sur lesquelles il a été payé $127,515, laissant une balance de $19,605 à liquider. Il a été aussi payé dans le cours de l'année $17,115 pour les pertes survenues les années précédentes, ce qui porte les paiements totaux des pertes à $144,630 pour l'année, tandis que le total des pertes impayées, ou non réglées, à la fin de l'année, s'élevait à $24,704.

Les opérations d'assurances contre les risques de la navigation intérieure accusent un résultat moins favorable que celui de l'année dernière. Les pertes subies ayant été de 70.88 pour 100 des primes reçues, tandis que, l'an dernier, le taux était de 51.08.

Ministère des Finances—Division des Assurances.

Pour les opérations d'assurances maritimes, la proportion des pertes subies relativement aux primes reçues a été de 60.73, contre 136.17 l'année dernière. La plus forte partie des opérations se fait par des compagnies qui ne sont pas obligées d'obtenir de permis, et qui ne font pas de rapports au département.

On trouvera à la page lxxviii un relevé des opérations des assurances contre les risques de la navigation intérieure, et les détails de ces assurances, et de celles des assurances maritimes des diverses compagnies, aux pages lxxvi et lxxvii.

ASSURANCES SUR LA VIE, 1892.

Les opérations d'assurances sur la vie ont été faites par 31 compagnies actives, dont 12 canadiennes, 9 britanniques et 10 américaines.

La liste des compagnies d'assurances sur la vie diffère de celle de l'année précédente en ce qu'il faut y ajouter une compagnie canadienne, la Grand-Ouest, dont le bureau principal est à Winnipeg, Manitoba, et qui a obtenu un permis le 18 juillet 1892.

La Queen, de Liverpool, ayant discontinué ses opérations au Canada, a fait une demande dans le mois de novembre 1892, aux fins de retirer son dépôt, et ses polices impayées au Canada ont été réassurées par la Royale, et les dispositions de l'Acte des assurances ayant été observées, le dépôt a été remis le 13 avril 1893.

RISQUES ENTREPRIS DURANT L'ANNÉE.

Le chiffre total des polices délivrées au Canada, en 1892, a été de $44,620,013, soit une augmentation de $6,753,726 sur 1891. Les compagnies canadiennes accusent une augmentation de $3,681,232 en 1892; les compagnies américaines une augmentation de $2,394,527, contre une diminution de $576,341 en 1891, et les compagnies britanniques accusent une augmentation de $677,967, contre une diminution de $443,726 en 1891; l'augmentation totale, en 1892, étant de $6,753,726, ainsi qu'il est dit plus haut.

Les risques des diverses compagnies se chiffrent comme ci-dessous:—

Compagnies canadiennes.....	$25,585,534
do britanniques.....	3,625,213
do américaines.....	15,409,266

De sorte que les risques entrepris par les compagnies du pays excèdent de plus de $6,500,000 ceux entrepris par les compagnies britanniques et américaines réunies. Les détails de l'augmentation ou de la diminution dans les diverses compagnies se trouvent aux pages xcix et xcvii.

Assurances sur la vie en vigueur en 1892.

Le chiffre total des assurances en vigueur, lors de la clôture des rapports, était de $279,110,265, ce qui donne la forte augmentation de $17,635,036 sur l'année précédente, répartie comme suit:—

	Total en vigueur.	Augmentation.

Assurances terminées en 1892.

Le chiffre des assurances arrivées à fin en 1892, selon les cours ordinaires, c'est-à-dire, par le décès des assurés, la maturité ou l'expiration des risques, a été de xix

Ministère des Finances—Division des Assurances.

$5,331,983, ce qui est une augmentation de $432,918 sur le chiffre correspondant de l'année précédente ; et le chiffre de celles arrivées à fin par rachat ou prescription a été de $22,598,994, soit une augmentation de $2,968,826 sur l'année précédente.

Relativement aux risques en vigueur, le chiffre des assurances ainsi terminées est en somme un peu plus élevé que l'année précédente, donnant pour chaque $1,000 de risques courants arrivés à fin selon le cours naturel, $18.79, et $79.63 par rachat ou prescription, formant un total de $98.42. En 1891, ces taux avaient été de $18.33 et $73.42, respectivement, formant un total de $91.75, donnant ainsi une différence de $6.67 pour chaque $1,000 de risques.

Le tableau suivant indique la proportion des polices arrivées à fin depuis cinq ans.

Polices en vigueur au Canada.

Omettant les polices industrielles de la "North American," "London Life" et de la "Metropolitan," le tableau suivant indique le nombre des polices canadiennes en vigueur à la date de ces rapports :—

Le chiffre moyen des polices nouvelles est : pour les compagnies canadiennes, $1,660, pour les compagnies britanniques, $2,085 ; et pour les compagnies américaines, $1,911. Les chiffres correspondants de l'année dernière étaient de $1,624, $1,857 et $1,970.

MORTALITÉ.

Cette année, comme l'année dernière, on a admis, dans les données sur lesquelles peut être calculée la mortalité, le nombre moyen des polices en vigueur et le nombre de polices arrivées à fin pour cause de décès durant l'année, comme approximation du nombre moyen des vies assurées et du nombre de décès, dans le cas des compagnies dont le rapport ne contient pas cette donnée. On croit que le résultat obtenu représente la mortalité réelle parmi les assurés au Canada aussi exactement qu'il est possible d'y arriver à l'aide des rapports fournis par les compagnies.

Le chiffre total des sommes payées aux porteurs de polices en 1892 se décompose comme suit :—

Indemnité pour cause de mort (y compris les additions de boni)	$3,233,144 38
Dotations échues (y comp. les additions de boni)....	838,814 88
Rentes viagères.....	52,668 83
Payé en rachat de polices.....	509,020 78
Payé en dividendes aux porteurs de polices....	818,502 44
Total	$5,452,151 31

La répartition des paiements selon les différentes compagnies se trouve à la page cvi.

Il résulte donc que pour chaque $100 reçus pour primes les compagnies ont payé aux porteurs de polices $58.33, laissant $41.67 pour la réserve, les dépenses et les bénéfices.

Y compris les opérations des compagnies canadiennes en dehors du Canada, le tableau suivant donne pour les quatorze dernières années, le total des primes reçues et des paiements faits aux porteurs de polices par toutes les compagnies qui font des opérations d'assurances sur la vie au Canada, ainsi que la proportion des paiements faits aux porteurs de polices relativement aux primes reçues.

Réunissant les résultats des quatorze années, 1879 à 1892, on trouve que les paiements faits aux porteurs de polices s'élèvent à 53·89 pour 100 des primes reçues pendant cette période.

Le tableau ci-dessous donne pour les quatorze dernières années le total des recettes pour primes reçues et les paiements faits aux porteurs de polices par les compagnies d'assurances qui ont cessé de faire de nouvelles opérations au Canada, ainsi que la proportion des paiements aux porteurs de polices relativement aux primes reçues.

Si l'on réunit les quatorze années, de 1879 à 1892, on trouve que les paiements faits aux porteurs de polices, par les compagnies retirées, excèdent de 23·36 pour 100 le total des primes reçues pendant cette période.

Compagnies canadiennes.

L'actif et le passif, le revenu et les dépenses des compagnies canadiennes, se trouvent exposés sous leurs rubriques respectives aux pages xcix, c et civ, cv. En calculant leurs réserves de réassurances, les compagnies emploient la table H. M. de l'institut des actuaires, à 4½ pour 100.

D'après les tableaux des pages civ et cv, qui sont mentionnés ci-dessus, on trouve que les compagnies canadiennes accusent un total de recettes de $6,180,726.75, provenant des différentes sources suivantes :—

Primes et contrats de rentes viagères.....	$5,006,717 35
Intérêts et dividendes... .. .	1,138,158 84
Divers.....	35,850 56
Total.....	$6,180,726 75

Ministère des Finances—Division des Assurances.

Et leurs déboursés ont été de $3,705,551.21, répartis comme suit :—

Payé aux porteurs de polices et aux propriétaires de rentes viagères.....	$2,438,040 22
Dépenses générales.....	1,210,501 29
Dividendes payés aux actionnaires.....	57,009 70
Total.....	$3,705,551 21

Ainsi, pour chaque somme de $100 reçue, il a été déboursé en paiement aux porteurs de polices, $39.45 ; en dépenses générales, $19.59, et en dividendes aux actionnaires, $0.92, laissant $40.04 à porter à la réserve.

En examinant le tableau à la page xcix on verra que le 31 décembre 1892, le total de l'actif des compagnies canadiennes d'assurances sur la vie (y compris $1,522,289.31 de primes en souffrance ou différées, d'intérêts et de loyers dus ou à calculer et non encore reçus) s'élevait à $25,993,446.04, soit une augmentation sur le chiffre correspondant à la fin de l'année 1878 de $21,403,038.25.

Le total des risques en vigueur qui, en 1878, était de $30,541,867, s'élève aujourd'hui à $161,577,539, soit une augmentation de $131,035,672, et les réserves, qui étaient de $3,477,185 en 1878, ont été de $22,228,020 en 1892, soit une augmentation de $18,750,835.

Le tableau suivant fait voir le chiffre des recettes provenant des primes et d'autres sources, des compagnies canadiennes, ainsi que ceux des déboursés, en paiements aux porteurs de polices, en dépenses générales et en dividendes payés aux actionnaires durant les quatorze dernières années :—

COMPAGNIES COOPÉRATIVES, 1892.

Les opérations d'assurances sur la vie dites à répartitions ont été faites par huit compagnies, dont cinq canadiennes et trois américaines. Au nombre des compagnies canadiennes, une, la "Home Life Association," a obtenu un permis pendant l'année.

Le chiffre total des polices délivrées en 1892 a été de $10,740,475, soit $49,650 de moins qu'en 1891, et le chiffre de cette dernière année était de $2,842,625 de plus qu'en 1890. Le chiffre net en vigueur à la fin de l'année était de $43,965,575, ce qui constitue une augmentation de $1,552,672 sur le chiffre de l'année précédente.

Le chiffre des assurances terminées par décès a été de $410,835, et par rachat et prescription, $9,360,743, donnant pour chaque $1,000 de risques courants, $8.61 de risques terminés par décès, et $196.15 par rachat et prescription.

Le total des assurances terminées s'élève à 90.98 pour 100 du montant des nouvelles polices. Les chiffres des assurances terminées se répartissent comme suit :—

	Par décès.	Par rachat ou prescription.
Compagnies canadiennes.....	$ 140,260	$ 4,931,268
do américaines.....	270,575	4,429,475
Total.....	$ 410,835	$ 9,360,743

Les détails pour les différentes compagnies se trouvent à la page cviii.

Le montant total payé par les membres pour entrées, contributions mensuelles, répartitions, etc., s'est élevé à $572,804, et les réclamations pour cause de décès se sont élevées à $413,502.

Les tableaux suivants donnent les détails de l'actif et du passif, du revenu et des dépenses des compagnies canadiennes et du revenu et des dépenses des compagnies américaines :—

Deux compagnies canadiennes coopératives ont cessé de faire des opérations d'assurance en 1892, savoir:—La "Canadian Mutual Life Association," dont le siège social était à Toronto, Ontario, et la "Mutual Relief Society of Nova Scotia," dont le bureau principal était à Yarmouth, Nouvelle-Ecosse. Ces compagnies ont fait un arrangement avec la "Massachusetts Benefit Association," aux termes duquel cette dernière compagnie a accepté et reçu l'actif de la première et s'est rendue responsable de ses obligations, soit en émettant de nouvelles polices ou en garantissant les anciennes. La convention a été exécutée par les compagnies. Ni l'une ni l'autre.

de ces deux compagnies n'avait fait de dépôt entre les mains du receveur général, et ce département n'ayant pas le droit de s'immiscer dans ces conventions n'y a pris aucune part.

Les Forestiers du Monde, compagnie constituée en corporation par l'Acte du parlement du Canada, sanctionné le 1er avril 1893, et dont le bureau principal est à London, Ontario, a été, le 29 juin 1893, enregistrée comme compagnie coopérative en vertu de l'Acte des assurances.

Dans le mois de mars 1893, la Canada Provident Association de Montréal, a demandé d'être enregistrée comme compagnie coopérative, mais sa demande a été refusée pour les raisons que l'on trouve dans la correspondance :—

BUREAU DU SURINTENDANT DES ASSURANCES,

OTTAWA, 16 mars 1893.

Au sous-ministre de la Justice.

CHER MONSIEUR,—Je vous transmets ci-inclus une copie authentique des règlements de la Canada Provident Association, compagnie qui demande aujourd'hui à être enregistrée comme compagnie coopérative d'assurance sur la vie, en vertu des dispositions de l'Acte des assurances, et qui est censée se former dans le but, entre autres, "d'établir au moyen de répartitions ou de contributions de la part de ses membres un fonds suffisant pour pouvoir payer une somme ou des sommes d'argent à la veuve ou aux orphelins, ou aux représentants d'un membre décédé, ou à un membre qui deviendra complètement ou partiellement incapable de travailler."

Il faut observer que la compagnie est formée en vertu de l'article 3096 et les suivants des Statuts révisés de la province de Québec, lequel contient une disposition concernant la formation des sociétés "ayant pour but, au moyen de contributions volontaires, souscriptions ou dons de la part des membres de la société, ou du public, de venir en aide à ceux qui souffrent par suite de maladies, d'accidents, de revers de fortune et de la mort, aux veuves et aux orphelins, aux représentants légaux des membres décédés, de secourir et de corriger les femmes déçues et les enfants, et d'arriver à toutes autres fins semblables."

Ce qui précède fait partie de l'article 3096, et je suis d'opinion qu'on n'y trouve pas l'autorisation d'organiser une société dans le but de faire des opérations d'assurance d'après le mode de répartitions dans le sens que comportent les statuts de la Canada Provident. A mon avis, les associations organisées en vertu de l'article 3096 doivent être apuées volontairement, et ces associations ne sont pas autorisées à passer un contrat aux fins d'accorder certains bénéfices en considération de certains paiements à être faits par l'assuré ou son représentant.

1. Partagez-vous cette opinion ?

2. Dans le cas contraire, êtes-vous d'opinion que l'association, en ce qui concerne sa position légale, peut être régulièrement enregistrée comme compagnie coopérative en vertu des dispositions de l'Acte des assurances.

En répondant sous le plus court délai vous obligerez,

Votre obéissant serviteur,

(Signé)

W. FITZGERALD,

Surintendant des assurances.

MINISTÈRE DE LA JUSTICE,

OTTAWA, 27 mars 1893.

MONSIEUR,—En réponse à votre lettre du 16 du présent mois, contenant une copie des règlements de la Canada Provident Association, organisée en vertu de l'article 3096 des Statuts Révisés de la province de Québec, et me demandant si je suis d'opinion que la compagnie a le droit d'être enregistrée comme compagnie coopérative d'assurance sur la vie, d'après les dispositions de l'Acte des assurances, j'ai l'honneur de vous informer que je conviens avec vous que, attendu que l'article en question n'a en vue que les contributions volontaires et qu'il n'autorise pas à passer un contrat aux fins d'accorder certains bénéfices en considération de certains paiements, la compagnie n'a pas le droit d'être enregistrée comme compagnie coopérative en vertu des dispositions de l'Acte des assurances. Je vous retourne vos documents.

Je suis, monsieur,

Votre obéissant serviteur,

(Signé)

A. POWER,

pour le S.-M.J.

ASSURANCES CONTRE LES ACCIDENTS ET DE GARANTIE AU CANADA, 1892.

Les opérations d'assurances contre les accidents ont été faites par neuf compagnies, savoir: cinq compagnies canadiennes (dont deux assurent aussi sur la vie), une américaine (qui assure sur la vie) et trois britanniques, dont l'une entreprend des assurances de garantie, et une des assurances sur glaces.

Cette liste ne diffère pas de celle de l'année dernière.

Le chiffre total des primes d'assurances contre les accidents reçues au Canada s'est élevé à $317,643, assurant une somme de $59,086,879, et la somme de $152,485 a été payée pour réclamations, laissant $53,351 de réclamations à régler. On en trouvera un relevé à la page cxi.

Les opérations de garantie ont été faites par trois compagnies, une canadienne, une britannique et une américaine. Cette liste ne diffère pas de celle de l'année précédente, 1891.

Les primes reçues ont été de $60,384, garantissant une somme de $11,212,941, et le chiffre net des réclamations payées s'est élevé à $13,046, laissant $28,100 de réclamations à régler.

La compagnie de garantie de l'Amérique du Nord fait en dehors du Canada des opérations qui ne sont pas comprises dans les chiffres qui précèdent.

ASSURANCES SUR GLACES AU CANADA, 1892.

Les opérations d'assurances sur glaces ont été faites par trois compagnies constituées en corporation, savoir: une canadienne, une britannique (qui comprend aussi les risques contre les accidents) et une américaine, et par une société d'assureurs ayant son siège principal d'opérations dans la ville de Montréal.

La compagnie d'assurance sur glaces dite "Dominion," et MM. Mongenais, Boivin et Cie, les assureurs dont il vient d'être parlé, ayant adopté le mode d'assurance par remplacement, au lieu de payer la valeur des glaces brisées, et leurs contrats ne mentionnant aucun montant d'assurances, leurs rapports n'indiquent pas le montant des risques entrepris durant l'année, ni celui des risques en vigueur à la fin de l'exercice. Les primes reçues durant l'année au Canada, pour les assurances sur glaces, ont été de $39,466, ce qui est $780 de plus que l'an dernier, et les pertes totales se sont élevées à $15,678, soit $1,628 de plus que le montant payé en 1891. On trouvera un relevé à la page cxii.

Le 26 juillet 1893, un permis a été accordé à la Compagnie d'assurance des Chaudières à vapeur et sur Glaces du Canada, dont le siège principal d'opérations est à London, Ontario.

INDEMNITÉ CONTRE LES CRÉANCES.

Le mode d'assurance connu sous le titre ci-dessus, a été inauguré au Canada dans le mois de janvier de la présente année, et un permis a été accordé à la "Canadian and European Export Credit System Company of Newark," New-Jersey, aux fins d'assurer au Canada les marchands de gros, entrepreneurs et manufacturiers, contre les pertes excessives résultant des créances véreuses. Quatre ou cinq compagnies font ce genre d'affaires aux Etats-Unis, mais la compagnie ci-dessus nommée est la première qui demande à faire des opérations au Canada. On surveillera avec intérêt son développement.

ASSURANCE CONTRE LES VOLEURS.

Ce mode d'assurance, qui est très répandu en Angleterre, a été dernièrement inauguré au Canada. Le 14 juin 1893, un permis a été accordé à la Compagnie de garantie contre les Voleurs, du Canada (à responsabilité limitée), dont le siège principal est à Montréal, aux fins de faire des opérations de garantie contre les pertes ou dommages résultant des vols avec effraction, et de garantie contre la perte des bijoux, or et autres effets mobiliers confiés à sa garde. La compagnie a été constituée en corporation par un acte du parlement du Canada sanctionné le 1er avril 1893.

Aujourd'hui il y a 94 compagnies sous le contrôle de ce bureau, et leurs opérations se répartissent comme suit :—

RÈGLES ET RÈGLEMENTS RELATIFS À L'ACCEPTATION DES GARANTIES OFFERTES POUR LES DÉPÔTS PAR LES COMPAGNIES D'ASSURANCES, À L'OCTROI DE PERMIS, ETC., ETC.

Les extraits suivants d'arrêtés du conseil, de minutes du Conseil de la Trésorerie, etc. (dont plusieurs ont déjà été publiés), sont réunis ici pour faciliter la consultation :

Garanties municipales.—“ Le conseil recommande que les obligations municipales, lorsqu'on les acceptera, pourront être prises à 90 pour 100, et que les bons du havre de Montréal soient pris au même chiffre. (A. C. 1er avril 1876.)

Renseignements sur les garanties offertes en dépôt.—Toute offre d'obligations ou débetures, soit en dépôts originaires ou en échange pour des valeurs que l'on veut remettre en portefeuille, doit être accompagnée d'un état donnant sur les garanties offertes des renseignements complets sur les points suivants :—

“ Date, date de l'échéance, lieu de paiement pour le capital, taux de l'intérêt, terme de paiement, c.-à-d., annuellement ou semi-annuellement, date et lieu de paiement pour l'intérêt, valeur vénale à l'époque de l'offre, ou si cette valeur n'est pas cotée sur le marché, prix et date de l'achat par la compagnie.

“ Aussi, lorsqu'il s'agit d'obligations ou de débetures de municipalités ;

“ La population, la valeur imposée, le taux de la taxe, l'actif, le total de la dette en débetures, et de toutes les autres dettes, le revenu et la dépense du dernier exercice, et tous autres détails connus de la compagnie et qui seraient de nature à aider à déterminer la valeur des garanties offertes.

“ Le conseil désire avoir tous les renseignements possibles au sujet de ces garanties, afin d'être en mesure de mieux peser les choses. (C. T., 9 novembre 1888.)

Débetures de chemins de fer.—Le conseil est d'avis qu'il ne peut accepter en dépôt les obligations d'aucune compagnie de chemin de fer à moins qu'elles ne soient directement ou indirectement garanties par le gouvernement du Canada. (C. T., 27 octobre 1890.)

Effets de compagnies de prêts.—“ Le conseil a examiné un mémoire du surintendant des assurances au sujet de la demande de l'association des compagnies de crédit foncier pour la province d'Ontario à l'effet de faire accepter les débetures de compagnies de prêts en dépôt de la part des compagnies d'assurances. Ce mémoire représente que cette association est composée de compagnies ou sociétés de prêts constituées en corporation et autorisées à prêter de l'argent sur biens-fonds dans la province d'Ontario, et que toutes les compagnies de cette nature sont admissibles dans l'association sur paiement de certains droits d'entrée ; que les compagnies qui composent cette association peuvent se ranger dans les catégories suivantes :

I. Compagnies constituées sous l'empire du statut de la province du Canada, 9 Victoria, chap. 90, refundu dans le chapitre 53 des Statuts Refondus du Haut-Canada, aujourd'hui inclus dans le chapitre 169 des derniers Statuts Révisés de l'Ontario (1887), et communément connu sous le nom d'Acte des sociétés de construction.

II. Compagnies constituées sous l'empire de l'Acte des compagnies à fonds social du Canada, de 1877, aujourd'hui connu sous le nom d'Acte des compagnies, c'est-à-dire le chapitre 119 des Statuts Révisés du Canada (1886).

III. Compagnies constituées par certains actes particuliers de la législature de la province du Canada ou du parlement du Canada.

IV. Compagnies constituées sous l'empire de l'Acte des lettres patentes pour compagnies à fonds social de l'Ontario, 1874, c'est-à-dire le chapitre 150 des premiers et le chapitre 157 des derniers Statuts Révisés de l'Ontario.

V. Compagnies constituées sous l'empire de l'acte anglais des compagnies, et autorisées à faire des opérations en Canada en vertu de 37 Victoria, chapitre 49, c'est-à-dire le chapitre 125 des Statuts Révisés du Canada.

Après avoir examiné avec soin le rapport du surintendant des assurances relativement à la nature des garanties sur lesquelles les compagnies ci-dessus peuvent placer leurs fonds, ainsi que sur la faculté d'emprunter dont jouissent ces compagnies, et eu égard à ce que les compagnies appartenant aux catégories I et II, c'est-à-dire les compagnies constituées sous l'empire de l'Acte des sociétés de construction ou de l'Acte des compagnies, ne possèdent la faculté d'emprunter qu'à un degré limité, et sont restreints aux placements qui sont généralement considérés comme les plus sûrs, le conseil arrête que les débetures et les effets non rachetables de celles des compagnies appartenant à ces deux catégories qui seront dans les conditions mentionnées plus loin, pourront être acceptés en dépôt de la part des compagnies d'assurance au taux que le conseil de la Trésorerie jugera à propos d'y attacher, sans dépasser cependant la valeur ordinairement reconnue aux garanties municipales, savoir : 90 pour 100 du pair lorsque la valeur vénale est au moins égale au pair, ou 90 pour 100 de la valeur vénale lorsque celle-ci n'atteint pas le pair.

Les conditions dont il est question ci-dessus sont les suivantes :

1. La compagnie doit n'avoir aucunement dépassé en matière d'emprunt et de placements les pouvoirs que lui confère l'acte sous l'empire duquel elle a été constituée.

2. Elle doit avoir un capital versé d'au moins $500,000.

3. Elle doit avoir fait avec succès les opérations de compagnie de prêt pendant au moins dix ans.

4. Elle doit avoir une caisse de réserve d'au moins 25 p. 100 de son capital versé.

5. Ses actions doivent être cotées à au moins 25 p. 100 de prime.

Le conseil arrête aussi que les débetures de celles des compagnies de la catégorie III, savoir : les compagnies constituées par actes particuliers, qui seront dans les conditions ci-dessus, et dont les pouvoirs en matière d'emprunt et de placements ne dépassent pas ceux accordés aux compagnies des catégories I et II, pourront aussi être acceptées sauf les dispositions ci-dessus relatives à leur valeur.

Ministère des Finances—Division des Assurances.

Le conseil arrête aussi que toute demande de la part d'une compagnie d'assurance à l'effet de faire accepter des débiteures ou des effets non rachetables comme ci-dessus, fera le sujet d'une référence particulière au conseil de la Trésorerie, et que la compagnie fournira tous les renseignements (dûment attestés s'il est besoin) nécessaires au conseil." (C.T., 19 juin 1889.)

Aucune assurance d'acceptation d'effets par le conseil de la Trésorerie.—"Le surintendant demande la décision du conseil de la Trésorerie sur la question suivante : * * Le conseil fera-t-il savoir à une compagnie qui désire acheter certains effets ou garanties s'il les acceptera ou non en dépôt.

"Après délibération, le conseil est d'avis qu'il ne saurait faire connaître à une compagnie si dans le cas où certains effets ou garanties seraient achetés, ces effets ou garanties seraient acceptés en dépôt." (C.T., 1er avril 1889.)

Reçus de dépôts.—"Le conseil donne instruction de n'accepter dans aucun cas en dépôts des reçus de dépôts de la part d'aucune compagnie." (C.T., 25 janvier 1888.)

Actions de banques, etc.—"Les effets ou actions de banques dans aucune compagnie particulière ne seront pas acceptés." (A.C., 17 janvier 1876.)

Combinaison des opérations sur la vie avec d'autres genres d'assurances.—"Le conseil ayant pris en considération une demande faite par quelques compagnies britanniques pour obtenir un permis d'entreprendre des opérations d'assurances contre les accidents en même temps que sur la vie, et ayant étudié le rapport du surintendant des assurances sur le sujet, est d'opinion qu'il ne serait pas de l'intérêt du public ni conforme à la politique indiquée par le parlement fédéral en refusant des chartes de cette nature, de combiner les opérations d'assurances sur la vie avec toute autre classe d'assurances, et recommande au conseil, (1.) Qu'à l'avenir aucun permis ne soit accordé à une compagnie qui désire faire des opérations d'assurances sur la vie dans le but d'y joindre d'autres genres d'assurances. (2.) Que cette minute n'est pas destinée à gêner les opérations d'assurances combinées par les compagnies déjà en opération et autorisées en vertu de l'acte de 1868, et qu'il n'est pas nécessaire d'exiger des compagnies qui combinent les assurances sur la vie avec les accidents, et qui sont autorisées par ce statut de faire de dépôt spécial à raison de leurs opérations contre les accidents." (A.C., 24 juillet 1882.)

Pouvoirs accordés par leur charte aux compagnies étrangères.—"Le conseil recommande de poser comme règle générale de n'accorder aucun permis à une compagnie étrangère dont les pouvoirs corporatifs excèdent les pouvoirs que le parlement du Canada accorderait à une compagnie." (A.C., 21 janvier 1891.)

"Pourvu, toutefois, qu'une compagnie, indépendamment des pouvoirs de sa charte, qui aura un capital payé d'au moins $500,000 tout à fait intact; et aura en plus de toutes obligations estimées d'après l'étalon officiel, un fonds de surplus égal à au moins 30 pour 100 du dit capital payé et dont la valeur marchande des actions sera à une prime d'au moins 30 pour 100, et qui aura fait avec succès pendant une période d'au moins dix ans les opérations pour lesquelles elle demande une licence, n'étant qu'une seule classe d'assurance, ou s'il y en a plus d'une, alors telles classes qui pourront être combinées, sera jugée éligible et avoir droit à la dite licence en s'engageant à garder et maintenir en Canada un actif, tel que défini par l'Acte des assurances, en plus et au-dessus de la somme fixée par les articles 8 et 10 du dit acte (les dits articles seront jugés applicables à la dite compagnie), jusqu'à la concurrence que le gouverneur en conseil, sur le rapport du conseil du Trésor, fixera et déterminera, mais n'excédant pas la somme de $500,000; le dit excédent sera considéré être le capital canadien de la compagnie, et le dit engagement sera réputé être une condition précédant l'émission de la dite licence.

"Et pourvu, de plus, que la demande de licence d'une compagnie qui ne se sera pas conformée sous tous rapports en tout aux exigences de l'article conditionnel précédent, mais qui ne manquera pas d'une manière sensible à ses points essentiels, pourra faire l'objet d'un renvoi spécial qui sera jugé au mérite." (A.C., 30 janvier 1892.)

Obligations enregistrées en dépôts.—Lorsque des obligations enregistrées sont reçues en dépôts, elles doivent être enregistrées au nom du receveur général. Des obligations enregistrées au nom d'une compagnie, accompagnées d'une cession en faveur du receveur général, ne seront pas acceptées. Lorsqu'on a l'intention de se servir d'obligations enregistrées pour faire un dépôt on devrait, avant de les envoyer à ce département, les enregistrer comme suit au nom du "receveur général du Canada en fidéicommiss pour (donnant le nom de la compagnie), étant partie du dépôt fait par la compagnie entre les mains du receveur général conformément aux statuts du Canada à cet effet." (C.T., 13 juillet 1891.)

ARTICLE 43 DE L'ACTE DES ASSURANCES.

Les opinions et la correspondance, etc., publiées sous ce titre dans le dernier rapport, ayant été excessivement utiles, le surintendant, croyant de l'intérêt des intéressés qu'elles soient continuellement conservées de façon à les mettre facilement à la portée, les publie de nouveau ci-dessous :

"THE ODDFELLOWS FRATERNAL ACCIDENT ASSOCIATION."

Vers la fin de l'année 1888, l'attention du surintendant fut attirée sur le fait que l'Association des Oddfellows contre les accidents avait nommé des agents qui sollicitaient des opérations au Canada, prétendant que, vu que l'association n'assurait que des Oddfellows, elle avait, en vertu de l'article 43

de l'Acte des assurances, le droit de le faire sans effectuer aucun dépôt entre les mains du receveur général et sans obtenir de permis. Cette question étant très importante, tous les papiers et la correspondance s'y rattachant furent soumis au département de la justice pour avoir son opinion. Les faits relatifs à cette affaire et les questions soulevées sont suffisamment exposés dans l'opinion du sous-ministre de la justice, qui se lit comme suit :—

OTTAWA, 8 janvier 1889.

“MONSIEUR,—J'ai l'honneur d'accuser réception de votre lettre du 27 du mois dernier, renfermant certains papiers, et demandant si l'Association fraternelle des Oddfellows d'Amérique contre les accidents tombe dans les exceptions contenues dans l'article 43 de l'Acte des assurances.

“La compagnie est donc * * * * une association contre les accidents, et pour cette raison ne rentre pas dans l'exception. On prétend de la part de la compagnie que, vu que la compagnie a pour objet d'assurer la vie des membres contre les accidents, elle fait des opérations d'assurance sur la vie, et ne perd pas le bénéfice de l'exception en faisant aussi d'autres opérations d'assurances. Je dois dire, cependant, que cette prétention semble entraîner une interprétation trop littérale de l'article 43. Les compagnies qui réclament les avantages de ces exceptions ne devraient s'occuper que d'assurances sur la vie, et non pas d'opérations contre les accidents et sur la vie, ou contre l'incendie et sur la vie, ou d'assurances maritimes et sur la vie. Toute autre interprétation semblerait exposer les compagnies engagées dans d'autres genres d'assurances au danger d'éluder la loi, et par conséquent s'engager dans les affaires d'assurance en jouissant des bénéfices de l'exception mentionnée dans l'article 43, en prétendant être légalement engagées dans les assurances sur la vie.

“Voici la question qui se soulève : Cette association est-elle formée dans un but d'assurance sur la vie en rapport ‘avec une société ou organisation * * * * pour des fins de confraternité, de bienfaisance, d'industrie ou de religion, et ‘exclusivement pour ses membres’ et qui assure la vie de ses membres exclusivement ?” Elle ne paraît pas l'être. Autant que je puis le voir par les papiers, sept messieurs se sont volontairement formés en une compagnie d'assurances, en prenant le nom ci-dessus, dans le but de faire des opérations parmi les Oddfellows seulement. Ils ont obtenu une charte sans consulter aucune association d'Oddfellows, sans leur autorisation et sans rapport avec eux, mais dans le but d'obtenir le patronage d'autant d'Oddfellows que possible. Mais cette intention de leur part, et tout ce qu'ils ont pu faire en rapport avec cette institution, ne justifie pas l'affirmation que l'association a été formée ‘en rapport avec’ l'ordre des Oddfellows.

“Comme je comprends la loi, le parlement avait intention de décréter qu'aucune des organisations mentionnées dans l'article en question pourrait assurer la vie de ses membres, où, si elle le jugeait à propos, pourrait organiser une association de ses membres dans un but d'assurances sur la vie ; mais il ne prévoyait pas de projets comme celui-ci, par lequel il se forme une compagnie pour obtenir le patronage des membres d'une confraternité. Les papiers montrent que ce n'est qu'après la constitution de la compagnie en corporation qu'elle a obtenu le consentement de la Grande Loge du Massachusetts de se servir du nom des Oddfellows. Il paraît de plus que certaines loges d'Oddfellows ont passé des résolutions approuvant cette association. Cela ne prouve cependant pas que la compagnie ait été formée en rapport avec l'ordre des Oddfellows.

L'objet de l'opinion qui précède a été communiqué de suite à l'association, qui fut aussi informée, en réponse à des demandes faites par elle, qu'on considérerait un permis nécessaire dans tous les cas de toutes les compagnies tombant sous le coup de l'article 43 de l'Acte des assurances (l'article en dernier lieu mentionné étant celui qui pouvait convenablement s'appliquer à une semblable association) ; que lorsque l'association aurait fait entre les mains du receveur général un dépôt de $20,000 à $40,000, à la discrétion du conseil de la Trésorerie, et qu'elle se serait sous tous autres rapports conformée aux dispositions de l'Acte des assurances, un permis pourrait être accordé à l'association, mais qu'un dépôt était indispensable. Aucun dépôt n'a été fait, et aucun permis n'a été accordé à cette association.

La copie suivante d'une opinion donnée par le sous-ministre de la justice, au sujet de l'association ci-dessus nommée, s'explique suffisamment par elle-même :—

“OTTAWA, 15 janvier 1889.

“MONSIEUR,—J'ai l'honneur d'accuser réception de votre lettre du 3 du courant, relative à la Covenant Mutual Benefit Association of Illinois, qui réclamaient d'être exemptées des dispositions de l'Acte des assurances, et j'ai l'honneur et l'ordre de dire ce qui suit :—

“Je dois d'abord attirer votre attention sur la lettre que je vous ai écrite le 8 janvier, au sujet de l'association d'assurance contre les accidents des Oddfellows d'Amérique, et de dire que les opinions exprimées dans cette lettre s'appliquent avec autant sinon plus de force dans le cas présent. Les papiers dans ce cas-ci, et particulièrement les règlements de l'association, montrent d'une manière concluante que cette association n'en est pas une pour des objets de confraternité, de bienfaisance, d'industrie ou de religion, mais que c'est purement et simplement une compagnie d'assurances sur la vie.

“Ce n'est pas non plus une association ayant pour objet des assurances sur la vie en rapport avec aucune telle association ou organisation. * * * *

“Je dois dire que l'association, telle qu'actuellement organisée, n'a aucun droit dans aucune circonstance de faire des opérations d'assurances au Canada avant d'avoir régulièrement obtenu de permis conformément à la loi du Canada.

Tout ce qui reste à ajouter, c'est que la Covenant Mutual Benefit Association, ayant fait le dépôt nécessaire et s'étant sous tous autres rapports conformée aux dispositions de l'Acte des Assurances, un permis fut accordé à cette association le 20 septembre 1890.

“M. E. C. DAVIES,

“Re North Western Masonic Aid Association.”

“CHER MONSIEUR,—J'ai reçu votre lettre du 28, renfermant un exemplaire des règlements de votre association. Je présume que vous faites des opérations au Canada sur la supposition que l'article 43 de l'Acte des assurances s'applique à votre association. Ce n'est, cependant, pas le cas. Cet article s'applique à une “société ou réunion d'individus, organisée pour des fins de confraternité, de bienfaisance, d'industrie ou de religion, et dont l'un des objets est l'assurance de la vie de ses membres exclusivement; ou à aucune association d'assurance sur la vie formée en rapport avec cette société ou réunion de ses membres seuls, et qui assure la vie de ses derniers exclusivement.”

“Ce dernier proviso prive clairement votre association des avantages des dispositions de l'article 43 ci-dessus cité. Le fait, comme vous dites, que les maçons seuls peuvent être membres de votre association au Canada, ne vous aide pas. Vos règlements pourvoyant à ce que les personnes qui ne sont pas maçons puissent être acceptées, sont concluants sur ce point. De plus, je crois que votre association accepte aux Etats-Unis des hommes qui ne sont pas maçons. Il n'y a rien dans les articles ou certificats de constitution en corporation qui limite la qualité de membres aux maçons, et les règlements, comme je l'ai fait remarquer, montrent que d'autres personnes que des maçons peuvent être acceptées. L'opinion de M. Sedgewick, sous-ministre de la justice, donnée au sujet de la Oddfellows Fraternal Accident Association (copie incluse) semble applicable à cette association. Je vous renvoie aux deux dernières clauses de cette opinion.

“Il s'en suit donc, que l'association ne peut légalement faire d'opérations au Canada. J'ai donc l'honneur de vous demander de cesser de faire de nouvelles opérations au Canada avant de vous être conformés aux dispositions de l'Acte des assurances en effectuant le dépôt nécessaire au crédit du receveur général, et en remplissant sous d'autres rapports les exigences du dit acte.

“Le ministre de la justice est d'opinion que la position que vous avez prise, ainsi que vous l'exprimez dans votre lettre du 29 juillet à M. Davies, savoir, que l'association ne peut légalement pour les raisons mentionnées dans cette lettre, à propos des dispositions de l'Acte des assurances, faire d'opérations au Canada sans effectuer le dépôt ordinaire et sans se conformer sous tous les autres rapports aux dispositions de l'acte et d'obtenir une licence en vertu du dit acte, est correcte.

“ MONSIEUR,—J’ai l’honneur d’accuser réception de votre lettre du 13 du courant relative à l’association ci-dessus nommée, et en réponse, je dois vous dire, d’après mes instructions, que cette association, en ce qui concerne la question de son exemption des dispositions de l’Acte des assurances, paraît être précisément dans la même position que la Oddfellows’ Fraternal Accident Association of America, et je n’ai qu’à vous renvoyer à une lettre du 8 janvier 1889, relative à cette dernière association, pour vous faire connaître l’opinion du ministre de la justice sur la question soumise dans votre lettre.

“ Les remarques contenues dans cette lettre au sujet de savoir si cette dernière association avait été formée en rapport avec une société ou réunion d’individus organisée pour des fins de confraternité, semblent également s’appliquer à cette association.

D’après les lettres qui précèdent on verra que les diverses associations ci-dessus nommées, et toutes les autres du même genre, ne peuvent légalement faire d’opérations au Canada sans d’abord se conformer sous tous rapports aux dispositions de l’Acte des Assurances, et se procurer le permis nécessaire ou le certificat d’enregistrement, en vertu de l’acte. Comme il a déjà été dit, la Covenant Mutual a demandé ce permis. La Oddfellows’ Accident Insurance Association, la North Western Masonic Aid Association, la Preferred Masonic Mutual Accident Association, et la United States Masonic Benevolent Association of Council Bluffs, Iowa, n’ont pas demandé de permis.

Décisions judiciaires.

Le rapport, pour l’année 1891, contenait le jugement rendu par la cour du banc de la reine dans la cause de McGeachie vs La Compagnie d’assurance sur la vie North American, infirmant le jugement rendu par le juge Street en cour inférieure, et accordant à la demanderesse le montant réclamé par son action. La compagnie a interjeté appel de ce jugement devant la cour d'appel d'Ontario. Les faits de la cause en appel et les jugements rendus sont extraits du 20 Appeal Reports (Ontario) 187 :—

McGeachie contre la Compagnie d'assurance sur la vie North American.

La demanderesse était la veuve d'un nommé Robert McGeachie, dont la vie avait été assurée en sa faveur par la défenderesse pour $1,000, en vertu d'une police datée le 6 décembre 1889, et elle poursuivait pour recouvrer le montant de la police. La police avait été émise en considération d'une prime de $31.10, pour le paiement de laquelle McGeachie avait consenti un billet, lequel fut renouvelé trois fois, avec l'intérêt et l'intérêt composé à chaque renouvellement, et le troisième billet renouvelé était devenu échu le 16 octobre 1890, et était impayé à l'époque du décès de McGeachie arrivé le 6 novembre 1890. La défenderesse a prétendu qu'à raison du défaut de paiement du billet consenti pour la prime la police était devenue nulle, en vertu d'une condition y contenue à cette fin, et la demanderesse a répliqué à l'encontre de cette prétention que la compagnie avait décidé de laisser la police en vigueur malgré le défaut de paiement du billet. La police dont il s'agit, et la correspondance relative à l'affaire, se trouvent en entier dans le rapport de la cause en cour inférieure. La cause fut instruite à Sainte-Catherine le 5 mai 1891, par le juge Street, qui débouta l'action, mais son jugement fut infirmé par la cour du banc de la reine.

La défenderesse interjeta appel, et cet appel fut plaidé devant Hagarty, J.C. O., Burton, Osler et MacLennan, J.J.A., le 1er et le 2 décembre 1892.

J. K. Kerr, C.R. pour l'appelante ; Aylesworth, C.R., et Marquis pour l'intimée.

Le jugement a été prononcé le 17 janvier 1893, par M. le juge Hagarty :—

Il m'est difficile d'accepter l'opinion de la cour de division, savoir, que lorsque l'assuré mourut il existait un contrat d'assurance avec la compagnie défenderesse.

En admettant, pour faciliter l'argumentation, que tant qu'elle a continué à accepter des billets à ordre au lieu d'espèces pour le montant des primes, et tant que l'un de ces billets était en cours à l'instant du décès, l'assurance était en vigueur, je ne vois pas comment ce jugement peut être maintenu.

A venir au 16 octobre, date du dernier renouvellement, nous pouvons considérer le contrat comme existant. Le défaut de paiement de ce dernier billet n'a rien laissé subsister. La compagnie aurait pu immédiatement annuler le risque en laissant toutefois à l'assuré l'obligation de payer les billets d'après les conditions de la police.

Je ne crois pas que la compagnie était obligé de déclarer à l'assuré que telle était son intention. Il incombait à la demanderesse d'établir assez clairement un acte quelconque de la part de la compagnie tendant à faire revivre l'obligation éteinte.

Ainsi toute la cause dépend du fait d'avoir écrit la lettre du 5 novembre.

“ Nous avions raison d'espérer recevoir une lettre de vous avant aujourd'hui avec les fonds nécessaires pour solder votre billet dont l'échéance est tombée le 5 du mois dernier. Veuillez immédiatement vous occuper de l'affaire.” Cette lettre n'est jamais arrivée à l'assuré, vu qu'il est mort le lendemain du jour qu'elle a été écrite.

A part l'argument que la lettre peut s'interpréter comme étant une demande pressante de payer le billet, même si le risque eut été annulé, il reste toujours une difficulté dans le fait que rien n'a été fait à l'égard de ce billet.

Si l'assuré avait payé le billet et si la défenderesse en avait accepté le paiement, je n'ai pas de doute que la demanderesse pourrait réclamer la somme en prouvant que ce paiement a été fait et accepté comme achevant de payer la prime de l'année et pas seulement pour payer le billet dû sur un risque annulé.

Mais rien n'a été fait, et le décès a été la seule réponse.

Dans le cas même où la lettre aurait été plus loin et qu'elle eût particulièrement parlé de l'assurance, et pressé McGeachie de payer et de conserver par là son assurance, je serais encore d'opinion qu'elle ne pouvait être conservée qu'en payant. Si le gérant eût rencontré l'assuré le 5 novembre, et qu'il lui eût demandé pourquoi il ne s'était pas occupé de l'affaire et payé le billet échu, et si l'assuré eût promis de le payer le lendemain, et qu'il fût mort deux heures après, disons d'un accident, quelle serait la position ?

En payant il conservait son assurance, en ne payant pas, mais en mourant sans payer, je crois respectueusement que le contrat cesse d'exister. Ou, lorsque cette lettre a été écrite, si McGeachie avait été décédé sans que l'auteur de la lettre l'eût su, en résulterait-il un nouveau contrat ?

Le défaut de paiement d'un billet consenti pour solder une prime rend l'assurance nulle et de nul effet.

Naturellement la compagnie peut renoncer à annuler la police, et tant qu'elle continue d'accepter ou de renouveler des billets le contrat peut subsister.

Mais dans le présent cas toute la preuve de renonciation à ce droit équivalait au plus, même si la lettre fût arrivée à son adresse, à un conseil de faire une chose qui pourrait conserver le contrat.

Rien n'a été fait et je ne peux pas croire que la loi que nous sommes obligés d'appliquer peut justifier un recouvrement de la somme.

Je ne considère pas que le mois de grâce accordé pour payer les primes peut affecter cette question.

Toute la question paraît reposer sur la nécessité de payer d'avance la première année pour rendre la police valide. Les parties conviennent de consentir et d'accepter des billets à cette fin, et de les renouveler plus d'une fois. Le mois de grâce peut difficilement s'appliquer à chaque billet donné.

Je sais que quelques-unes des nombreuses autorités américaines ont admis la plus grande latitude en traitant les affaires qui se font entre l'assureur et l'assuré.

Dans la cause de Moffat vs la Reliance Mutual Society, 45 U.C.R. 561, j'ai eu l'occasion d'examiner ces autorisés, et j'ai alors émis l'opinion qu'elles me paraissaient aller bien au delà des dispositions de la loi anglaise. Je suis encore de cette opinion.

Je crois que le jugement de mon savant confrère le juge Street devrait être rétabli et l'appel maintenu.

BURTON, J. A. :—

Je partage l'opinion de la cour inférieure que par la remise du billet et par l'émission de la prime le risque surgissait, et que la police pouvait être annulée uniquement au choix de la compagnie ; mais je ne puis adopter la prétention que d'après les faits de la cause que la compagnie a renoncé à annuler, ou fait un acte quelconque de nature à permettre à l'assuré de croire qu'elle considérait la police comme étant encore en vigueur, à moins d'arriver à la conclusion qu'une convention comme celle que la compagnie a acceptée, donnant le droit d'exiger le paiement du billet malgré la prescription de la police, est invalide. Je ne pense pas que l'argument a plus de force en démontrant que la compagnie exigeait le paiement du billet ou même qu'elle en poursuivait le recouvrement en justice. Elle pouvait agir d'une manière ou de l'autre sans avoir l'intention de remettre la police en vigueur conformément aux conditions de la convention. Je crois qu'il est probable que si la demande eût été suivie du paiement durant la vie de l'assuré, la compagnie aurait renoncé à la prescription, mais ni en droit ni en équité elle n'était tenue de la faire.

Je puis avouer qu'une convention comme celle dont il s'agit me semble quelque peu injuste, car d'après sa teneur la compagnie pouvait retirer la prime pour une année entière, tandis que l'assuré n'était garanti que pour six mois ; mais les individus sont libres de faire leurs propres contrats, et il n'est pas de notre devoir de les faire pour eux mais seulement de les interpréter.

La convention par laquelle l'assuré est libre de payer la prime pour l'année en versements semestriels ou trimestriels, me paraît être beaucoup plus équitable. La police est alors sujette à annulation par le défaut de paiement à l'époque convenue, mais l'assuré ne perd que la proportion de la prime pour la période qu'il a été assuré.

La cause de Olmstead vs Farmer's Mutual Fire Insurance Co., 50 Mich. 200, citée dans le jugement en cour inférieure, est, je crois, très distinct. Dans ce cas, il n'y avait aucune condition établissant que le défaut de paiement entraînerait la prescription, mais le secrétaire pouvait, en certains cas, suspendre ou annuler la police sauf appel. C'était une police d'assurance contre l'incendie, et loin d'avoir annulé la police à venir à l'époque de l'incendie, le secrétaire venait justement de notifier l'assuré que son assurance pouvait être suspendue, s'il ne se conformait promptement à l'avis.

Dans le présent cas il n'était pas nécessaire que la compagnie fit un acte quelconque pour démontrer qu'elle avait décidé d'annuler—les conditions le mentionnaient—et la lettre sur laquelle on s'est appuyé n'est pas du tout inconsequente avec le fait d'avoir décidé de la sorte. Il en aurait été autrement si la compagnie eût notifié l'assuré que la police serait annulée s'il ne payait pas immédiatement.

Je suis donc d'opinion que le jugement de M. le juge Street était conforme aux faits et qu'il doit être rétabli.

OSLER, J. A. :—

Dans mon opinion le jugement de M. le juge Street, déboutant l'action, devrait être rétabli. Je crois que le défaut de paiement du dernier billet renouvelé pour la balance de la dernière prime, établissant une bonne défense en vertu de la disposition contenue dans la demande et dans la police, " que si un billet, chèque ou autre effet donné à compte d'une prime n'est pas payé à l'échéance, la police sera nulle, et tous les paiements faits pour cette police seront confisqués en faveur de la compagnie." Admettant que cela signifie nul au choix des assureurs, ils n'étaient pas obligés de faire quelque chose démontrant qu'ils avaient décidé de l'annuler du vivant de l'assuré. Si la prime était impayée à l'époque de son décès, la police est nulle, s'ils ont imposé cette condition. La police a tout simplement pris fin. Rochner v. Kinckerbocker Life Insurance Co., 66 N.-Y., 160 ; Robert v. New-England Mutual Life Insurance Co., 1 Disney (Ohio), 355 ; Lantz v. Vermont Life Insurance Co., 139 Pa. St., 546 à p. 561. Si avant le décès ils avaient accepté le paiement de la prime, le cas aurait pu être assimilé à celui de Wing v. Harvey, 5 D. M. & G., 265, et Armstrong v. Turquand, 9 Ir. C. L. 32 (1858), et les défendeurs auraient pu être tenus responsables, ou au plus il aurait été douteux d'après la preuve s'ils avaient accepté le paiement la police étant en vigueur, ou d'après la condition que la prime serait payée dans tous les cas, et malgré son annulation. Ici il n'y a pas autre chose que le fait du défaut de paiement du billet donné pour la prime, et une demande de paiement qui n'est jamais parvenue à l'assuré. Ses représentants ne pouvaient pas être dans une meilleure position qu'ils auraient été si cette demande était arrivée à sa connaissance, et s'il fut décédé sans s'y conformer, et je ne vois pas comment, en donnant effet aux conditions du contrat, la demande peut être considérée autrement qu'un avis à l'assuré ou une déclaration par les défendeurs que si la prime était payée de son vivant la compagnie consentait à considérer la police comme étant encore en vigueur. On ne peut pas inférer avec raison qu'ils considéraient la police comme n'étant pas affectée par le défaut de paiement, et que la prime était payée par le billet, en d'autres termes, qu'ils décidaient de laisser la police en vigueur, si ce n'est qu'à la condition que le paiement fût fait du vivant de l'assuré. Cependant, en fait, la lettre de la compagnie datée le 5 novembre 1890, n'est jamais arrivée à la connaissance de l'assuré, vu qu'il est décédé avant qu'elle fût délivrée, de sorte que si la compagnie avait l'intention de ne pas annuler la police, cette intention n'a pas été complétée, et le cas est tout simplement celui d'un assuré qui meurt sans avoir payé, et il est ainsi soumis à la condition d'annulation. Je citerai Neil v. Union Mutual Life Insurance Co., 45 U.C.R. 593, 7 A.R. 171 ; Doe Nash v. Birch, 1 M. & W. 402, à p. 408 ; Croft v. Lumley, 6 H.L.C. 672, à p. 705.

Ministère des Finances—Division des Assurances.

Je ne veux pas donner à entendre qu'une demande, dans le cas même qu'elle serait communiquée à l'assuré, à moins d'être suivie du paiement et de l'acceptation de la prime durant sa vie, serait une preuve d'une renonciation à l'annulation ni qu'elle serait suffisante pour faire revivre la police.

Dans la cause de Edge v. Duke, 18 L. J. Ch. 183, la compagnie avait non seulement demandé le paiement de la prime échue, mais elle avait intenté une action pour la recouvrer, et il a été décidé qu'elle avait le droit malgré cela d'exiger l'annulation.

Pour toutes ces raisons, d'accord avec mes collègues, je maintiens l'appel.

MACLENNAN, J. A. :—

Je suis aussi d'opinion que l'appel doit être maintenu.

Dans le cours de l'argumentation, j'ai cru que le fait que le premier billet donné pour la prime avait été remis au faiseur lors de son renouvellement, pouvait faire une différence. Le premier billet a été indubitablement donné à compte d'une prime aux conditions inscrites dans la police, mais avant de devenir dû il a été remis et remplacé par un autre billet, et ce mode de renouvellement a été répété une ou deux fois. On ne peut pas dire que le billet primitif dans les circonstances était un billet "non payé à l'échéance" dans le sens de la condition, et ayant été remis, si c'était un billet payé, il ne pouvait jamais devenir autre chose, ni être remis en vigueur par le défaut de paiement du renouvellement. Ensuite, le deuxième et les autres billets n'ont pas été donnés à compte d'une prime comme le premier l'avait été, mais en paiement des billets précédents ou au moins pour les remplacer. Cependant, après réflexion, je crois que prétendre que les billets subséquents n'ont pas été donnés à compte d'une prime, serait interpréter trop étroitement la teneur de la condition. Nous ne pouvons pas réellement dire, en donnant un sens raisonnable et équitable au mot, qu'ils n'ont pas été donnés à compte d'une prime. Il est évident que tous les billets ont été donnés pour cette seule fin.

Puis on a prétendu que la disposition contenue dans la police et accordant un mois de grâce pour le paiement des primes était applicable. Il faut remarquer que le mois de grâce est restreint au paiement des primes. Il n'est pas appliqué aux billets ou autres obligations données pour cette fin. Je crois que le mois doit courir depuis le jour de l'échéance de la prime, et si la compagnie accepte un billet je crois que la disposition ne signifie pas que l'assuré aura un mois de grâce en sus du temps fixé dans le billet. La condition de la police est que les primes sont dues et payables d'avance. Toute déviation de cette condition, soit en acceptant un billet ou autrement, est une grâce, et, d'après la police, l'assuré ne peut pas exiger autre chose qu'un mois. S'il obtient un mois ou plus au moyen d'un billet il faut admettre que c'est en remplacement du mois accordé par la police, et non pas une addition.

Maintenant, j'arrive à la question de renonciation, sur laquelle repose le jugement de la cour de division, et après mûr examen il m'est impossible d'approuver le jugement. Je crois respectueusement qu'il n'y a pas eu de renonciation. Les causes citées par le savant juge en chef, Wing vs. Harvey, 5 D. M. & G., 265, et Armstrong vs. Turquand, 9 Ir. C. L. 32, sont, je crois, distinctes de la présente. Dans ces causes les compagnies n'avaient aucun droit de recevoir les primes, qu'elles ont reçues d'après la théorie seule qu'elles avaient renoncé à l'annulation. Dans la cause de Wing vs. Harvey, la compagnie avait reçu les primes pendant plusieurs années après avoir connu la cause d'annulation, et dans la cause d'Armstrong vs. Turquand, elle avait reçu une prime après connaissance du fait. L'autre cause, MacKie vs. European Assurance Society, 21 L. T. N. S., 102, décide simplement que la compagnie était liée par les actes de son agent.

Je suppose, pour les fins de cette cause, que la compagnie est liée par tout ce qui a eu lieu entre l'assuré et l'agent, et, en examinant la correspondance, il m'est impossible de constater que l'agent ait jamais songé à la question de l'annulation de la police à raison de non-paiement. Il est évident que tout ce qu'il avait à faire et ce qu'il s'efforçait d'obtenir était de faire payer le billet. Il n'examinait pas les conséquences.

Il avait le droit de dire s'il le voulait : "Votre police est nulle mais j'exige le paiement du billet." Mais il n'était pas tenu de dire un mot concernant la police d'une façon ou de l'autre. D'après les conditions du contrat, il pouvait demander le paiement du billet, que la police fût nulle ou non. Sans cela sa demande de paiement serait une déclaration que la police était encore en vigueur, et serait une preuve de renonciation à l'annulation ; mais, dans les circonstances, je suis incapable de voir comment on peut en juger ainsi. On a prétendu que, si l'assuré avait payé la prime conformément à la demande, on ne pouvait pas dire autre chose que la police était par là même remise en vigueur. Cependant, je crois que c'est la même proposition, et que si la somme avait été payée, et il est arrivé que l'assuré était atteint d'une maladie dangereuse ou fatale, la compagnie ne pouvait pas être censée avoir renoncé à l'annulation. Quand un propriétaire, après une résiliation, reçoit le montant du loyer échu auparavant, ce n'est pas une preuve de renonciation ; mais il en est autrement s'il reçoit le loyer qui est devenu dû subséquemment. Dans le premier cas il a droit à son loyer, qu'il ait l'intention ou non de s'en tenir à la résiliation, mais dans l'autre cas on ne peut arriver qu'à une conclusion, savoir, qu'il a renoncé à la résiliation. Ainsi, dans le présent cas la compagnie avait le droit de demander, et même de recouvrer le paiement du billet, qu'elle eût ou non renoncé à l'annulation. Et ainsi aucune inférence quelconque ne peut être tirée de ces actes comme ayant rapport à son intention. Mettant de côté ces actes, je crois que nous devons constater dans la correspondance une intention formelle en termes positifs de renoncer à l'annulation avant de pouvoir décider qu'elle a agi ainsi, et il m'est impossible d'y trouver cette intention.

En conséquence je suis d'opinion que l'appel doit être maintenu.

L'appel est maintenu avec dépens.

La demanderesse dans la cause a donné un nouvel avis d'appel de ce jugement devant la cour suprême du Canada, mais le surintendant ne sait pas si l'appel a été interjeté ou abandonné.

Le rapport de la cause suivante qui est, sous plusieurs rapports semblable à la dernière, mais qui en même temps en diffère suffisamment pour justifier son insertion ici, est extrait du 20 Appeal Reports (Ontario), p. 309.

The Manufacturers' Life Insurance Co. vs Gordon.

C'est un appel interjeté par la demanderesse du jugement de M. le juge MacMahon.

La cause a été plaidée à Ottawa le 20 et le 27 avril, et le jugement suivant, qui relate tous les faits, a été prononcé le 16 juillet 1892 :—

MacMahon, J. :—

L'action demande l'annulation d'une police d'assurance émise par la demanderesse sur la vie de Daniel John Baillie Gordon, pour la somme de $5,000 (le montant étant payable à sa femme Kate S. Gordon, la défenderesse), pour la raison qu'un billet donné par l'assuré, le dit D. J. Gordon, échu le 8 octobre 1891 (étant moins de deux ans après l'émission de la dite police), n'a pas été payé à l'échéance, et qu'en conséquence, ainsi que la demanderesse l'allègue, la dite police est devenue nulle et de nul effet d'après les conditions stipulées dans la demande et dans la police. La police est datée le 22 juillet 1890, et d'après ses conditions la prime semi-annuelle, $77.75, doit être payée d'avance à la compagnie le cinquième jour de juillet et de janvier de chaque année. Par une des dispositions de la police—(H) "un mois de grâce sera accordé pour le paiement des primes, et à l'expiration de ce délai si les dites primes ne sont pas payées, cette police deviendra dès ce moment nulle. Mais la police pourra être remise en vigueur si la demande en est faite par écrit à la compagnie, à son bureau principal dans les deux mois à compter de l'expiration du mois de grâce, accompagnée d'un certificat de bonne santé d'un médecin examinateur de cette compagnie, soumis à son approbation, pourvu toujours que chaque fois qu'on se prévaut de cette grâce, ou du privilège de la remise en vigueur, l'intérêt sera payé à la compagnie au taux de 6 pour 100 chaque année pendant les délais écoulés." Et sur le dos de la police on lit :—"Si dans les années à compter de la date fixée pour commencer cette assurance  un billet, chèque ou autre effet donné à compte de la prime de la première ou la seconde année n'est pas payé à l'échéance  cette police sera nulle, et tous les paiements faits pour cette police seront confisqués en faveur de la compagnie," etc.

Au bas du certificat de l'examen médical, lequel a été signé par Gordon (et qui a été indiqué dans la demande comme en faisant partie), il y a une stipulation disant que si un billet ou autre effet donné pour la première prime ou d'autres primes subséquentes n'est pas payé à l'échéance la police deviendra dès ce moment nulle, mais le billet, etc., devra nécessairement être payé.

On ne peut pas prétendre que c'est une condition ou stipulation qui modifie d'une manière quelconque l'effet de la police, vu que par l'article 27 des S.R.C., ch. 124, toutes conditions, stipulations et conventions pour exécuter une police d'assurance après le premier janvier 1886, doivent être inscrites dans la police même ou sur le dos. La prime semi-annuelle due le 16 juillet 1891, n'étant pas payée à l'échéance, l'agent de la compagnie à Ottawa donna un reçu pour la prime à Gordon et accepta de ce dernier un billet daté le 5 août, payable à soixante jours, pour la somme de $77.75, lequel ne fut pas payé à l'échéance. Le 9 novembre, l'agent de la compagnie à Ottawa notifia Gordon que si le billet n'était pas payé vers le 16 il en poursuivrait le recouvrement en justice.

L'action a été intentée le 3 décembre et jugement a été rendu le 30 décembre 1891, pour le montant du billet, intérêt et dépens. Un mandat de saisie a été émis et rapporté en cour le 7 février 1892, avec un certificat de nulla bona. L'huissier de la cour déclarait qu'il avait publié la vente des biens mobiliers de Gordon, et qu'ils avaient été sous saisie jusqu'au décès de Gordon, arrivé le 4 février. Il a dit qu'il aurait pu réaliser cinquante ou soixante piastres par la vente des biens mobiliers, et qu'il ne les a pas vendus parce qu'il y avait eu un arrangement avec les avocats de la compagnie, qui avait consenti d'accepter dix piastres par mois sur le montant du mandat de saisie. Une lettre des avocats de la demanderesse, datée le 18 janvier 1892, a été produite et ils disent dans cette lettre que la compagnie consent à accepter le paiement de la réclamation par versements de dix piastres par mois ; le premier paiement devant être fait immédiatement et les honoraires de l'huissier devant être payés par Gordon.

On ne s'est pas conformé à cet arrangement, vu que pas un versement n'a été payé conformément à ses conditions. De fait, lorsque la lettre est parvenue à Gordon, il était atteint de la maladie dont il est mort plus tard.

Le 21 janvier M. T. C. Bate vit l'agent de la compagnie, A. E. Bradbury, à qui il déclara qu'il était venu pour payer le montant du jugement et la prime subséquente, et Bradbury lui dit qu'il constaterait le montant des frais de justice et qu'il le communiquerait à Bate. En cette occasion, qui était la première fois que Bradbury prétend avoir entendu parler de la maladie de Gordon, Bradbury remit à Bate "un certificat de santé," qu'il voulait faire signer par Gordon. Bate dit que Gordon a signé le certificat en blanc, mais qu'il n'a jamais été rempli, et qu'il n'avait pas été remis à Bradbury. Le lendemain, 22 janvier, Bradbury se rendit au bureau de Bate, et il lui dit qu'il ne lui avait pas donné le bon certificat, et il lui remit alors une formule d'un certificat de médecin à être rempli après un réexamen de Gordon fait par le médecin examinateur de la compagnie. L'agent de la compagnie croyait que c'était nécessaire parce que, ainsi qu'il l'a dit, trente jours s'étaient écoulés depuis que la prime était en souffrance—il faisait allusion à la prime représentée par le billet à ordre, qui était en souffrance depuis le 8 octobre précédent. Le 22 janvier 1892, l'avocat de la compagnie informa M. Bradbury que leurs dépenses (leurs frais, je suppose), dans le jugement de la Manufacturers' Life vs Gordon, s'élevaient à $8.89, ce qui comprenait les honoraires des avocats payables par la compagnie. Le 5 février, M. Christie, l'avocat de Mde Gordon, offrit aux avocats de la compagnie $82 en paiement du jugement, et le même jour M. Bate offrit à l'agent de la compagnie $73 pour la prime semi-annuelle devenue due le 5 janvier 1892, ce qui fut refusé.

Le 8 février 1892, le directeur gérant écrit une lettre à l'agent de la compagnie à Ottawa, lui demandant "Gordon a-t-il appris de vous que la police était prescrite?" Et le directeur gérant ajoute: "Je ne peux pas approuver l'empressement avec lequel vous avez confié cette affaire à un avocat. Le billet était échu en octobre, et il aurait été bien préférable d'attendre quelques mois avant de poursuivre. Si vous aviez laissé l'affaire en souffrance jusque après le 5 février, ils n'auraient probablement pas pu faire de réclamations avec chance de réussir; maintenant ils vont tirer parti du jugement pour appuyer la prétention que nous considérons la police encore en vigueur. "Le 10 février, l'agent répondit au directeur gérant et il lui disait au sujet de l'avis à Gordon: "Quant au fait que j'ai notifié Gordon que sa police était prescrite, je ne m'en souviens pas, mais Gordon savait qu'il en était ainsi, car je le rencontrai sur la rue et il me dit que la compagnie l'avait poursuivi pour son billet, et je lui fis observer qu'il ne pouvait pas me blâmer et il me dit: 'Je suppose que dans tous les cas mon assurance est finie,' et je lui répondis, 'payez le billet et nous ferons revivre la police.'" Ces lettres ont été produites par l'avocat de la défenderesse. Le reçu donné à Gordon lorsque la compagnie accepta son billet est en ces termes: "Reçu du porteur de la police n° 6,344, la prime semi-annuelle échue le 5 juillet 1891, $77.75, John F. Ellis, directeur gérant." Le billet a été accepté en paiement de la prime, mais par les conditions écrites sur la police, sur non-paiement du billet la police devenait nulle à moins d'une renonciation à ce privilège de la part de la compagnie. Le privilège d'annuler est pour l'avantage des assureurs, et ils peuvent ne pas l'exercer s'ils le veulent. Lorsque les assureurs ont, comme dans ce cas, le billet à ordre de l'assuré, la compagnie peut avoir l'intention de continuer le risque et d'exiger le paiement de la prime. Le paiement de la prime annuelle d'une police d'assurance sur la vie est une condition subséquente, dont l'accomplissement peut ou ne peut pas, suivant le cas, entraîner l'annulation de la police; Thompson vs Insurance Co., 104 U. S. 252. La compagnie, en demandant le paiement du billet; en poursuivant pour recouvrer le montant du billet et l'intérêt; en obtenant jugement et faisant émettre un mandat de saisie; opérant une saisie en vertu de ce mandat, et prétendant recouvrer le montant de ce jugement à venir au jour du décès de l'assuré, est, prétend-on, empêchée de faire valoir le fait que la police était annulée par le non-paiement du billet à l'échéance. M. McCarthy a argué, se basant sur la cause de Knickerbocker Life Insurance Co. vs Pendleton, 112 U. S. 696, que la police était complètement annulée par le non-paiement du billet, et que la compagnie avait le droit de poursuivre et de recouvrer le montant du billet (l'assuré ayant eu le bénéfice de l'assurance durant l'intervalle) sans renoncer à l'annulation. Dans ce cas-là, la compagnie n'avait rien fait de nature à démontrer qu'il y avait eu désistement de l'annulation après l'échéance du billet qu'elle avait accepté en paiement de la prime.

Il en est de même dans la cause de Thompson vs Knickerbocker Life Insurance Co., 5 Bigelow Life Ins. Cas. 8. Dans la présente cause, si la compagnie eût été payée du montant du billet en souffrance et de l'intérêt lorsque l'avis fût adressé par l'agent de la compagnie à Gordon, le 9 novembre, ou si le jugement eût été payé par M. Bate, le 21 janvier 1892, il peut à peine y avoir un doute que le reçu de la prime donné à l'assuré aurait été un abandon de l'annulation. Même dans le cas où une somme d'argent est payée et reçue comme loyer en vertu d'un bail, un simple protêt que cette somme est acceptée sous condition et sans préjudice au droit d'une annulation antérieure, ne peut pas contrebalancer le fait d'un reçu donné; Davenport vs. the Queen, 3 App. Cas. 115. La compagnie n'a pas agi comme si la police avait été annulée. Elle a été inscrite dans les livres de la compagnie comme un risque existant, et dans le rapport statutaire fait sous serment au gouvernement par le président et le directeur gérant, le 24 février 1892, la police émise en faveur de Gordon est inscrite comme faisant partie de celles en vigueur le 31 décembre 1891. Le contrat étant unilatéral, ce n'est qu'en recevant et acceptant le billet de Gordon que la compagnie était en position de poursuivre pour exiger le paiement de la prime. Si les biens mobiliers de Gordon, dont la vente avait été publiée pour avoir lieu le 16 janvier, avaient été vendus en vertu du mandat de saisie, il est possible que le produit aurait suffi pour payer le montant du jugement, et dans ce cas la prime aurait été payée pour le semestre expirant le 2 janvier, et le mois de grâce pour le paiement de la prime semi-annuelle subséquente n'aurait pas expiré avant le 5 février 1892. Néanmoins, dans le cours du mois de grâce, le montant du jugement, y compris les dettes et les frais, a été offert à l'avocat de la compagnie, et dans le cours du même mois de grâce, la prime pour le semestre suivant a aussi été offerte à l'agent de la compagnie et refusée. On a discuté le fait de savoir si, en vertu de la police, le mois de grâce devrait être considéré comme étant un mois de calendrier ou un mois lunaire. Dans la cause de Simpson vs Margitson, 11 Q. B. 23, un contrat contenait les mots "si les biens-fonds n'étaient pas vendus sous un délai de deux mois," il a été décidé que ces mots signifiaient "deux mois lunaires," à moins d'avoir une preuve admissible que les intéressés entendaient vouloir dire "deux mois de calendrier." Il en est de même dans la cause de Nudell vs. Williams 15 C. P. 348, où il s'agissait d'un bail par lequel les demandeurs avaient droit à un "mois" après l'expiration de l'ancien bail pour payer les améliorations, il a été décidé que le mot "mois" signifiait un mois lunaire. Dans Hart vs Middleton, 2 C. et K. 9, Pollock C. B. a dit: "Dans les questions de droit 'un mois' signifie un mois lunaire, mais dans les questions commerciales 'un mois' signifie toujours un mois de calendrier. Il en est ainsi quand il s'agit de lettres de change, billets à ordre, factures, échéances et tout ce qui se rapporte aux affaires commerciales; et je ne connais aucun cas qui prouve le contraire. L'émission d'une police d'assurance peut difficilement être considérée comme une affaire commerciale, de sorte que cette autorité ne nous aide en rien. Dans Simpson vs. Margitson, 11 Q. B. 23, lord Denman, le J., dit à la page 32: "Ni pouvons-nous trouver une autorité quelconque qui nous permette de dire que la conduite des parties à un contrat écrit est seule une preuve admissible pour changer la signification du mot 'mois.'" Cependant, dans le présent cas, en acceptant le billet daté le 5 août, la compagnie a considéré "mois" comme un mois de calendrier dans les opérations d'assurances sur la vie. La lettre de l'agent à Ottawa, datée le 5 février, et adressée au directeur gérant de la compagnie, dans laquelle il dit: "Les jours de grâce d'un second semestre expiront aujourd'hui," et la lettre du directeur gérant à l'agent, le 8 février, dans laquelle il dit : " Si vous aviez laissé l'affaire en souffrance jusque après le 5 février, ils n'auraient probablement pas pu faire de réclamations avec chance de réussir " sont une preuve de la signification qu'on attache au mot " mois " dans les opérations d'assurance sur la vie. Voir Simpson vs Margitson, 11 Q. B. 23, p. 32. Si il y a un doute à ce sujet, la défenderesse devrait avoir le privilège de fournir d'autres preuves concernant le sens donné au mot " mois " dans les opérations d'assurance sur la vie. La cause de Simpson vs Accidental Death Insurance Co., 2 C. B. N. S. 257, citée par l'avocat de la demanderesse, était basée sur une condition contenue dans la police permettant aux directeurs, quand une nouvelle prime devenait payable, de mettre fin au risque en refusant d'accepter cette prime. Dans Want vs Blunt, 12 East 183, aussi citée, dans laquelle il a été décidé que l'offre du montant de la prime faite par les héritiers de l'assuré durant les quinze jours de grâce accordés par la police de la compagnie, avait été faite trop tard, le jugement était appuyé sur les règles de la société qui prescrivait que, lorsque le paiement était fait durant les jours de grâce, il devait l'être par l'assuré de son vivant et jouissant d'une aussi bonne santé qu'au temps de l'expiration de la police. Dans Lantz vs Vermont Life Insurance Co., 139 Pa. St. 546, dans laquelle les autorités sont examinées de nouveau, la police prescrivait que le paiement des primes serait fait par l'assuré tous les trois mois, à condition que s'il n'était pas fait aux dates fixées, du vivant de l'assuré, la police cesserait d'exister. En vertu de la condition contenue dans la police accordant un mois de grâce pour payer la prime, l'offre faite le 5 février était valide. La réclamation de la demandesse doit être renvoyée avec dépens, et celle de la défenderesse doit être accordée et jugement est rendu en faveur de la défenderesse pour la somme de $5,000, moins $77.75, avec intérêt à compter du 5 février 1892, et tous les frais du litige.

La demanderesse a interjeté appel et l'appel a été plaidé devant Hagarty, J.C.O., Burton, Osler et MacLennan, J.J.A., le 2 et le 3 février 1893.

W. Nesbitt et R. McKay pour l'appelante.
Shepley, C.R., pour l'intimée.

HAGARTY, J.C.O.

Une prime semi-annuelle était payable le 5 janvier ; elle n'a pas été payée. L'assuré est décédé le 4 février, la prime étant encore impayée, mais dans le cours du mois et le 5 février, encore dans le cours du mois (si c'est un mois de calendrier) la somme a été offerte et refusée.

La vie, l'objet principal du contrat d'assurance, était éteinte, une prime étant échue et impayée. La personne en faveur de laquelle la police a été faite payable (la défenderesse) insiste sur le fait qu'un paiement a été offert dans le cours du mois, que, de fait, il n'y a pas eu défaut mais une continuation absolue du risque jusqu'à la fin du mois.

Je puis difficilement accepter cette manière de voir.

Tout le système d'assurance paraît basé sur le paiement d'avance au commencement du risque ou comme il l'a été pour lui donner vigueur ou cours. Lorsqu'il y a eu défaut par le non-paiement le 5 janvier, le risque était terminé ou avait cessé de continuer, sujet à une disposition sous forme de grâce ou faveur accordée à l'assuré pour payer dans le cours du mois, mais avec intérêt à compter de la date du défaut de paiement, ainsi que le prescrit une autre disposition. Mais si l'assuré meurt le deuxième jour du mois sans payer, ses représentants ont-ils le droit d'offrir le paiement vingt-neuf jours après le décès ? C'est la proposition que la défenderesse doit établir.

Je ne prétends pas connaître quelque chose concernant les usages ou les coutumes des compagnies d'assurances sur la vie, ni comment il leur plaît de comprendre de semblables dispositions. Je n'ai rien pour me guider sur cette question d'interprétation, excepté ce que contient le factum "Appeal Book" et les arguments des avocats à ce sujet, et la preuve extérieure.

Après avoir mûrement examiné la cause, il me semble qu'après le décès aucune offre de paiement ne peut être valide.

L'objet principal de l'assurance était disparu et le risque avait cessé d'exister. Si non, dans le cas qui nous occupe, le risque continuait pendant vingt-huit jours, supposons, jusqu'à ce que le mois fût expiré ; bien que la compagnie n'eût aucune prime en existence pour appuyer le risque et elle pouvait ne jamais en avoir, ni en exiger. Les représentants pouvaient à leur gré faire une offre ou non.

Je crois que nous devons interpréter la police comme accordant seulement cette grâce aussi longtemps que durerait la vie, tant qu'il y avait une vie que le risque couvrirait ou à laquelle il s'appliquait. Une prime annuelle ou semi-annuelle payée d'avance, est un droit à l'assurance qui est indéfinissable pour cette période, absolu comme une clause de contrat. Car le paiement d'un mois de plus fera revivre le contrat ; mais la vie sur laquelle le risque est appliqué et doit continuer ne doit pas être éteinte. Interprétant cette disposition " H " comme accordant deux extensions de temps, nous avons, premièrement, la liberté ou le privilège de payer dans le délai d'un mois ; secondement, la condition de faire revivre la police de l'assuré pour une période de deux mois après l'expiration du mois pourvu qu'il soit en bonne santé, etc., et ensuite si on accepte " cette grâce ou le privilège de remise en vigueur " l'intérêt sera payé au taux de six pour 100 pour les délais écoulés. Je crois que toute cette disposition a en vue l'existence de la vie quand on cherche à profiter du mois de grâce ou des deux mois supplémentaires.

Un mois entier est accordé pendant lequel le risque sur la vie peut être laissé en vigueur.

Les mots " à l'expiration de ce délai, si la dite prime n'est pas payée, cette police deviendra dès ce moment nulle " doivent se comprendre comme étant adressés à un homme vivant : " si vous laissez écouler ce mois sans payer, votre police sera nulle. "

Dans le présent cas, la mort est survenue alors qu'une prime payable d'avance était impayée. L'offre faite après le décès ne pouvait pas être valide, dans mon opinion.

L'objet principal de la police était disparu et le risque cessait. Il me semble que le décès avant le paiement dans le cours du mois mettait fin à tout. Le paiement pendant le mois faisait revivre le risque, si l'objet pour lequel le risque était entrepris existait encore.

Sur ce point on ne nous a point cité aucune autorité précise.

Dans la cause si souvent citée de Pritchard vs Merchant's Life Insurance Co., 3 C. B. N. S., le juge Byles dit à la page 644, "quant à l'effet du paiement d'une prime pour une police d'assurance sur la vie, après l'expiration de la période couverte par la police, et pendant le nombre de jours ordinairement accordés par les conditions pour faire ce paiement, ou les jours de grâce comme on les a souvent désignés, je ne connais aucune autorité sur la question, excepté ce que cette cour a dit dans la cause de Simpson vs. Accidental Death Insurance Co., 2 C. B. N. S. 257."

Dans la cause de Pritchard, les faits étaient trop différents de ceux qui nous occupent pour pouvoir servir de guide. Mais les observations faites par les juges dans la cause me portent à croire que le paiement dans le cours des jours de grâce doit être fait pendant la vie (l'objet principal du contrat).

Quant aux autres faits de la cause concernant la prime semi-annuelle précédente et le prétendu désistement fait par la compagnie ou l'effet de son action en recouvrement du billet et autres procédures, j'ai eu le privilège de lire le jugement de mon confrère Osler, et j'approuve son raisonnement et ses conclusions.

Je crois que l'appel doit être maintenu.

BURTON, J. A. :—

Deux questions se présentent dans cet appel. Premièrement, la police a-t-elle été annulée par le non-paiement du billet, et, secondement, si elle n'a pas été annulée, l'offre de la prime faite le 5 février, après le décès de l'assuré, était-elle suffisante ?

Je traiterai d'abord la première question.

J'avoue que je suis un peu surpris de voir s'élever un doute aujourd'hui, concernant l'obligation d'une compagnie d'assurance sur la vie lorsque l'assuré décède pendant les jours de grâce mais avant le paiement de la prime, pourvu qu'elle soit payée durant le délai accordé. En pratique, pas une compagnie ne dispute cette obligation, et dans la plupart des cas, elles ont rédigé de nouveaux leurs contrats de manière à enlever tout doute à cet égard.

Cela a été fait en conséquence des observations faites par quelques juges dans le cours de l'argumentation dans la cause de Pritchard vs the Merchants, etc., Life Assurance Society and Simpson vs Accidental Death Insurance Company, en 1854, lesquelles ont produit un changement presque universel dans la formule des polices d'assurance de manière à enlever tout doute sur la question, et personne ne doute qu'une police d'assurance, comme tous les autres contrats écrits, doit être interprétée conformément à l'intention que les parties y ont exprimée. Vu que la question a été fortement discutée dans la présente cause, et dans une autre cause que nous avons eue à juger dernièrement, je m'en occuperai plus au long que je ne l'aurais fait autrement, vu que je les considérerais tellement bien comprises que l'obligation des compagnies n'était pas mise en doute depuis ce changement. Beaucoup de confusion a été créée en traitant un contrat d'assurance sur la vie comme un contrat d'indemnité, tandis que c'est un simple contrat à l'effet de payer une certaine somme d'argent à une certaine époque en considération de certains paiements stipulés.

Le contrat n'est pas semblable à une police d'assurance sur la vie ou d'assurance maritime pour une seule année ou un seul voyage, avec le privilège de les renouveler d'année en année en payant la prime annuelle, mais c'est un contrat absolument d'assurance pour la vie, pouvant être discontinué et annulé par le défaut de paiement d'une des primes stipulées. Telle est la formule du contrat et sa nature.

La question a été soulevée la première fois dans une cause d'assurance contre l'incendie, Tarleton vs Staniforth 5 I. R. 695. L'assurance était pour tous les six mois aussi longtemps que les assureurs consentiraient à l'accepter, avec quinze jours de grâce, mais il ne devait pas y avoir d'assurance à moins que la prime ne fût réellement payée.

La perte fut subie dans le cours des quinze jours mais avant le paiement de la prime. Le contrat pour les six mois précédents était expiré ; il y avait deux choses à faire avant qu'un nouveau contrat d'assurance fût exécuté, l'assuré devait payer la prime, et les assureurs devaient consentir à l'accepter.

Il n'y avait réellement pas de contrat alors en existence, et si la prime avait été offerte avant l'incendie, la compagnie n'était pas obligée de l'accepter.

Dans tous ces cas, la question est de savoir si, d'après la véritable interprétation à donner au contrat, la perte a été subie pendant que la police était encore en vigueur, et bien qu'il soit évident que la cause de Tarleton vs Staniforth a été bien jugée d'après les faits, elle a causé toute une révolution dans ce genre d'affaires. Les directeurs de la compagnie d'assurance contre l'incendie dite Sun, publièrent un avis déclarant que toutes les personnes assurées par cette compagnie et ayant des polices pour un an ou plus longtemps étaient et avaient toujours été considérées par les directeurs comme étant assurées pour quinze jours au delà de la date à laquelle expiraient leurs polices.

Dans une action intentée quelque temps plus tard contre la même compagnie, Sullivan vs James, 6 East, 571, il a été prétendu que cela ne les empêchait pas avant l'expiration de la police d'assurance de déclarer qu'ils ne la renouvelleraient pas à moins de payer une prime plus élevée, et que la compagnie avait encore le droit de refuser de renouveler l'assurance, mais la cour décida dans cette cause qu'à défaut d'un avis raisonnable donné à cet effet avant l'expiration du contrat, la police serait restée en vigueur pendant les quinze jours, et la compagnie aurait été responsable malgré que la prime n'eût pas été payée avant l'incendie.

Il en a été de même dans la cause de McDonald vs Carr, Hayes et Jones, 256, dans laquelle d'après la véritable interprétation de la police, il a été jugé qu'elle était en vigueur pendant un an et quinze jours.

Tous ces cas sont différents de celui qui nous occupe en ce moment, dans lequel il s'agit d'un contrat pour la vie, ne pouvant être déterminé au gré de l'assureur.

La cause de Want vs Blunt, 12 East, 183, n'a pas d'analogie avec celle-ci. Il s'agissait d'un membre d'une société recevant une police d'assurance en considération d'un paiement à être fait par lui durant sa vie, et du paiement de sa part des contributions que les membres de la société seraient obligés de faire durant sa vie.

La cour a décidé que personne ne pouvait être assuré à moins d'être membre de la société ; que les membres s'assuraient les uns les autres et que le paiement d'une prime pour un autre trimestre constituait une nouvelle assurance, et que tout le contenu de la police démontrait que chaque prime devait être payée durant la vie de l'assuré.

Si c'était la véritable interprétation à donner à la police, elle justifiait la conclusion à laquelle on est arrivé.

J'arrive maintenant aux deux causes d'où origine le changement opéré dans la formule des polices maintenant en usage en raison des observations faites par les juges.

La première, Simpson vs The Accidental Death Insurance Company, n'était pas un cas d'assurance sur la vie dans le sens ordinaire du mot, mais une assurance contre les accidents.

Dans cette cause, comme dans celle de Tarleton vs Staniforth, la compagnie n'était pas obligée d'accepter la prime si elle était offerte, et c'était un délai de grâce de plusieurs jours durant lesquels l'assuré pouvait renouveler la police si la compagnie y consentait, mais pas autrement.

La cause de Pritchard vs Merchants, etc., Life Assurance Society a peu d'analogie avec la présente, excepté par quelques-unes des observations faites par les juges dans le cours de l'argumentation ; dans ce cas là le paiement n'a été fait qu'après le décès et après l'expiration des jours de grâce. La police, comme dans les autres cas cités, prescrivait que les paiements trimestriels seraient faits durant la vie de l'assuré, et la police avait cessé d'être en vigueur, et n'aurait pu être renouvelée que si l'assuré eût vécu et en se conformant à certaines formalités et conditions.

Or, ainsi que je l'ai fait observer, en conséquence des doutes créés par les observations faites dans ces causes, les compagnies d'assurances ont décidé de changer la forme de leurs polices de manière à enlever tous les doutes et d'empêcher les intéressés de se croire garantis par l'assurance quand ils ne l'étaient pas, et personne ne doute qu'elles peuvent par une stipulation expresse prolonger la durée de la police de cette manière.

Cela a-t-il été fait dans la présente cause ? La police ne prescrit pas que les primes devront être payées par l'assuré ou durant sa vie. Loin de là, le contrat est en faveur de la femme, et est à l'effet de lui payer la somme assurée sur preuve du décès de l'assuré durant la continuation de cette police, et nous y trouvons une disposition qui accorde un mois de grâce pour le paiement des primes à l'expiration duquel délai si les primes sont impayées, la police deviendra dès ce moment nulle. En conséquence, si ce paiement a été fait dans le cours du mois, peut-on dire que la police n'était pas en vigueur, bien que le risque fût devenu une réclamation ? En lisant toutes les clauses du contrat, et l'interprétation que lui donne la compagnie, je crois que nous sommes obligés de décider que le mois de grâce était un mois de calendrier, et qu'à la date de l'offre le contrat était en pleine vigueur, à moins d'avoir été annulé par le non-paiement du billet.

De la manière que j'interprète l'autre point, il ne serait pas strictement nécessaire que j'émissé une opinion sur celui-ci, mais s'il existe un doute sur la question celle-ci est d'une importance trop grande et trop générale pour justifier un juge d'une cour d'appel de la passer sous silence. Il y a sans doute des milliers de personnes assurées par des polices se chiffant par plusieurs millions de piastres qui ont l'habitude de retarder le paiement des primes presque juste au moment de l'expiration des jours de grâce sans avoir le plus léger doute qu'elles sont en parfaite sûreté en agissant ainsi, et le fait que ceux qui ont étudié spécialement ce genre d'affaires ont été depuis plusieurs années presque unanimes dans l'interprétation qu'ils ont donnée à la signification du prolongement des jours de grâce est d'un très grand poids, dans mon opinion.

J'oublie si c'est lord Blackburn ou lord Bramwell qui a dit un jour : "Faites lire ce contrat aux premiers cent hommes d'affaires que vous rencontrerez sur la rue, et je ne doute pas que chacun d'eux l'interprète de la même manière," ajoutant qu'il admettait volontiers que cette interprétation était probablement beaucoup plus juste que la sienne propre, ou que celle de tous les juges, vu qu'il ne connaissait rien de ce genre d'affaires. Je cite de mémoire la substance de ce qui a été dit, mais dans la cause de Thompson vs Hudson, L. R. 4, H. L. I., lord Westbury a tenu un langage presque identique ; et lord Bramwell fait des observations semblables sur l'inconvenance de lui demander, à lui qui n'était ni un marchand de poisson ni un porteur, et qui ne connaissait rien de ce commerce, de dire si un contrat passé entre un marchand et un porteur de poisson, qui connaissaient leur trafic, était juste et raisonnable.

Toutefois, il est bon de faire observer que l'on trouve quelquefois des polices qui sont sujettes aux objections signalées par les juges au cours de l'argumentation dans la cause de Pritchard, et que, dans ces cas, il est possible que des intéressés soient laissés à la merci de la compagnie d'assurance ou forcés de s'en rapporter à son esprit de justice.

Dans le présent cas il n'y a rien, dans mon opinion, qui puisse créer un doute quelconque. La compagnie convient de payer si le décès arrive durant la continuation du contrat. Ce contrat existait et était en pleine vigueur jusqu'à l'expiration des jours de grâce. Après ce délai, si le paiement n'avait pas été fait ou offert, le contrat n'existait plus, mais pas jusque là ; et si l'assuré eût vécu, ce contrat n'aurait pu être remis en vigueur après ce délai qu'aux conditions mentionnées dans la police. L'une, est un droit absolu de prolonger la durée du contrat ; l'autre donne à la compagnie le privilège d'exercer sa discrétion si certains faits sont établis à sa satisfaction.

Le décès de l'assuré n'a pas mis fin au contrat pas plus que dans la cause de Salvin vs James, et dans Macdonald vs Carr, la destruction du bâtiment n'avait mis fin au contrat. Le fait que l'objet principal n'existe plus n'a rien à faire avec la continuation du contrat.

Mais sur l'autre point, la police était annulée par le non-paiement du billet, à moins que l'action intentée ne puisse être considérée comme un désistement. Je ne vois pas comment nous pouvons prétendre, d'accord avec notre décision dans la cause de McGeachie vs The North American, que cela équivaut à un désistement, à moins de déclarer que la disposition contenue dans la demande en ces termes :—

“ Si un billet, chèque, traite ou autre effet est donné en paiement de la première prime ou d'une prime subséquente ou d'une partie quelconque de ces primes, et s'ils ne sont pas payés à l'échéance, il est convenu que toute assurance ou police entreprise d'après cette demande deviendra dès lors nulle et de nul effet, mais le billet, le chèque, la traite ou autre effet devront néanmoins être payés,” est, dans le sens de l'article 4 de l'Acte des assurances d'Ontario, 52, Vic., ch. 32, une condition, stipulation, garantie ou disposition, modifiant ou affaiblissant l'effet d'un contrat d'assurance sur la vie, dans lequel cas il serait nécessaire de l'écrire au long dans le document ou sur le dos du document constituant le contrat.

Je ne vois pas comment cela peut être considéré comme modifiant ou affaiblissant en aucune façon l'effet du contrat. C'est une convention qui n'affecte nullement le contrat, mais qui définit les droits des parties à l'égard du billet ainsi donné pour la prime. L'effet du non-paiement à l'échéance est établi dans une condition écrite au long sur le dos de la police, et le seul but de cette convention collatérale est d'empêcher que l'action intentée pour recouvrer le montant du billet soit considérée comme un abandon de l'annulation précédente. En conséquence, je regrette d'être incapable de trouver quelque chose qui ait produit un désistement de l'annulation, et je crois que l'appel doit être maintenu.

OSLER, J. A. :—

Malgré la haute opinion que j'ai du savant juge de la cour de première instance, je suis d'avis qu'il n'est résulté de ces procédures ni désistement ni exception : L'effet du billet a été de continuer la police en vigueur pendant deux mois au delà du mois de grâce, de sorte que le défunt était assuré pour trois mois du semestre pour lequel la prime était payable, et si le décès fut survenu durant ce temps la police serait devenue une réclamation valide. Toutefois, par le non-paiement du billet, elle devenait nulle d'après les termes de la condition. Mais la condition ne dit pas que le billet deviendra nul. Il est et il reste un contrat avec la compagnie pour lequel le faiseur a reçu, jusqu'à l'échéance pleine valeur. En l'absence d'une stipulation expresse à l'effet que les deux contrats seront annulés par le non-paiement du billet, on doit, il me semble, donner effet tant à la condition qu'au billet. Par la première, la police est expressément déclarée nulle, mais l'obligation imposée au faiseur par le billet continue sans qu'il soit stipulé qu'une tentative de recouvrement remettra en vigueur la police qui avait été annulée, ou qui avait simplement cessé d'être en vigueur par le seul fait du non-paiement. Il est assez conséquent avec cela que l'acceptation du paiement du billet par la compagnie après défaut soit considérée comme une remise en vigueur de la police, mais pourquoi prétendre qu'autre chose que cela peut avoir cet effet ? On dit qu'il est inconséquent pour la compagnie de poursuivre en justice le recouvrement du billet, et en même temps que la police pour la prime de laquelle il a été donné est annulée, mais cela ne peut pas être si l'obligation résultant du billet n'a pas été éteinte par le défaut de paiement de la part du faiseur, ou à moins que l'affirmation d'un droit au paiement du billet soit, par une simple demande ou en intentant une action, considérée comme une acceptation absolue du paiement de la prime, bien que la compagnie ne puisse jamais rien recevoir sur le billet de la part du porteur de la police. Je crois que le cas de la défenderesse doit être poussé jusque là. En résumé, le faiseur s'est obligé de payer le billet, et la compagnie a stipulé que s'il ne le paie pas à l'échéance la police sera nulle. Je ne peux voir comment la compagnie en faisant valoir son droit légal sur le billet, se désiste ou est empêchée de revendiquer un autre droit légal quand elle n'a rien fait de frauduleux pour l'en empêcher, ou comment autre chose que le paiement fait par l'assuré durant sa vie et accepté par la compagnie, le soustrait à l'annulation ou l'autorise à dire qu'elle a considéré la prime comme payée ou qu'elle s'est désistée de l'annulation en intentant l'action pour recouvrer le montant du billet, ou en obtenant jugement pour ce montant.

Je citerai la cause de Edge vs Duke, 18 L. J., ch. 183, dans laquelle il a été décidé que la compagnie d'assurance ne s'était pas désistée d'une annulation résultant du non-paiement de la prime soit en demandant le paiement du billet ou en poursuivant en justice le recouvrement. Je citerai, de plus Ware vs Milville Fire Insurance Company, 43 N. J., 177; May on Insurance, 3e éd., art. 362; Bunyan's Law of Life Insurance, 3e éd., 360.

Je ne peux pas admettre que les autres actes de la compagnie sur lesquels la défenderesse s'appuie, par exemple, l'inscription de la police dans ses livres comme risque existant, son insertion (bien que non spécifique) dans le rapport officiel des polices en vigueur le 31 décembre 1891, sont une preuve de renonciation à l'annulation. Ils sont tous équivoques dans leur nature, susceptibles d'explication, et non destinés à influencer la conduite de l'assuré, et de fait non communiqués à lui, ou connus de lui. Insurance Company vs Wolff, 95 U. S. 326; Wilmot vs Barber, 15 ch. D. 96, page 105.

Vu que je crois que le non-paiement du billet donné pour la prime échue en juillet annule la police, et qu'il n'y a pas eu de désistement de l'annulation en résultant, le non-paiement de la primé échue en janvier n'a aucune conséquence. Mais relativement aux deux questions importantes soulevées au sujet de cette prime, savoir : si le mot “ mois ” dans la disposition accordant un mois de grâce pour le paiement de la prime est un mois lunaire ou de calendrier, et, en second lieu, si une offre de la prime faite durant les jours de grâce mais après le décès est suffisante, je dirai (1) que je crois qu'il est assez évident d'après les autres parties de la police que le mot est employé comme signifiant un mois de calendrier, car d'autres périodes de temps qui sont mentionnées ne peuvent être déterminées qu'en consultant le calendrier, et des mois de calendrier sont indiqués, par exemple, les primes sont payables le cinquième jour de juillet et de janvier de chaque année, ce qui démontre que l'on parle de l'année de calendrier, ou "un douze mois," et non "douze mois," et la police mentionne les primes semi-annuelles, donnant encore à comprendre des mois de calendrier, dont six forment un semestre. (Affaire Catesby, 6 Rep. 377. Nul doute qu'il est bien établi dans notre loi que dans un contrat écrit, sauf certaines exceptions, le mot "mois" signifie en droit un mois lunaire, à moins qu'il y ait une preuve admissible de l'intention qu'ont eue les parties d'employer le mot pour décrire un mois de calendrier. Voir Simpson vs Margitson, II Q.B. 23; Turner vs Barlow, 3 F. et F. 946; Hutton vs Brown, 45 L.T.N.S., 343 (1881), par Fry, L. J.; Hart vs Middleton, 2 C. et K. 10; Lang vs Gale, 1 M. et S. III. Stroud's Judicial Dictionary, Tit Month. Mais cette preuve peut résulter du contexte du document, et dans le présent cas nous pouvons inférer avec raison que les parties n'ont pas voulu employer ce mot dans un autre sens que celui qui doit être donné à d'autres périodes de temps qui sont mentionnées, et qui sont formées de mois de calendrier, ou qui sont indiquées par les noms de ces mois. Il est regrettable que cette distinction entre mois lunaire et de calendrier existe encore dans nos lois, puisque l'ancienne signification du mot est absolue quand il est appliqué aux affaires ordinaires de la vie dans notre pays, et la règle statutaire établie par l'Acte d'interprétation pourrait fort bien être appliquée d'une manière générale.

Aux Etats-Unis la règle du sens commun a été généralement adoptée; Sheets vs Selden's Lessee, 2 Wal. 117, p. 189, Gross vs Fowler, 21 Cal. 393; Strong vs Birchard, 5 Conn. 387; Brewar vs Harris, 5 Gratt. 285.

L'autre question me paraît être difficile à résoudre. La teneur de la police est obscure, et bien que rédigée en termes plus généraux sous certains rapports que les polices dont il s'agit dans les causes de Simpson vs Accidental Death Insurance Co., 2 C.B.N.S., 257 et de Pritchard vs Merchants, 3 C.B.N.S., 622, mon opinion présente est qu'elle doit être interprétée comme signifiant que le paiement de la prime doit être fait durant la vie de l'assuré. La disposition concernant la remise en vigueur que l'on trouve en rapport direct avec celle qui accorde les jours de grâce implique la continuation de la vie à la fin du mois, et prétendre que le temps de grâce continue après le décès jusqu'à la fin du mois implique l'absurdité que bien que la police soit devenue une réclamation par le décès survenu dans le mois de manière à faire de la prime une simple question de compte, elle sera annulée, par les termes explicites de la disposition, et la réclamation sera détruite par l'oubli des représentants de l'assuré, qui peuvent ne rien connaître de la question de payer la prime en espèces avant l'expiration du mois. Je doute si l'allusion dans la première disposition de la police à la déduction de "la balance de la prime de l'année courante, s'il y en a," à quelque chose à faire avec le cas de décès, dans le cours du mois de grâce. Ces mots paraissent plutôt destinés à s'appliquer à un cas dans lequel la compagnie assure par stipulation pour une prime annuelle, laquelle peut avoir été divisée en paiements trimestriels ou semestriels pour l'avantage de l'assuré qui, plus tard, meurt dans le cours du trimestre ou du semestre, et alors la compagnie déduit la balance de la prime annuelle. Le fait que la compagnie s'engage à payer sur preuve du décès durant la continuation de la police n'appuie pas l'argument. La question est de savoir si la police est continuée durant le mois si le décès a lieu avant le paiement. Si la compagnie avait eu l'intention d'être responsable dans ce cas, elle pouvait facilement le déclarer. La question se présentera probablement rarement puisqu'il ne doit pas arriver souvent qu'une compagnie ait eu l'intention d'être responsable dans ce cas, elle pouvait facilement le déclarer. La question se présentera probablement rarement, puisqu'il ne doit pas arriver souvent qu'une compagnie juge prudent de la soulever comme question d'affaires. Cependant nous devons nous guider par ce qu'elle a voulu exprimer dans son contrat et non par l'usage qu'elle suit généralement, ce qui ne peut pas être réellement connu de nous. Si elle a de bonnes intentions, maintenant que cette ambiguïté dans son contrat a été signalée, elle la fera promptement disparaître. Je dois ajouter que je ne désire pas que l'on comprenne que je donne une opinion finale sur ce point, qui n'a été que signalé sans être argué lors de l'audition de la cause. Je désire simplement faire voir que la question n'est pas débarrassée de tout doute ainsi, qu'a voulu l'affirmer l'avocat de l'intimée. Il y a des causes dans les cours américaines, par exemple, Warden vs Guardian Mutual Life, 39 N. Y. Sup. et. 317, qui appuient la prétention de l'intimée sur ce point, mais la rédaction et la teneur de ces polices sont si différentes qu'elles ne peuvent pas être acceptées comme un guide sûr dans une cause comme celle qui nous occupe.

L'appel doit être maintenu et la contre-réclamation renvoyée en raison du non-paiement de la prime échue en juillet.

MACLENNAN, J. A. :—

Le savant juge a décidé que, bien que par le non-paiement du billet à l'échéance la police devenait nulle en vertu de la condition, l'annulation avait été abandonnée; et que, de la manière que j'interprète son jugement, le désistement résultait des procédures prises pour recouvrer le paiement du billet. A moins que cette conclusion du savant juge ne puisse être appuyée, l'appel sur la contre-réclamation doit réussir, et il n'est pas nécessaire d'examiner la question au point de vue de la prime échue en janvier ou de la validité de l'offre de la prime faite après le décès de l'assuré ni d'autres questions qui ont été discutées devant nous.

La prime était due le 5 juillet. La prime précédente était échue et avait été payée le 5 janvier. Elles étaient payables d'avance, et sans la disposition accordant le mois de grâce le paiement fait le 5 juillet aurait été un défaut de la part de l'assuré de se conformer à l'une des conditions mentionnées dans la police sur laquelle reposait la promesse de la compagnie, et aurait été une bonne réponse à une action intentée en recouvrement de la somme. Il s'en suit que le 5 juillet était l'un des jours de grâce. C'était le premier jour du mois de grâce. Dans ce cas le 4 août était le dernier jour, et le paiement n'ayant pas été fait ce jour là ni avant, la compagnie pouvait refuser de le recevoir et cesser d'être partie au contrat. Cependant elle ne l'a pas fait. Elle a reçu le billet de l'assuré payable à 60 jours, et elle lui a donné le reçu ordinaire pour la prime. Je crois que c'était un désistement évident du défaut de paiement de la part de l'assuré et ne pouvait pas signifier autre chose. La compagnie n'était pas obligée de l'accepter, pas plus que l'assuré n'était obligé de le donner. Mais l'assuré a donné son billet et la compagnie l'a accepté et lui a donné un reçu pour la prime en souffrance, et il est assez évident que pendant que le billet était en cours le risque continuait. Il paraît également évident que, sans la condition écrite sur le dos de la police relativement à l'effet du non-paiement du billet à l'échéance, le risque aurait continué jusqu'au 5 janvier.

Toutefois cette condition déclarait que le non-paiement du billet à l'échéance annulerait la police, et il y a eu défaut de paiement, conséquemment la police est devenue nulle le 8 octobre, si elle n'a pas été remise en vigueur par un acte de désistement quelconque. Les procédures faites pour recouvrer le paiement du billet étaient de la nature la moins équivoque, et si la compagnie n'avait pas le droit d'adopter ces procédures, excepté d'après la théorie qu'elle continuait encore le risque, ce serait la plus forte preuve de désistement. Il s'agit de savoir si la compagnie avait le droit d'invoquer l'annulation et en même temps de recouvrer le montant du billet ; et si l'assuré pouvait plaider à l'encontre de l'action en recouvrement que la police était annulée ?

Je crois qu'il n'y a qu'une réponse à cette question. Le billet a été donné pour une valeur. En considération de ce billet la compagnie a remis en vigueur le contrat qui avait cessé de l'obliger, et elle a entrepris le risque une fois de plus. Ce risque continuait pendant les 60 jours durant lesquels, si l'assuré était décédé, la compagnie aurait été obligée de payer. Il n'y a pas eu un manque total de valeur ni même partiel, car tenant compte de la condition la valeur pour le billet était une assurance pour six mois, si le paiement était fait à l'échéance, et une assurance jusqu'au 8 octobre et pas plus longtemps s'il y avait défaut de paiement. L'assuré avait donc reçu pleine valeur pour son billet et il était tenu de le payer, que la compagnie insiste ou non sur l'annulation. Tel étant le cas, les procédures adoptées par la compagnie ne peuvent pas être une preuve de désistement, et je crois qu'il n'y a pas autre chose dans la cause qui puisse être sérieusement interprété dans ce sens.

En conséquence je suis respectueusement d'opinion que l'appel sur la contre-réclamation doit être maintenu, et que la réclamation et la contre-réclamation doivent être renvoyées avec dépens.

Ayant cette opinion, il n'est pas nécessaire de décider si le paiement pouvait être fait après le décès de l'assuré, et avant l'expiration des jours de grâce, mais je puis dire que dans mon opinion le paiement pouvait être ainsi fait.

L'appel est maintenu avec dépens.

On remarquera que la cour était également divisée quant au fait de savoir si la réclamation résultant de la police était éteinte en raison du non-paiement de la prime qui devenait due dans le cours d'un mois avant le décès de l'assuré, un mois de grâce étant accordé pour le paiement des primes par les conditions de la police. Cependant, la cour paraît avoir été unanime en décidant que le mot "mois" signifiait un mois de calendrier et non un mois lunaire. A cet égard on attire l'attention sur l'article 12 de l'Acte passé par la législature de la province d'Ontario, sanctionné le 27 mai 1893, modifiant l'acte des corporations d'assurances 1892, et particulièrement sur le premier paragraphe (8) de cet article. On trouvera cet article à la page lvii de ce rapport. Il paraît être décidé par cette cause (1) qu'une condition rendant une police nulle à défaut de paiement d'un billet donné pour une prime n'est pas une condition qui, afin d'être valide aux termes de l'article 27 de l'Acte des assurances, doit être inscrite au long dans la police ou sur le dos de la police, et (2) qu'une compagnie a le droit de se prévaloir de l'annulation de la police, à défaut de paiement de tel billet à l'échéance, et en même temps de poursuivre en justice et de recouvrer le montant du billet.

La cause suivante, récemment jugée par la cour d'appel d'Ontario, et qui ressemble beaucoup aux deux causes précédentes, était basée sur une police d'assurance dont aucune prime n'avait été payée, mais pour la première prime de laquelle deux billets, l'un à 90 et l'autre à 180 jours, avaient été donnés par l'assuré et acceptés par la compagnie. Le juge devant qui la cause avait été instruite rendit jugement contre la compagnie, mais ce jugement fut infirmé en appel. Le savant juge en chef a néanmoins différé d'opinion avec la majorité de la cour, décidant que la réclamation résultant de la police qui faisait la base de l'action était une réclamation valide contre la compagnie. Les faits sont suffisamment expliqués dans le jugement.

Frank vs Sun Life Assurance Co.

HAGARTY, J.C.O.

Nous devons accepter la décision de notre savant confrère Street à l'effet que la défense a échoué quant à la prétendue annulation du contrat au moyen d'un arrangement entre les parties.

La demande d'assurance a été faite le 28 mars 1889, et la police datée le 1er avril a été déclarée être en considération de la somme de $34.55 à lui être payée ce jour-là, représentant la prime pour 12 mois de calendrier, et d'une autre somme semblable payable le 1er avril de chaque année subséquente, et la police n'était pas obligatoire avant le paiement de la première prime.

L'assuré n'a jamais rien payé, mais la défenderesse a accepté de lui deux billets à ordre pour $17.28 chacun, l'un et l'autre datés le 27 mars, le premier billet payable à 90 et le second à 180 jours de leur date. Voici le premier billet :—

Billet $17.28.	Dû le 29 juin.	N ^o
Intérêt $		Brantford, le 28 mars 1889.
Total $

A quatre-vingt-dix jours de cette date je promets payer à George E. Reid, agent de la Sun Life Assurance Co., du Canada, ou à son ordre, à Brantford, la somme de dix-sept 28-100 dollars, avec intérêt au taux de pour cent par année jusqu'au paiement, étant la première prime semi-annuelle d'une assurance de $1,000 dans la Sun Life Assurance Company, du Canada, sur le vie de Frederick Dudley Cox, si la demande de cette assurance est acceptée par la dite compagnie au moyen de l'émission de sa police. Et il est entendu et convenu que si ce billet n'est pas payé à l'échéance la police sera nulle et de nul effet, mais ce billet devra néanmoins être payé. (Signé) Frederick D. Cox.

Le second billet est semblable sauf qu'il est payable à 180 jours de sa date.

La police a été dûment délivrée à l'assuré.

Le premier billet est devenu dû le 29 juin, quand la prétendue tentative de règlement a été faite. Le défunt n'a rien payé sur le billet. L'échéance du second billet n'arrivait que le 27 septembre.

Le 19 juillet, pendant que ce billet était en cours, l'assuré est mort.

L'agent Adams, qui a voulu prouver l'abandon du contrat, dit qu'il s'était adressé plusieurs fois à l'assuré pendant que les billets étaient en cours mais que l'assuré avait toujours répondu qu'il ne pouvait pas payer.

La défenderesse a insisté sur le fait que le refus de payer le premier billet annulait la police, vu que d'après les conditions le défaut de paiement devait avoir cet effet, mais il était aussi stipulé que "ce billet devra néanmoins être payé." J'avoue avec le savant juge que ces billets doivent être considérés comme ayant été acceptés comme paiement de la première prime, et que la police était devenue obligatoire. On cherche à l'annuler par les conditions subséquentes. Le savant juge dit qu'il croyait que la défenderesse aurait dû se prévaloir de la liberté qu'elle avait d'annuler dès le défaut de paiement du premier billet. Il dit :—

"Il n'y a pas ici de preuve que la compagnie ait exercé son privilège d'annulation. Elle cherche à établir un prétendu arrangement fait entre son agent local Adams et l'assuré, par lequel on disait qu'il avait été convenu que l'assuré remettrait la police en échange de ses billets, et qu'il paierait une petite somme en compensation des dépenses faites par la compagnie relativement à sa demande d'assurance. Cependant je dois venir à la conclusion, d'après la preuve, qu'un semblable arrangement n'a pas été définitivement fait; on prétend qu'il a été fait avant l'échéance des billets; s'il en a été ainsi, pourquoi n'a-t-il pas été exécuté? Rien n'empêchait son exécution; Adams avait les billets, et l'assuré avait la police à quelques pas de lui dans la voûte de sûreté de la Compagnie d'Express, dans le bureau de laquelle il était employé, et où, à l'un des comptoirs, avait eu lieu une des entrevues quelques jours avant le décès de l'assuré." L'assuré fut tué accidentellement le 19 juillet.

Le 23 juillet, M. Reid, qui était celui à qui les billets étaient payables et le caissier de la défenderesse à Toronto, et qui se dit être chargé de percevoir les primes dans Ontario, en entendant parler de cette mort, écrit à Adams, agent local à Brantford :—

22 juillet 1889.

"CHER MONSIEUR,—J'ai reçu votre lettre du 20, contenant le rapport des recettes suivantes jusqu'à date, et je vous en remercie. Je regrette que vous ayez été obligé d'en retourner un aussi grand nombre. Pouvez-vous faire quelque chose avec les billets si je vous les transmets? Je regrette de vous avoir adressé un télégramme par la ligne Dominion, mais j'ignorais alors de quelle compagnie Cox était le messager. Pauvre garçon! Il est mort bien soudainement. Cela démontre l'avantage d'avoir une assurance sur la vie."

Il a été admis qu'un avis du décès et les preuves à l'appui ont été fournis et que le montant des deux billets a été offert à la défenderesse avant l'institution de l'action et qu'elle a refusé de l'accepter.

Cette cause est très distincte de celle de McGeachie et de Gordon vs Manufacturers' Company, dernièrement devant cette cour.

Il a été décidé dans ces causes que lorsque la vie s'éteignait il n'existait plus de contrat quant au paiement d'une prime qui était en souffrance.

Ici nous avons le fait particulier qu'il y avait une obligation courante non échue sur un billet que la défenderesse avait accepté en remplacement de la prime de la première année. Il est vrai que le premier billet contenait, comme partie de son contrat, la disposition que s'il n'était pas payé à l'échéance la police serait annulée. Bien entendu la chose était à la discrétion de la compagnie. Il a été convenu que dans le cas même où la police serait annulée le billet serait payé.

Les compagnies d'assurances qui permettent à leurs agents de traiter le paiement des primes d'une manière si peu sérieuse et avec autant d'insouciance, auroient toujours des difficultés de cette nature à surmonter. Elles émettent des polices basées sur le paiement reconnu de la première prime, et au lieu d'exiger ce paiement comme une condition de l'entreprise du risque, elles acceptent, au lieu d'espèces, des billets payables à différentes époques. Elles allèguent que cela se fait quand les assureurs accordent du temps pour former la somme. Cela se peut, mais c'est la base ordinaire d'une action lorsque la vie s'éteint inopinément.

Ministère des Finances—Division des Assurances.

Je crois que les billets acceptés dans le présent cas, doivent être considérés comme représentant la prime, et, tant que l'un d'eux ou plusieurs sont en cours lors de l'extinction de la vie, je crois que la compagnie doit être tenue responsable, et qu'un contrat obligatoire existe entre elle et l'assuré.

Si le non-paiement du premier billet annule nécessairement la police, pourquoi le second billet n'obligerait-il pas le faiseur de payer? Il n'y aurait aucune valeur pour le paiement, si ce n'est le motif que le second billet a été donné pour garantir le risque jusqu'au défaut de paiement du premier billet.

Je ne peux pas décider dans le présent cas que le fait que le premier billet donné pour une partie de la prime n'a pas été payé, rend nécessairement nul tout le contrat dans les circonstances telles que prouvées dans cette cause. Il est décidé que ce contrat reste obligatoire pour ce paiement en ce qui concerne le premier billet. Dans la cause de McGeachie il n'y avait aucun contrat en vigueur lors du décès. Je ne désire pas aller au delà du principe énoncé dans cette dernière cause, ni l'appliquer à cette réclamation, et je déclare en conséquence que la compagnie est liée par l'assurance.

Trois jours après le décès, M. Reid, celui à qui les billets étaient payables, fait mention de ce décès, et il ajoute d'une manière significative que cette mort soudaine était une preuve de l'avantage qu'il y avait d'avoir une assurance sur la vie. Si, comme on le prétend maintenant, l'assurance n'existait plus, l'importance de cette observation est de beaucoup affaiblie en portée.

La défenderesse est protégée contre les pertes et remboursée du montant en espèces de la prime de la première année, qui aurait dû être payée lorsque la police a été émise, en étant créditée du montant dans le jugement prononcé contre elle. Mes savants confrères diffèrent d'opinion avec moi, et j'avoue sincèrement que j'arrive à cette conclusion avec beaucoup de doute et d'hésitation.

BURTON, J. A.

Cette cause diffère de celles que nous avons récemment jugées, en ce que nous sommes en présence d'un fait assez nouveau, c'est-à-dire, une police sans conditions. Cependant, je ne crois pas que cette circonstance peut affecter le résultat, et que nous devons décider que la police avait cessé d'être en vigueur avant le décès de l'assuré.

La police déclare être en considération des représentations contenues dans la demande et d'une somme de $34.45 payable le premier jour d'avril chaque année, à commencer le 1er avril 1889, jour alors écoulé. Cela s'explique toutefois par le fait que la demande est accompagnée d'une convention, dont on a parlé à tort comme étant un billet à ordre, à l'effet de payer à un nommé Reid, un agent de la compagnie, ou à son ordre, la dite première prime en deux versements égaux, l'un le 29 juillet, l'autre le 27 septembre.

En acceptant le risque, la compagnie a consenti de recevoir la première prime à ces conditions. La police est ainsi devenue un contrat obligatoire, et il s'agit de savoir s'il n'était plus en vigueur avant le décès de l'assuré.

Mais la convention dont il est question contenait une disposition signée par le requérant à l'effet que si les dits versements n'étaient pas payés aux jours fixés, la police serait nulle et de nul effet, mais que les dites sommes seraient néanmoins payées.

Bien qu'il soit d'usage d'exiger la première prime d'avance, il n'est pas rare de prolonger le temps du paiement, et de la recevoir en versements trimestriels ou semestriels. Il est vrai que dans la plupart des polices se trouve une condition spécifiant que la police sera nulle si l'un des versements n'est pas payé, mais je pense qu'une semblable condition est tout à fait superflue, puisque le paiement ponctuel de chaque partie de la prime est une condition précédente de la responsabilité de la compagnie. La ponctualité dans le paiement des primes est l'essence même des opérations d'assurances sur la vie ; en conséquence, si l'un des versements est impayé, l'annulation est absolue, à moins qu'il n'en soit autrement prescrit par le contrat lui-même. Quand cette stipulation n'existe pas il est reconnu que le temps est un point capital, ou, comme on l'a dit quelques fois, fait partie de l'essence même, ou, ainsi que l'a fort bien dit un juge éminent : " Un trait caractéristique essentiel de ce mode se trouve dans les calculs mathématiques sur lesquels sont basées les primes et les sommes assurées, et non le rapport entre les primes annuelles et le risque d'assurance pour l'année." C'est un contrat d'assurance pour toute la vie (ou, comme dans le présent cas, pour une période de 25 ans), et ainsi qu'il le dit : " Les primes sont une annuité dont la valeur présente est calculée de manière à correspondre avec la valeur présente du montant assuré, une proportion raisonnable étant ajoutée aux primes pour couvrir les dépenses et frais imprévus. Toutes les primes et toute l'assurance se contrebalancent."

Il est en conséquence évident, que sans une disposition formelle d'annulation si cette prime, d'après la teneur de la police, avait été faite payable par versements trimestriels, le défaut de paiement de l'un d'eux même pour un jour aurait dérogé la compagnie de l'obligation de payer, et pas une cour de justice ne pourrait y remédier.

Dans le présent cas le requérant a remis cette convention à la compagnie qui l'a acceptée, consentant à retarder le paiement mais à la condition expresse que s'il n'était pas ponctuellement fait conformément à la convention il ne serait plus considéré comme paiement. Pourquoi cette partie de la convention qui lie la compagnie serait-elle obligatoire si le reste ne l'est pas?

Parler d'annulation dans la circonstance c'est faire une confusion de mots. La police devait cesser d'être obligatoire si la prime n'était pas payée ; elle ne l'a pas été—ou ce qui est la même chose un versement n'a pas été payé.

Rien ne roule sur la convention citée dans le jugement du savant juge qui a institué la cause quant à l'annulation de la police ; s'il eût été nécessaire d'examiner ce point, j'aurais convenu avec le savant juge qu'elle n'a jamais été complétée. Je suis néanmoins d'opinion qu'un des versements de la prime n'ayant pas été payé tel que convenu, la police avait cessé d'être obligatoire avant le décès de l'assuré.

Le savant juge a suivi la décision rendue par la cour du banc de la reine, laquelle a été imprimée par cette cour depuis le jugement. Pour toutes les raisons que nous avons données nous devons accorder les conclusions de l'appel et débouter l'action.

OSLER, J. A. :—

La police dont il s'agit dans cette cause est une police sans condition dans le sens généralement donné à ce mot dans un contrat d'assurance. Il n'y a pas de condition, stipulation, ou disposition faisant partie de la police ou y mentionnée l'annulant d'une manière formelle si les primes ne sont pas payées au jour fixé, ou si un billet accepté pour la prime n'est pas payé à l'échéance, et il n'y est rien dit en réalité au sujet d'un billet accepté pour la prime. Sous ce rapport cette cause est distincte de celles de McGeachie et Gordon que nous avons eu à juger dernièrement. D'après la véritable interprétation des termes de la police, je suis d'opinion que la condition de sa mise en vigueur comme contrat obligatoire avec le requérant et de sa continuation comme tel c'est que la première et l'autre primes seront payées, la première avant la mise en vigueur, et l'autre au jour stipulé pour le paiement à être fait chaque année subséquente.

Nous n'avons à nous occuper que de la première. Son paiement n'est pas admis ni reconnu par la police, laquelle bien que délivrée au requérant l'a été avec un avis y inséré qu'elle n'était pas obligatoire avant le paiement de la première prime. La compagnie peut agir avec le requérant de manière à faire voir que le risque commencera à courir avant le paiement réel de la première prime. Elle peut lui en donner crédit, ou accepter un billet ou autre effet, payable à une date subséquente, soit comme paiement de la prime, ou comme un délai pour la payer. Dans la cause soumise au tribunal je crois que la preuve appuie la décision du juge qui l'a instruite, savoir : que la compagnie a accepté en paiement de la première prime les deux conventions (les deux billets, comme elles ont été désignées, bien que ce ne soit pas réellement des billets, étant payables seulement à la condition que la demande soit acceptée par l'émission de la police) datées le 28 mars 1889, l'une pour le paiement de la moitié de la prime à 90 jours de cette date, et la seconde pour le paiement de l'autre moitié à 180 jours. Tenant compte du fait que le reçu de la prime a été retenu, j'aurais été moi-même disposé à décider qu'il n'y avait rien de plus qu'un délai. Mais il me semble qu'il importe peu en droit comment la transaction est examinée. D'une manière ou de l'autre la compagnie avait entrepris le risque, et à moins d'une stipulation ou condition annulant la police pour non-paiement de la somme conformément aux termes du document représentant la prime, comme il y en avait dans les polices dont il s'agissait dans les causes que j'ai citées, le recours de la compagnie est restreint aux garanties qu'elle a acceptées, ayant renoncé à son droit de se faire payer en espèces. Ces documents contiennent chacun la stipulation suivante :—“ Et il est convenu que si ce billet n'est pas payé à l'échéance la police sera nulle et de nul effet, mais ce billet sera néanmoins payé.” Le premier “billet” est devenu dû le 29 juin, mais n'a pas été payé, et il était impayé lors du décès, savoir—le 19 juillet. La cause repose entièrement sur l'effet à donner à cette convention, et toute la difficulté qu'il existe dans son application provient du fait qu'elle ne se trouve pas dans la police elle-même, ainsi qu'elle l'était dans les causes de McGeachie et de Gordon, et dans celle de Thompson vs Knickerbocker, Ins. Co. 5 Big. Ins. Cas. 8,104 (Otto) U. S. 252; Mutual Benefit Co. vs French, 4 Big. Ins. Cas. 369, et en appel 30 Ohio St. 240. Mais cela peut-il constituer une différence réelle? Il est vrai que la convention est collatérale, mais elle est basée sur une valeur réelle, et elle est obligatoire et peut être exécutée contre le demandeur. Il est forcé d'y avoir recours pour démontrer que la prime a été payée et que la police était en vigueur, et la défenderesse peut dire que si la prime a été payée ce n'est qu'aux conditions et suivant les dispositions de la convention. Je crois que l'effet de cette convention est que si le paiement n'est pas fait ainsi que stipulé, la police cesse d'être en vigueur, à moins que le demandeur prouve que la défenderesse a renoncé au défaut et décidé de garder la police en vigueur. Il n'y a pas ici de preuve qui justifierait une semblable décision en faveur du demandeur. Dans la cour inférieure la cause a été appuyée sur le fait, suivant la décision de la cour du banc de la reine dans la cause de McGeachie, que la compagnie était obligée de prouver qu'elle avait décidé du vivant de l'assuré d'annuler la police, mais cette décision a été infirmée par cette cour, et ce dernier jugement doit s'appliquer à la présente cause.

Si, comme je le prétends, la convention du 28 mars 1889, contrôle ou détermine le droit du demandeur lorsqu'il y a eu défaut de paiement d'après sa teneur, je ne peux pas admettre qu'elle imposerait à la défenderesse l'obligation de présenter le billet pour paiement à son échéance.

L'assuré devait chercher ses créanciers et les payer, et les conséquences de son défaut de payer sont définies dans la convention. La compagnie n'était pas plus tenu de présenter le billet pour paiement afin de se prévaloir de la convention qu'elle le serait de demander le paiement des primes subséquentes avant de pouvoir considérer la police comme annulée par le non-paiement, en supposant que la police eût contenu la condition ordinaire pour cette fin. La cause de French vs Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, 4 Big. Insurance Cas. 369, a été citée par l'intimé. Cette cause a été confirmée en appel dans 30 Ohio St., R. 240, mais la cour d'appel s'est abstenue d'une manière positive d'adopter l'opinion de la cour supérieure sur ce point, savoir, qu'une demande de paiement était nécessaire. Je ne vois pas d'analogie entre la présente cause et le cas d'une disposition à l'effet de résilier le bail en raison du non-paiement du loyer lorsque d'après le droit commun le propriétaire était obligé de faire la demande de paiement au locataire afin de se prévaloir de la disposition. Le cas du loyer était particulier et la règle ne s'étendait pas à l'annulation pour contravention ou autres conventions contenues dans le bail.

Je citerai aussi Rochner vs Knickerbocker, 4 Daly 512, 63 N. Y., 160 : Pendleton vs même, 112 United States, 696.

Ministère des Finances—Division des Assurances.

Il m'est impossible de voir comment le fait que le délai pour le paiement de l'autre versement de la prime en vertu de la seconde convention n'était pas expiré à la date du décès peut faire une différence. La question est de savoir quel a été l'effet du défaut de paiement dans le premier cas. Si la convention concernant la première moitié est valide, l'existence de l'autre peut difficilement la contrôler. Dans ce cas il me semble que c'est exactement la même chose que s'il n'y avait eu qu'un seul billet payable en deux versements avec une condition d'annulation pour non-paiement de l'un ou de l'autre.

Je suis disposé à maintenir l'appel.

MACLENNAN, J. A.

La police qui fait la base de cette action est un document sous seing privé et daté le 9 avril 1889, et elle ne contient pas de condition spéciale ni dans sa partie principale ni sur le verso. Plusieurs paragraphes appelés privilèges et un avis s'y trouvent annexés, mais ne forment pas partie du contrat. La police assure la vie de F. D. Cox pour la somme de $1,000, et oblige la compagne à payer cette somme à l'assuré ou à ses héritiers le 1er avril 1914, ou, s'il venait à mourir avant cette date, à ses représentants, dans le délai de soixante jours après avoir reçu l'avis et les preuves du décès. Cette obligation est définie comme étant en considération, entre autres choses, de la somme de $34.53 à être payée à la compagne le 1er avril 1889, comme prime pour douze mois de calendrier, et du paiement d'une somme semblable le premier avril suivant, et à la même date chaque année subséquente durant la continuation de la police ou jusqu'à ce que 25 primes entières aient été payées.

La première question qui se présente est l'interprétation de la police. C'est une convention à l'effet de payer une somme d'argent à l'expiration de 25 années ou dans le délai de soixante jours après la date du décès de l'assuré en considération d'une somme de $34.53 à être payée le 1er avril 1889, comme prime pour douze mois de calendrier, etc., et c'est une convention unilatérale contenue dans un contrat sans aucune obligation pour l'assuré de payer les primes. Il est en conséquence évident que le paiement des primes qui sont la considération de la convention de la défenderesse, est une condition suspensive, et que le demandeur ne peut pas obtenir jugement sans prouver que les paiements ont été régulièrement faits ou donner une raison légitime en droit expliquant l'omission : Portage vs Cole, 1 Wms. Saunders 551-552 : "Leake on contracts," 564-5. Une des règles d'interprétation dans ces cas, c'est que "quand un jour est spécifié pour le paiement d'une somme d'argent, etc., et que ce jour doit arriver après que la chose qui est la considération de la somme d'argent, etc., doit être accomplie, nulle action en recouvrement de la somme ne peut être maintenue, etc., avant accomplissement." Il est vrai que dans la présente cause le jour fixé pour le premier paiement est le premier avril, tandis que le contrat lui-même est daté le 9 avril, et, conséquemment, il était impossible de se conformer aux termes exacts de la police. Pour rendre cette phrase raisonnable le mot "premier" doit être retranché et dans ce cas le paiement serait à faire dans le mois d'avril. On emploie les mots "à être dûment payé" indiquent non pas un paiement qui avait déjà été fait mais un paiement qui devait être fait dans l'avenir.

En conséquence, pour que le demandeur réussisse il doit prouver le paiement de la somme de $34.53 ou quelque chose d'équivalent, le plus tard avant la fin d'avril 1889. Il est admis que la somme n'a pas été payée, et le demandeur se contente de démontrer qu'avant l'émission de la police la compagne avait reçu en guise de paiement les deux papiers appelés billets datés le 28 mars 1889. Maintenant quel en est l'effet ? A première vue ces papiers paraissent être des billets à ordre et on avait peut-être l'intention qu'il en fût ainsi, mais la promesse de payer étant subordonnée à l'acceptation de la demande d'assurance par la compagne, il est évident qu'ils ne sont pas des billets à ordre négociables, mais des conventions entre l'assuré et l'agent de la compagne, M. Reid. La prétention de l'assuré est que la compagne a accepté ces conventions en guise du paiement de la première prime et la preuve démontrent qu'il en est ainsi. Ce sont des documents déclarés être donnés pour bonne et valable considération, et la compagne les ayant acceptés et ayant délivré la police ils sont devenus obligatoires comme conventions collatérales à l'égard de la police. L'effet en a été que le risque résultant de la police a été entrepris ; la compagne a accordé à l'assuré un délai pour le paiement, et le dernier est devenu obligé de payer la prime à l'époque mentionnée dans les conventions. Cependant chaque convention contenait une disposition à l'effet que si le paiement n'était pas fait à l'échéance la police serait nulle ; malheureusement l'assuré n'a pas payé la première somme à l'échéance, et il était en défaut à l'époque de son décès survenu le 19 juillet. Sans la convention le demandeur n'a rien pour appuyer sa cause, et il ne peut pas l'invoquer sans être lié par toutes ses conditions, dont l'une lui est fatale dans les circonstances qui sont arrivées. Je crois qu'il ne peut pas dire que la police n'a pas cessé d'exister en raison du non-paiement du premier billet quand il est devenu dû le 26 juin.

Je ne pense pas qu'il fût nécessaire pour la compagne de décider si elle considérerait la police en vigueur ou autrement après le défaut de paiement. D'après les termes de la convention le délai accordé pour le paiement de la prime était limité, et lorsque ce délai expira sans que le paiement fût fait, l'assuré se trouvait dans la position d'une personne qui n'avait pas payé la prime exigée par la police, et qui n'avait pas accompli la condition qui précédait l'obligation de la compagne. J'ajouterais très respectueusement qu'il m'est impossible d'adopter l'opinion du savant juge en chef, savoir, qu'il importe peu que la seconde convention fût encore courante à l'époque du décès. C'est comme le cas d'un billet payable par versements et dont le premier n'est pas payé. Je ne vois pas pourquoi les parties n'auraient pas convenu comme elles l'ont fait dans cette cause que l'obligation de la compagne cesserait par le défaut de paiement du premier billet ou d'un versement quelconque, ni pourquoi elles ne seraient pas liées en conséquence. Dans mon opinion, la compagne était tenue au risque jusqu'à l'échéance du premier paiement, et si ce paiement eût été fait le risque aurait continué jusqu'au jour fixé pour le second paiement, et sa continuation après cette époque aurait dépendu du paiement ou du non-paiement.

Pour ces raisons, je crois que l'obligation de la compagnie a cessé depuis le 26 juin, et que l'action aurait dû être déboutée.

En conséquence je crois très respectueusement que l'appel doit être maintenu.

Le fait que trois actions résultant du non-paiement de billets à ordre donnés pour des primes ont été intentées en si peu de temps, indique jusqu'à un certain point la somme d'affaires faites d'après le mode que le savant juge en chef a dit être suivi d'une manière insouciant et peu pratique. Il n'y a pas de doute que le désir désordonné de faire des nouvelles opérations d'assurance et la vive concurrence qui existe aujourd'hui ont contribué considérablement à augmenter le chiffre d'affaires faites d'après le mode de billets. Il paraît évident que dans l'intérêt des porteurs de polices dans une compagnie, un billet ne devrait pas être accepté comme valeur pour l'émission d'une nouvelle police, à moins d'avoir une certitude presque absolue que ce billet sera payé à l'échéance.

Dans la cause suivante, instruite devant le juge de la cour de comté du comté de York, la compagnie a allégué dans son plaidoyer qu'il y avait fraude et fausses représentations dans la demande du demandeur, qui formait la base du contrat sur lequel l'action était appuyée. Le demandeur a nié toute fraude et fausses représentations et a allégué que les fausses représentations invoquées par la compagnie avait été frauduleusement insérées dans la demande par l'agent de la compagnie, par l'entremise duquel cette demande avait été faite.

La compagnie a aussi allégué en défense le manque d'intérêt susceptible d'assurance chez le demandeur. La cause a été appelée en cour dans le mois de décembre 1892, mais elle fut remise au mois de mars 1893. Lors du procès la compagnie renonça à son plaidoyer de fraude et s'appuya sur l'autre plaidoyer. En avril 1893, le juge Morgan a rendu le jugement suivant:—

McCALLUM vs METROPOLITAN LIFE.

La défenderesse est une compagnie américaine faisant des opérations d'assurance au Canada ; j'ai constaté lors de la preuve que la vie assurée par la police sur laquelle repose l'action intentée, était celle d'un jeune homme âgé de moins de 21 ans, vivant avec sa mère, la demanderesse, qui avait pris une assurance sur sa vie pour son propre bénéfice ; qu'il avait aidé sa mère dans le commerce qu'elle faisait ; que les fonctions remplies par lui étaient importantes pour la demanderesse, et de nature à ne pas pouvoir être remplies par elle-même ; et qu'en échange de ces services la demanderesse le nourrissait, le logeait et l'habillait et lui donnait cinquante centins par semaine pour ses menus plaisirs. D'après ces faits, je crois que la demanderesse avait un intérêt susceptible d'assurance dans la vie assurée ; et en conséquence, et en même temps en conformité au statut d'Ontario, 1892, chap. 39, art. 35, par. 6 et 7, je donne jugement à la demanderesse pour la somme de $200 avec intérêt à compter du 18 janvier 1892.

Le statut d'Ontario, 55 Vic., chap. 39, art. 35, cité par le juge Morgan, est comme suit :

“ Relativement aux assurances prises ou qui se prendront à l'avenir sur la vie de personnes âgées de moins de 21 ans, lorsque l'assurance a été prise par le père ou la mère sur la vie de son enfant, telle assurance ne sera pas censée être invalide en raison seulement du manque d'intérêt pécuniaire chez le père ou la mère dans la vie de l'enfant.”

Le rapport de la cause suivante, qui est intéressante et instructive, est extrait des 23 Ontario Reports, page 73.

(COUR DU BANC DE LA REINE.)

Potts et al. vs Temperance and General Life Assurance Company of North America.

Cette action a été intentée par les exécuteurs testamentaires de feu le révérend Thomas Wesley Jeffrey, pour faire mettre de côté la cession d'une police d'assurance sur sa vie pour $5,000, pour la raison que cette cession a été obtenue par fraude et au moyen de fausses représentations ; et pour le recouvrement du montant de la police.

La police a été émise le 17 novembre 1887. Dans le mois de mars 1890, l'assuré fut obligé de renoncer presque entièrement à l'exercice de ses devoirs de pasteur en raison d'une maladie de cœur. Dans le mois d'avril de la même année le gérant de la défenderesse savait que l'assuré était malade ; la preuve médicale constatait que cela était apparent ; mais rien ne prouvait que le gérant avait une connaissance spéciale de son état, ou une connaissance qui n'était pas raisonnable de supposer que l'assuré avait aussi. L'assuré s'adressa plusieurs fois au gérant aux fins de faire une cession avantageuse de la police, et il lui fut répondu qu'elle n'avait aucune valeur comme cession, ce qui était vrai. La police avait été cédée comme garantie collatérale d'une hypothèque que possédait un nommé W. S. Lee, et le gérant offrit finalement de recommander le paiement de cette hypothèque, s'élevant à $530, et un paiement de $250 en espèces, alléguant que la seule raison pour laquelle la défenderesse achèterait la police était la mauvaise qualité du risque. Ces conditions furent acceptées par le comité de la défenderesse et de l'assuré. Avant que l'arrangement fut exécuté, M. Lee fit des remontrances à l'assuré au sujet du marché qu'il faisait, et il lui fit l'offre de lui avancer toute somme d'argent dont il aurait besoin. Néanmoins l'assuré persista, et le 29 décembre 1890, la cession fut faite. Des primes s'élevant à $415.75 avaient été payées sur la police par l'assuré, qui céda le 2 mars 1891.

L'action fut instruite aux assises d'automne de cette cour, à Toronto, devant le juge McMahon, et un jury. A la fin du plaidoyer et de la preuve faite par la demanderesse le juge décida que la preuve ne justifiait pas le renvoi de la cause au jury et il débouta l'action. Aux assises de la cour de division en septembre 1892, la demanderesse présenta une motion demandant que jugement fut rendu en sa faveur ou qu'un nouveau procès eût lieu, pour la raison que la cause aurait dû être soumise au jury, vu qu'il y avait une preuve suffisante pour justifier le jury de décider que la cession était frauduleuse et nulle ; que la cause n'aurait pas dû être enlevée à la décision du jury ; et que le jugement du savant juge était contraire à la loi et à la preuve. La motion fut plaidée devant MM. les juges Armour, Falconbridge et Street, le 7 décembre 1892. Le 24 décembre 1892, le jugement de la cour fut prononcé par

ARMOUR, C. J. :—

On a prétendu que, parce que les contrats d'assurance sont dits être uberrime fidei, un contrat d'achat et de vente d'une police était aussi uberrime fidei, mais cette prétention n'est pas soutenable. Les règles qui régissent l'achat et la vente des polices d'assurances sont les mêmes qui gouvernent l'achat et la vente de toutes les autres espèces de biens personnels. On a ensuite prétendu que l'assuré était à l'époque de ce marché sous l'illusion qu'il vivrait longtemps, et que la défenderesse lui a permis de rester dans cette illusion, sachant qu'il ne pouvait pas revenir à la santé et que ce fait était de nature à annuler le marché, et on a cité à l'appui de cette prétention Hill vs Gray, 1 Stark 434. Cependant la cause de Hill vs Gray a été expliquée dans celle de Keates vs Cadogan, 10 C. B. 591, comme étant basée sur la conduite, équivalant à une supercherie agressive de la part de l'agent du vendeur, et il en est parlé dans la cause de Peek vs Gurney L. R. 6 H. L. 377.

Dans la cause de Smith vs Hughes, L. R. 62. B. 597, M. le juge Blackburn a dit : " J'avoue que même dans le cas où le vendeur saurait que l'acheteur croyait que l'article avait cette qualité, et qu'il n'aurait pas consenti au contrat sans cette croyance, cependant l'acheteur est lié, à moins que le vendeur se soit rendu coupable envers lui de fraude ou de tromperie ; car, quoiqu'il puisse en être aux yeux de la morale, il n'y a pas d'obligation légale forçant le vendeur d'informer l'acheteur qu'il est dans une erreur, qui n'est pas produite par la conduite du vendeur."

On voit ainsi que le cas de Hill vs Gray, tel que rapporté, n'est pas appuyé par des autorités plus récentes. En supposant donc que dans ce cas l'assuré était sous l'illusion qu'il vivrait longtemps—supposition qu'il est très difficile de trouver justifiée par la preuve—il est assez évident que la défenderesse n'a rien dit ni rien fait pour faire naître ou encourager cette illusion. La seule preuve que l'assuré avait cette illusion est l'encouragement que lui a donné le Dr Graham (et il n'est pas prouvé que la défenderesse en a eu connaissance), et la conversation qui a eu lieu entre l'assuré et le gérant de la défenderesse et M. Bell, dans le cours de laquelle il a dit qu'il allait désappointer tout le monde et vivre longtemps, et qu'il pouvait durer vingt ans ; mais cette conversation a eu lieu après qu'il eût reçu le chèque, et le marché, en ce qui le concernait, était parfait.

Voir Thompson vs Lambert, 2 Jr. R. Eq. 433.

On a aussi prétendu que la déclaration faite par le gérant de la défenderesse à l'assuré " qu'il recommanderait ce qui avait été proposé, $250 pour lui, et que c'était ce qu'il pouvait recommander de mieux au comité " était une preuve de fraude à être soumise au jury. Mais il n'y a pas de preuve que la déclaration que c'était ce qu'il pouvait recommander de mieux au comité n'a pas été faite de bonne foi, ou que la défenderesse ou son comité était disposé à accorder davantage, ou qu'elle était disposée à agir dans l'affaire, excepté sur la recommandation de son gérant ; et il ne paraît pas même que le gérant aurait consenti de recommander quelque chose de plus, si sa proposition n'avait pas été acceptée par l'assuré.

Dans la cause de Vernon vs Keys, 12 East 632, lord Ellenborough, C. J., a dit : " Peut-on prétendre qu'une action pourrait être maintenue contre quelqu'un pour avoir représenté qu'il ne donnerait pas, en faisant une convention d'achat, plus qu'une certaine somme, quand on pourrait prouver qu'il a dit qu'il donnerait beaucoup plus que cette somme ? "

Cependant on a cité à l'appui de cette prétention la cause de Jones vs Keene, 2 Moo. et R. 348 ; mais dans cette cause il y avait dissimulation réelle et supercherie agressive ; dans cette cause l'acheteur s'était adressé au vendeur ; dans la présente cause le vendeur s'est adressé à l'acheteur ; dans la première, l'acheteur savait que l'assuré était gravement malade et qu'il était dans un danger immi-

ment, et que le vendeur ne le savait pas ; dans celle-ci, l'acheteur et le vendeur connaissaient l'état de santé de l'assuré ; dans la première le vendeur a demandé à l'acheteur quelle était la valeur de la police, et l'acheteur, bien que sachant qu'il lui avait donné une valeur très minime ; dans celle-ci le vendeur et l'acheteur étaient sur un pied d'égalité. Nul doute, ainsi qu'il en a été dans la présente cause, que la défenderesse a fait un bon marché, mais le fait de faire un bon marché n'est pas une preuve de fraude.

Dans la présente cause nous ne voyons pas de preuve qui aurait pu avec raison être soumise au jury à l'appui de la fraude et de la dissimulation frauduleuse qu'on a invoquées, et nous croyons que le savant juge a eu raison, et que cette motion doit être déboutée avec dépens.

Il est satisfaisant de remarquer que le juge qui a instruit la cause et la cour de révision ont été d'opinion qu'il n'y avait pas de preuve à soumettre au jury à l'appui de l'accusation de fraude et de dissimulation frauduleuse portée contre la compagnie.

CHANGEMENT DE NOMS.

Par l'acte fédéral sanctionné le 1er avril 1893, le nom de la Compagnie d'assurance contre les accidents dite des Manufacturiers a été changé en celui de Compagnie de garantie et d'assurance contre les accidents dite des Manufacturiers.

On a reçu avis des changements suivants dans les noms de certaines compagnies ayant des permis: (a) Que le troisième jour d'avril 1893, conformément aux dispositions des statuts de l'État de Massachusetts à cette fin le nom de l'Association ci-devant connue comme la Massachusetts Benefit Association a été changé en celui de Massachusetts Benefit Life Association. (b) Que le onzième jour d'avril 1893, par une résolution spéciale passée en vertu de l'acte des compagnies britanniques et avec l'autorisation de la Chambre de commerce le nom de la compagnie autrefois connue sous celui de Fire Insurance Association (Limited) a été changé en celui de Albion Fire Insurance Association (Limited). (c) Que le vingt-cinquième jour de mai 1893, en vertu d'un acte du parlement impérial ayant pour titre The Guardian Assurance Company's Act, 1893, le nom de la compagnie autrefois connue sous celui de Guardian and Life Assurance Company a été changé en celui de Guardian Fire and Life Assurance Company (Limited).

LÉGISLATION.

Les dispositions suivantes se rapportant aux déclarations et affirmations statutaires sont extraites de l'Acte de la preuve en Canada, 1893, lequel est devenu en vigueur le 1er juillet 1893.

DÉCLARATIONS STATUTAIREs.

26. Tout juge, notaire public, juge de paix, magistrat de police ou stipendiaire, recorder, maire, commissaire aux affidavits à produire en cours provinciales ou fédérales, ou autre fonctionnaire autorisé par la loi à faire prêter serment en quelque manière que ce soit, pourra recevoir la déclaration solennelle de quiconque la fera volontairement devant lui, suivant la formule contenue dans l'annexe A du présent acte, pour attester soit l'exécution d'un acte ou instrument par écrit, soit la vérité d'un fait, ou l'exactitude d'un compte rendu par écrit.

27. Tout affidavit, affirmation ou déclaration demandé par une compagnie d'assurance autorisé par la loi à faire des opérations en Canada, au sujet de quelque propriété détruite ou endommagée, ou d'un décès, ou d'un accident arrivé à quelque personne assurée par elle, pourra être pris devant tout commissaire autorisé à recevoir des affidavits, ou devant tout juge de paix ou tout notaire public pour une province du Canada ; et ces officiers sont par le présent requis de recevoir cet affidavit, affirmation ou déclaration.

ANNEXE A.

Je, A. B., déclare solennellement que (exposez le fait ou les faits déclarés), et je fais cette déclaration solennelle, la croyant consciencieusement vraie, et en vertu de l'Acte de la preuve en Canada, 1893.

Ministère des Finances—Division des Assurances.

Le nombre des actes concernant les compagnies d'assurance passés par le parlement fédéral durant la session de 1893, 56 Victoria, a été extraordinairement considérable. En voici la liste :—

1. Acte constituant en corporation la Compagnie de garantie contre les voleurs du Canada. (Cette compagnie a reçu un permis.)

2. Acte à l'effet de modifier l'Acte constitutif de la compagnie d'assurance contre les accidents dite des Manufacturiers, et d'en changer le nom en celui de Compagnie de garantie et d'assurance contre les accidents dite des Manufacturiers. Cet acte autorise la compagnie, après s'être conformée à ses dispositions, à faire des opérations d'assurance de garantie en sus de ses opérations d'assurance contre les accidents. La compagnie n'a pas encore demandé de permis pour faire des opérations d'assurance de garantie.

3. Acte concernant la compagnie d'assurance sur la vie du Canada.

Cet acte donne plus d'étendue aux pouvoirs de la compagnie concernant les placements et la possession de biens-fonds.

4. Acte pour faire revivre et modifier la charte de la Compagnie d'assurance l' "Équité," et pour changer son nom en celui de la Compagnie d'assurance Saint-Laurent. L'acte remis en vigueur par cet acte a été passé en 1887, avec pouvoir de faire des opérations d'assurance contre l'incendie et contre les risques de la navigation intérieure. La compagnie remise en existence n'a pas encore demandé de permis.

5. Acte constituant en corporation l'ordre canadien des Forestiers du Monde. L'ordre a été enregistré comme étant une compagnie d'assurance sur la vie à répartitions.

6. Compagnie de Garantie Maritime.

Il n'a pas encore été demandé de permis.

7. Acte constituant en corporation la Compagnie d'assurance contre les Accidents Maritimes.

Il n'a pas encore été demandé de permis.

8. Acte constituant en corporation la Compagnie d'assurance de l'Amérique Britannique. L'acte change les noms des principaux officiers depuis le gouverneur et le député du gouverneur jusqu'au président et le vice-président, et il contient d'autres dispositions qu'il est inutile de citer.

9. Acte constituant en corporation le Grand Conseil de l'Association Catholique de Bienfaisance Mutuelle du Canada. Le certificat d'enregistrement exigé par l'Acte des assurances n'a pas encore été demandé. L'acte constitue cette association en compagnie d'assurance sur la vie à répartitions.

10. Acte constituant en corporation la Compagnie canadienne d'assurance des bestiaux.

Un permis n'a pas encore été demandé.

Le rapport pour 1891, page lv, contenait plusieurs dispositions de l'Acte concernant les corporations d'assurance, 1892 (Ontario), applicables aux compagnies possédant des permis ou enregistrées en vertu de l'Acte des assurances (Canada). Durant la session de la législature d'Ontario, le dit acte a été modifié. Voici les amende-ments qui concernent les compagnies faisant des opérations d'assurances en vertu de permis fédéraux ou en vertu du dit acte des assurances :—

SA MAJESTÉ, par et avec l'avis et le consentement de l'Assemblée législative de la province d'Ontario, décrète ce qui suit :

1.—(1) Le présent acte sera cité et interprété comme faisant partie de l'Acte concernant les corporations d'assurance, 1892, ci-après appelé "L'acte principal."

(3) Le mot "fonds d'assurance" comprend tout fonds d'une union ou organisation ouvrière applicable ou destiné à aider volontairement les ouvriers sans emploi ou en grève.

(4) "Assurance de dotation" comprend tout contrat d'assurance qui contient l'obligation de payer une somme déterminée ou à déterminer à une date ultérieure spécifiée, pourvu que l'assuré soit encore vivant.

7. L'article 12 de l'Acte pour assurer aux épouses et aux enfants les bénéfices de l'assurance sur la vie est modifié en ajoutant le paragraphe 2 suivant :—

(2) Lorsqu'il appert par les lettres de tutelle, ou autre document semblable, émises ou à être émises par une cour en dehors de la juridiction de la province, ou par un certificat du juge donné sous le sceau de telle cour, qu'il a été prouvé à la satisfaction de la dite cour que le défunt lors de son décès était domicilié ou résidait dans la limite de sa juridiction, et qu'un cautionnement a été donné à la satisfaction de la cour ou autre officier nommé par les dites lettres ou document, dans ce cas la haute cour, sur une demande faite pour la nomination du dit tuteur ou autre officier comme fidéicommissaire en vertu de cet article, pourra exempter de donner un cautionnement, pourvu qu'il ait été aussi démontré que les enfants résident dans les limites de la juridiction de la cour étrangère, et que le fidéicommissaire proposé est une personne apte à remplir cette charge, et que le cautionnement a été, d'après l'usage suivi par la dite cour étrangère, donné pour garantir le bon placement et la reddition de compte des sommes payables en vertu de la police.

8.—(1) Le paragraphe 1 de l'article 6 de l'acte en dernier lieu mentionné tel qu'il est modifié par l'article 6 de l'acte passé dans la 53e année du règne de Sa Majesté, chapitre 39, est modifié en insérant après les mots "un ou plusieurs d'entre eux", dans la sixième ligne du dit paragraphe, les mots suivants : "ou à la mère de l'assuré en qualité d'un des bénéficiaires ou d'unique bénéficiaire"; et le dit article est de plus modifié en ajoutant à la fin les mots suivants : "ou pour le bénéfice d'une ou de plusieurs des personnes ci-dessus mentionnées durant la vie, et, après son ou leur décès, pour le bénéfice d'un ou de plusieurs des survivants."

(2) L'article 5 du dit acte est modifié en en retranchant dans les 5e et 6e lignes les mots suivants : "et pourra ainsi qu'il est prescrit dans le dit article, changer la répartition."

10. L'acte principal est modifié de la manière suivante :—

(1) Le paragraphe 8 de l'article 2 est modifié en y ajoutant la disposition suivante :—

"Pourvu que lorsque l'objet du contrat est une propriété ou un intérêt susceptible d'assurance dans les limites de la juridiction d'Ontario, ou une personne y résidant ou domiciliée, toute police, certificat, reçu temporaire, ou écrit prouvant l'authenticité du contrat sera, lorsque signé, contresigné, émis ou délivré dans la province, censé être une preuve d'un contrat passé dans la province, et tel contrat sera interprété d'après la loi de la dite province; et cette disposition sera appliquée malgré toute convention, condition ou stipulation à ce contraires."

(5) L'article 6 est modifié en y ajoutant les paragraphes 4, 5 et 6 qui suivent :—

(4) Les corporations, compagnies ou assureurs dans le sens des articles 3 (a), 49 (4) ou 32 de l'Acte des assurances du Canada, pourront, sur demande, être admises à l'enregistrement.

(5) Sur demande régulièrement faite par tout assureur de l'institution ou société connue sous le nom de Lloyd's, et plus particulièrement décrite dans un acte passé par le parlement du Royaume-Uni dans les 34e et 35e années du règne de Sa Majesté, chapitre 21, ou sur demande régulièrement faite par tout courtier de tel assureur ou agent de courtier, la dite institution ou société pourra pour des fins d'opération d'assurance maritime, être enregistrée sous le nom général de Lloyd's, lequel comprendra la corporation, tous les assureurs de la Lloyd pour le temps présent et leurs courtiers, et les agents dans Ontario de la corporation ou des assureurs ou courtiers. Dans toute action ou procédure intentée contre la corporation, ou contre un assureur ou courtier, ou agent ainsi qu'il est ci-dessus dit, pour des obligations contractées dans Ontario, l'inspecteur des assurances pourra recevoir et accepter la signification de la sommation; et l'acceptation de la signification par écrit sous sa signature à toute fin que de droit sera légale et obligatoire pour la corporation, l'assureur, le courtier ou l'agent.

(6) Pour les fins du présent paragraphe et du suivant le temps de l'enregistrement annuel commencera et finira aux dates respectives ci-après indiquées dans le cas des permis d'assurance du Canada."

(8) Le paragraphe 1 de l'article 25 de l'acte principal est modifié en en retranchant le mot "régistrateur" toutes les fois qu'il se présente et en y substituant les mots "officier d'enregistrement," le dit paragraphe est aussi modifié en insérant après "fin" dans la troisième ligne, les mots "est en faillite ou sur le point de l'être."

(10) Le paragraphe 2 de l'article 34 est modifié en insérant dans la deuxième ligne après les mots "y démontré," les mots "ou retranché de"; aussi, en retranchant dans la troisième ligne le mot "tableau" et en le remplaçant par le mot "tableaux."

(11) L'article 35 (5) est modifié en y ajoutant la disposition suivante :—

"Pourvu que, au lieu d'imprimer ce qui est requis par ce paragraphe, la compagnie puisse avec le consentement par écrit de l'inspecteur des assurances imprimer ou marquer les mots suivants en remplacement :—"Toute assurance entreprise ou offerte pour être entreprise dans la province d'Ontario sur la vie des enfants âgés de moins de 10 ans est soumise aux restrictions prescrites par les paragraphes 1 jusqu'à 5 inclusivement de l'article 35 de l'acte concernant les corporations d'assurance, 1892."

Ministère des Finances—Division des Assurances.

(12) L'article 35 est encore modifié en y ajoutant les paragraphes 8 et 9 qui suivent :—

- (8) Lorsque l'argent payable au moyen de primes, contributions ou répartitions autres que les primes, contributions ou répartitions primitives, en vertu de tout contrat d'assurance sur la vie n'est pas payé, et que l'événement à la survenance duquel la somme de l'assurance devient payable n'est pas encore arrivé, chacune des personnes ci-après mentionnées pourra dans les 30 jours qui suivront le défaut par lettre recommandée, ou autrement payée, remettre ou offrir à la compagnie à son bureau principal, ou à son agence principale dans Ontario, ou au percepteur de la compagnie ou à un agent autorisé la somme en défaut, et aussi une autre somme sous forme d'amende si le contrat d'assurance l'exige en termes précis, telle amende ne devant en aucun cas excéder 5 cents par semaine par $1,000 d'assurance pour chaque semaine complète écoulée depuis le défaut, ni excéder dans aucun cas 20 cents par $1,000 pour toute la durée du défaut. Sur paiement, remise ou offre par l'assuré, comme susdit, ou par l'un des bénéficiaires nommés au contrat, le contrat sera censé avoir été ipso facto remis en vigueur ou renouvelé, et toute stipulation ou convention au contraire sera entièrement nulle en ce qui concerne l'assuré ou ses bénéficiaires. Les 30 jours ci-dessus mentionnés courront concurremment avec la période de grâce ou crédit (s'il y en a) accordée par l'assureur pour le paiement d'une prime ou du versement d'une prime; et rien de contenu dans le présent paragraphe sera censé prolonger la période de grâce ou de crédit au delà de 30 jours. Ce paragraphe ne sera pas censé prolonger le délai accordé pour le paiement des contributions ou répartitions par l'article 40 du présent acte.
- (9) Nonobstant toute stipulation ou convention à ce contraire, toute action ou procédure contre l'assureur en recouvrement d'une réclamation due en vertu d'un contrat d'assurance sur la vie, pourra être instituée en tout temps dans le cours d'une année après la survenance de l'événement étant l'objet de l'assurance; ou dans un autre délai de 6 mois subséquent sur permission d'un juge d'une cour supérieure s'il est établi à sa satisfaction qu'il y a eu une excuse raisonnable pour ne pas instituer l'action ou la procédure dans le cours du premier délai mentionné.

(13) L'article 38 (8) est modifié en y ajoutant la disposition suivante :—

“Pourvu que dans le cas où des compagnies de chemins de fer (y compris les compagnies ordinaires de transport) désireraient faire émettre par leurs agents préposés à la vente des billets, au nom d'une corporation d'assurance enregistrée, des contrats d'assurance sur la vie ou contre les accidents pour des périodes n'excédant pas 31 jours, la compagnie de chemin de fer pourra sur demande être admise à l'enregistrement pour les fins de ces contrats seulement; et elle paiera au trésorier provincial pour cet enregistrement l'honoraire que l'inspecteur des assurances attestera sous sa signature être juste et raisonnable; les agents préposés à la vente des billets de ces compagnies de chemins de fer enregistrées seront, mais seulement pour les fins de ces contrats, censés être individuellement enregistrés dans le sens du présent acte pour la durée du certificat d'enregistrement accordé à la compagnie de chemin de fer.”

(16) L'article 62 est modifié en insérant après le paragraphe 2 du Titre II la disposition suivante :—

“Pourvu que dans le cas de corporations, compagnies ou assureurs faisant des opérations d'assurance maritime seulement, et aussi dans le cas des corporations, compagnies et assureurs dans le sens des articles 3 (a) ou 49 (4) ou 32 de l'Acte des assurances du Canada qui seront admis à l'enregistrement en vertu du présent acte, l'honoraire exigé pour le certificat soit primitif ou renouvelé, soit de $10.

PERTES NON RÉGLÉES.

Sous ce titre il semble à propos de faire quelques observations pour la gouverne des employés des compagnies qui ont des permis dont le devoir consiste à préparer des états annuels pour ce département. L'observation a démontré que les dispositions de l'acte des assurances ne sont pas bien comprises, ou si elles le sont on n'en tient pas compte, et comme conséquence, les rapports statutaires sont souvent inexacts, et il n'existe peut-être pas de plus grandes inexactitudes que celles que l'on trouve au sujet des pertes non réglées à la fin de l'année. Les inexactitudes sont principalement de deux espèces, premièrement, des réclamations pour pertes survenues avant la fin de l'année, et dont on aurait dû faire rapport sont souvent entièrement omises du tableau, et l'on donne pour raison qu'on n'a fait le rapport de ces pertes à la compagnie qu'après la fin de l'année, ou, si le rapport a été fait et si des réclamations ont été présentées, que ces réclamations n'ont pas été considérées comme étant valides, n'ont pas été reconnues ni admises comme étant des obligations, et qu'en conséquence elles ont été laissées de côté dans le rapport de la compagnie.

Ces raisons sont complètement insuffisantes. Le seul fait qu'une perte n'a pas été rapportée, ou n'était pas connue de la compagnie à la fin de l'année, mais qu'on savait avoir existé lorsque le rapport a été préparé et transmis au département, est une faible excuse pour affirmer qu'elle n'a pas existé. De plus, il ne peut pas être permis à une compagnie de laisser de côté une réclamation pour perte, pour le motif que la compagnie a considéré cette réclamation comme étant invalide. Le statut dans l'annexe A décrit les obligations d'une compagnie d'assurance sur la vie, dont on doit faire rapport, et parmi elles se trouvent "les réclamations résultant de décès et les dotations échues et les réclamations pour les annuités dues et non payées ou en voie de règlement, ou réglées mais non dues, ou contestées." Il en est ainsi de l'annexe B, qui comprend au nombre des obligations d'une compagnie d'assurance contre l'incendie dont on doit faire rapport "le montant des réclamations résultant de pertes contestées par la compagnie, en indiquant celles qui sont devant les cours de justice," ce qui fait voir clairement que chaque réclamation résultant d'une perte doit être insérée dans le rapport, même si la compagnie a une bonne défense en loi à opposer à une action intentée contre elle. Agir autrement serait en effet constituer juges les employés des compagnies et leur permettre en niant les obligations pour toutes les réclamations existantes de présenter un rapport ne contenant pas de pertes non réglées, et cela à une époque où chaque réclamation pourrait être trouvée valide, malgré le refus des compagnies de reconnaître cette validité.

Secondement, des réclamations pour pertes dont on devrait faire rapport comme étant refusées, et en litige, ou refusées et non en litige, sont souvent rapportées comme n'étant pas réglées mais non refusées. On trouve rarement une explication plausible de cette inexactitude, mais on dit quelquefois que, à la fin de l'année, la compagnie n'avait pas encore décidé de contester la réclamation. Une semblable excuse ne vaut rien. La loi accorde deux mois aux fins d'obtenir des renseignements complets et exacts au sujet de ces questions, et le surintendant espère qu'à l'avenir il y aura moins d'inexactitudes de cette nature qu'il y en a eu dans le passé. Je peux ajouter que chaque fois qu'on découvre une semblable inexactitude, elle est corrigée dans le rapport final.

J'ai l'honneur d'être, monsieur,

Votre obéissant serviteur,

W. FITZGERALD,

Surintendant des assurances.

LA COMPAGNIE D'ASSURANCES ALLIANCE—Suite.

Des incendies nombreux et désastreux s'étant déclarés dans certaines parties de pays où la compagnie faisait des affaires, la proportion des pertes en 1892 a été de 4 pour 100 plus forte que les pertes moyennes des années précédentes. Il y a également augmentation du taux de la dépense par suite de l'organisation de nouvelles succursales dans les colonies ainsi qu'à San-Francisco.

Sur la somme de £119,425 16s. 1d., une somme de £106,243 4s. 10d. a été transportée au compte des profits et pertes, et celle de £13,182 11s. 4d. ajoutée au fonds des assurances contre l'incendie. £6,243 4s. 10d. du montant transporté à profits et pertes ont été appliqués au coût des édifices de la compagnie ainsi qu'au paiement des affaires d'assurances contre l'incendie que la compagnie a acquises.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1893.

Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, Ang., 10 mars 1893.

Dans le département des incendies les primes nettes se sont élevées à £301,078 19s.1d., et les pertes à £199,200 6s. 9d., soit 66.1 pour 100 sur le revenu des primes. Les pertes ont été plus élevées que pendant toute autre année depuis 1883. L'excédent du compte des assurances contre l'incendie se chiffre par £6,985 15s. 9d., ce qui, joint à l'intérêt, aux dividendes, etc., tel qu'il appert au compte des profits et pertes, porte l'excédent total pour l'année à.....£ 26,913 15 7

Les directeurs ont déclaré un dividende de 22s. par action pour l'année 1892, libre de la taxe sur le revenu (soit 22 pour 100 sur le capital originairement versé) s'élevant à.....£ 26,400 0 0

Un dividende intérimaire de 5s. par action fut payé le 23 sept. dernier.....£ 6,000 0 0
La balance de 17s. par action sera payable le 30 courant 20,400 0 0

Les directeurs ont résolu d'ajouter à la caisse de la réserve, la somme de..... 513 15 7

Le fonds de réserve contre l'incendie s'élève maintenant à £315,733 1s. 5d.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Liverpool, Angleterre, 27 janvier 1893.)

Les opérations de 1891 accusent un profit de £11,678 16s. 11d. A cette somme il faut ajouter le compte des intérêts de l'année 1892, s'élevant à £46,160 5s. 3. Ces sommes, jointes au solde de £143,752 16s. 9d. des opérations de l'an 1891, laissent au crédit du compte des profits et pertes la somme de £201,599 18s. 11.

A même cette somme on a payé, le 1er juillet dernier, un dividende intérimaire de 8s. par action, et les directeurs proposent maintenant de payer un nouveau dividende de 8s. par action et un boni de 4s. par action, tous deux libres de la taxe sur le revenu, ce qui formera une distribution de 20s. par action, ou 25 pour 100 pour l'année. Les directeurs recommandent qu'après avoir pourvu à la taxe sur le revenu, la balance des £133,630 8s. 5d. soit reportée au compte de l'an prochain.

Les primes reçues dans le cours de l'année 1892 se sont élevées à £572,186 14s. 3d. et les réclamations payées à £231,623 3s. 6d., laissant une balance nette, après déduction des dépenses, de £291,138 6s. 1d. au crédit du compte des assurances.

Le chiffre net des assurances a été de £105,539,673, dont £7,607,670 étaient en vigueur le 31 décembre 1892.

Les directeurs ont résolu d'adopter les dispositions des actes dits Forged Transfers Acts afin de protéger ainsi les porteurs de certificats d'actions contre tout transfert contrefait pour un montant n'excédant pas la valeur des actions et de tout dividende qui pourra se perdre par suite de ces faux.

Solde transféré au compte des profits et pertes des actionnaires.	£ 66,856	18	1

DIVIDENDE.

On a ouvert un compte de profits et pertes afin de faire connaître aux actionnaires les opérations des deux divisions. Ce compte ayant été crédité de l'excédent de l'année dans la division des incendies, ainsi que la proportion échue aux actionnaires sur les profits septennaux des affaires d'assurances sur la vie et débités du montant du dividende de 1892 et de divers autres paiements, et il est resté une balance de £65,647.6s., à même laquelle il est recommandé de déclarer un dividende de £1.4s. par action (augmentation de 1s. par action) qui sera payable, sans taxe sur le revenu, en deux versements égaux, le 15 mai et le 11 novembre. Le dividende en question comprendra une somme totale de £25,800, laissant à reporter un solde de £39,847.6s. Les directeurs croient qu'il ne serait pas sage dans l'état actuel des affaires d'assurance contre l'incendie d'augmenter davantage le dividende.

ÉTAT GÉNÉRAL DES OPÉRATIONS POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, Ang., 3 mai 1893.)

DÉPARTEMENT DE L'INCENDIE.

Le chiffre net des primes de 1892 s'est élevé à £1,010,514, soit une diminution de £12,545, comparativement à l'année 1891, et les pertes payées et à payer ont été de £751,145, soit 74.33 pour 100 du revenu des primes.

La diminution apparente du revenu des primes est due au fait que les comptes sont aujourd'hui fermés plus tard qu'autrefois, et que pour cette raison on a pu y inclure le chiffre total des réassurances de l'année. Comme c'est la première fois que cela se fait, les chiffres pour l'année contiennent les réassurances de cinq trimestres contre les primes de quatre seulement.

DÉPARTEMENT DES ASSURANCES MARITIMES.

Le chiffre net des primes reçues a été de £246,037, et celui des pertes payées et à payer de £169,875.

£55,000 des profits de cette division ont été portés à profits et pertes, et après avoir prévu aux pertes à régler il reste à la caisse des assurances maritimes la somme de £261,011.

PROFITS ET PERTES.

A la fermeture de ce compte il y avait un solde de £45,604 à reporter à l'année 1893, et les directeurs ont recommandé de payer à même ce montant un dividende de dix-sept chelins et six deniers par action (libre de la taxe sur le revenu), soit avec le dividende intérimaire payé en novembre dernier, 25 pour 100 pendant l'année.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 MARS 1893.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, Angleterre, 11 mai 1893.)

Les primes de l'année ont été de £250,045 contre £248,643 l'année précédente. Les nouvelles primes des assurances contre les accidents, bien que la condition des affaires ait nécessité d'accorder des réductions aux assurés dans la division de la responsabilité des patrons, font plus que compenser les primes de l'incendie (s'élevant l'année dernière à £8,544) qui ne contribuent plus au revenu.

La vive concurrence à soutenir ainsi que la nécessité de se préparer à faire face au nouvel acte de la responsabilité des patrons ont empêché la réduction de la dépense, mais les directeurs se proposent d'étudier cette question sans retard, et pour leur aider à atteindre ce but, ils ont cru à propos de ne pas détailler les comptes comme par le passé.

Les placements (au prix d'achat), les prêts, l'argent en caisse, en dépôt et aux banques avec les soldes dus représentent un total de £334,648. La dépréciation actuelle de la valeur vénale ne dépasse pas 3½ pour 100, et les réserves y pourvoient amplement.

Le solde du compte de la présente année est de £151,330. Après avoir amplement pourvu aux polices courantes et réserves générales, (y compris la réserve pour la dépréciation des garanties) les directeurs recommandent de déclarer sur ce montant pour l'an dernier un dividende de 4 chelins par action (libre de la taxe sur le revenu), soit une somme égale à 10 pour 100 sur le capital versé.

Le gouvernement a présenté un bill qui modifie l'Acte dit The Employers' Liability Act de 1880, et si, comme on peut s'y attendre, il est adopté, les directeurs donneront immédiatement suite à la politique projetée depuis si longtemps dans la perspective de cet événement.

J. KENNEDY,

Gérant pour le Canada.

(Reçu le 3 mars 1893.)

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, Angleterre, 21 mars 1893.)

Les primes nettes de l'année se sont élevées à £103,225, contre £89,502 l'année précédente, tandis que les pertes payées et à régler se sont chiffrées par £68,299, contre £55,009.

Les dépenses générales d'administration et les commissions, sont presque exactement dans la même proportion relativement au revenu des primes que l'étaient les items correspondants du compte précédent.

L'année 1892 a été des plus défavorables pour les compagnies d'assurances contre l'incendie en général, et c'est un fait bien connu que bon nombre de compagnies ont

Ministère des Finances—Division des Assurances.

L'ASSOCIATION D'ASSURANCES CONTRE L'INCENDIE—Fin.

dû tirer sur leurs réserves afin de faire face aux pertes. Dans ces circonstances les directeurs sont heureux de pouvoir terminer l'année en ajoutant un léger montant au solde net reporté de 1891.

Bien que la caisse de réserve générale et de l'incendie soit plus que suffisante pour couvrir les risques non encore expirés, les directeurs croient qu'il ne serait pas prudent de réduire le montant, et pour cette raison regrettent de ne pouvoir recommander le paiement d'un dividende.

On a souvent suggéré qu'il serait avantageux de changer le nom de la compagnie, et les directeurs ont constaté que le caractère indéfini du nom actuel pouvait créer des malentendus et faire obstacle à l'extension des affaires. C'est pourquoi ils sont d'avis qu'on ne devrait pas retarder davantage un changement qui sera avantageux, croient-ils, et ils proposent d'ajouter au titre actuel le mot Albion, en sorte qu'il se lira dorénavant l'Association d'assurances contre l'incendie Albion (à responsabilité limitée). Pour opérer ce changement il sera nécessaire de convoquer une assemblée générale extraordinaire des actionnaires de la compagnie, et vous trouverez sous ce pli l'avis formel de la convocation. Si la résolution qui sera alors proposée est adoptée, on convoquera en temps opportun une autre assemblée pour la confirmer.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1891.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, Ang., 1er juin 1892.)

DÉPARTEMENT DE L'INCENDIE.

Les primes d'assurances contre l'incendie, après déduction faites des réassurances, ont atteint le chiffre de £568,279 5s. 7d., ce qui constitue une diminution £11,004 13s. 9d., sur l'année précédente, et les pertes se sont élevées à £369,714 6s. 10d. Le compte des primes, après avoir pourvu aux pertes et dépenses ainsi qu'à la caisse de réserve des primes pour couvrir les risques non expirés sur les polices en cours à la fin de l'année, n'accuse, sans parler de l'intérêt, qu'un profit de £2,851 19s. 11d. Avec l'intérêt cette somme s'élève à £28,353 7s. 7d., mais il faut inscrire à son débit le montant de £3,227 12s. 2d., pour achat de la clientèle et des affaires de certaines compagnies d'assurances contre l'incendie locales, ainsi que £999 10s. 10d., perte sur placements liquidés, ce qui laisse un solde de £19,126 4s. 7d., que les directeurs recommandent de transférer au compte des actionnaires.

La caisse de réserve des primes pour la garantie des polices en cours, s'élève à £288,100, et comme la responsabilité est diminuée, ce chiffre se trouve de £4,600 moindre que le montant reporté de l'année précédente. La caisse de réserve générale du département de l'incendie est de £390,000, ce qui porte le chiffre total du fonds à £678,100.

COMPTE DU REVENU DES ACTIONNAIRES.

D'après le compte des profits et pertes il apparaît qu'à la suite du paiement des dividendes de 1891, le solde (qui comprend £36,000 du profit sur les assurances sur la vie, réservé), s'élève à		£	58,558	5	3
Intérêt sur capital versé et émoluments sur transferts.....			42,240	1	5
Transféré du compte des assurances contre l'incendie.....			19,126	4	7
Total					£119,924 11 3
Dividende projeté à 8½ pour 100, libre de la taxe sur le revenu.....					85,000 0 0
(dont £25,000 ont déjà été payés en dividendes intérimaires).
Solde à reporter à 1892 :—
Profit sur les assurances sur la vie, réservé.....		£	24,000	0	0
Solde net.....			10,924	11	3
					£34,924 11 3

Le dividende projeté qui s'élève au même montant que celui payé en 1891 et en 1890, réduira le solde net à reporter, exclusion faite des profits sur les assurances sur la vie réservés, de £11,633 14s., comparativement à l'an dernier.

Les directeurs recommandent en conséquence, aux actionnaires, de déclarer, pour l'année terminée le 31 décembre 1891, un dividende de £4 5s., sur chaque action du capital souscrit, soit au taux de 8½ pour 100 sur le capital versé. Comme un dividende intérimaire de £1 5s. par action a été payé en janvier dernier, la balance de £3 par action devra être payée vendredi, le 1er juillet prochain, libre de la taxe sur le revenu.

ÉTAT DES OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1891.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, 2 juin 1892.)

A la suite de l'Acte du parlement adopté en 1891, cette compagnie s'est fait enregistrer le 21 décembre dernier en vertu des " Actes des Compagnies, 1862 à 1890," avec responsabilité limitée et nouveaux articles d'association. En conséquence les directeurs ont l'honneur de soumettre le rapport suivant pour l'année terminée le 31 décembre 1891, de même que les comptes et le bilan et le rapport des auditeurs.

Le chiffre net des primes de 1891 s'est élevé à £789,797, une augmentation de £25,433 comparativement à l'année 1890, et les pertes payées et à régler ont été de £548,305, soit 69.42 pour 100 du revenu des primes.

Malgré les mauvais résultats des opérations d'assurances contre l'incendie durant la dernière année, pour cette compagnie comme pour les autres généralement, les directeurs se croient justifiables de recommander le paiement d'un dividende au taux ordinaire, de £1 12s. par nouvelle action de £20, l'équivalent de £8 par ancienne action de £100, tous deux livres de la taxe sur le revenu.

Douze chelins par action ont été en conséquence payés le 29 janvier dernier, comme dividende partiel, et c'est l'intention de transmettre la balance de £1 par action aux actionnaires, par la poste, mardi le 5 juillet prochain.

Après avoir pourvu au paiement de ce dividende qui se monte à £96,000, les fonds de la Compagnie seront comme suit :—

ÉTAT DES OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES DE L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1892.

Département de l'incendie.

Le revenu des primes de la division de l'incendie, déduction faite du montant des réassurances, s'est élevé à £922,847 12s., soit une augmentation de £17,608 15s. 7d., comparativement à l'année précédente. Les réclamations pour pertes et dommages par l'incendie, y compris le montant des pertes à payer, ont été de £607,204 13s. 4d., de sorte qu'après avoir pourvu à ces réclamations ainsi qu'aux commissions et dépenses, il est resté un excédent de £41,047 11s. 3d. qui a été porté au compte des profits et pertes. Dans leur rapport de l'an dernier les directeurs annonçaient qu'ils s'étaient assurés des affaires considérables et jusqu'alors avantageuses en

COMPAGNIE D'ASSURANCES LANCASHIRE—Suite.

Amérique à des conditions excellentes pour la compagnie, à leur avis. Cependant, il a été constaté que dans bon nombre de cas certains risques étaient trop considérables pour être conservés par la Lancashire, et que d'autres n'étaient pas désirables, et en conséquence les directeurs ont cru prudent d'annuler ou de les réassurer, et le coût de cette réassurance ainsi que le montant des réclamations, en vertu d'autres polices que l'on a décidé de ne pas renouveler à leur expiration, se sont élevés à £86,268 13s. 3d. La compagnie en payant cette somme et celle qui avait été réservée l'an dernier s'est libérée de toute la responsabilité encourue par cet achat. Les directeurs ont résolu de suivre le même procédé que celui adopté l'an dernier à l'égard du compte d'achalandage et de répartir le montant sur les comptes de trois ans. C'est pourquoi la somme de £28,756 4s. 5d. a été débitée au compte des profits et pertes de l'année 1892. Les affaires choisies inscrites dans nos livres à la suite de cet achat se montent à £201,868 par année, et c'est l'espoir des directeurs qu'on en retirera un profit satisfaisant. L'on a établi à New-York un département distinct ayant bureau et personnel également distincts, pour donner suite à ce transfert, mais comme ce transfert est aujourd'hui complété il n'est plus nécessaire de conserver cette administration distincte et l'on a en conséquence décidé de consolider toutes nos opérations américaines et de les confier à une seule administration à New-York, ce qui, tout en maintenant sa valeur, aura pour effet de réduire considérablement les dépenses.

Placements et profits et pertes.

Les placements de la compagnie ont rapporté en intérêts la somme de £60,551 2s. 11d., dont £35,017 7s. 4d. appartiennent à la division des assurances sur la vie, ainsi qu'on le constatera dans le compte du revenu de cette division. Le montant du compte de profits et pertes est de £86,860 1s. 11d., à même lequel il a été payé les taxes d'Etats étrangers (£9,838), le deuxième versement du compte d'achalandage mentionné dans le dernier rapport (11,423), et deux dividendes semi-annuels au taux de 10 pour 100, s'élevant à £27,298 12s. Après avoir pourvu à ces paiements il est resté un solde de £38,294 3s. 5d., dont on a disposé en payant sur le compte américain déjà mentionné la somme de £28,756 4s. 5d., et en reportant au compte suivant la somme de £9,537 19s.

Administration.

Il y a quelques mois, M. Stewart exprima le désir, à raison de l'état de sa santé, de se démettre comme gérant général et actuaire de la compagnie, poste qu'il a occupé depuis trente-cinq années, et il consentit, à la demande des directeurs, de demeurer en charge jusqu'à la fin de mars de l'année courante pour accepter alors un siège au conseil. Les directeurs n'ont pas cessé de s'occuper de la question de l'administration future de la compagnie, et ils espèrent compléter dans le cours de l'année des arrangements qui assureront non seulement son plus grand succès, mais seront satisfaisants aux actionnaires.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES DE L'EXERCICE FINISSANT LE 31 DÉCEMBRE.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, Ang., 16 mai 1893.)

DÉPARTEMENT DE L'INCENDIE.

Le revenu des primes de la dernière année, après déduction faites des sommes payées pour réassurer l'excédent des risques, s'élève à £1,585,195. Les pertes, après avoir pourvu à toutes les réclamations qui ont été présentées avant la fin de l'année, s'élèvent à £1,029,567. Le compte, après avoir pourvu aux dépenses, sans addition de l'intérêt, accuse un excédent de £70,543; sur cette somme, £44,000 ont été laissés à la caisse du département de l'incendie pour augmenter la caisse de réassurance contre l'incendie, qui s'élève maintenant à £714,000, outre la réserve générale de £1,330,000. Le solde a été porté au compte des profits et pertes.

COMPTES DES PROFITS ET PERTES ET DIVIDENDES.

Le compte des profits et pertes, en y ajoutant la partie de l'excédent du département de l'incendie, reporté du compte de l'incendie, ainsi que l'intérêt acquis sur les autres fonds que ceux du département de la vie, et après avoir déduit les sommes payées en 1892 aux porteurs de rentes viagères perpétuelles, 6 pour 100 de la Globe, accuse un solde de £690,133. L'on propose de payer à même ce montant dans la division de l'incendie, un dividende de 18s. par action, ainsi qu'un boni de 9s. par action, et sur les profits des assurances de vie portés à ce compte dans ce but, à la fin de la dernière période quinquennale, un boni de 3s. par action, soit, en tout, 30s par action. Le 22 novembre dernier la compagnie a payé à compte un dividende intérimaire de 10s., et c'est l'intention d'autoriser le paiement de la balance, viz.: 20s. par action le 23 courant.

Les directeurs se proposent d'adopter l'Acte des transports contrefaits de 1891 et 1892 sans rien demander ni sans exiger l'envoi des certificats pour l'inscription à l'endos.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES, JUSQU'AU 31 DÉCEMBRE 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Liverpool, Angleterre, 27 avril 1893.)

Les comptes des compagnies d'assurances contre l'incendie, publiés jusqu'à ce jour, confirment ce qui a été dit précédemment: que l'année dernière a été peut-être la moins satisfaisante pour les bureaux en général depuis les derniers vingt ans. A part le grand feu de Saint-Jean, Terre-neuve, une de ces conflagrations qui heureusement n'arrivent que rarement, le nombre et l'importance des incendies ont été plus considérables dans presque toutes les parties du Royaume-Uni comme dans les autres endroits de l'univers. Et cela n'a été nulle part plus manifeste qu'à Liverpool, où les pertes causées par des incendies d'entrepôts ont été de quatre fois au moins plus sérieuses qu'elles ne le sont ordinairement.

Les primes nettes de l'année, déduction faite des sommes payées à d'autres bureaux pour diminuer le passif de la compagnie, se sont élevées à £881,006 5s. 9d., contre £801,615 18s. 11d. l'année précédente.

Les pertes nettes par incendies, y compris une somme suffisante pour couvrir toutes celles qui n'étaient pas définitivement établies lors de la clôture des comptes, s'élevèrent à £628,646 10s. 9d.

Le résultat des opérations de l'année, après avoir pourvu à toutes les dépenses, commissions, dettes sérieuses, dépréciations et tous autres frais, et d'un autre côté après avoir éréité l'intérêt sur les placements, etc., accuse un solde au crédit de la compagnie de £1,769 16s. 9d.

LONDON AND LANCASHIRE^W—Suite.

Les directeurs proposent de payer le 4 du mois prochain un dividende de 7s. par action, libre de la taxe du revenu, ce qui fera avec le dividende intérimaire de 3s. par action déjà payé, un total de 10s. par action, comme pendant les deux dernières années. Les directeurs désirent faire remarquer que cette politique de restreindre les dividendes contre laquelle on a parfois fait des commentaires et que l'on a qualifiée de parcimonieuse, est amplement justifiée par l'expérience de la dernière année. En effet c'est grâce au fait que la caisse de réserve a été augmentée de pas moins de £312,741 durant les trois années précédentes, que l'on peut aujourd'hui recommander le paiement du dividende ordinaire.

Dans le cours de l'année dernière les directeurs ont conclu un arrangement avec la Compagnie d'Assurance Générale sur la Vie et contre l'Incendie, de Londres, par lequel ils ont acquis les opérations contre l'incendie faites par cette compagnie, obtenant ainsi toutes les agences et l'achalandage, quant aux assurances contre l'incendie, d'une organisation dont la fondation remonte à l'année 1837. Cet achat a été payé comptant et non pas par l'émission de nouvelles actions. Le coût total de la transaction est porté au débit des comptes de l'année, et les directeurs croient sincèrement que les nombreuses et précieuses relations ainsi obtenues à Londres, de même que dans d'autres parties du Royaume-Uni, rapporteront plus tard de grands avantages à la compagnie.

Après avoir pourvu à l'achat mentionné plus haut et payé le dividende, la caisse de réserve et le solde à reporter s'élèveront à £676,355 16s. 6d. Ces chiffres ont été les suivants aux intervalles de trois ans :—

ÉTAT DES OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE FINISSANT LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Dublin, Irlande, 12 avril 1893.)

DÉPARTEMENT DE L'INCENDIE.

La compagnie, comme toutes les autres, a dû faire face à un montant extraordinaire de réclamations par suite d'incendie.

Les primes se sont élevées à £245,135 5s. 7d. ; les réclamations à £185,770 9s 5d., et les commissions et dépenses réunies à £77,750 1s. 4d.

La caisse de réserve des assurances contre l'incendie à la fin de l'année y compris £20,281 12s. 9. crédités du compte des profits et pertes était de £100,000.

PROFITS ET PERTES ET DIVIDENDES.

La balance au crédit du compte des profits et pertes, déduction faite de la somme de £20,281 12s. 9d., transférée à la caisse des assurances contre l'incendie, est de £5,534 1s. 3d. Les directeurs recommandent de payer, à même ce montant, la somme de £2,500, qui jointe à celle du dividende intérimaire de £4,000 payé en septembre dernier, formera 6½ pour 100 sur le capital versé. Après le paiement du dividende il restera £3,034 1s. 3d. à reporter au compte courant de l'année.

INCENDIE.

En 1892 les primes encaissées se sont élevées à	£1,784,120	6	10
Moins—les réassurances.....	316,801	14	6
			<hr/>
Primes nettes.....	£1,467,318	12	4
En 1891, les primes encaissées se sont élevées à.....	£1,734,761	8	8
Moins—les réassurances	292,830	2	1
			<hr/>
Primes nettes.....	1,441,931	6	7

Les pertes subies se sont élevées à la somme exceptionnellement considérable de £998,384 1s. 5d. Ce chiffre comprend une évaluation de toutes les réclamations d'indemnités antérieures au 31 décembre 1892.

Après la part faite de la réserve ordinaire d'un tiers des primes nettes de l'année, pour pourvoir aux obligations résultant des polices courantes, le solde à l'avoir du compte des profits et pertes en 1892 s'élève à £172,447 18s. 8d. Ce chiffre comprend £28,669 19s. 0d. du profit réalisé sur la vente de placements ainsi que le solde rapporté de 1891, £58,374 16s. 4d.

Les frais imputables au revenu dans le cours de l'an dernier accusent une diminution dans la proportion pour cent payée sur les primes, ce qui a été en partie occasionné par le fait qu'on n'a pas eu à payer en 1892 les frais exceptionnels de la fin de la période quinquennale de 1890. Un comité spécial du conseil s'occupe de la question des dépenses et l'on espère qu'il réussira à faire de nouvelles réductions.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES DE L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1891.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs d'Aberdeen, Ecosse, le 10 juin 1892.)

DÉPARTEMENT DES INCENDIES.

Les primes encaissées l'an dernier ont été de £689,298 11s. 3d., ce qui, comparé à celles de l'année précédente, montre une augmentation de £17,834 3s. 3d.

Les pertes se sont élevées à £124,547 16s. 1d., ou 61.6 pour 100 des primes; ce qui dépasse la proportion des pertes éprouvées depuis l'année 1884. La moyenne générale des pertes depuis l'établissement de la compagnie est maintenant de 59.04 pour 100.

Les frais d'administration (y compris la commission des agents et autres déboursés de toutes sortes) se sont élevés à £232,504 15s. 3d., ou 33.7 pour 100 des primes, ce qui est .9 pour 100 plus élevé que la proportion de l'année précédente, et presque identiquement celle de l'année 1889.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1891.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Norwich, Angleterre, 7 juin 1892.)

Le revenu net des primes pour l'année terminée le 31 décembre 1891, s'est élevé à.....	£	792,841
Le revenu net des primes pour 1890 s'élève à.....		748,347
Indiquant sur l'année précédente une augmentation de.....		44,494

Après avoir mis de côté un tiers des primes (£264,280) comme réserve pour faire face aux polices non terminées, le solde au crédit du compte des profits et pertes, y compris la balance non affectée à d'autres comptes, £137,143, rapportée de l'an dernier, est de £213,104, sur lequel un dividende intérimaire de £2 par action a été payé en janvier dernier, et un nouveau dividende de £2 et un boni de 10s. ont été déclarés par le conseil, et seront payables le 9 juin.

NORWICH UNION—Fin.

La balance indivise est de £163,604; £20,000 ont été ajoutés au fonds de réserve et £1,000 à la caisse des pensions et de secours des employés, en sorte qu'il reste £142,604 à reporter au crédit de la prochaine année.

Le pourcentage des pertes aux primes est de 59.62, contre 62.59 en 1890, et 63.03 en 1889.

Les actions sont aujourd'hui cotées aux bourses de Londres et de Liverpool.

(Reçu le 17 février 1893.)

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, Angleterre, le 13 juin 1892.)

Les primes encaissées, moins les réassurances, se sont élevées à £957,332 4s. 2d., soit une augmentation de £85,653 2s. 0d. comparativement à l'année précédente.

Le total des risques de l'année, déduction faite des réassurances, a été de £373,716,110, soit une augmentation de £12,238,490 sur les chiffres correspondants de l'année 1890.

Les pertes payées et à payer s'élèvent à £563,076 18s. 1d., soit au taux de 58.9 pour 100 sur les primes reçues.

Les frais d'administration (y compris la commission aux agents et les frais de toutes sortes) s'élèvent à £297,923 8s. 9d., soit au taux de 31.1 pour 100.

Le revenu provenant des placements a atteint durant l'année £69,250 14s. 5d., et après avoir pourvu à la réserve ordinaire de 40 pour 100 des primes pour couvrir les polices en cours, on a réalisé un profit de £130,321 6s. 11d., qui a été transféré à l'avoir du compte de profits et pertes.

laquelle a été portée par les opérations de l'année, ainsi que détaillé au compte, à £194,194 18s. 4d.

Il a été payé à même ce montant, en janvier dernier, un dividende intérimaire au taux de £5 sur chaque ancienne action du Bureau d'assurances Sun, soit £24,000, et les directeurs ont déclaré un autre dividende d'un montant équivalent, savoir : deux chelins sur chaque nouvelle action, ainsi qu'un boni de quatre chelins et six deniers sur chaque nouvelle action, payables le 11 juillet, ce qui prendra une autre somme de £78,000, laissant à reporter £92,194 18s. 4d.

CAPITAL.

Conformément aux dispositions de l'acte du parlement concernant la compagnie, qui a pris vigueur le 1er janvier 1892, la somme de £120,000 est transférée à cette date au compte du capital, soit 10 chelins par action versés sur chacune des 240,000 nouvelles actions de £10 chacune. Ce montant a été pris sur la réserve des dividendes, et le solde de ce compte est aujourd'hui de £10,000.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, Angleterre, le 28 avril 1893.)

Le revenu annuel de la société s'est accru durant l'année de la somme de £48,552 16s. 11d., ce qui l'a porté au total de £592,452 16s. 3d.

Les fonds accrus, qui s'élevaient à la fin de l'année précédente à £2,373,418, se sont encore augmentés de la somme de £63,812, en sorte que le total atteignait le 31

décembre 1892, le chiffre de £2,437,230. Cette augmentation comprend la somme de £31,162 10s. 2d., le profit réalisé sur la vente des actions ou la nouvelle évaluation quinquennale de la caisse d'assurances sur la vie.

On trouvera dans les comptes exigés par la loi, qui accompagnent le présent rapport, les détails des augmentations du revenu annuel et des fonds.

DÉPARTEMENT DES INCENDIES.

Les actionnaires savent que la dernière année a été très défavorable presque partout aux bureaux d'assurances contre l'incendie, et les directeurs regrettent que la Société d'Assurances Union ait eu à faire face, dans ses opérations en Angleterre, à un nombre exceptionnellement considérable de réclamations, et pourtant c'était pour la plus grande partie pour des risques que les principales sociétés entreprendraient sans hésiter.

Les primes encaissées dans la division des incendies, dans le cours de l'année, se sont élevées à la somme de £262,522 12s. 7d., près de quatre fois le chiffre correspondant d'il y a cinq ans. On comprendra facilement qu'un développement aussi considérable ait nécessité une réorganisation, tant au bureau principal qu'aux différentes succursales, à de très grands frais, naturellement. Ces dépenses ne se renouvelleront plus néanmoins.

Les pertes par incendie ont été durant l'année de £176,809 16s., et ce chiffre couvre l'évaluation complète de toutes les indemnités à payer. La proportion des réclamations par suite d'incendie, relativement aux primes encaissées, a été de 67 pour 100. Les directeurs n'ont pas raison de douter que les fortes pertes éprouvées dans les opérations d'assurances contre l'incendie, dans le cours de la dernière année, sont dues à des causes exceptionnelles, et le développement des affaires de la société rapporté plus haut, leur donne l'espoir d'obtenir des résultats avantageux dans l'avenir.

Les frais d'administration, y compris ceux de la réorganisation, se sont élevés à £43,512 18s. 2d., et les commissions et autres dépenses ont été de £49,164 3s. 11d., ce qui, ajouté à la somme payée pour indemnités, fait un total de £269,486 18s. 1d., soit £6,964 5s. 6d. de plus que le montant des primes encaissées.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Manchester, 12 avril 1893.)

Les primes nettes encaissées durant l'année se sont élevées à £409,211, soit £51 784 de plus qu'en 1891.

Les pertes par incendie ont été de £266,690, soit une augmentation de £18,934 sur l'année précédente, la proportion étant de 65 $\frac{2}{10}$.

Les commissions et frais d'exploitation sont dans la proportion de 32 $\frac{4}{10}$ des primes.

Le solde au crédit du compte des profits et pertes est de £25,162 9s. 11d., y compris £18,651 14s. 6d., le surplus de l'année, et les directeurs recommandent de payer un dividende au taux de 10 pour 100 pour le semestre finissant le 31 décembre dernier.

Un dividende intérimaire au taux de 5 pour 100 par année a été payé en octobre dernier pour la première moitié de l'année.

C'est l'espoir du bureau des directeurs qu'à raison des résultats défavorables des opérations d'assurances contre l'incendie dans le cours des deux dernières années, ainsi que d'une augmentation du passif, les actionnaires approuveront la faible réduction projetée du taux ordinaire du dividende.

Sauf l'approbation de l'assemblée des actionnaires, il sera délivré des mandats pour le paiement du dividende, libre de la taxe du revenu, le 15 du mois prochain.

Le chiffre total des fonds de la compagnie, à l'exclusion du capital, s'élèvera alors à £167,662 9s. 11d., et les directeurs se proposent de biffer sur cette somme un tiers, soit £2,310, du coût des opérations achetées, en sorte qu'il restera à reporter £165,352 9s. 11d.

La compagnie a adopté durant l'année l'Acte des transferts contrefaits de 1891 et 1892, et ne demandera rien aux cessionnaires.

Les opérations de la compagnie aux États-Unis d'Amérique et dans certains autres pays ont été confondues durant la dernière année avec celles de la Compagnie d'assurances Palatine, à responsabilité limitée, et l'on a fait les changements nécessaires dans les comptes des deux bureaux. Les directeurs sont fortement d'avis que la fusion complète des deux compagnies serait très avantageuse pour toutes deux, et ils espèrent soumettre, dans le cours de la présente année, le projet d'un arrangement de ce genre.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, Angleterre, 21 mars 1893.)

NOUVELLES OPÉRATIONS.

Dans le cours de l'exercice la compagnie a reçu 1,488 demandes d'assurances, s'élevant à £695,267. 1,243 polices ont été émises, couvrant £535,235, dont £33,595 ont été réassurées dans d'autres compagnies, faisant en nouvelles assurances £501,640.

Ministère des Finances—Division des Assurances.

BRITISH EMPIRE—Suite.

RÉCLAMATIONS.

Trois cent soixante et sept assurés sont décédés durant l'année. Le chiffre des réclamations d'indemnité résultant de 408 polices était de £127,061, y compris le boni de réversion. Les réclamations d'indemnités durant l'année, quant au nombre et au chiffre des assurances, sont restées dans les limites de l'expectative, suivant les tables de mortalité de l'institut des actuaires.

RENTES VIAGIÈRES.

Quatre contrats de rentes viagères immédiates ont été accordés pour £1,547 13s., les primes uniques sur ces contrats ayant été de £16,271.

Neuf rentiers viagers, recevant £314 5s. 10d. par année, sont morts dans le cours de l'exercice.

INTÉRÊT.

Les fonds placés ont rapporté un intérêt excédant le taux de £1 7s. 6d. pour 100. Le taux que rapporte le total des fonds placés et non placés a été de près de £4 5s. pour 100, déduction faite de la taxe du revenu.

DÉPENSES.

La réduction du montant dépensé pour les frais d'administration et les commissions annoncée dans les récents rapports s'est maintenue durant l'année, et on a encore effectué une nouvelle réduction dans la proportion.

REVENU DES PRIMES.

Le revenu total des primes (déduction faite des primes de réassurances) a été de £196,152.

FONDS.

Le total des fonds, le 31 décembre 1892, s'élevait à £1,621,504, soit une augmentation de £88,327 durant l'année.

POLICES EN VIGUEUR.

Les polices en vigueur le 31 décembre 1892, étaient de 20,563, assurant £6,300,000 (déduction faite des réassurances), y compris les additions de bonis.

ESTIMATION ET BONIS.

La nouvelle estimation se fera le 31 décembre prochain, et il y a tout lieu de croire que le boni qui sera déclaré à l'assemblée annuelle en avril 1894 sera satisfaisant pour les actionnaires.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, Angleterre, 3 mai 1893.)

DIVISION DE LA VIE.

Les nouvelles affaires de l'année comprennent 694 polices assurant £579,791, et les nouvelles primes incluses dans le compte s'élèvent à £21,096.

Les réclamations par suite de décès, £90,960, n'ont pas dépassé le montant prévu.

COMMERCIAL UNION—Fin.

L'excédent du revenu sur la dépense a été de £96,430, ce qui a porté la caisse des assurances sur la vie à £1,468,657.

La sixième évaluation quinquennale a donné pour résultat l'excédent divisible satisfaisant de £202,515, dont £41,666 aux actionnaires (y compris leur proportion des bonis intérimaires), et la balance de £160,849 va aux porteurs de polices, contre les montants respectifs de £30,057 et de £120,228, à la distribution précédente.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES DE L'ANNÉE FINISSANT LE 31 MARS 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Edimbourg, Ecosse, 5 juillet 1892.)

Le nombre des polices émises a été de 1,259, et les sommes assurées de £622,911, dont £78,470 ont été réassurées dans d'autres compagnies. Les primes sur ces nouvelles polices se sont élevées à £24,725, dont £4,389 en primes uniques. Les primes sur la somme réassurée ont été de £2,698, y compris £590 en primes uniques.

Le chiffre net des nouvelles assurances gardées par la compagnie à ses propres risques s'est élevé à £544,441, rapportant en nouvelles primes £22,027, dont £3,799 en primes uniques.

Dans le cours de l'exercice 36 contrats de rentes viagères, s'élevant à £2,515 0s. 2d. par année, ont été entrepris. Le prix d'achat s'est élevé à £27,782 17s. 1d.

D'un autre côté, par suite du décès de 28 rentiers viagers, la compagnie s'est trouvée libérée du paiement de £993 19s. 11d. par année.

RÉCLAMATIONS ET RACHAT.

Les réclamations d'indemnités pour cause de mort ou de survivances se sont élevées à £175,370 16s. 7d., déduction faite des sommes dues pour réassurances.

La somme de £8,906 8s. 3d. a été allouée comme valeur de rachat des polices abandonnées, et comme additions de bonis sur polices en vigueur échangées contre des paiements en argent. Il y a eu bien peu de polices abandonnées, par suite, certainement, de l'approche de l'époque où se fait la division des bonis.

REVENU ET FONDS.

Le revenu des primes de l'année (déduction faite des primes payées pour les réassurances) a été de £234,819 11s. 1d., soit £5,907 12s. 9d. de plus que l'an dernier.

Les intérêts et dividendes sur les fonds placés se sont élevés à £106,351 0s. 5d., soit une augmentation de £3,471 8s.

Le revenu total, à part le prix d'achat des rentes viagères et du bénéfice sur les placements, a été de £341,283 6s. 6d.

Les opérations ordinaires de l'année ont laissé une balance de £121,844 16s. 9d. à reporter à la caisse des assurances et des rentes viagères.

Les directeurs, lors de l'enquête septennale des opérations de la compagnie, ont cru sage de mettre de côté £25,000 afin de former une caisse de réserve des placements. Après avoir déduit cette somme et inscrit à l'avoir £11,455 5s. 5d. comme profit sur les placements, la caisse des assurances et des rentes viagères s'élève aujourd'hui à £2,545,043 8s. 10d.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES DE L'EXERCICE TERMINÉ LE 5 AVRIL 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Edimbourg, Écosse, 12 juillet 1891.)

Le chiffre total des nouvelles opérations complétées et payées sur 1,582 polices, s'est élevé à la somme considérable de £996,064, rapportant en nouvelles primes £29,886 5s. 9d. C'est de nouveau un des plus forts montants de nouvelles assurances entreprises par l'association dans une seule année, et le chiffre dépasse de £91,000 la moyenne annuelle des nouvelles affaires dans le cours des cinq années précédentes.

De nouveaux contrats de rentes viagères, au chiffre de 83, ont été achetés au prix de £48,223, pour la somme annuelle de £5,128.

Le revenu total des primes et de l'intérêt (à l'exclusion du prix d'achat des rentes viagères) s'est élevé à £516,964, contre £507,828 l'année précédente, ou une augmentation de £9,136.

Les réclamations par suite de décès durant l'année se sont élevées à £327,776, un chiffre beaucoup plus considérable que pour toute année antérieure. D'après la table de mortalité de l'Institut des Actuaires, le nombre des polices qui devaient prendre fin par suite de mort était de 657 ; il a été au contraire de 729. Les chiffres dans les différentes classes de polices sont comme suit :—

Classe A—décès prévus	376	Classe B—décès prévus.....	154
do do actuels	459	do do actuels.....	151
Classe A3—décès prévus	117	Classe B2—décès prévus.....	10
do do actuels.....	110	do do actuels.....	9

Comme toutes les autres compagnies d'assurances, l'association s'est ressentie, d'une manière notable, des effets de l'épidémie de l'influenza qui a de nouveau sévi dans le pays pendant la dernière année. Pas moins de 130 réclamations pour un montant de £62,435 peuvent être directement ou indirectement attribuées à cette maladie. D'après l'analyse suivante des réclamations dues à l'influenza, on verra que la classe A, qui comprend la plus grande partie des anciens risques de l'association, a le plus souffert par suite de cette cause :

Classe A—80 polices s'élevant à..£	41,568	Classe B—21 polices s'élevant à..£	7,400
do A3—27 do do ..	13,167	do B2— 2 do do ..	300

Il n'y a pas lieu de s'attendre qu'une expérience de cette nature sous le rapport de la mortalité provenant de causes exceptionnelles et inévitables doive se renouveler.

Les décès survenus parmi les rentiers viagers (qui ont pour l'association un résultat tout opposé à celui des décès des assurés) ont été de 44, annulant le paiement annuel de rentes viagères au montant de £2,346, tandis qu'ils n'avaient été l'année dernière que de 26 pour des rentes viagères de £1,087.

La proportion des dépenses au revenu des primes est un peu plus forte que l'an dernier, mais dépasse de très peu le taux moyen de la période quinquennale entière, de 1887 à 1891. L'on doit se rappeler que les comptes actuellement soumis comprennent une partie considérable des dépenses entraînées par l'estimation quinquennale et la distribution des profits le 5 avril 1891.

Les fonds de l'association se sont augmentés de £73,876 durant l'année, malgré que les réclamations aient été beaucoup plus considérables que d'habitude, et que l'on ait payé plus de £32,000 aux porteurs de polices, sous forme de bonis en argent.

Les placements de fonds, lors de la fermeture des comptes, rapportaient en moyenne £4 0s. 8d. pour £100, contre £4 0s. 4d. et £4 0s. 3d. respectivement pour £100; à la fin des années 1891 et 1890; d'un autre côté le taux sur lequel sont basés tous les calculs d'assurances de l'association n'est que de 3½ pour 100.

Le 5 avril 1892—

Les bonis en argent payés et les additions de bonis se sont élevés à.....	1,900,865
Les fonds en caisse étaient de.....	3,805,286

Des bonis sont accordés annuellement aux porteurs de polices de la classe A, et malgré l'excessive mortalité dans cette classe, comme il est dit plus haut, les directeurs ont cependant le plaisir d'annoncer que, grâce à la base plus satisfaisante que l'on a adopté l'année dernière pour l'évaluation de cette classe de polices, il ne sera pas nécessaire de proposer aucune diminution du taux des bonis en argent actuellement en cours. En conséquence, ils déclarent maintenant les bonis en argent suivants pour les polices ordinaires de vie entière, à primes payables à vie, pour l'année commençant le 6 avril 1893, lesquels seront appliqués comme par le passé au paiement partiel des primes échéant dans le cours de l'année, savoir :—35 pour 100 aux assurés le ou avant le 5 avril 1855; 25 pour 100 aux assurés du 6 avril 1855 au 5 avril 1860; 20 pour 100 aux assurés du 6 avril 1860 au 5 avril 1865; 17½ pour 100 aux assurés du 6 avril 1865 au 5 avril 1871; 15 pour 100 aux assurés du 6 avril 1871, au terme de la classe. Dans le cas d'assurances ne comportant qu'un certain nombre de primes et des assurances de dotation, les bonis en argent sont précisément du même montant que si c'étaient des assurances ordinaires avec primes à vie.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES DE L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, Angleterre, avril 1893.)

Bien que le taux moyen de l'intérêt sur les fonds placés ou non placés ait été pendant les dernières cinq années de £4 6s. 9d. pour £100, cependant, par suite de la difficulté croissante d'obtenir un bon taux d'intérêt, avec garantie certaine, les directeurs ont décidé que le temps était arrivé de baser la table H. M de 3½ pour 100, pour une grande partie des affaires, en conservant, toutefois, celle de 4 pour 100 pour les opérations du Canada et d'autres pays, à l'exception des Indes, où celle de 3 pour 100 régit. Cette estimation plus sévère entraîne nécessairement un sacrifice temporaire, mais le changement est si important dans l'intérêt de la compagnie que les directeurs sont certains que tous les membres l'approuveront.

Quant aux opérations de l'an dernier, il est constaté que les nouvelles assurances ont été plus considérables que pendant toute année antérieure.

Les demandes d'assurances reçues pendant l'année ont été de 2,422 pour £ 891,064 0 0

LONDON AND LANCASHIRE, SUR LA VIE—Suite.

Les nouvelles primes sur ces polices ont rapporté £28,126 11s. 5d., soit une augmentation de £3,992 14s. 3d. sur l'année précédente.

L'âge moyen est encore très faible, soit de 32.6 pour les nouvelles polices, et de 41.2 pour toutes les polices en vigueur.

Le revenu total des primes pendant la dernière année s'est élevé à £183,967 0s. 4d., et après déduction des réassurances, le chiffre net était de £175,494 10s. 7d., accusant une augmentation de £10,329 1s. 6d.

Les réclamations d'indemnités résultant de décès en vertu de 222 polices, y compris les additions de bonis, se sont élevées à £81,953 0s. 8d., et celles résultant de dotations échues à £11,333 8s. 8d.

Le revenu total de l'année, ainsi que l'indiquent les comptes apurés, a été de £210,747 15s. 10d., y compris £35,188 7s. 3d. reçus en intérêt et dividendes, le taux moyen d'intérêt sur les fonds placés et non placés étant de £4 8s. 9d. pour 100.

Après avoir pourvu au paiement du dividende et du boni aux actionnaires et à toutes les autres dépenses, il restait un solde de £58,285 10s. 8d. sur les chiffres des opérations de l'année, ce qui porte le total des fonds le 31 décembre 1892 à £840,096 14s. 11d.

Le tableau suivant indique l'augmentation annuelle des fonds ainsi que le progrès général de la compagnie pendant la dernière période quinquennale :—

ÉVALUATION QUINQUENNALE.

Relativement à ce qui a été dit dans le premier paragraphe du présent rapport au sujet de la base de l'évaluation, on a eu pour résultat, comme l'indique l'état suivant, un excédent de £23,244 10s., après avoir réservé pour les profits et dépenses futures, pendant la durée des polices, tout ce qui est désigné sous le terme de charges (loading), c'est-à-dire, la différence entre la prime payée par les porteurs de polices et la prime (pure) et nette. La valeur de ces charges est de £406,613.

Un cinquième de l'excédent, savoir : £4,648 18s., ajouté à £548 9s. 11d., le montant de l'excédent non divisé de l'année 1887, donne £5,197 7s. 11d. qui appartiennent à la caisse des actionnaires. Ce montant, plus l'intérêt ordinaire de 5 pour 100, permettra de faire une distribution de 5 pour 100, sous forme de bonis, durant les cinq années courantes, soit en tout 10 pour 100.

Le reste de l'excédent pourvoiera au paiement d'un boni réversible de £2 10s pour £100, pendant cinq ans, sur toutes les polices à vie, avec participation, en vigueur.

Le montant divisible cette fois est moins considérable, non seulement à raison d'une plus sévère évaluation, mais encore par suite de la forte mortalité durant les trois dernières années de la période quinquennale, ce qui a été dû en grande partie à l'épidémie d'influenza, ainsi qu'à l'échéance de quelques-unes des polices importantes; le nombre de décès, toutefois, n'a pas de beaucoup dépassé le chiffre prévu.

* Basée sur la Table H. M. de l'Institut des Actnaires à $4\frac{1}{2}$ pour 100.

† L'actif ci-dessus comprend une somme de $100,000 en hypothèques garanties avancées par quelques-uns des directeurs de la compagnie sous l'autorité d'un acte en date du 19 décembre 1889, exécuté par les dits directeurs et une grande partie des actionnaires, dans lequel, après avoir exposé que la compagnie avait encouru des frais considérables et dépensé une forte somme de son actif, en conséquence desquels une partie du capital de la compagnie avait été placée d'une manière qui tout en étant avantageuse pour la compagnie et ses porteurs de polices et actionnaires, paraissait inévitablement dans les livres de la compagnie comme une diminution de capital, il était déclaré et stipulé que la somme ainsi avancée ne serait ni directement ni indirectement une obligation de la compagnie, mais un paiement par ces directeurs sur leur compte personnel pour couvrir les frais ci-dessus mentionnés, afin qu'ils ne paraissent pas avoir été faits à même l'actif de la compagnie. L'acte stipule aussi, dans le cas où la compagnie discontinuerait ses opérations, qu'un transfert serait fait aux dits directeurs des actions des actionnaires portées à cet acte, et de leurs droits et intérêts dans l'actif de la compagnie, lors d'une liquidation de ces opérations, dans le but de rembourser à ces directeurs le montant de leurs avances, l'excédent devant être remis aux actionnaires.

Sur cette somme de $100,000 les actionnaires ont volontairement payé depuis le commencement de l'année 1893, aux directeurs qui l'avaient avancée, $60,000, en sorte qu'il ne restait le 1er juillet 1893 qu'une somme de $40,000 de l'actif de la compagnie soumis à l'acte du 16 décembre 1889, et l'on espère que vers la fin de l'année en cours cette dernière somme aura été volontairement versée par les actionnaires et que le dit acte sera annulé.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES DE L'EXERCICE TERMINÉ LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1892.

Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Edimbourg, Ecosse, 12 mai 1893.

ASSURANCES SUR LA VIE.

Pendant l'année 1893 il a été délivré 7,275 polices, assurant £2,464,627, dont les primes se sont élevées à £88,427 4s. 11d. En 1891 le nombre de polices était de 3,688, assurant £1,936,495 et rapportant en nouvelles primes £76,680 1s. 2d.

Le chiffre net assuré en 1892, déduction faite des sommes réassurées, a été de £2,302,827. Le chiffre des primes nouvelles, déduction faite des réassurances, a été de £82,774 19s. 7d. C'est de beaucoup la plus forte année d'affaires de la compagnie. Le chiffre net assuré en 1891 était de £1,670,790, et celui des primes, £63,287 14s. 3d.

Les nouvelles assurances sur la vie effectuées en 1892 d'après l'arrangement fait avec la Société d'assurances du Service Civil, se sont élevées à $1,214,478, en vertu de 5,548 polices, les primes s'élevant à £45,540 3s. 8d.

Le chiffre net des assurances ordinaires en 1892, à part les assurances du service civil, est aussi plus considérable que pendant toute autre année antérieure.

Le chiffre des assurances ordinaires en 1891 a été de.....	£ 1,030,101
En 1892.....	1,088,349
Augmentation.....	£ 58,428

NORTH BRITISH AND MERCANTILE—Suite.

Le revenu des primes et de l'intérêt sur les opérations de l'année sur la vie s'est élevé en 1892 à £879,535 9s. 9d.

Pendant l'année 1892, il a été établi 557 décès, par lesquels 677 polices ont été dé gagées et 53 dotations sont échues. Les sommes qu'il a fallu déboursier pour ces deux chefs se sont élevées, avec les additions de bonis, et après avoir déduit les réas- surances, à £521,292 13s. 7d.

On verra par le bilan ci-joint que la caisse des assurances sur la vie s'élève main- tenant à £6,101,739 7s. 8d. Il y eut donc pendant l'année une augmentation de £240,905 9s. 5d.

RENTES VIAGÈRES.

Dans la division des rentes viagères il a été délivré 438 contrats, garantissant la somme de £26,060 15s. 1d. annuellement de rentes viagères immédiates, £215 annuel- lement de rentes viagères de survivance, et £337 15s. 0d. de rentes viagères différées, pour lesquelles la compagnie a reçu £123 19s. 4d. en primes annuelles. En 1891, le nombre des contrats avait été de 367, garantissant la somme de £20,626 1s. 0d. de rentes viagères immédiates, £1,085 annuellement de rentes viagères de survivance, et £443 4s. 6d. de rentes viagères différées, et la compagnie avait reçu la somme de £218,012 10s. 4d. en primes uniques et £695 13s. 7d. en primes annuelles.

116 rentes viagères ont pris fin pendant l'année, dégageant la compagnie du paie- ment de la somme de £7,841 13s. 10d. annuellement de rentes viagères immédiates, et de £420 de rentes viagères différées et de survivance.

Les fonds accrus des divisions d'assurances sur la vie et des rentes viagères sont placés séparément, et d'après l'acte du parlement, ils sont réservés afin de faire face aux réclamations échéant dans ces divisions des affaires de la compagnie.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, Angleterre, 25 avril 1893.)

Le chiffre des opérations d'assurances proposé à la société en 1892 a été de £327,816, et il a été délivré des polices pour un montant de £180,295 moyennant des primes uniques et annuelles de £8,150 15s. 7d.

Le total du revenu des primes s'est élevé à £87,942 0s. 1d., mais l'on a payé à d'autres bureaux pour réassurances à même ce montant £9,361 12s. 5d. Le revenu net pendant la dernière année, y compris l'intérêt sur les placements, a été de £107,085 8s. 8d.

Les réclamations par suite de décès ont été de 180 pour un montant de £83,335 3s. 10d., et celles provenant de polices de dotation de 20, pour un montant de £3,676 14s. 10d., soit en tout pour ces deux chefs, de £87,012 3s. 8d.

La mort de deux rentiers viagers a dégagé la compagnie du paiement de deux rentes viagères s'élevant à £60.

Les directeurs regrettent de constater que la société ait été éprouvée par un nombre exceptionnel de décès provenant en grande partie de maladies épidémiques graves.

L'actif entier a été soumis à une évaluation sévère, et l'on a cru nécessaire de biffer des montants considérables par suite de la dépréciation d'immeubles et autres propriétés. Les fonds accrus de la compagnie s'élèvent aujourd'hui à la somme de £718,578 6s. 4d.

Les porteurs de polices ont été pleinement mis au fait, par la circulaire du secrétaire, en date du 7 courant, des conditions de l'arrangement conclu par cette société d'assurances sur la vie NORWICH UNION, et une assemblée sera convoquée incessamment pour adopter une résolution au sujet de cet arrangement.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES DE L'EXERCICE TERMINÉ LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1891.

(Extrait durapport des directeurs, Liverpool, Ang., 24 juin 1892.)

DÉPARTEMENT DES ASSURANCES SUR LA VIE.

Dans le cours de l'année de nouvelles assurances ont été demandées au montant de £848,120, sur lesquelles £760,759 ont été complétées, et le chiffre correspondant des primes annuelles, à la clôture des comptes, était de £28,783 10s. 7. Les demandes auxquelles il n'a pas été donné suite s'élevaient à £98,488. Le revenu total des primes, déduction faite des réassurances, était de £329,855 2s. 9d., et l'intérêt provenant des placements, à part celui résultant de la caisse des rentes viagères, se chiffrait par £150,387 7s. 6d. Les réclamations d'indemnité se décomposent comme suit pour l'année :—

Par décès—Sommes originairement assurées.....	£199,247	11	11
Additions de bonis sur ces sommes.....	31,676	5	7
Par dotations échues (y compris les dotations d'enfants) :—

Additions de bonis sur ces polices.....	2,238	12	1
	£253,7	2	1 0

Dans le département des rentes viagères, le prix d'achat reçu pour les nouvelles rentes viagères, joint aux primes sur les rentes viagères éventuelles, s'élevait à £13,414 5s. 5d., et l'intérêt à £8,223 17s. 11d. Cinquante-quatre rentes viagères se sont éteintes durant l'année, libérant la compagnie du paiement annuel de £1,938 18s. 3d.

Après avoir payé toutes les réclamations d'indemnités, rentes viagères, bonis en argent et dépenses de toutes sortes, un solde de £162,672 14s. 9d. a été ajouté aux fonds des assurances sur la vie, formant pour les départements de la vie et des rentes viagères de la compagnie, y compris les fonds des départements de la vie et des rentes viagères de la Queen, une accumulation de fonds de £4,546,576 15s. 4d.

L'acte du parlement confirmant l'arrangement pour le transfert des opérations de la Compagnie d'assurances Queen a été sanctionné par Sa Majesté le 3 juillet dernier, et les comptes actuellement soumis comprennent les opérations de cette compagnie durant le deuxième semestre de l'année seulement. On trouvera ci-annexé un état de compte indiquant comment on a réparti les garanties de cette compagnie entre les différentes caisses de la Royal.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES DE L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1891.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Glasgow, 5 mai 1892.)

Les directeurs doivent faire rapport qu'ils ont reçu et accepté durant l'année terminée le 31 décembre dernier, 694 demandes d'assurances, s'élevant en totalité à £419,823. Ces demandes ont eu pour résultat la délivrance de 602 polices qui ont été prises par les assurés pour la somme de £357,023; les nouvelles primes sur ces assurances, y compris £2,662 13s. 1d. de primes uniques—se sont élevées à £13,447 6s. 5d. A part cela la somme de £10,675 15s. 6d. fut reçue pour les rentes viagères accordées durant l'année.

Le nombre de décès pendant l'année 1891 a été de 272, qui ont donné lieu à des réclamations se chiffrant par £199,773 6s. 3d., y compris les additions de bonis et déduction faite des réassurances.

La société a aussi payé la somme de £10,800 pour des polices de survivance.

Par le décès de 16 rentiers viagers la compagnie s'est trouvée libérée de paiements annuels s'élevant à £1,809 12s. par année.

Les comptes ci-annexés montrent que le revenu total a été de £352,003 14s. 11d. et les dépenses totales de £264,648 19s., laissant £87,354 15s. 11d. à ajouter aux fonds qui s'élevaient le 31 décembre dernier à £3,190,384 4s.

EDIMBOURG, 16 février 1893.

JAMES GRAHAM WATSON,
Gérant.

(Reçu le 1er mars 1893.)

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES DE L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Edimbourg, Ecosse, 29 mars 1893.)

Sur 2,162 demandes reçues, pour £1,455,665 12s. 3d., 1,936 polices ont été complétées, pour une somme de £1,260,738 12s. 3d.

Les nouvelles primes ont été de £69,054 13s. 10d.—dont £28,197 10s. 1d. en paiements uniques. £71,500 ont été réassurés dans d'autres bureaux. Une nouvelle somme de £52,015 4s. 7d. a été reçue pour l'achat de rentes viagères.

Les primes de toutes catégories reçues dans l'année se sont élevées à £616,725 9s. 5d., ou à £607,700 1s. 8d., déduction faite des sommes payées pour réassurances. Les recettes totales de l'année, y compris les intérêts, ont atteint le chiffre de £950,480 4s. 3d.

Les réclamations provoquées par le décès de 503 membres ont été au nombre de 696,—la somme payable, y compris les additions de bonis, £480,499 12s. 4d. Des assurances de dotations s'élevant à £9,100 sont aussi venues dues. Le total des réclamations s'est ainsi élevé à £489,599 12s. 4d. D'un autre côté l'institution s'est trouvée libérée du paiement de £1,917 1s. 8d. en rentes viagères annuelles.

Les réclamations sous le rapport du nombre convenu du chiffre ont été considérablement plus élevées que pendant toute autre année antérieure. L'on doit noter cependant que les deux tiers au moins du montant comprenaient des polices qui avaient participé à l'excédent, et que les additions de bonis sur ces polices atteignaient en moyenne près de 50 pour 100 des assurances primitives.

La proportion des dépenses, malgré la forte augmentation de nouvelles affaires, a été un peu moins forte que l'année dernière, et était de moins de 10 pour 100 des primes, ou d'environ 6 pour 100 du revenu entier.

Les fonds réalisés le 31 décembre 1892, déduction faite des réclamations admises mais alors impayées, et des comptes à payer, s'étaient élevés à £8,126,375 8s. 9d., de sorte que l'augmentation de l'année a été de £324,944 0s. 7d.

Ministère des Finances—Division des Assurances.

SCOTTISH PROVIDENT—Fin.

Les directeurs prennent le plus grand soin afin de placer les fonds avec profit et sûreté, et ils ont cru dans l'intérêt de la compagnie de présenter un bill au parlement afin d'obtenir de nouvelles facilités sous ce rapport. Conformément aux ordres permanents du parlement, une assemblée générale spéciale des membres a été tenue le 25 janvier dernier, afin de considérer les conditions du bill projeté, et l'assemblée les a approuvées à l'unanimité. Le bill sera sans doute bientôt dans les statuts. Cependant, avant de donner suite à quelqu'une de ces dispositions l'on devra passer une résolution spéciale définissant les pouvoirs de placement à deux assemblées générales spéciales des membres convoquées pour cette fin.

Signé et attesté sous serment le 8 mars 1893, par

W. M. RAMSAY,
Gérant pour le Canada.

(Reçu le 9 mars 1893.)

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 15 NOVEMBRE 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Edimbourg, Ecosse, 11 avril 1892.)

Demandes d'assurances pendant l'année 1891 (3,918), représentant £2,295,525. Chiffre des assurances acceptées pendant l'année (pour lesquelles il a été délivré 3,455 polices), £1,766,842. Primes annuelles sur les nouvelles polices de l'année, £68,156. Réclamations en vertu de polices pendant l'année (y compris les additions de bonis, £694,056. Réclamations en vertu de dotations échues durant l'année, £11,885. Assurances en vigueur le 15 novembre 1892, £22,438,181. Fonds accumulés, £7,741,654. Revenu annuel, £1,022,610.

Ces chiffres témoignent du fait que la compagnie continue à progresser d'une manière satisfaisante. L'année dernière le conseil d'administration a eu le plaisir d'annoncer que les nouvelles assurances étaient plus considérables que pendant toute autre année antérieure, et cette année le nombre et le chiffre des polices se trouvent encore beaucoup plus forts que jamais auparavant.

La proportion des dépensés et de la commission relativement au revenu des primes a décré pendant l'année de $\frac{4}{10}$ pour 100.

Le total des fonds s'est augmenté durant l'année de £52,000, et le taux moyen de l'intérêt acquis sur ces fonds est de £4 2s. 3d. pour 100.

La liste des décès arrivés dans le cours de l'année est très longue, par suite principalement de l'épidémie d'influenza qui a continué à sévir au commencement de 1892, et la somme totale payée en indemnités est la plus forte que la compagnie ait enregistrée;—elle excède, avec les additions de bonis, £700,000.

La mortalité éprouvée par la compagnie, tant au pays qu'à l'étranger, ne dépasse pas cependant le chiffre de la table de mortalité d'après laquelle les calculs sont basés.

La liste des réclamations comprend, comme la chose a été mentionnée, des assurances de dotations pour un montant de £11,000, item qui augmentera d'année en année à mesure que les polices délivrées en vertu de ce système d'assurances aujourd'hui si populaire arriveront à maturité, quand l'assuré atteindra l'âge auquel la police est payable d'après l'arrangement.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 DÉCEMBRE 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Londres, Angleterre, 21 mars 1893.)

Le revenu net des primes, déduction faite des réassurances, a été de £56,137 11s.

Les réclamations, y compris la réserve pour celles qui sont actuellement à l'examen, se sont élevées à £23,012. 7s. 7d.

On a fait le dépôt exigé par la loi d'assurance de l'Etat de New-York, et des arrangements sont à se conclure pour développer les opérations de la compagnie aux Etats-Unis sous la direction de M. A. C. Edwards, qui s'est occupé depuis un certain nombre d'années de la division canadienne. Le bureau principal pour les Etats-Unis a été fixé à Chicago, Ill.

A ce propos, les directeurs ont réparti entre les membres de la compagnie et les personnes désignées par eux, d'après l'autorisation qui leur en avait été donnée à l'assemblée du 24 mars 1891, 1,776 actions ordinaires de £5 chacune, dont £2 payés à une prime de £4 par action, et 5,000 actions privilégiées, 5 pour 100, de £5 chacune, payées entièrement au pair. Le capital souscrit de la compagnie est ainsi porté à £150,000, dont £75,000 sont versés.

Les directeurs recommandent qu'en outre de la prime reçue sur la nouvelle émission du capital, moins les frais de l'émission, (évalués à £104), £5,000 soient reportés comme jusqu'ici de la caisse du revenu à celle de la réserve, laquelle atteindra alors le chiffre de £85,000.

Les directeurs recommandent de plus le paiement d'un dividende (1) sur les actions privilégiées au taux de 5 pour 100 par année jusqu'au 31 décembre 1892; (2) sur les actions ordinaires, 4 chelins par action, ce qui, joint au dividende intérimaire payé en septembre, fera 3 chelins par action libre de la taxe du revenu; ils recommandent de plus le paiement d'un boni de 2 chelins par action, également libre de la taxe sur le revenu.

OPÉRATIONS GÉNÉRALES POUR L'ANNÉE TERMINÉE LE 31 AOÛT 1892.

(Extrait du rapport des directeurs, Norwich, Angleterre, 5 décembre 1892.)

L'état des comptes pour l'année terminée le 31 août dernier indique que les primes se sont élevées à la somme de £77,010 5s. 5d., contre £75,735 1s. 5d. l'année précédente, et que le revenu total de l'association, y compris l'intérêt sur les fonds placés, a été de £83,608 19s. 7d., un progrès constant que les directeurs voient avec beaucoup de satisfaction. Le montant payé en indemnités a été de £38,071 4s., contre £38,861 4s. l'année précédente. Comme d'habitude les directeurs ont mis de côté un tiers des primes de l'année afin de couvrir les risques non expirés sur les polices en cours, et après avoir fait l'addition de £5,000 à la caisse de réserve, qui s'élevé maintenant à £50,000, il reste un solde libre de £19,557 10s. 4d., à même lequel ils recommandent de payer aux actionnaires un nouveau dividende de 9s. par action (libre de la taxe sur le revenu), soit avec le dividende intérimaire payé en juin dernier la somme de 14s. par action. Le total de l'actif de l'association s'élève maintenant à la somme de £201,522 17s. 4d.
