Bruce Old Boys Excursion train passing through here last Friday with seven coaches attracted quite a bit of attention, but very few of Mildmay's Old Boys took advantage of this excursion. Either the ex-Mildmay boys have so much money that travelling on an excursion train looks too cheap for them, or they hadn't enough money to buy an excursion ticket.

According to a statement in the Daily Mail and Empire of Thursday July 10th, there are four constituencies wherein bye-elections are pending, namely, South Bruce, East Middlesex, South Lanark and Chateauguay. The issue of the writs is not expected until autumn. Only in South Bruce are the Candidates in the field. South Bruce, with 103 of a Conservative majority, and Chateauguay with 40 liberal make a good fighting ground, while South Lanark and Middlesex are reputed to be safely conservative.

Our Post Office Department has received notice warning them against allowing notices other than post office notices from being exhibited in the lobby of their office. This, in future, will prevent the walls being covered with all kinds of notices, bills, and various advertisements. This order is a mandate from the Government, and should bills be torn down at once and destroyed by the postmaster, the public will have no reason to blame him, as he is only doing his duty, following advices received from Headquarters.

Miss Maud Kramer has been spending the past two weeks at Berlin and Toronto.

Prize lists for the Carrick Fall Show to be held at Mildmay on Sept. 29 and 30th, will be issued shortly. The list, as revised this year, will be the most attractive ever presented to the public.

An effort is being made by the newspapers and wholesale houses, to have the express rate on papers lowered and in this way help to cheapen the cost of production. As it is now, papers all over the country are forced to raise both subscription and advertising rates.

Dr. Doering is on a driving tour through Waterloo County and will be away about ten days. Doc is at present in Wilmot Township, and says that the crops in Carrick are far in advance of other townships he has passed through.

Miss Margaret Mahoney, Mildmay Separate School, took the highest marks in this town in her Entrance exams, with Stuart Thompson, S. S. No. 7, Carrick, a close second. Miss Mahoney took 824 out of a possible 850, with Stuart Thompson ranging closely behind with 501.

A large number from here attended the Garden Party, held at Wm. McKee's property near Belmore on Tuesday. Refreshments were served and a pleasant outing enjoyed. The music was particularly pleasing, being furnished by Wingham Citizens Band and Prof. James Johnston of Hamilton. The party was held under the auspices of Belmore Presbyterian Church.

North Grey elected C. S. Cameron, on Tuesday to represent that riding by a Conservative majority of 278. The election is all the more surprising in that Hon. A. G. MacKay held the riding for years and at the last election in 1911, had a majority of 741. The victory is no doubt due to the fact that Owen Sound went very strongly for Cameron, while the defeated member had the majority in the rural sections.

Misplaced Commas.

A comma is a very little thing, but if misplaced, they very much alter the sense, and sometimes spoil it altogether, as the following sentence will show: "Lord Palmerston then entered upon his head, a white hat upon his feet, large, but well polished boots upon his brow, a dark cloud in his hand, his faithful walking stick in his eye, a dark menacing glare saying nothing." Some of our school pupils might re-write this sentence, properly placing the commas.

"Cargill Limited."

In another column will be found a reference to the forming of a Company to take over the several interests of Mr. W. D. Cargill at Carrick. It may seem a curious coincidence that this Company should be launched at and during the time Mr. Cargill is before the electors as a candidate for Parliamentary honors but the fact is that the organization of this company was begun last February, long before there was any thought of a possible election in South Bruce. Mr. Cargill has for some years felt the necessity of consolidating his various enterprises in one Company.

Critical Operation.

Drs. Sichelair and McCue performed a very critical operation on Tuesday morning on Elmer, the little 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Scheffer of Formosa. The little fellow had for some time been suffering with what was thought to be an abscess on the cheek immediately beneath the right eye, but in the course of the operation it was found to be a tooth which had been pushed out of place and had grown upwards towards the eye. The operation was successful, and from latest reports he is said to be doing well.

Civic Holiday Celebration.

The Southampton Lodge of I.O.O.F. are putting on a celebration there the last of this month, Thursday the 31st, being civic holiday in that town. Arrangements will in all likelihood be made to have the same date observed as the Annual Holiday here, to give our citizens the opportunity of spending that day at the beach, as there will no doubt be cheap fares. An offer has been received by the local football club to play against the Walkerton eleven, the winning team to receive expenses and twelve dollars. Mildmay will have its full strength league team, and the battle between these old rivals is sure to be a warm one. Mildmay having defeated Walkerton 4 to 1 on their own grounds are confident of doing the trick again and are anxious to rake in the shekels offered as an inducement to make this the hardest fought game of the season.

A Surprise.

A large number of Miss Sadie Herringer's young friends assembled at her home on Absalom street last Monday evening and spent a very enjoyable time in card-playing, singing and dancing. Although the event came as a complete surprise, the hostess of the evening served an excellent lunch, which was done ample justice to, of course. Among the guests were included Miss Lottie Kirby and her brother from Belmore. Miss Herringer, who has been making her home in Toronto for some time past, returns to that place on Friday next, after having spent two weeks with her parents here. The evening's enjoyment was concluded by the song "Auld Lang Syne."

Replacing Mill-Wheel.

The E. Witter Co., is this week blasting up the flume at the Aetna Mills, with the intention of replacing the old waterwheel with a more up-to-date one, which is to give greater power in future for the manufacture of their popular flour. The new wheel and total costs of installation will run into a fancy figure, the estimated cost aggregating something like $2,000. The blasting was heard all over the town, and caused some wonderment until the cause was discovered. One unusually heavy blast shattered fourteen panes of glass in the Aetna Mills, and we hear there has been one or two narrow escapes from being struck with flying rock, however, through no fault of the mill owners. The project of replacing the wheel will be some contract, as all the old cement has to be blasted and removed to make way for the new. When the machinery is installed it will give this mill a better service than formerly and will help materially in turning out and out the work at a faster rate, will thus make this mill more up-to-date and efficient.

Kicked by Horse.

An accident of a painful and serious nature befell Mr. John Renwick, son of Mr. Walter Renwick of Concession 1, Carrick on Sunday afternoon last. While working around a young colt, he received a kick in the face over the right eye, rendering him unconscious, being found in this condition some time later by his brother, and up to a late hour Monday night he had remained in this state. Drs. Clapp and Wilson of Mildmay were immediately called in and did everything possible for the young man and at latest reports he is given good hopes for recovery. The report spread around town early Tuesday morning that he had lost his eye, but this report was later found to be incorrect. Mr. Renwick is a young man about twenty-one years of age and has been living on a farm on the first Concession of Carrick, near Belmore. Owing to the fact that he had not recovered consciousness up to the time of writing, and that nobody witnessed the unfortunate mishap, we cannot learn just how the accident occurred. The doctors are hopeful, however, and state that, except in the event of concussion of the brain setting in there is every possible chance for his recovery.

Obituary.

Our one sad duty this week is to report the death and funeral of Margaret Heisz, which took place Friday last at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Heisz, First Street, Mildmay. Although Miss Heisz had been suffering for the past half year with tuberculosis and was known to have been for some time in a critical condition, the news of her death came as a shock and complete surprise to her many friends in town. Deceased was a young woman but twenty-six years of age, and although of a very quiet and retiring disposition, made friends of all with whom she came into contact, and who now sincerely sympathize with the bereaved parents in their loss. Miss Heisz bore her affliction with Christian fortitude, resigning herself to the will of Him, who both giveth and taketh, and Death, that grim reaper found her well prepared to appear before the Judgement Seat of God.

Besides her parents she leaves to mourn her demise, four brothers and four sisters. The funeral was held on Monday morning to the Mildmay R. C. Cemetery, the services in the Church being conducted by Rev. R. C. Lehmann, while the last rites at the Cemetery were performed by Rev. Fr. Meyer of Chepstow. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Ed. and Jack Lobsinger, Fred Weiler, Isadore Ulrich, Ed. Godfrey and Chas. Kastner. All the members of the bereaved family were present including Mrs. William Adams, Buffalo, a sister of deceased and Mr. John Heisz of Sackets Harbor, N. Y. A large host of Formosa friends and relatives attended the funeral, Miss Heisz being a former resident in that community. Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to the family.

THE FINANCING OF "CARGILL LIMITED"

THE UNUSUAL HAS HAPPENED

The People of Bruce Are to Have the Opportunity to Participate in One of its Largest Industries.

LARGE EXTENSIONS PLANNED

We have just received a copy of the Prospectus and letter issued by "Cargill Limited", which shows that the people of Bruce are to have the opportunity to participate in one of its largest enterprises, upon a basis seldom if ever before offered to the public by a large corporation. We understand that the Company is mailing out five thousand of these to the people of Bruce; if you have not received a copy, we advise our subscribers to write for one.

The name "Cargill" stands for progress in the affairs of the county. The enterprises started by the late Henry Cargill Esq., and continued by his son W. D. Cargill Esq. cannot be allowed to stand still. The business has outgrown the capacity of any one man to handle it and the increased demand for manufactured goods has compelled Mr. Cargill at this time to take some definite action regarding the future. He wants to see the business continued upon a proper basis, and he believes in the principle that the people of Bruce should benefit from and control their own industries, instead of investing their money in outside enterprises of which they know little.

Mr. John M. Eadie, who is taking charge as Managing Director, is an old Bruce boy, the son of the Reverend John Eadie, late of Pinkerton.

Mr. Eadie has resided in New York City for the last 25 years and is identified with several corporations on the other side.

He brings to "Cargill Limited" the experience needed in large corporation affairs, and his letter to the people of Bruce affords food for thought. It should awaken the people to a realization of what may be in store for them if they will pull together for the County.

Mr. Eadie advocates a Bruce County Manufacturers' Association, which will pull together in buying heavy supplies and in routing shipments through our ports, to compel steamship lines to call.

The Directors of the corporation include Senator J. J. Donnelly of Pinkerton and William M. Shaw Esq. of Walkerton.

We hope to see Bruce County take advantage of its opportunities at once, as we note that the Company will confine its efforts to getting subscriptions from Bruce County, only until August 15th, and thereafter will go to the general public unless Bruce indicates a willingness to finance its own affairs.

If the proper financial support is forthcoming to enable the Company to carry out the large extensions planned, the people of Bruce will have an enterprise worthy of the County.

UNCLEAN ONTARIO TOWNS

Deplorably Unsanitary Conditions Reported to the Provincial Health Department

A despatch from Toronto says: That urban Ontario, to a very general extent, is living in the proverbial fool's paradise in regard to health conditions is being made manifest to the Provincial Health Department by the reports and sanitary surveys coming in from the seven district officers of health appointed under the Provincial system. The new procedure requires each of these officers to submit to the Provincial Department a detailed sanitary survey of all the urban municipalities within his district. This sanitary survey covers all matters of interest and concern in connection with public health, water supply, sewerage system, garbage treatment, gas supply, ice fields, the handling of the milk supply, and all data which may affect the health of the community. The receipt of many of these sanitary surveys is causing the Provincial authorities to gasp. There is considerable work cut out for them. In many cases even the most rudimentary health laws are set at defiance. Summer ice is taken from waters into which sewage is emptied, garbage is carelessly handled, the milk supply is contaminated, and other equally reckless procedure is chronicled in a most matter-of-fact manner. The Provincial Department is not making public the names of the offending municipalities, but the various centres will be promptly grappled with. From present indications it looks as though a wholesale campaign of general housecleaning will have to be waged throughout urban Ontario, and more rigid amendments made to the public health act.

PREMIER BOTHA
His Cabinet has met the first emergency in the Johannesburg riots with considerable wisdom. The Department of Defence is now in control.

COMMENT ON EVENTS

On the occasion of a recent visit to London, I was one day sitting in a room in that metropolis. Prudently, in London, the Canadian High Commissioner's office, when, suddenly, without formality, the door was thrown open and an old gentleman bounded in with all the vigor of youth of 25. From photographs I immediately recognized him as Sir Charles Tupper, himself formerly Canadian High Commissioner, a fact which explained his privileged entrance. On introduction he gripped my hand with a force that certainly did not suggest age, and for a few minutes he discussed affairs Canadian with a mental alertness that proved that his mind retained vigor at least corresponding to that of his body.

I am reminded of the incident by the fact that Sir Charles had just been celebrating his ninety-third birthday. It seems impossible that the figure I recall should have been 43 years old at Confederation, and 16 years old at the time of the rebellion of '37, yet such are the facts.

Few men have filled their lives with such multifarious activities over such a long period. Prudently all his contemporaries have crossed the Great Divide, and he remains almost alone. A notable exception is the Hon. Arthur Meighen, the office of Canadian High Commissioner, Lord Strathcona, and the man whose name has been intimately bound up with Canada in her history. He is now who now has long since exceeded the Prime Minister's span. It is doubtful if any other country has produced a pair of veterans in the nation's service. The New Sullivans-General.

The appointment of Hon. Arthur Meighen as Solicitor-General in the Dominion Cabinet has been well received by the Liberal papers. The promotion in complimentary terms, though no doubt a compliment, does not disagree with the new Cabinet Minister's policies as strenuously as ever as is often the case.

Mr. Meighen without doubt has won the position on the strength of his oratory. Certainly no geographical considerations can have entered into the selection, because the Province of Manitoba is, if anything, already over-represented in the Dominion Cabinet. Meighen is not a native of M. P.'s who would have been delighted with the promotion.

Mr. Meighen is himself an Ontario boy, and has been a member of the House of Commons since 1887, and has become a member of the House of Commons since 1887. The circumstance was no doubt a great advantage, as it enabled him to catch the Parliamentary style in a manner which early enabled him to secure the ear of what is said to be the most distinguished audience in the country. Reference has already been made to his chapter in Sir George W. Ross' recently published book, "Getting into Parliament."

A contemporary of Mr. Meighen, another young westerner, is the person of Mr. B. Bennett, who has perhaps experienced this atmosphere. When Mr. Bennett makes his appearance in the House of Commons, his oratory is a perfect whirlwind of oratory. His fluency, choice of vocabulary and facility of expression are nothing short of marvellous and cannot but fail to impress the audience. But in the House of Commons Bennett undoubtedly has more than made up for his deficiencies in the Parliamentary style. As he has great ability he will catch it and will probably become a leading figure in the House of Commons.

"A young George E. Foster," is the way Mr. Meighen as a debater is described. This is high praise in this country, because the high praise in the House of Commons is to be well known. However, the reason of Mr. Meighen's success in the House of Commons is not his oratory, but his character. He is now off to a good start.

SUFFRAGETTE CONFESSES.

Says She Burned Down Sir William Lever's Residence.

A despatch from Liverpool says: A dramatic confession of incendiarianism was made by a well-known militant suffragette, Mrs. Edith Rigby, wife of a physician at Preston, to the Magistrate sitting in the Police Court here on Thursday. Mrs. Rigby declared it was she who had on Tuesday burned down the country residence at Rivington, near Horwich, Lancashire, of Sir William H. Lever, causing damage estimated at $100,000. She further confessed to being the perpetrator of the outrage at the Liverpool Stock Exchange on July 5, when a bomb exploded, but caused little damage.

FATAL FIRE IN CALIFORNIA.

Five Men Lose Their Lives in Dismal Blaze.

A despatch from San Francisco says: Five soldiers are reported burned to death, and a half dozen little hamlets and towns at the foot of Mount Tamalpais await their salvation or destruction, while the fire which has swept the mountains for three days is reaching toward the plains and vineyards to the north and the Muir Woods National Park on the south.

REMARKABLE OPERATION.

Man With Spliced Back is Improving Wonderfully.

A despatch from Kingston says: Oliver Latand, of Madoc, who was brought to the Hotel Dieu about six weeks ago with a broken back, has improved wonderfully. Doctors have spliced the back, and now the patient is able to sit up for a short time. Great hopes are held out for complete recovery.

MURDERED HIS WIFE.

Then Fired at Himself and Made His Escape.

A despatch from Saskatoon says: The Mounted Police at Wilkie are out on a case in the back country which lies between Wilkie and Makklin, searching for Alex. Anderson, who killed his wife and then attempted to commit suicide. When the shot he fired at himself had no effect he made his escape into the North Country.

A man wants credit for a lot of things he can't pay for; also for a lot of things he can't do.

WALKERTON

A number of farmers in the vicinity of the Greenock swamp report having seen a large black bear in the Greenock swamp last week.

Quite a number from Walkerton attended the Sunday services at the Evangelical Camp-Meeting in Carrick.

The goat belonging to Mr. Walter Heffernan was shipped by express via Toronto to Berlin last week, where it took an active part in the K. P. celebration. "Nannie" who has been kept on the Heffernan property in the north part of the town for many years will in future likely be a boarder at the Berlin park.

The Bell Telephone Co. have laid off nearly all their linemen in this section and as a consequence large numbers of men were thrown out of work. The Company it seems have abandoned for the present some $4,000,000 worth of extensions to their lines in Ontario owing to the tightness of the money market.

The action brought by John Watson against the township of Huron for damages for the removal of a bridge in front of his premises and which it seems necessitates him going about half a mile out of his way to get to the other side of his farm, was dismissed by Judge Barret here on Friday on the grounds that the Huron Council had inconvenienced him but had not damaged him to an extent that could be ascertained in dollars and cents. Col. J. H. Scott for plaintiff, D. Robertson and P. A. Malcomson for defendant.

The Walkerton Electric Light and Power Company are greatly disappointed at the delay of the Westinghouse people in shipping their machinery from Pittsburg for the lighting of the streets. This order was placed some six months ago, and has not arrived to date. The local company are doing their utmost to have them rush it, so that the streets may be illuminated as soon as possible. Regarding the commercial lighting, the company's men are at present transferring the old system onto the new, and this work necessarily involves a great deal of time in changing transformers, cross-arms, and wires, but part of the town will no doubt be on the day power list this week.

Ayton Sunday School Convention.

The Lutheran Sunday School Convention of the North Western District held their second meeting at the St. Paul's Church on Tuesday of last week, July 1st. Seventy-five Sunday School teachers were present with friends who accompanied them, the church was filled to the doors. Rev. Henkel of Elmwood opened the meeting and gave a lengthy address on "How Sunday School Teachers Should Teach." The election of officers followed, Rev. Langholtz of Warton was the choice as President, while Rev. Mosig of Walkerton was asked to take the pen and act as Secretary.

Rev. Twietmeyer of Hanover and Rev. Ziegler of Port Elgin were also present and took part in the programme. The Sunday Schools were represented from Warton, Chealey, Elmwood, Hanover, Walkerton, Mildmay, Carrick, (St. Jacobs,) Alsfield and Ayton. Each congregation had contributed a sum of money for Missionary purposes which amounted to nearly $50.

Rev. Neudorffer gave a paper on "How Christmas entertainments should be conducted." Rev. Twietmeyer and Rev. Mosig also gave very lengthy and interesting lectures on this subject. The Choir gave a number of choice selections which were rendered in a most pleasing manner. At 12 o'clock the Convention was adjourned to meet again in Hanover on July 1st of next year, when a whole day will be spent and a number of subjects be discussed. The Convention party were taken to the picnic grounds where a grand lunch awaited them and were allowed to enjoy the afternoon as they wished.—Ayton Advance.

Mrs. Johnson's Necklace Sold For $2,160.

The diamond necklace which belonged to Jack Johnson's former white wife, Etta Duryea, was sold to a jeweler for $2,160 at public auction in the office of the United States marshal.

As appraised by Government officials, the necklace is valued at $3,040, although Johnson bought it in London for $1,950 at the time of the Coronation of King George.

Johnson's wife wore the necklace at a party soon after their return to the United States. It's brilliancy excited comment and custom officials in Chicago investigated. Johnson was unable to show proper entry on the jewels and the necklace was seized. The fighter claimed that his wife had smuggled the necklace into the United States without his knowing it.

The duty on the circlet would have been about $1,000. It is composed of 55 white diamonds ranging in weight from 1 1/2 carats to 1/2 carat.

The GURNEY-OXFORD is an efficient RANGE

A business is kept up-to-date because it means a difference between profit and loss. The successful business uses such modern time-and-labor-savers as typewriters, adding machines and electricity. Woman's work in the home is also a matter of profit and loss. If she has improved and modern tools, she gains time and leisure and better results. If she has old-fashioned ideas to contend with, she loses energy and effort and peace of mind.

The Gurney-Economizer is the greatest single improvement ever devised to simplify cooking. It regulates the fire and heat of the oven with one direct motion. The heat of the fire is distributed by a scientific arrangement of flues that keeps the oven uniformly heated. The grates hold the fire on the least possible surface.

The Gurney-Oxford Range is a most efficient piece of household furniture. It puts the kitchen on the same labor-saving, up-to-date basis as a successful business.

Charge of Assaulting.

A charge of assaulting, beating and inflicting severe injuries upon Thomas Lauchin, an 11-year-old Barnardo Home boy, who is now under treatment at Kincardine Hospital, referred against Ed. Hunter, of the fourth concession of Huron Township, is attracting widespread attention in the district. Hunter was placed under arrest on a warrant granted by Magistrate Joseph Barker, of Kincardine, but was later allowed his liberty on $1,000 bail, half of the amount being his own recognizance and the remaining two sureties given by his friends. The preliminary hearing before Magistrate Barker will be completed on Friday afternoon and the court will then decide whether or not the accused shall be committed for trial. The allegation is made that he sent the Lauchin boy, who has been in his employ for a time, to a pasture for cattle at four o'clock in the morning. The lad did not return as speedily as Hunter deemed he should have and this is said to have been the occasion of the alleged assault. The boy's story is to the effect that Hunter first attacked him with a horse whip and when he fell from exhaustion he was kicked and trampled upon. The affair is said to have occurred on June 25th and Lauchin has since been under treatment at Kincardine hospital.

Home and Abroad.

"Shell out," says my Aunt Dinah, "some kopecks for the cause; the woe in darkest China is worse than ever was! The natives are benighted, they play a pagan game; to see their pathway lighted is now our end and aim. And, as the Chinks' defenders, we ask you for your rocks; they're needing silk suspenders, and union suits and socks; their children have no candy, no dolls or roller skates; so couch up like a dandy," my good old aunt orates. But just across the alley old Bill Persimmon dwells, and I am keeping tally upon his groans and yells; a derrick fell and hit him, and broke ribs eight or ten; his occupation quit him when he could work again. He hears his children clamor for cake and apple pie; it gives him katzenjammer to mark their doleful cry. His wife is weak and sickly, and yet, to bring in bread, she hits the tub while thickly the steam curls round her head. Old Bill is sadly breathin' appeals for work each day, so I pass up the heathen to help that troubled jay. And while old Bill is feeling the stroke of fortune's rods, the Chinks can keep on kneeling before their basswood gods.—Walt Mason.

The Price of Paper.

At the annual meeting of the Canadian Press Association, one of the subjects discussed was the advisability of raising the price of the country weekly. The cost of production and the high cost of living have grown to such an extent that the country publisher finds himself hard run to make ends meet, and he must get more for his labor and outlay or quit his job. City merchants have become so much alive to the benefit of advertising that they are using the pages of the cheap dailies in their rush for the country trade so largely that the publishers can afford to and do send their papers out at less than the white paper costs them. Let a country publisher try sending out his paper at less than cost, and with the small amount of advertising he can command, he would find himself up against a proposition that would soon put him out of business.

Items of Interest.

At a special meeting of the Cobalt Town Council last night Mayor Trudel tendered his resignation owing to a dispute as to the appointment of a fire chief to succeed Chief Kappel.

Corydon Horne died in Kingston. He was sixty years of age, and for the past 13 years had been proprietor of the Provincial Hotel there.

The date of the Markham Liberal Rally, to be held in the Fair Grounds at that town, has been changed from July 25 to 26. The principal speakers will be William Proudfoot, M.P.P., and Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King.

Eight thousand three hundred and twenty-five residents of Toronto used the Harrison baths in the week ending July 5 last year. This year the corresponding week showed a total of 15,047 using the plunges and showers, an increase of 6,722.

There is one individual in New York State who should enjoy all the privileges of that complete retirement from the cares of public life which a prison door affords. This young man is that son of a millionaire who took a young lady in his motor car. In spite of her protestations and evident nervous agitation, this smart Alec hit his car up to a fifty mile an hour clip. Then the poor girl lost all self control and mad a flying leap from the car into anywhere to get away from her intolerable feelings. She lived just fifteen minutes longer. The woods are full of such smart Alec joy riders, and they should be salted to the limit. It is all very well to say that human nature is human nature, that when a driver sees a mile or two of good road ahead of him and the track clear, the desire to let out a fink or two becomes irresistible. But that isn't the point. He is there with a certain responsibility attached to him, whenever he has another or others seated in the tonneau. If he wants high pressure speed let him get it when he is driving alone, because if an accident happens then there is only a fool hurt, and the world can well afford to lose a few of its possessors of fractured grey matter.

President Wilson narrowly escaped injury in an automobile wreck one day last week when his chauffeur had to drive off the road, crash down an embankment into a yard, and run flush against a house, to avoid collision with a car travelling in the opposite direction. Wilson was rather severely bumped.

Married persons live longer than those who are single according to statistics gathered by Dr. C. St. Clair Drake of the city health department, Chicago. He has figured out that the death rate of Chicago bachelors is 29 1/2 per cent higher than that of married men. The mortality rate of unmarried women is 40 per cent higher than that of married women, he says.

The Hampden Baseball "sluggers" drove up to the Red Bridge Picnic last Thursday afternoon and played an exciting game of Ball against the Molke nine defeating their opponents by a good margin 9-2. The "Sluggers" batted the Molke pitchers all over the lot, stole bases, and had everything their own way. Hampden returns a game with Hutton-Hill next week, and then "go for Ayton."

WIT AND HUMOR

A ring at the telephone drew the office boy.

"Lady to talk to you, sir," he said to the senior partner.

The senior partner took up the receiver and stood at the telephone for several minutes.

Then he laid the receiver down and went back to his desk.

Twenty minutes later he raised the receiver, said a few words and presently hung it up.

Then he turned to his partner.

"It was my wife," he explained. "She was still talking and hadn't missed me."

Lady (at piano)—They say you love good music.

Youth—Oh, that doesn't matter. Pray go on.

Willie—My father put down a disturbance last night.

Billie—Is that right?

Willie—Yes; he ate a Welsh rarebit.

Missionary (to cannibal)—What makes your chief so talkative to-day?

Cannibal—Oh, he ate a couple of barbers this morning.

She finished a tirade at her friend and ended with:

"There, I have made myself plain, have I not?"

"Made yourself plain, dear?" sweetly answered the once friend. "Oh, no, dear; you were born that way."

Miss Emery had given Little Tim a simple problem in addition that he failed to work out. "Numbers are dry," she reasoned within herself, and determined to make the lesson more interesting.

"Suppose," she began, engagingly, "your mamma sent you to the store to buy three pounds of lamb, two pounds of potatoes, half a pound each of carrots and turnips, and one pound of tomatoes—what would you have then?"

Tim shook his head, but Marybell, only a year older, raised an eager hand.

"Well, Marybell?" said the teacher with a sorrowful glance at Little Tim.

"Stew," said Marybell sweetly.

The Right Honorable Winston Spencer Churchill, First Lord of the British Admiralty, is not only a ready speaker himself but has also considerable skill in dealing with offensive interrupters.

On one occasion when addressing a large meeting in the North of England he was frequently disturbed by a man who persisted in shouting "Liar! Liar!" every few minutes.

Mr. Churchill bore with him for some time but eventually broke off his speech to remark in his gentlest accents:—

"If the gentleman at the back of the hall who is so anxious that the audience should know his name will write it down on a slip of paper and hand it to the chairman instead of bawling it at the top of his voice he will save himself a lot of trouble."

No more was heard of the interruptor for the rest of the meeting.

The Scotchman's Prayer.

O Lord, we approach Thee this morning in the attitude of prayer, an' likewise o' complaint. O Lord when we cam tae the lan' o' Canady we expected to find a lan' flowin' with milk an' honey, but instead o' that, we foun' a lan' peopled wi' the ungodly Irish.

O Lord, in thy great mercy drive them tae the utmost parts o' Canady, nish them hewers of wood, an' drawers o' water, gie them nae emolments, gie them nae place o' abode, ne'er mak them magistrates nor rulers among the people, but if ye hae any offices tae bestow or ony guid lan' to gie awa' gie it tae thine ain peculiar people, the Scotch. Mak them a' members o' Parliament, an' magistrates, an' rulers among the people, but as for the ungodly Irish, take them by the heel and shak' them ower the mouth of hell but dinna let them fa' in, an' all the glory shall be thine, for ever and ever.—Amen.

Choice Recipes.

German Potato Salad.—Boil small potatoes with their skins on. Cut one-quarter pound of bacon into small pieces and fry brown. Now skin your potatoes, cut into dice and mix with the bacon—fat and all. Add a little minced onion and parsley. Dress with French dressing. After it has become thoroughly chilled and marinated, serve on a bed of lettuce leaves.

Tapoca Cream Soup.—Soak two tablespoons of pearl tapioca overnight. Add one quart of white stock and cook until transparent, then add one cupful of water, one tablespoon of butter, one onion and a stalk of celery cut fine, pepper, salt and mace. Simmer one hour. When ready to serve, stir in one cupful of rich cream and add a little minced parsley.

Ginger Ale Salad.—Follow the usual recipe for coffee jelly, substituting ginger ale for the coffee and adding a little lemon juice. When hardened cut into cubes. Sprinkle with crushed nuts and serve on lettuce leaves with a mayonnaise dressing.

Cookie Tartlets.—Make a plain cookie dough, roll it out rather thin and line muffin tins with the dough. Bake, and when cold fill each cup with stewed rhubarb or strawberries and put a spoonful of whipped cream on top.

Pea Timbales.—Cook sufficient peas to make two cupfuls. When tender, put through a vegetable press. Add a little minced onion, two well-beaten eggs, two tablespoons melted butter and sufficient pepper, salt and paprika to season. Turn into buttered timbale molds and set them in a pan of hot water to bake. Serve with a white sauce to which has been added some nicely cooked peas.

Chicken Rolls.—Take the bits of cold chicken left from Sunday's dinner, chop and season with paprika, salt and minced pickles. Add the yolk of an egg to mashed potatoes, working it to a paste. Sprinkle with flour, making it flat and round. Put the seasoned meat on one-half and turn the other half over like an omelet. Pour over it some melted butter and fry or bake a light brown.

Boiled New Onions.—Cut the roots and tops from young onions, leaving the onion stalks about six inches long. Tie in bunches of eight; and boil carefully until tender. Remove with a strainer and place each bundle upon a piece of toast. Cut away the strings and pour over the onions a thin white sauce. Serve as you would asparagus.

Italian Puffs.—Cream one-half ounce of butter, add beaten yolks of four eggs, a pinch of salt and one-half teaspoon sugar. Add alternately, beating well, two cups flour (sifted) and two cups of milk. Fold in the stiffly beaten whites of four eggs. Bake in pop-ovr cups for twenty minutes.

Cream Pie.—Heat one cupful milk and one cupful sugar in a double boiler. Add gradually two tablespoonfuls of flour which has been moistened with a little cold milk, the beaten yolks of two eggs and a pinch of salt. Cook until quite thick, then flavor with orange and set aside to cool. Fill a pie crust which has been previously baked. Cover with a meringue made of the whites of the eggs and two tablespoonfuls of sugar. Brown in the oven or with a hot salamander.

German Cinnamon Cake.—Dissolve one cake of yeast and one tablespoon sugar; then take three cups flour, one cup lukewarm milk, one teaspoon salt; add two tablespoonfuls butter, one tablespoonful sugar and two eggs. Knead dough and let rise in a warm place. Then cut into pieces one-half inch thick and place in well-greased pan and let rise till light. Cut across with a sharp knife, brush with egg, and then sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon. Bake 20 minutes in a moderately heated oven.

Nut Pudding.—One and one-quarter cups sugar, one-half cup water, one-half cup butter, two well beaten eggs, one-quarter teaspoon salt, three teaspoonfuls baking powder, one cup nuts, one three-quarter cups flour. Cream the butter and sugar, add the water and well beaten egg, mix, and add the flour and baking powder. Beat thoroughly, stir in the nuts, bake in a dripping pan 30 to 35 minutes. Cut into squares and serve with orange sauce made with three-quarter cups of sugar, one cup butter, one cup hot water, four tablespoonfuls orange juice, one-half tablespoonful lemon. Mix the flour and sugar thoroughly, stir in the hot water and cook until it thickens; remove from the heat, add the butter and fruit juice and serve hot.

Baking Powder Biscuits.—Two cups flour, two teaspoonfuls baking powder, one teaspoonful salt, one cup milk and water (half each), one baking powder together twice. Cream butter and lard together and add to the dry ingredients, using the tips of the fingers. Then add the liquid, mixing with a fork until a soft dough. Place on mixing board and roll out lightly and cut with glass or biscuit cutter. Bake in hot oven 15 minutes.

Ever Useful Salt.

Salt on the fingers when cleaning fowls, meat or fish will prevent slipping.

As a gargle, is good for sore throat.

Salt in the water will clean willow ware and matting.

In the oven under the baking tins it will prevent their scorching on the bottom.

Salt and vinegar will remove stains from discolored teacups.

Salt and soda are excellent for bee stings and spider bites.

Salt put on ink when freshly spilled on a carpet will help in removing a spot.

Used in sweeping carpets will keep out moths.

Hints for the Home.

Celery is a good nerve tonic and it is said to ward off rheumatism.

Grass stains can be removed if rubbed with molasses and washed carefully.

When frying apples or bananas, try using olive oil; it is much better than butter fat.

The health of the family depends to a considerable extent on keeping the cellar dry.

Marvels can be done with the old portieres, couch and table covers by dyeing them a new shade.

If the contents of the garbage can are drenched with kerosene daily, it will discourage the flies.

If a few drops of paraffine are applied to a cut, it will give instant relief and also assist it to heal.

Don't forget that if you leave non-safety matches about, mice may nibble them and start a fire.

One yard of sheeting will make a pair of pillow cases, and will cost much less than pillow tubing.

To beat the white of eggs quickly a pinch of salt should be added.

Salt cools and causes them to froth rapidly.

A piece bag made of mosquito netting enables one by a look to find the particular root of goods desired.

Spirits of turpentine will remove most spots from silk, but care must be taken to be sure that the dye is fast.

A long box, stood on end on casters, fitted with shelves and a screen door, is a convenience in the kitchen or cellar.

It is a good idea to put the freshly laundered sheets at the bottom of the pile in the linen closet. This makes it possible to give the sheets equal wear.

When making an iron-holder place a couple of folds of brown paper between the two pieces of material. This will prevent the heat from penetrating to the hands.

To clean cane-bottomed chairs turn chair bottom upward, and with hot water and a sponge wash the cane; work well, so that it is well soaked; should it be dirty, use soap; let it dry well in the air, and it will be as tight and firm as new, provided none of the canes are broken.

A good whitewash is made as follows:—Stir six pounds of whiting into cold water, avoiding all lumps. Steep three ounces of glue in cold water for twelve hours, then heat it until it is dissolved, and pour it into the whiting, which must be hot. The wash should be of a consistency to be applied with a white-wash brush.

HUMOR AND MATHEMATICS.

Said to Go Side by Side in Some Men's Minds.

Proficiency in mathematics, political economy and "dry topics" like that are frequently found side by side with a fine quality of humor in men's minds. Lewis Carroll, who wrote "Alice in Wonderland," which is the top-notch of the world's humor up to date, was a professional mathematician—a mathematical lecturer at Oxford and author of "A Syllabus of Plane and Algebraic Geometry," of the "Elementary Treatise on Determinants" and of a good many other mathematical works. Another great humorist, Oliver Wendell Holmes, was not exactly a mathematician, but he was the next thing to it—a professor of anatomy. His anatomical works were terribly serious. Edgar Allan Poe long ago established the intimate connection between mathematics and poetry, or, rather, between the mathematical and the poetical mind. The same relation may exist between mathematics and humor. And yet there are some humorists who are not altogether great in mathematics.

Europe Has 160,000 M.D.'s.

The Monitor Medical of Paris has just compiled statistics on the number of physicians in Europe. The total number is given as 160,000, divided as follows: England has seven physicians for every 10,000 inhabitants; Germany, 5; France, 3.1; and Italy, 5. Of course the larger numbers of physicians are found in the cities, and among them Brussels has the largest, 24 for every 10,000 inhabitants, while Amsterdam has only two in the same proportion.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL STUDY

INTERNATIONAL LESSON, JULY 20.

Lesson III. Moses Called to Deliver Israel. Exod. 3. 1 to 4. 20. Golden Text, Matt. 5. 8.

Verse 1. Moses was keeping the flock—The habitual occupation of Moses in Midian. The flocks referred to consisted, in all probability, of sheep and goats.

Jethro, his father—Called also Reuel (Exod. 2. 18).

The priest of Midian—The Midianites were kindred people to the Hebrews, and therefore doubtless also worshippers of Jehovah, though, from their situation and relations to other surrounding peoples, it is probable that their Jehovah-worship was early corrupted and at last superseded almost entirely by idolatry.

To the back of the wilderness—Beyond the desert wastes on the foothill slopes of the mountains.

The mountain of God—Horeb—The names "Sinai" and "Horeb" are used practically interchangeably in the Old Testament. As in our present passage, so in 1 Kings 19. 8, the name "Horeb" is used following the designation "the mountain of God."

In this and subsequent lessons we shall assume that Mount Sinai is somewhere near the southern point of the peninsula between the Gulf of Akabah, and not far from the northern end of the Red Sea itself. It has been suggested by some modern scholars that the mountain, the exact location of which has never been determined, should rather be sought farther to the northeast in the hill country of Seir, north of the Gulf of Akabah. The burden of proof, however, lies with those who question the traditional site, which still has the support of many of the best Old Testament scholars.

2. A bush—One of the shrubs on the mountainside.

Burned with fire—Lad the appearance of being on fire, the divine revelation taking the form of this consuming and purifying element.

4. Moses, Moses—The repetition of the call implies urgency. Thus Jehovah speaks to the boy Samuel, calling him twice by name (1 Sam. 3. 10).

5. Draw not nigh hither—Moses is reminded of the natural unfit-ness of man to abide in the immediate presence of Jehovah. This truth God patiently sought to teach his people by such commands as the one given to Moses later in the presence of the people near this same mountain: "And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it" (Exod. 19. 12). The untutored mind and heart easily falls into an attitude of irreverence.

Thy shoes—Sandals.

The place . . . is holy ground—Sacred—hallowed by the manifest presence of God. Compare the similar command given to Joshua: "Put off thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy" (Josh. 5. 15).

6. Father—Ancestor.

The God of Abraham . . . Isaac, and . . . Jacob—Who had revealed himself especially to these chosen men. Jesus, in an argument with the Pharisees concerning immortality, quotes this verse (compare Matt. 22. 32).

Hid his face—An instinctive action indicating reverence. So Elijah on the same site (1 Kings 19. 13).

7. I have surely seen . . . heard . . . know—An accumulation of anthropomorphic expressions, which furnish the only means of stating in words intelligible to men the attributes of God, especially his love and tenderness.

Taskmasters—subordinate overseers or bosses.

8. A good and a large . . . flowing with milk and honey—The soil of Palestine in many places is exceedingly rich and productive. Its mountain sides and numerous other tracts, especially eastward of the Jordan, were in former times well wooded. Its valleys abounded in luxuriant herbage. Grains and fruits were cultivated in abundance, and countless flocks and herds may still be seen moving slowly hither and thither over its long-neglected fields. Palestine proper was very small compared with states and countries with which we are familiar. In its most prosperous days the United Kingdom embraced an area of from fifty to sixty thousand square miles, or approximately the size of England and Wales.

Canaanite, Hittite, Amorite, Perizzite, Hivite, and Jebusite—The inhabitants of Palestine. Usually, as in Gen. 15, ten peoples, or nations, are enumerated, of which only five are here given. The Hi-vites are not mentioned in the other lists.

11. Who am I?—Once Moses had been a prince in Egypt. Now for forty years he had been a lonely shepherd of the wilderness.

That I should go unto Pharaoh—The years of desert seclusion had brought in Moses a radical change of character, and had brought with them the spirit of true humility, quite different from the impulsiveness and ardor which he had exhibited in earlier years.

13. What is thy name?—The Egyptians used the word "god" generically, having a special name for each particular deity, such as Ammon, Ra, Mentu, Osiris. With this fact Moses was certainly acquainted, and he seems to anticipate that when he brings to the Hebrews a message from the God of their fathers they may conclude that he, too, had a proper name, and may wish to know that name.

14. I AM THAT I AM—Margin, "I AM BECAUSE I AM," or "I AM WHO AM," or "I WILL BE THAT I WILL BE." The idea expressed by all these renderings of the Hebrew original is that of perfect, unconditioned, independent existence.

The assigned lesson passage includes, in addition to the verses printed and commented upon, the remainder of the third and the first twenty verses of the fourth chapter. This longer section of the narrative contains further details concerning Moses's consciousness of his own unfitness to undertake the important task about to be laid upon him and the promises and signs by which he was finally persuaded to undertake the mission. The entire passage should be read in preparation for class discussion.

LIFE FACTS.

The Age at Which People Are More Liable to Die.

There are certain ages wherein death is very imminent, and of all these ages the most perilous is the age of an hour or two. Yet, it is just after birth that we are in most danger of death; and the next most perilous age to this is 71 years.

The age of three is the next most dangerous age. Almost one-fourth of all the babies born die during the third year.

From three on to the age of 45 life is comparatively safe; but 45, especially for women, is a trying time, and many are carried off.

After passing 45 in safety men and women may reasonably hope to reach 71. Here again they are in great danger—the greatest save for the first few hours after birth.

Longevity is an hereditary quality. It passes from father to son and from mother to daughter. He who had an octogenarian father may hope to become an octogenarian himself, and she who had an octogenarian mother may hope to become an octogenarian herself. But a father's longevity does not pass down to a daughter, nor does a mother's pass down to a son.

Sun is Good Coal Mine.

One square yard of the earth's surface receives each day averaging six hours of sunshine an amount of heat equal to that contained in 1.05 pounds of coal, according to an Italian chemist. At this rate an area of about 1,200 miles receives during a year an amount of energy from the sun equivalent to that obtainable from the 1,100,000,000 tons of coal mined annually in Europe and the United States.

HE WAS TRULY A MAN OF JOY

True It Is that Jesus Was Full of It, Down Even to the Last Moments of His Life

That my joy may be in you.—John xv. 11.

It seems somewhat strange to find Jesus talking about His "joy," and especially at this moment, when He is speaking His last words of farewell to His disciples in anticipation of His death at the hands of the soldiery of Rome. How can this Nazarene, who was most certainly a "man of sorrows and acquainted with grief," who was "wounded and bruised" as have been few men in all the history of humanity, who was so thoroughly "despised and rejected" by His fellows that throughout nearly the whole term of His public ministry he had "nowhere to lay His head"—how can this man claim to have any "joy" in His heart and especially to be able to leave this "joy" to His followers as a precious heritage?

The thing seems to be impossible—so impossible that we have come almost instinctively to think of Jesus as a mournful figure, over-weighted by His burden of affliction, and therefore full of woe and tragedy. But that this idea is incorrect we are just now beginning to understand for the first time. We are learning to-day to read the Gospel narratives afresh, and among other things are discovering that no man ever lived who was more truly a man of joy than Jesus. Keim speaks of Him as

A "Gentle and Joyous" Figure; Zangwill pictures Him in his "Dreamers of the Ghetto" as "the joyous comrade," and W. J. Dawson, in his recent "Life of Christ" describes Him as "the incarnation of the spirit of joy," and refers in one place to His "gracious gaiety of heart."

Scan the pages of history, and where do we find the joyful men if not among the heroes who have lived and suffered and died on behalf of some great movement for enlightenment and freedom? Where have smiles been more radiant than on the faces of martyrs? Where have shouts been more exultant than on the lips of joy persecuted? When have hymns of joy been more triumphantly chanted than in prison-cells, on gibbets and by blazing stakes? Nor is it the past only which reveals to us this truth. Look about us to-day, and who are the really happy folk? Are they the idle, luxurious and ease-loving—the people who seek to gratify personal desires and selfish passions? On the contrary! They are the gallant Montenegrin flinging himself to death upon the bloody slopes of Scutari, the Siberian exile dreaming his dreams of an emancipated Russia, the physician contending against disease, the settlement worker sweating in the tenements and slums, the reformer battling for sweeping changes in the body politic. These are the persons who have overflowing gladness in their hearts, and who know something therefore of "The Wild Joy of Living." Let a man lose himself in a cause, identify himself with a great movement for the betterment of humanity, surrender himself to some ideal altogether outside the petty whims and fancies of his own life—and behold! he becomes as one redeemed for very joy.

Not in ourselves but in others, not in saving but in serving, not in aggrandizement but in sacrifice, is to be found the secret of happiness. To live for something and somebody besides ourselves—to forget ourselves in the thought of others, to lose our lives in the endeavor to save the world—this is the secret of the joy that was in Christ. And His joy may be in us all, if we will but live and love with Him.—John Haynes Holmes.

Fashion Hints

Seen in Paris Shops.

Almost all the skirts to the silk suits show some form of drapery. The short tunic sashes are an important feature on dressy toilets.

Bordered ratine is one of the favorite members of the ratine family. Some of the new mesh bags are jeweled in Bulgarian colorings.

Three flounce skirts are actually favorites among dancing dresses. Eggshell cotton crepe is much more in vogue than the striped, crinkly kind.

Young girls like the cotton blouses with Balkan embroidery for out of door sports.

The newest heavy sweaters for country wear come this year in bright colorings.

Some of the new cotton voiles have Dresden flower designs printed in delicate colors.

Bright greens, blues, and reds are being used for odd silk boleros worn with white gowns.

Lawn, voile, crepe, eponge, and batiste are the favored materials for graduation dresses.

Oil silk coats for motoring or yachting are seen in brown, green, blue, and natural yellow.

Striped crepe de chine and Chinese silk are among the best materials for travelling waists.

The same bright colors used for women are a feature in the children's dresses of this season.

Parasols are being fashioned in lace and silk crepe with small silk roses dotted round the edge.

Saxe blue and sand color are great favorites among the silk moires used for coats. Some of these coats are trimmed with velvet ribbon.

The fluffy maline neck ruff has been revived, and makes a most charming finish to a spring costume.

Gowns for informal afternoon teas and garden parties are usually of cotton crepe with allover embroidery, shadow lace, and net.

A good looking walking costume is made of brown moire. The crurasses or waist tunics of real Irish are still much used to give elaboration to a simple costume.

One of the prettiest of the new cotton shirtwaists is made of plain white voile, with flowered voile trimmings.

Coats for the best trotting costumes are on the habit model, and have embroidered collars and cuffs for their own decoration.

Lingerie is more simple and flat than ever—petticoats particularly are made up without foundations and have their flounces put on perfectly flat.

The three-quarter length coat of navy blue brocaded crepe de chine has a double collar of mousseline de soie with a brocaded design in tones of blue, mauve, and white.

A new and attractive trimming for the sleeve is leather, on a half length sleeve of striped flaked voile in red and white. The cuff carries out the white and red colors. The edges of the cuff are curved and on the outer line is held together by straps and buckles of leather.

Biggest in the World.

The extremes in age and size always awaken interest. England is well to the fore in this respect; the largest dock in the world being at Cardiff, Wales; the greatest bank, the Bank of England. University College, Oxford, is the most ancient college existing; it was founded in the year 1249. The largest bronze statue extant is that of Peter the Great, which stands in St. Petersburg, Russia, 1,100 tons comprising its weight. Cape Henry, Virginia, has the distinction of possessing the largest lighthouse, and the mammoth monolith—106 feet—is to be found in Egypt. Paris lays claim to the largest theatre in the world, the Opera House there covering three acres of ground. Historians adjudge the far-away city of Damascus to be the oldest in the world. The tallest chimney is to be found in Glasgow, and is 474 feet high; whilst Washington possesses the highest monument, the height being 555 feet.

Encouraging.

"Have you seen papa's new dog, Rover?" she asked, as they sat in the parlor. "Yes," he replied uneasily. "I have had the pleasure of meeting the dog." "Isn't he splendid? He is so affectionate."

"I noticed he was very demonstrative," returned he, as he moved uneasily in his chair. "He is very playful, too. I never saw a more playful animal in all my life." "I am so glad to hear you say that."

"Why?" "Because I was a little afraid that when he bit that piece out of me the other evening he was in earnest. But if it was only in play of course it's all right. I can take fun as well as anybody."

Mr. Smith had the habit of lighting his cigar after dinner, putting it for a while, and then laying it down on the ash-tray. Later he would re-light it and finish his smoke. Often three or four unfinished cigars would be on the tray. One day his small son sitting near by watched his father light one of the short variety, and said: "How do you like that one, papa?"

"This, my son, is a very good cigar," replied the father, blowing long puffs into the air. "I thought you'd like it, papa; I found it in the gutter outside."

Don't look up to people, it encourages them to look down on you.

Mr. Rinkpate (to barber): "Part my hair in the middle, please."

Barber: "Yessir! Shall I split the odd one?"

NERVOUS TROUBLES ON THE INCREASE

They Are Due to an Impoverished Condition of the Blood

Nervous exhaustion—or neurasthenia, as medical men call it—is one of the greatest evils of the present day, for it is destroying the life and energy of thousands of men and women, or worse, driving them to insanity. The causes of this trouble include overwork, mental strain, worry, indiscretions, and sometimes it follows la grippe. The signs of this trouble are usually great weakness after any exertion, nervous headaches, trembling hands, shakiness in the legs, irritability of temper, weak digestive power, insomnia. The life of the sufferer becomes full of miseries.

The true treatment for this trouble must consist of a building up process, for the above signs mean that the exhausted nerves are calling for more nourishment from the blood supply. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make new, rich blood that feeds the starved complaining nerves, and in this way they have cured thousands of times neurasthenia, neuralgia, and other nervous disorders, and have restored strength and nerve energy to despairing people. Mrs. Isaac Wilson, Celina, Ont., gives thanks for having been restored to health through the use of this medicine, she says: "When I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I was a nervous wreck; I couldn't do my work, could not sleep at night, suffered from nervous headaches, and the least noise would completely upset me. Only those who have suffered from nervous trouble can tell what I endured. I doctored for a time, but did not get any benefit. Then I learned of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and sent for a half dozen boxes. By the time I had used these I was almost well, and a couple more boxes completely restored my health, and I have had no return of the trouble. I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to those who suffered from any form of nervous trouble."

If you are weak, nervous or out of health begin to cure yourself today with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You can get them from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

$7,600 IN PRIZES.

Will Be Given at the Ontario Rifle Association Meet This Year.

There promises to be much military activity at the Long Branch Rifle Ranges from August the 18th to the 22nd during the five days' annual meet of the Ontario Rifle Association. Capt. Armour A. Miller, Secretary of the Association, has just issued the annual programme, and it is full of interesting features. The aggregate of this year's prize list is seven thousand six hundred dollars, about one thousand dollars ahead of any previous year. The cities of Toronto and Hamilton have vied almost with each other in donations to the prize funds. Among the well-known Toronto people whose trophies will be contested are His Honour the Lieutenant Governor, Mrs. H. D. Warren, Sir Henry M. Pellatt, and Colonel W. C. Macdonald. Mrs. Warren has donated prizes to the amount of $275.00 for competition among school cadets. Last year the youngsters to the number of one hundred attended the meet, and this year, as the Council of the Association is offering to pay half the railway-fare of each cadet from Ontario, there should be a regiment of them anxious to shoot bulls' eyes along side the grizzled veterans of the militia. Teams of six members each from the nine provinces may shoot for Sir Henry M. Pellatt's magnificent new cup in the Interprovincial Match. Each marksman of the winning team will get a miniature of the cup and a share of the one hundred and twenty dollars in cash that goes with it. Sir John M. Gibson's generosity has made possible a new match called the "Lieutenant Governor's," with 200 prizes, amounting to over $1,000.00, in addition to the Lieutenant Governor's gold medal. This match will be a permanent one on the programme of the Association, and will stand a fitting memorial to his Honour's many years of active service to the advancement of rifle shooting and military education in Canada. An individual competitor in the Lieutenant Governor's Match, who is lucky, may receive a Ross Rifle, offered by Hiram Walker & Sons, of Walkerville, and other prizes, totalling in all $150.00 in value.

Colonel W. C. Macdonald, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Association, has donated the first prize of a Ross Rifle, valued at $50.00, in the All Comers' Aggregate Match.

The City of Hamilton Match for Tyros is one of the important matches from the point of view of the younger shots. This year the city celebrates the 100th anniversary of its founding by contributing a new cup, value $400.00, for team competition. Besides this cup the match this year contains 100 individual and team prizes of over $500.00.

Of the older matches, the Tait-Brassey is again to the fore with 198 individual prizes, in addition to team prizes, amounting in all to over $1,000.00 in value. The Tait-Brassey is the big military match of the meet.

Changes in the regulations governing the meet are evident in the programme. These are not extensive, the chief one being a restriction prohibiting the use of any extension bridge which projects to the rear of the bolt when cocked.

The Association has arranged with all the railways for single-fare rates, good to return several days after the meeting. All details of the meet are given in the programme, copies of which may be obtained from the secretary of the Association, 157 Bay Street, Toronto.

A CURIOUS WELL.

Ingenious Mexican Has No Trouble Drawing Water.

That the Mexican farmer is not the slow thinking, lazy person the average stranger imagines is illustrated by an ingeniously devised well constructed by a farmer living near a little town just across the boundary line. The natives seldom go far away from their homes and they have very primitive ideas and customs. This well is about fifty feet deep and the owner has built a curious device for hauling water from it. If this Mexican had been an educated man he might have been an inventor.

A tree flourished near the well which had two branches growing out of the trunk. These boughs separated into four branches higher up. The Mexican cut the branches in such a way that they formed a perfect rest for a long well sweep. He fastened the sweep to a cross-bar laid across the two upper branches in the middle, using stout thongs for the purpose.

Then he fastened a weight on one end of the sweep and a long rope to the other end. The bucket is fastened to the end of this long rope, and all he has to do is to lower the bucket into the well. The weight of the stone pulls it up again, brimming full.

CUBS' FOOD.

They Thrive on Grape-Nuts.

Healthy babies don't cry and the well-nourished baby that is fed on Grape-Nuts is never a crying baby. Many babies who cannot take any other food relish the perfect food, Grape-Nuts, and get well.

"My baby was given up by three doctors who said that the condensed milk on which I had fed her had ruined the child's stomach. One of the doctors told me that the only thing to do would be to try Grape-Nuts, so I got some and prepared it as follows: I soaked 1 1/2 tablespoonfuls in one pint of cold water for half an hour, then I strained off the liquid and mixed 12 teaspoonfuls of this strained Grape-Nuts juice with six teaspoonfuls of rich milk, put in a pinch of salt and a little sugar, warmed it and gave it to baby every two hours.

"In this simple, easy way I saved baby's life and have built her up to a strong, healthy child, rosy and laughing. The food must certainly be perfect to have such a wonderful effect as this. I can truthfully say I think it is the best food in the world to raise delicate babies on and is also a delicious healthful food for grown-ups as we have discovered in our family."

Grape-Nuts is equally valuable to the strong, healthy man or woman. It stands for the true theory of health. "There's a reason," and it is explained in the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

HAIR CAME OUT IN HANDFULS

Scalp in Very Bad Condition, Dandruff Could be Seen Plainly. Lost Most of Hair. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured.

42 Lignacott St., Toronto, Ontario.—"About a year ago I had a very bad attack of typhoid and my scalp was in a very bad condition. The dandruff could be seen plainly and I lost most of my hair. My hair fell out gradually, but after having it shampooed it came out in handfuls. I used Cuticura Soap to shampoo my hair, then rubbed the Cuticura Ointment into the scalp. The dandruff was very soon removed and my hair stopped falling out. Cuticura Soap and Ointment cured me." (Signed) Miss E. Chamberlain, Mar. 31, 1912.

After she began washing with Cuticura Soap and applying Cuticura Ointment she got relief at once and after ten days' treatment was entirely cured.

More Short Than Tall.

A detective had been called by a Western bank to investigate the simultaneous disappearance of the cashier and a large sum of money.

"How tall was the cashier?" asked the detective, producing his note-book.

"I don't know," sighed the president of the bank, "but he was about five thousand dollars short!"

Misapplied Philosophy.

"Mike," said Plodding Pete, "what would you do if you was rich?"

"I'd lead a life of ease," replied Meandering Mike.

"No, you wouldn't. You'd be playin' polo or golf or takin' physical culture. Let well enough alone. A life of ease ain't nothin' but work in disguise."

The Cure.

"I haven't seen Bangs for a long time. He used to be a dickens of a fellow among the girls."

"He's been cured of all that."

"What cured him?"

"Marriage."

Altering the Model.

In his later years Frederick William, King of Prussia, was sorely afflicted with gout. The twinges of pain aggravated his naturally irascible temper. During the attacks he was accustomed to divert his mind by painting. His models were always soldiers.

One day he kept a tall grenadier posing for a long time. At length the picture was finished. The king turned to the man, and in a terrible voice asked, "What do you think of that?"

"The cheeks are redder than mine," was the hesitating reply.

"I'll soon fix that!" thundered the old king.

So he seized his brush, and painted both cheeks of the terrified grenadier a brilliant red.

Seeing the Wind.

If you take a saw and hold it at right angles with the wind, teeth upward, and look along the tips of the teeth, you can see the wind streaming by and through the little notches just like a flowing stream. The explanation, says Mr. Lawrence Hodges, must be practically the same as for the little streams of wriggly air we sometimes see over our radiators; that is, that the air is broken up into currents of different densities, and, consequently, light coming through these currents is bent to our eye and their form noted. The wind, coming with some force, is interrupted by the saw, and this compressed or dense air streams through the notches. The form of the stream is visible to us by the refraction or bending of the light that reaches our eyes from objects or particles seen through the streams.

PARIS TREES ARE FINEST.

Work Begun Under Napoleon III. Average Life 40 Years.

When the Parisian work of tree planting on a great scale was begun under the reign of the ill-fated third Napoleon, holes five feet in depth were dug in the parkways along the streets. They showed that the soil conditions were not favorable to tree growth. It was sandy and pebbly, and at the depth of five feet an impenetrable layer of hard clay was encountered.

But Paris was determined to have trees. A trench 10 feet in length was dug about the site of each new tree and filled with rich, black dirt. Then in the municipal nurseries the young trees were pruned and trained to grow their roots horizontally instead of straight down, so that they might get the needed nourishment from the layer of rich dirt provided. As a consequence of that good start and of the continuing care which is exercised, the trees of Paris are, perhaps, the finest in the world, and their average life is nearly 40 years.

The Value of Happiness.

There is no duty so much undervalued as that of being happy. By being happy we sow anonymous benefits upon the world which remain unknown, even to ourselves; or when they are disclosed, surprise nobody so much as the benefactor. A happy man or woman is a better thing to find than a five-pound note. He or she is a radiating focus of good will, and their entrance into a room is as though another candle had been lit.

"Is a canoe safe for two?" is asked by an inquirer in the columns of a paper. No, siree! You fall in the water if it turns over, and you fall in love if it remains right-side up till moonrise.

When Husbands Overwork.

No true wife will allow her husband to lay waste his life by unceasing work day after day, so that his life slips away without his having the leisure to enjoy it. Yet it is too often the case that a wife will force her husband into this dangerous path instead of keeping him in check. She sees that his excessive work brings in money plentifully; and spends it lavishly, regardless of the harm he does himself in providing for her whims. Some men are so absorbed in money-getting for the sake of their families that their homes have become little more than a sleeping place, their chief function is which to pay the bills.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Exactly three years ago to-day, the seventeenth of July the Halley's Comet scare was at its worst, being so close to the earth as to be visible to the naked eye.

The bricklayers have commenced on Mr. J. Hamel's new house and this fine residence, when completed will help greatly in making our Main Street attractive.

We are pleased to note that the two Mildmay boys who have been attending Harrison High School, Roy Schnorr and Clarence Witter have been successful in passing their examinations.

Mr. John Davis disposed of his Clydesdale stallion, Colonel Blazer, on Monday to Levi Good for the sum of $400.00. The horse is to be delivered in fourteen days.

The Hanover Orangemen celebrated this year to an extent never attempted before in that town, and their labors were awarded with a bumper crowd, about seven thousand visitors coming there for the day. The streets were beautifully decorated with evergreen arches, flags, bunting, etc., and a record day's business must have been done, as all the stores were open, it being Saturday.

The interesting figures for the farmers—On June 30, 1913 estimates were given that there were 2,635,000 horses in Canada, 3,064,900 milk cows, other cattle 3,380,400, sheep 2,418,400, swine 3,254,400. As to crops this year the area under wheat in Canada is placed at 9,816,300 acres, an increase of 57,900 acres over 1912. Oats 9,646,400 acres, barley 1,490,800 acres and rye 127,200 acres. Crops are this year reported to be about 89 per cent., taking the usual standard of 100 per cent.

Baseball Champions.
The Walkerton baseball team, by defeating Hanover here on Saturday afternoon last, became the undisputed champions of the Saugeen league, they having five straight victories to their credit with one game still to play. The fact that they came through the season without having a single defeat chalked against them, bears out the Durham Chronicle's intimation that they were too fast for other ball company in this section. Tommy McNeill, who occupied the pitcher's slab on Saturday, threw some benders over the plate that caused the visitors to swing like a garden gate and fracture the atmosphere with the big stick. Tom is also handy with the bat, the hit of the day being a hot drive from his club over first base for a home run. Hanover has a good team, but their base throwing was wild and helped the locals bring in a few runs that wouldn't have otherwise figured on the program. A score of 14-6 shows how Walkerton pulled ahead in the field on Saturday. The return game was played in Hanover on July 12th. The score being 9-0 in favor of Walkerton.

Shot Himself.

Joseph Sockett, until a few months ago a resident of Owen Sound, committed suicide on Friday by shootin himself in the head with a shotgun. The terrible affair occurred in his own house a short distance from Hepworth. The unfortunate man is said to have been in poor health and had been acting in a peculiar manner for the last two months. Sockett was in the employ of McLaughlan & Sons of Owen Sound all fall and until mid-winter, when he returned to Hepworth to resume his farm. Previous to his employment with McLaughlan's, he was a teamster at the chair factory. Sockett was building a house and had been living at his mother's home across the road. On Friday morning he was preparing with his brother to drive to Owen Sound. He went to his own house, where he committed the terrible deed, and was found by his brother shortly afterwards. Sockett's head was badly mutilated by the discharge of the shotgun, and death must have been instantaneous. The man had been melancholy for some time and had not been in good health. However, he had not given any indication that he would take his own life. He arose on Friday as usual and was fairly bright. Coroner Wigge of Warton viewed the remains and decided that an inquest was unnecessary. The funeral took place on Saturday. The deceased was a married man, and besides his wife he leaves one child. He was a man of thirty-five years of age, and owned a farm. His family is well and favorably known.—Walkerton Telescope.

Flag-Waving Starts Riot.

At an early hour on July 4th, at Winnipeg, the Stars and Stripes were trampled in the dust on Main street at a time when thousands of Winnipeg and other Manitoba soldiers were returning from the annual camp at Sewell, near Brandon, where they had been manoeuvring under Sir Ian Hamilton. The sight of a young man waving a large American flag in the faces of the returning One Hun-dreth Regiment started a small-sized riot. The flag was trampled under the feet of the marching soldiers, and several of those who took part in the free-for-all fight that followed the appearance of the flag received black eyes and cut faces.

When the One Hundredth was near the Union Bank a young waiter stepped up to the curbing and started to wave the flag of his country at the same time shouting, "Hurrah for the American eagle." Instantly the eyes of all were turned upon him, and at the same time Colonel J. B. Mitchel, in command of the regiment, ordered one of his men to request the patriotic young American to put away the flag. The soldier started to obey, but before he could reach the American several civilians had preceded him and one of them grabbed the flag and threw into the street.

Before it could be rescued it was badly torn. The soldiers preserved perfect order, however, and marched on as though nothing had happened.

Another Scene at Moose Jaw. Waving two American flags on Main street, an American was set upon by a score of youths. The Stars and Stripes were trampled into dirty rags and the American enthusiast was rolled in the mud. The street was in an ideal condition for the crowd's purpose. Later an American attempted to raise a flag on the top of a lamp post. It was torn down and a free fight ensued.

Earlier in the day fifty Americans, waving flags, attempted to march up Main street. Fearing a riot, the police turned them back to the place where they had been celebrating.

At Vancouver two citizens of the United States plucked a miniature Union Jack from a standing automobile and trampled it in the mud. In a few minutes a crowd of a thousand people gathered, and the offenders were badly maltreated, being saved from serious injury by the police. The affair occurred in a congested district in the east end where there is a large alien population, and a serious riot was narrowly averted.
