PROGRESS OF THE WAR

During the past week the fighting in the western theatre of the war has consisted of a series of attacks and counter attacks, each side having made gains and losses; but the advantage probably has been with the Germans, though they have gained nothing of prime importance.

In the eastern European field, however, the case is different, for there the German and Austrian forces have been entirely successful. Abandoning for a time their direct attack on Warsaw, they concentrated enormous forces in East Prussia with the result that the Russians have had to retire to their own territory.

The news of operations in Trans-Caucasia has been most meagre, and neither side claims any great success. The very Russians, for had the Turks achieved any advantage it would have been made known and in a greatly exaggerated form.

Some further attacks have been made by the Turks on the Suez Canal, but they have been repelled by the British forces. From the Balkan States no news of any special importance has been received, beyond that of the explosion by bombs from Austrian aeroplanes of a Serbian magazine on the Danube east of Belgrade.

Of naval engagements proper there is nothing to record, but a remarkable attack by British aviators, supported by small gunboats, on Ostend and Zeebrugge which is now being used as a base by the German submarines, their most extensive and important ever yet attempted. What damage resulted to the enemy is not yet definitely known, though it must have been considerable.

The aviators returned to their base without the loss of life, but without damage to their own ships. There is no report as to whether the German ships were sunk and some lives lost. To-day is that on which the Germans say they will begin to carry out their threat to attack all ships they encounter, whether British or neutral, carrying supplies of any sort to Great Britain and her Allies. We shall see what we shall see, but it is undoubtedly true, as the Secretary of State for the Navy stated in the House of Commons on Monday, that Great Britain will now make use of all its full power of her navy to cut off all food supplies intended for Germany. The war has reached a critical stage, and it is difficult to understand how some of the neutral Powers can longer maintain their neutrality in view of the situation.

DOMINION BUDGET AND TARIFF CHANGES

The Hon. T. W. White, Minister of Finance, delivered his budget speech in the House of Commons, Ottawa, on Wednesday afternoon, February 11. The estimates of expenditure for the next fiscal year amount to $300,000,000, of which amount $100,000,000 is required for the war. The estimated revenue is put at $120,000,000 from existing taxes; $100,000,000 to be obtained by way of cuts from the Imperial Government; and $80,000,000 to be provided by additional taxes and loans. The additional taxes are made by means of an increase of the tariff on imports to the extent of 7 1/2% on foreign goods and 5% on British goods. The free list, with the exception of comparatively few items, is abolished. A stamp duty is imposed, estimated (though with little available data for guidance) to produce $8,000,000. These two new sources of revenue are estimated to produce $50,000,000 will be raised by way of loans.

The financial proposals have been received with approval generally throughout the Dominion. They mean actual expenditures from revenue for the year of $180,000,000; and an increase of Canada's national debt by a like amount. These figures are stupendous for such a small population as that of Canada at the present time, but considering the resources of the country, and the energy and devoted loyalty of the people, they alarm us not at all. We are not aware of the preservation of our national existence and for the maintenance of the British Empire, and we must and shall provide our share of the necessary means.

PATRIOTISM AND PRODUCTION

In calling the attention of those interested in agriculture to the advertisement with the above caption in another column we must express our appreciation of the efforts of the Hon. Martin Burrell, Canadian Minister of Agriculture, and the Department which he so ably controls, to educate the farmers of the country in the best methods of increasing production. At all times this is a matter of national importance, but at the moment it is vital

TO THE VERY EXISTENCE OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

In organizing a series of conferences throughout the agricultural districts of the Dominion, the Department of Agriculture is making use of the country newspapers to give the fullest publicity to those immediately concerned. The advertising campaign has been placed in the hands of McConnell & Ferguson, Ltd., of Ont., who conduct one of the largest and best equipped advertising agencies in Canada. In the preparation of the advertisements, the first of which appears in this issue, they have been ably assisted by Mr. John M. James, the indefatigable manager of the Canadian Press Association. Every farmer in Charlotte County should read these advertisements as they appear, and especially should make application to the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, for any requisite literature issued by that Department. Most of this literature is furnished gratuitously. We must also commend the work being done by the Provincial Department of Agriculture at Fredericton.

BANQUET IN HONOR OF PREMIER CLARKE

Hon. George J. Clarke, Premier of New Brunswick, was the guest of honor on Thursday evening of last week at a banquet at the Elk's Club, St. John, at which about two hundred and fifty persons were present. The Government were present. A number of addresses were given by prominent persons, among them Premier Clarke, Geo. W. Fowler, M. P., Hon. Dr. Landry, Hon. J. A. Murray, Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, and Hon. John E. Wilson. In the absence of Dr. Thomas Walker, L. P. D. Tilley presided.

Hon. Mr. Clarke made a very eloquent speech, which was well received, and in which he made a political tone for which was noted, but he ended by making patriotic references to what New Brunswick has done and is doing for the support of the Empire, in the war which is now being waged for its existence and for the welfare of the world at large.

Of the other speeches, that of Hon. Mr. Murray, Provincial Minister of Agriculture, was probably the most interesting, treating as it did of the efforts now being made by his Department to educate farmers in the best methods of agriculture and the increase of production from the soil.

ANTIMONY

We have seen recent references in the press to the Antimony Mines at Lake George, which, it would appear, are likely to be started again in view of the high price of antimony now prevailing. This high price is unquestionably due to the war, but it is to be hoped the war will not last forever, and when it ends the price of antimony will very soon revert to its normal level.

The Lake George mines are well-known to all the principal smelters of antimony in Europe, America and Asia; and while they have been idle for so long through the low price of the metal, antimony smelting works in other parts of the world have been increasing their output enormously. The leading refinery of the world is that of Messrs. Cookson at Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, and the second in size and importance is owned and operated solely by Chinese at Changsha, the capital of Hunan Province, China. There is no scarcity of antimony, regarded from a world-wide aspect; and China probably holds the premier position as a source of supply. As long as the Chinese supply holds out it is useless to expect high prices for antimony under normal peace conditions; for cheap labor combined with the most expert knowledge of the metallurgy of the metal, and an abundance of ore, will combine with cheap transport and fuel, and produce material. These mines, however, are relatively greater than in that of any other metal (due rather to the limited quantity used and the uncertainty of market requirements than to any scarcity or difficulty in obtaining it), the antimony business is largely speculative.

The chief difficulty (there may be others) in the way of the Lake George mines is the high cost of labor, transport, fuel and fusing material. These mines could never compete with China, where a technical expert in charge of smelting works producing 3000 tons of "star" metal per annum receives a salary of less than $500 a year, and skilled workmen not more than 15 cents to 20 cents a day. If the mines at Lake George could be operated by one or other of the large English refiners they might be made to yield a profit; but it is very doubtful if they could ever otherwise become a permanent and profitable undertaking. The metallurgy of antimony is less generally known than that of any other metal; and those who do know it keep the secret to themselves. Investment of money in antimony mines can hardly be considered safe for the ordinary unformed investor.

CHAMCOOK SARDINE FACTORY TO START AGAIN

A party of seven, composed of the following gentlemen—E. F. Pitman and H. M. Hare, Boston, J. Spencer Smith, Tenally, N. Y., M. J. Falson and W. C. Falson, Gloucester, Mass., T. E. Libby, Vinalhaven, Me., and J. J. Piper, Townsend, Mass., representing the Lane-Libby Fisheries Co., of Boston, Mass., who have acquired control of the Canadian Sardine Company's plant at Chamcook, arrived here on Saturday last to make an inspection of the mammoth works at Chamcook. Plans are now being prepared for freezing, canning and general fish business similar to that now in operation by the Lane-Libby Co. in Portland, Me., and in Gloucester, Mass. The Company is composed of practical men of long experience in the fish business, and they are certain to make of their new acquisition at Chamcook an industry that will prove of great benefit to St. Andrews, and to Charlotte County at large.

The members of the party returned to their homes by Monday night train. We hope soon to be able to record that the Chamcook plant, which has been idle for so long, has resumed operations.

ARCHBISHOP WORRELL

The Right Rev. C. L. Worrell, Bishop of Nova Scotia, was unanimously selected archbishop of the ecclesiastical province of Canada, comprising the Maritime Provinces, at the meeting of the General Synod in Halifax, Feb. 10.

THE NEWSPAPER WORLD

The newspapers of Canada have probably been struck harder by the present war than any other industry or enterprise in Canada. Three months of the war put the Vancouver World out of business. Its creditors were heavily despite the fact that the World was one of the most widely-circulated papers in that province.

The Winnipeg Telegram, which issued a morning and afternoon edition, announced that the morning issue would hereafter be discontinued. The reduction in advertising and the expense of telegraph tolls compelled the suspension of one of the issues.

The Regina Weekly and The Regina Leader have also followed the example of the Winnipeg contemporary. Coming nearer home we note that quite recently there was an ambitious attempt to start a second daily in New Glasgow. It passed out of life after an existence of only six or six months. The shrinkage of advertising in Canada—a newspaper's chief source of revenue—in the past six months has totalled nearly twenty million dollars. This includes home and foreign advertising.

In ordinary industries or mercantile establishments there is a change to economize when the revenue declines; but it is not so with a newspaper. With it a declining revenue almost inevitably means an increasing expenditure. If the war lasts many months the newspapers throughout Canada will have to begin considering ways and means to meet a difficult situation.—Yarmouth Telegram.

AN ANGLO-AMERICAN HYMN

TWO empires by the sea, Two nations great and free, One tongue, one faith, we claim: One God, whose glorious name We love and praise.

What deeds our fathers wrought, What battles we have fought, Let fame record. Now, vengeful passion, cease, Come, victories of peace, Nor hate nor pride's caprice Unhath the sword.

Though deep the sea and wide Twixt realm and realm, its tide Brinds strand to strand. So be the gulf between Grey coast and island green, With bonds of peace serene And friendship spanned.

Now, may the God above Guard the dear lands we love, Both East and West. Let love more fervent glow, As peaceful ages go, And strength yet stronger grow, Blessing and best.
