AGREEMENT BETWEEN CANADA AND NEW ZEALAND FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBLE TAXATION AND THE PREVENTION OF FISCAL EVASION WITH RESPECT TO TAXES ON INCOME.

Signed at Ottawa, March 12, 1948

The Government of Canada and the Government of New Zealand, desiring to conclude an agreement for the avoidance of double taxation and the prevention of fiscal evasion with respect to taxes on income, have agreed as follows:-

ARTICLE I

- (1) The taxes which are the subject of the present Agreement are-
- (a) In Canada:

The income taxes, including surtaxes imposed by the Government of Canada (hereinafter referred to as "Canadian tax").

(b) In New Zealand:

The income-tax and the social security charge (hereinafter referred to as "New Zealand tax").

(2) The present Agreement shall also apply to any other taxes of a substantially similar character imposed by either Contracting Government subsequently to the date of signature of the present Agreement or by the Government of any territe territory to which the present Agreement is extended under Article XV.

ARTICLE II

- (1) In the present Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires—
- (a) The term "New Zealand" includes all islands and territories within the limits thereof for the time being, including the Cook Islands.
- (b) The terms "one of the territories" and "the other territory" mean New Zealand or Canada, as the context requires.
- (c) The term "tax" means New Zealand tax or Canadian tax, as the context requires.
- (d) The term "person" includes any body of persons, corporate or not corporate. (e) The term "company" includes any body corporate.
- (f) The terms "resident of New Zealand" and "resident of Canada" mean respectively any person who is resident in New Zealand for the purposes of New Zealand tax and not resident in Canada for the purposes of Canadian tax and any person who is resident in Canada for the purposes of Canadian tax and not resident in New Zealand for the purposes of New Zealand tax; and a company shall be regarded as resident in New Zealand if its business is managed and controlled in New Zealand and as resident in Canada if its business is managed and controlled in Canada. (g)

The terms "resident of one of the territories" and "resident of the other territory" mean a person who is a resident of New Zealand or a person who is a resident of Canada, as the context requires.

ARTICLE XIV to the laubiving

(1) The taxation authorities of the Contracting Governments shall exchange such information (being information available under the respective taxation laws of the Contracting Governments) as is necessary for carrying out the provisions of the present Agreement or for the prevention of fraud or for the administration of statutory provisions against legal avoidance in relation to the taxes which are the subject of the present Agreement. Any information so exchanged shall be treated as secret and shall not be disclosed to any persons other than those concerned with the assessment and collection of the taxes which are the subject of the present Agreement. No information shall be exchanged which would disclose any trade secret or trade process.

(2) The taxation authorities of the Contracting Governments may consult together as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the present Agreement and, in particular, the provisions of Articles III and IV.

(3) As used in this Article, the term "taxation authorities" means, in the case of Canada, the Minister of National Revenue or his authorized representative; in the case of New Zealand, the Commissioner of Taxes or his authorized representative; and, in the case of any territory to which the present Agreement is extended under Article XV, the competent authority for the administration in such territory of the taxes to which the present Agreement applies.

ARTICLE XV

(1) Either of the Contracting Governments may, on the coming into force of the present Agreement or at any time thereafter while it continues in force, by a written notification of extension given to the other Contracting Government, declare its desire that the operation of the present Agreement shall extend, subject to such modification as may be necessary, to all or any of its colonies, overseas territories, protectorates, or territories in respect of which it exercises a mandate or trusteeship, or to all or any of the colonies, overseas territories protectorates of the other Contracting Government, or territories in respect of which the other Contracting Government exercises a mandate or trusteeship, which impose taxes substantially similar in character to those which are the subject of the present Agreement. The present Agreement shall, subject to such modifications (if any) as may be specified in the notification apply to the territory or territories named in such notification on the date or dates specified in the notification (not being less than sixty days from the date of the notification tion) or, if no date is specified in respect of any such territory, on the sixtieth day after the date of the notification, unless, prior to the date on which the Agreement would otherwise become applicable to a particular territory, the Contracting Government to whom notification is given shall have informed the other Contracting Government in writing that it does not accept the notification as to that territory. In the absence of such extension, the present Agreement shall not apply to any such territory.

(2) At any time after the expiration of one year from the entry into force of an extension under paragraph (1) of this Article, either of the Contracting Governments may, by written notice of termination given to the other Contracting Government, terminate the application of the present Agreement to any territory to which it has been extended under paragraph (1), and in that event the present Agreement shall cease to apply, six months after the date of the notice, to the territory or territories named therein, but without affecting its continued application to Canada, New Zealand or to any other territory to which it has been extended under paragraph (1) hereof.

(3) In the application of the present Agreement in relation to any territory to which it is extended by notification by New Zealand or Canada, references to "New Zealand" or, as the case may be, "Canada" shall be construed as reference to that territory.

(4) The termination in respect of Canada or New Zealand of the present Agreement under Article XVIII shall, unless otherwise expressly agreed by both Contracting Governments, terminate the application of the present Agreement to any territory to which the Agreement has been extended by Canada or New Zealand.

ARTICLE XVI 10 Insurance of and to T

The present Agreement shall come into force on the date on which the last of all such things shall have been done in New Zealand and Canada as are necessary to give the Agreement the force of law in New Zealand and Canada respectively,* and shall thereupon have effect—

- (a) in Canada as respects income taxes, including surtaxes, for the taxation year 1948 and subsequent years;
- (b) in New Zealand, as respects income-tax for the year of assessment beginning on the 1st day of April, 1949, and subsequent years; as respects social security charge on salaries and wages as from the first day of April, 1948; and as respects social security charge on income other than salaries and wages for the financial year beginning on the first day of April, 1948, and subsequent years.

ARTICLE XVII

The present Agreement shall be deemed to have superseded the Agreement made on the 3rd day of November, 1945, between the Government of New Zealand and the Government of Canada for reciprocal exemption from income tax in certain cases of profits or gains accruing through an agency, and that Agreement shall cease to have effect—

- (a) in Canada, for the taxation year 1948 and subsequent years;
- (b) in New Zealand for the year of assessment beginning on the 1st day of April, 1949, and subsequent years.

* June 30, 1948.
