LATIN AMERICA AND THE CARIBBEAN (LAC): CANADIAN DEVELOPMENT ASSISTANCE (CDA)

.Over the period 1988-1989/1997-1998, Canadian development assistance (CDA) to Latin America and the Caribbean (LAC) declined substantially (from $248,069K to $148,339K).

.The distribution of CDA among countries shifted as the vast majority of recipients (26 of 33 surveyed) suffered decreases of varying proportions, while a few (six) experienced increases.

Canadian Development Assistance by LAC Country

.In 1997-1998, Haiti was the greatest single CDA recipient in LAC, absorbing $41,593K, and one of the few experiencing an increase (from $15,492K in 1988-1989).

.Peru was a distant second, with $22,761K (down from $29,981K in 1988-1989).

.Cuba ranked third. It was also one of the few to receive an increase, proportionately very large (from $75K, virtually nil, to $10,764K).

.Other major (with $5,000K or more) 1997-1998 recipients benefiting from increases were El Salvador and Guatemala. CDA to El Salvador surged from $75K to $7,413K. Guatemala experienced a doubling, from $3,507K to $7,418K.

.The remaining major 1997-1998 recipients experienced large declines. Jamaica, the leading recipient at the beginning of the survey period, saw a drop from $54,122K to $5,855K.

.Colombia, initially in third place, showed a decline from $21,419K to -$3,401K, making it the only country with a negative figure.

Canadian Development Assistance By LAC Region

.CDA over the survey period declined sharply for every region except North America (Mexico).

.CDA to North America (Mexico) rose by one-third, from $2,984K in 1988-1989 to $4,001K in 1997-1998. The latter figure represented a decline from the 1992-1993 peak of $7,124K. Mexico remained by far the smallest CDA recipient of any region.

.The Caribbean absorbed the largest amount of CDA in 1997-1998 ($61,429K, down from $101,008K in 1988-1989). Of countries regularly receiving CDA, all except Haiti and Cuba experienced steep decreases over the survey period. Haiti's allocation rose sharply from $15,492K to $41,593K, making Haiti the overwhelmingly dominant recipient, with two-thirds of the regional total. Cuba's allocation soared from $75K in 1988-1989 to $10,764K in 1997-1998, leaving it in second place.

.The next-most significant recipient in 1997-1998 was initial leader Jamaica (with $5,855K, down steeply from $54,122K in 1988-1989). Several Caribbean countries almost ceased to be aid recipients. These included, notably, Grenada (with a fall from $4,998K to $75K), St. Kitts & Nevis (with a decline from $4,091K to $19K), and St. Vincent (with a shrinkage from $1,197K to $25K). The Bahamas was the only country to receive no CDA, at the beginning or the end of the survey period (it received small amounts in 1994-1995 and 1995-1996).

.South America was the second-ranking recipient region in 1997-1998, accounting for $50,171K (down from $95,015K in 1988-1989). Within the region, Peru was the leader by far (absorbing $22,761K in 1997-1998, down from $29,981K in 1988-1989). Bolivia came a distant second, with $7,874K (down from $10,191K). These were followed by a cluster consisting of Brazil (with $5,834K, down from $9,315K), Ecuador (with $5,244K, up from $3,542K), and Guyana (with $5,209K, down from $6,612K). Ecuador was the only major recipient experiencing an increase. Colombia, initially the second-ranking recipient after Peru, suffered the greatest proportionate decline (from $21,419K to $3,401K).

.Central America saw an overall CDA decline, from $49,062K to $32,738K, over the survey period. Every regional country, except El Salvador and Guatemala, experienced a decrease. CDA rose, in El Salvador, from $505K to $7,413K and, in Guatemala, from $3,507K to $7,418K. Honduras, however, received the largest amount of CDA in 1997-1998 ($8,639K, down from $12,591K in 1988-1989). Nicaragua also absorbed a significant amount ($6,421K, down from $16,013K).

Canadian Development Assistance by LAC Trade Group

.Over the survey period, CDA declined substantially for every trade group except North America (Mexico).

.CDA to North America (Mexico) rose by one-third, from $2,984K in 1988-1989 to a peak of $7,213K in 1992-1993, and then fell to $4,001K in 1997-1998.

.The leading recipient of CDA in 1997-1998 was the Andean Community, accounting for $33,366K (down from $66,305K in 1988-1989). Of this, Peru, the most important single aid destination within the Community, absorbed $22,761K (down from $29,981K in 1988-1989). Bolivia, a distant second, received $7,874K (down from $10,191K).

Third-ranking Ecuador, the only Community member with an increase, received $5,244K (up from $3,542K in 1988-1989). Colombia suffered the greatest proportionate fall, from $21,419K to -$3,401K.

The Group of Three received the smallest amount of CDA in 1997-1998. As indicated, Mexico absorbed $4,001K (up from $2,984K), while Colombia suffered a steep fall, from $21,419K to -$3,401K. Venezuela accounted for only $888K, down from $1,172K.

The CACM almost equalled leader Andean Community as an aid recipient in 1997-1998, accounting for $31,471K (down from $46,472K in 1988-8989). Within the region, Costa Rica received a conspicuously small amount ($1,580K, down from $13,856K), with the vast bulk of aid divided, in broadly comparable measure, among the four other group members.

Of these, two experienced decreases. First-ranking Honduras absorbed $8,639K in 1997-1998, down from $12,591K in 1988-1989. Nicaragua, the initial leader, received $6,421K, down from $16,013K. On the other hand, Guatemala saw its CDA more than double, rising from $3,507K in 1988-89 to $7,418K in 1997-1998. El Salvador, over the same period, experienced a much steeper increase, from $505K in to $7,413K (albeit the 1988-1989 base year, for El Salvador, showed an extraordinary low relative to immediately preceding years).

CARICOM suffered the greatest proportionate CDA decline of any group, from $90,635K in 1988-1989 to $14,072K in 1997-1998. Within the Community, only Suriname saw an increase (from $116K to $220K). Among other Community members, the leading 1997-1998 recipient, Jamaica, suffered a decline from $54,122K to $5,855K. Close follower Guyana experienced a proportionately much smaller decrease, from $6,612K to $5,209K.

Among several Community members almost ceasing to be aid recipients were Grenada (with a fall from $4,998K to $75K), St. Kitts & Nevis (with a decline from $4,091K to $19K), and St. Vincent (with a shrinkage from $1,197K to $25K). The Bahamas received nil CDA at the beginning or the end of the survey period (although small amounts were provided in 1994-1995 and 1995-1996).
